GEORGIA MAKING LAWS.

House Passes Senate Bill Prohibiting Liquor Traffic.

Atlanta, Ga .- The lower house of the Georgia Legislature by 142 to 22 passed a bill which already had passed the senate, to prohibit the manufacture or sale of liquor in Georgia. The only change the house made was that the measure should become effective May 1, 1916, instead of January 1, next. It defines "liquor" as any drink containing more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol. It is generally understood that Governor Har-

William Joynson-Hicks, member of the Brentford division of Middlesex, drew attention to the condition of the royal flying corps and the naval air service. He said there was great dissatisfaction connected with the naval air service in regard to the organization and the appointment of a chief, who knew nothing about aircraft, above the heads of those who in fact had built up the fabric of the service.

It was important, added the member, that England should have large, new aeroplanes for the offensive next spring, in order to meet the new airships and new aeroplanes which the Germans were building. He asked why work on an English Zeppelin had been stopped in January and whether the Admiralty had dropped the policy of attacking Zeppelins by aeroplanes.
