The Chatham Record A. LONDON, Editor.

NEXT to the gratification which all Democrats feel over Woodrew Wilson's election to the presidency is the joyful realization of the fact that the next Congress will be Democratic in both branches. While the Democratic majority in the Senate may be small, yet a number of Progressive Republicans, it is thought, will cooperate with the Democrats in real tariff revision and in other needful legislation. The House of Representatives will have the largest Democratic majority in 50 years, that being nearly 300 Democrats of the 435 members in the House. Former Speaker Joe Cannon, and Wm. B. McKinley, Taft's pre-convention campaign manager, (both of Illinois) were among the large number of Republican Congressmen who were swept out of office by the great Democratic landslide. Among other promiment Republican Congressmen defeated was Caleb Powers (one of the Goebel assassinators of Kentucky) who was beaten by his Progressive opponent. Berger, the Socialist member from Milwankee, was also defeated.

THE result of the recent election fully demonstrated the wonderful personality and influence of Col. Roosevelt, and would seem to indicate that he would have been elected if he had been neminated by the regular Republican convention. His race seems quite remarkable when we conto him not only all the party ma- the most impressive character. chinery of the Republican party, Who would have thought, some but the crowds cheered, as, with burnfederal patronage, of all the fed- could have occurred? eral officers throughout the United States. By many his political principles were considered as dangerous vagaries, and then, above all, he had to contend with the "third term" precedent which no doubt deterred many thousands from voting for him-And yet with all these handi-

The above results are practically in line with a prediction made by the National Prohibition candidate, Chafin, in a speech made the week before the election. His prediction was that Wilson would carry 40 States, Roosevelt 5, Taft 3 and he and Debs, the Socialist candidate, would "divide the balance."
