—And still another snow, but not very much. On last Thursday snow fell in large flakes at this place for about two hours just after midday, but melted as fast as it fell.

It is certain that no corn will be planted in this county next week, and yet we well remember that, before the war, one of the most successful farmers in the county (Mr. Ambrose Eubanks) used to begin planting corn on Monday of March court, which was the third Monday in March. It used to be said of him that so determined was he to begin planting then that he would scrape away the snow, which sometimes then covered the ground, and plant a few grains.

Mr. H. A. London, Jr., of Charlotte, is here on a short visit to his parents.

A called meeting of the "42" club will be held next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Mrs. Ernest Farrell's. Members are requested to bring the old club books.

Superior Court. The March term of the superior court of this county will be held next week for the trial of civil actions only. No case of much importance will be tried.

This term is a new one added by the last Legislature and is held exactly at the same time that our spring term of the superior court used to be held before the adoption of the new constitution of 1868. Prior to that time only two terms of the superior court were held, one on the third Monday in March and the other on the third Monday in September.

There were also four terms of the court of pleas and quarter sessions, which were presided over by three justices of the peace elected by the other justices of the county from their body.

The presiding judge will be Hon. R. B. Peebles, who held our last term in January, and will also hold our May term.

Sale of Lots. Last Thursday was the day appointed for the sale at auction of the old Womack place in the southern part of this town, which had been divided into 40 lots, each lot being fifty by ninety feet, except the lot on which stood the dwelling, which lot was much larger.

Just after the auction began the rain began to fall and soon poured so hard that the sale had to be discontinued after only twelve lots had been sold, which had brought $1138, including the dwelling. The latter was bought by Mr. S. D. Johnson at $800, which is the same price paid by his father for the entire place a few years ago. A brass band was present and enlivened the occasion with stirring music, and possibly encouraged the bidders.

The sale of the remaining lots will be had next Tuesday, when some spirited bidding is expected. Those who bought lots last week seem to be much pleased with their bargains, and a large crowd of bidders is expected next Tuesday.

Postmaster Appointed. On last Friday President Wilson nominated to the Senate Mrs. Lula F. Bland as postmaster at this place, and the Senate will confirm the nomination in a few days, or probably before this reaches our readers. She will continue to use the present old postoffice until some better building is secured. As this is now a Presidential office, the government will pay the rent for a building.

Mrs. Bland is a daughter of the late William F. Foushee, who for many years was clerk of our superior court, and she is the widow of Mr. Robert W. Bland, who was at one time chairman of our board of county commissioners. For several years she has been the assistant postmaster at this place and is familiar with the duties of the office, and her petition for the position was signed by a large majority of the patrons of the office.

Her assistant will be Mrs. Mary Barber after the end of the present session of our graded school, in which she has been a teacher for several years.

B. and L. Associations.

The practical benefits of building and loan associations were illustrated here last month, when $5,000 were paid to some of our townsmen by the Mutual Building and Loan Association of Charlotte. This nice sum was received by its owners like so much money picked up in the road, and had accumulated without anybody feeling the monthly payments which had been made to secure it.

Building and loan associations not only enable many men of moderate means to buy their homes, but they are also safe and paying investments for those who wish to lay by a little every month. A man pays 25 cents a week on one share for about six years and a third, paying out in that time about $83, and then receives $100. He not only gets good interest on his investment, but it accumulates from such small payments that he does not miss them.

June Clegg Dead. June Clegg, one of the best known colored men of this community, died here last Saturday after a week's sickness with pneumonia. For thirty-five years he had been the cook at the Exline hotel at this place, and was one of the best cooks in this county, and was quite a favorite with the hundreds of travelling salesmen who had enjoyed his cooking and who will regret to hear of his death.

He was fifty-seven years old and was senior warden of St. James (Episcopal) mission for the colored people at this place, and was also a prominent member of the colored Odd Fellows, a large number of whom attended his funeral. He was popular with both white and colored, and was well thought of by all who knew him.

Historical Medal. We are requested to call attention again to the fact that the Winnie Davis Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy will give a handsome gold medal to that student of any of the schools of this county who will write the best essay on North Carolina's Confederate history.

All essays must be sent in by the 13th of April and be not less than 1500 words in length.

The object of awarding this prize is to stimulate the children of Chatham to study and learn something about the part played by this state in the war between the states. No state in the South has a more glorious war record than this state, and the children of the state ought to learn all about it that they can learn.

To the Housewife. Madam, if your husband is like most men he expects you to look after the health of yourself and children. Colds and coughs are the most common of the minor ailments and are most likely to lead to serious diseases.

Child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when it has a cold. If you will inquire into the merits of the various remedies that are recommended for coughs and colds, you will find that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy stands high in the estimation of people who use it. It is prompt and effectual, pleasant and safe to take, which are qualities especially to be desired when a medicine is intended for children. For sale by all dealers. adv

Teachers' Meeting. There will be held a county teachers' meeting at Siler City on Saturday, the 21st of this month, at 11 o'clock a. m., to which all teachers of the county are cordially invited to come, and those west of center of the county are expected to be present.

S. C. Brogden, supervisor of elementary schools, will deliver an address.

R. P. JOHNSON, Corresponding Secretary.

THE SCHOOL NEWS.

MISS HENRIETTA MORGAN, Class Editor.

Misses Henrietta Morgan and Mabel Thomas were too unwell to attend school Friday.

Miss Lillian Ray has been out of school for several days nursing a case of whooping cough.

A tennis court is soon to add its share to the livelihood of our school. We hope this will induce some of our pupils to take more out-door exercise. Thanks to the girls.

We don't think the groundhog would be very kindly received if he were to make his appearance on the streets now.

It takes a great deal of pluck for pupils to maintain a perfect attendance record through such weather as we have been having, yet several of ours have done it. Miss Olivia Burns, during the two years she has attended school here, has never been absent nor tardy. You can not expect anything less than success for girls and boys who form such habits.

Don't you think a good laugh would do you good? Well, that is what you are going to get when you see "Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard."

Several of the pupils have entered the contest for the medal offered by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

This afternoon at the regular meeting of the society the triangular debate boys will lock horns on the initiative and referendum. This will be a preliminary to the debates with Pleasant Garden and Carthage on the evening of the 20th.

Every Wednesday we have a lesson spent on "The Literary Digest" instead of our regular history lesson. Our principal purpose in studying this interesting magazine is to learn modern history—the history that is being made now. If we study the steps of development we surely want to know the latest outcome. Yet not only history but also much science and English can be learned from the magazine.

I find that they are pleased with it and call for it when again in need of such a medicine." writes J. W. Baxson, Montevideo, Mo. For sale by all dealers. adv

Alarming Fire Loss.

Notwithstanding this country has the best fire fighting equipment in the world, it each year loses more than two hundred millions of dollars by fire. This is four or five times as much as is lost in all the European countries. The president of one of the fire insurance companies has said that if the loss by fire in this country could be cut down to seventy-five millions a year, the saving would be equivalent to adding a billion of dollars to the wealth of the country every ten years. The conditions are bad, but better than in former years, for concrete and steel are to some extent protecting cities from the holocausts of former days.

Sanford "Express." Many colored people in Sanford own their own homes. A number of the more thrifty ones also own dwellings which they rent out to others. Much of this property has been acquired by them during the past few years. They accumulated this money with which this property was bought by economizing and saving their earnings.
