The mails are being flooded with whiskey circulars from cities in Virginia.

The civic league will meet at the residence of Mrs. Charles Miner at 3 o'clock next Friday afternoon.

If you want to buy an overcoat or a suit of clothes we can save you money. See us before you buy.—W. L. London & Son. adv

Prove tomorrow the sincerity of your thanks by trying to give cause for others to give thanks. Remember the poor and needy.

Only one month from today until Christmas, but to the impatient small boy that one month will seem like it is the longest of the year.

Up to the 1st of this month 3550 bales of cotton were ginned in this county, compared with 4,200 bales ginned up to the 1st of November last year.

Many a proudly stepping turkey will utter its last gobble today, and tomorrow will be the chief attraction at the Thanksgiving Day dinner.

If there was any doubt last spring as to the proper time to take 'em off, there is no doubt that last week was the proper time to put 'em on.

Go to R. J. Moore's to do your trading. He will buy your produce at a fair price and sell you goods as cheap as any one can sell the same quality.

There will be special Thanksgiving Day services tomorrow night at the Baptist church at this place, and a collection will be taken up for the Thomasville Orphanage.

We sell Godman's, Walk-Over, Queen Quality and Endicott-Johnson Shoes. These make stand for the best in shoes. Every pair guaranteed.—W. L. London & Son. adv

It is to be regretted that all our farmers did not finish sowing their wheat before the recent cold weather interfered. Before that they had an unusually favorable fall for sowing wheat.

Mr. George S. Moore is going into the business of raising chickens at this place, and for that purpose has bought two incubators by which he will hatch several hundred in a short time.

Many a fat porker utters its last squeal these frosty mornings. Who has killed or who will kill the heaviest? Send in your returns of weight. The largest one killed here thus far was killed last Monday by Mr. R. A. Glenn and it weighed 389 pounds.

We much regret to hear of the death of Mr. William Womble, who died last Sunday at his home at Lockville, aged 75 years. He was a volunteer in the old Chatham Rifles, the first company from this county to enlist in the Confederate army, and there was no better or braver soldier in that army.

Our Chatham rabbits are now coming into market in mighty good time and are the cheapest meat that our people can eat. They sell here at ten cents apiece and one rabbit will furnish enough meat for one meal for an ordinary family, while enough pork or beef would cost three times that much.

This morning at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. John L. Luther, of Wake county, and Miss Grace Beckwith, a daughter of Mr. N. W. Beckwith, of New Hope township, were married by Rev. W. S. Olive. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple drove to Apex where they got on the Seaboard train for a trip to Richmond, Virginia. THE RECORD extends its best wishes for many years of wedded bliss.

As required by law there is published in this issue the annual statement of the amounts paid to our county commissioners during the fiscal year, ending this month, and from it we are pleased to note that they were in session only fifteen days during the past year. This is about one-half the number of days that our commissioners have been in session for many years past, and the present board deserves commendation for this reform.

The Yukon river in Alaska is one of the great rivers of the North American continent. Probably few people have an adequate conception of the size of this river and characteristics of its flow. A. H. Brooks, of the Geological Survey, gives the Yukon fifth place among the large rivers in North America.

Rev. H. O. Nash, now of Southern Pines, will hold services in the Episcopal church at this place at 7:30 o'clock next Sunday night. He is pleasantly remembered here as a former pastor of that church.

Evening of Fun.

The citizens of this community will have the opportunity tonight to "laugh and grow fat" by going to the school auditorium and hearing Dr. Charles Lane, who will give the first of the series of entertainments to be given here this winter under the auspices of the Alkaherst Lyceum System, of Atlanta. Prof. Lane is reported by the papers where he has appeared as being the most entertaining humorist in the South and can put "more genuine, clean, fresh fun into an hour than any other man."

The Atlanta Journal says: "Hear him and you will get a new lease on life." The Montgomery Advertiser says: "Prof. Lane's facial expressions are fine, his gestures conspicuously suggestive, and his sense of humor so keen that he can drill it into the most obtuse. His listeners were so perfectly under his control that he could say laugh and they would go into convulsions."

The exercises will begin promptly at 8 o'clock tonight. Admission fifty cents for adults and 25 cents for children. adv

Wintry Weather.

Never before have we known such severe wintry weather in November as was experienced here the latter part of last week. Winter came upon us with a suddenness and severity never before known here. The first day of last week was in most striking contrast with the last day. On Sunday, the 15th, it was warm enough to go without fires, but on Saturday, the 21st, it was as cold as we rarely ever have seen it in midwinter, the thermometer early that morning indicating a temperature as low as twelve degrees above zero. We doubt if the "oldest inhabitant" ever knew so cold a morning on the 21st of November.

Not only did we have such very cold weather but this section was visited on last Friday morning with the deepest snow that we have ever before known so early as the 20th of November. It came too so unexpectedly, for the sun set the evening before as clear as could be, with every indication of fair weather for several days. Greatly surprised then was everybody next morning when they awoke and found snow on the ground and the air filled with the fleecy snowflakes falling fast and furious, which soon covered the earth to the depth of four or five inches. While this snow caused some suffering with those not prepared for it, yet it was a great help for the wheat that had been sowed and no doubt was greatly welcomed by many of our farmers.

This early snow was quite general over this state, but did not extend to many other states in the south, although the temperature was colder in Alabama, Georgia, and some other states than had ever before been experienced so early in the season. It would seem that winter had sprung upon us so suddenly and severely in order to take revenge for the very delightful weather we had enjoyed all the previous weeks of this autumn. If November has given us such wintry weather, what will December, or January or February give us?

Mill Operatives Not Illiterate. From The News and Observer.

Out of eight-four furniture factories doing business in North Carolina during the past year forty-four of them report improvement in financial conditions, twenty of them report no apparent change, and ten do not express an opinion.

These are facts brought out in the report of Commissioner of Labor and Printing M. L. Shipman, who is now preparing his annual report of industrial conditions in North Carolina. "There are other facts brought out, too, facts which cause confidence in the health of the industry."

Out of the eighty-four factories reported, sixty-six reported increase in salaries during the year, and seventeen no change.

Ninety per cent of the employees of the furniture factories of the state can read and write. Thus far in the industrial reports the highest reported literacy in an industry was 99.5 per cent. This was in case of the silk mills of the state. The cotton mills showed that 97 per cent could read and write. The cordage mills had an average of 98.3. The knitting mills showed a percentage in this report of 97.

The steam schooner Hanalei, ashore on Duxbury reef, on the California coast, broke in two early Tuesday morning with 53 souls aboard. Five swam ashore. Thirteen others were rescued. There seemed small hope for any others.

Biggest Loan War. London, Nov. 24.—Lists of subscriptions to the greatest war loan in history amounting to 350,000,000 pounds sterling ($1,750,000,000), or rather more than half the total of the British national debt, were closed this afternoon and the loan, it is freely stated in the city, will be a great success, although no official figures as yet are available.

Coming at a time when the London stock exchange is closed and immediately after $300,000,000 of fresh taxation had been imposed, the result is considered remarkable.

Methodist Appointments.

At the recent annual session of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, Rev. J. T. Gibbs was appointed presiding elder of this (the Fayetteville) district. His many friends here of all denominations are much pleased that Rev. W. F. Craven has been retained as pastor of the Pittsboro circuit.

We note among other appointments the following in this county: Rev. M. D. Giles in charge of the Goldston circuit, Rev. T. H. Sutton in charge of the Siler City circuit and Rev. W. E. Brown in charge of the Haw River circuit.

Raleigh Helps Belgians.

Raleigh, Nov. 22.—A cash contribution of $1,533 was realized this afternoon through a mass meeting of citizens of Raleigh held to launch a movement for a relief fund for the homeless and starving Belgians and plans were projected that will still further swell the fund on the part of this community.

There was also announcement made that of the schools of the city St. Mary's students have raised $140, Peace Institute $38, A. and M. College $94 and Meredith College $388.

The mass meeting was attended by 3,000 or more people and was presided over by Mayor Jas. I. Johnson.

There were addresses by Gov. Craig and Dr. W. L. Poter, of Wake Forest College. Also there was a table talk by Prof. A. Vermont, of Smithfield, a native Belgian, who has enlisted his services for procuring relief for his suffering people. He declared that if anyone had told him a few months ago that it was possible for his native country to be so completely destroyed and his people driven out homeless and starving he would not have believed it. But the awful reality exists. He told of an aged mother 80 years old and other near relatives possibly homeless and refugees. He declared magnanimously that he does not believe Emperor William wished to visit such terrible disaster on Belgium but that the condition had come as one of the terrors of war. He believed that if it is true that "war is hell" there was then never a country to whose lot had fallen so great a portion of it as Belgium.

Pitiable Condition of Belgians. London, Nov. 20.—Notwithstanding the extensive relief work already done in Belgium, conditions there are becoming more serious. Jean Van Branden, of the Belgian National Relief Committee who arrived here today from Brussels, said refugees were pouring into that city at the rate of 25,000 a day.

"This influx," he said, "is due to a lack of fuel as well as food. Brussels has plenty of coal, but interruption of transportation makes it impossible to carry it to remote villages. Refugees also are flocking to Liege and other large towns. "The people are dependent entirely on kerosene for heating and cooking and the supply of this fuel also is becoming scarce. "The committee now is supplying 600,000 meals daily in Brussels to 300,000 persons. These meals consist of potato soup, some rice and a piece of bread. At first the allowance of bread was six ounces daily, but this has been reduced to three ounces. Even the rich find it almost impossible to obtain bread in Brussels and soon the whole population will form into a vast bread line."

Forest Fires in Arkansas. Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 23.—Fanned by a brisk wind, forest fires are raging in every section of Arkansas tonight. Large tracts of timber have been destroyed, and telephone and telegraph poles burned. Vegetation is dry as tinder. Railroad men are patrolling the tracks and beating back the fires.

Fifteen fires are reported between Hot Springs and Little Rock, a distance of 60 miles. Hot Springs reports fires from the south creeping toward the city and hurried measures of safety are being taken. In southwestern Arkansas farmers are fighting desperately to check the flames menacing their homes.

Statesville Landmark: Rev. George Washington Morrison, for the past year pastor of New Stirling church, died suddenly of heart disease shortly after dark Tuesday evening while riding along in his buggy, en route from Statesville to his home. His dead body was found in the road a few minutes after he had fallen from the buggy.

The area of California, 158,297 square miles, is approximately equal to the combined area of Roumania, Bulgaria, Servia, Albania, Montenegro, Belgium and Turkey in Europe.

THE SCHOOL NEWS.

MISS OLIVIA HARMON, Class Editor.

Misses Pilkington and Patti-son will leave this morning to attend the teachers' assembly, which is in session at Charlotte.

Our principal, Mr. F. M. Williamson, left last Tuesday morning to attend the teachers' assembly at Charlotte this week. He was accompanied by Mrs. Williamson and son, Horace.

The school children had the pleasure of enjoying our first snow last Friday morning. There were many a cold hand and jolly laugh between the boys during their battles with snowballs.

Dr. Chas. Lane will lecture at the school auditorium tonight. He is said to be the greatest humorist in the South. Don't miss the first lecture in the season, go and have a good hearty laugh—it will do you good. The next attraction will be the Morrow Brothers' quartet the night of December 25th.

Although Mr. Williamson is absent the school has been carried on in its usual order by the other teachers, but will close this afternoon, Wednesday, for the holiday. There will be no school next Friday on account of some of the teachers and the boarding pupils who will spend Thanksgiving at home.

We seldom have the pleasure of enjoying such a rare treat as we did last Tuesday morning, when Lieutenant J. J. London gave a lecture in behalf of the mine, submarine and torpedo boats, which are now being used in the present war between Germany and the Allies.

Mr. London has visited all parts of the world and is competent of explaining many things of interest to us. We hope to be so fortunate as to have him present at our opening exercises again before this school term expires.

Vera Cruz Evacuated. Vera Cruz, Nov. 23.—The American forces of occupation evacuated Vera Cruz today after having been in possession of the city for seven months. The withdrawal of the Americans progressed without disorder. At 11 o'clock they commenced going on the waiting transports, and by 1:30 they were practically all on board.

As the Americans withdrew Mexican constitutionalists took possession of the city. There was little enthusiasm, little excitement and no trouble of any kind. The Mexican flag again is flying over Vera Cruz.

Brigadier General Funston and his command of 6,000 infantrymen and marines, which was landed here April 21 last, got underway today and General Candido Aguilar's men took charge of the city.

The Mexicans marched in on the heels of the departing troops but no serious disturbance of the city's peace was registered.
