The pardon of Lieut, Charles M. Pendleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pendleton of Atlanta, Ga., from a prison in the Philippines, has been annonuced. Lieutenant Pendleton was convicted eight years ago on the charge of killing a Filipino. American intervention was impossible, but a number of influential Filipinos put up a cash bond of $10,000 in gold, and he was engaged in railroad work for six years before he was sent to prison.

In a report on the Panama canal and pan-American trade, John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American union, who recently made a trip through Europe to study what European governments and commercial interests are doing to get ready for the opening of the canal, declares that every important port of Great Britain, France, Germany, Spain, Italy, Austria, Holland and Belgium "is being improved to the highest degree of efficiency for over-sea commerce."

Gen. Emiliano Zapata, the Mexican rebel chief who is threatening to attack Mexico City, gives his reasons for his uprising against President Madero in a statement forwarded from his camp at Yautepec Morelos. He says he has 18,000 men under arms in eighteen states of Mexico, and that if intervention comes he will kill every American in Mexico. Then he will enter the City of Mexico, but it will be to join the Federal army to fight the Northern invaders.

The most sanguinary engagement of the war in Tripoli was fought near Derne, a town on the Mediterranean coast, 140 miles northeast of Bengazi. The Italians lost 61 men and 113 wounded.
