—The result of the election for President ought to impress some folks with the truth of the old saying, "Do not holler until you get out of the woods."

—Don't you reckon that those former Democrats who voted with the Republicans last week feel like going to some private place and kicking themselves?

—Mr. Fred W. Bynum, as receiver of the Bank of Merry Oaks, is now paying a third dividend of 12½ per cent to the depositors in that bank, which failed in September, 1914.

—The Seaboard Milling Company wants to grind your wheat. Will pay highest cash prices for wheat and corn. Write for quotations. Seaboard Milling Company, Sanford, N. C. adv

—F. P. Gilmore wishes to buy for cash all the chickens, eggs, butter and hams that can be brought to Pittsboro. This gives a good market right here for all the surrounding country. adv

—Wanted, a lot of oak cord wood, for which $1.50 a cord will be paid, and a lot of pine wood, for which $1.25 a cord will be paid by the Chatham Oil and Fertilizer Company, at Pittsboro. adv

—It is all right for all Democrats to rejoice at their victory, but do not "rub it in" too hard on our Republican friends. Remember that there is a law in this state against "cruelty to animals."

—So certain were the Republicans that Hughes was elected that four of them at this place were carrying around, early Wednesday morning, their petitions to be appointed postmaster at this office.

—Strayed, a black hound dog, with white breast and fore feet; about 2 years old; was last seen at Pittsboro on Monday of last week; a reward will be paid for its return to H. R. Ragan, R.F. D.1, Pittsboro, N. C. adv

—Miss Lottie Walker Pope, an accomplished dramatic reader, will give an entertainment in the school auditorium at Bynum next Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock. Sandwiches and hot chocolate will be sold by the school. Admission 25 cents for adults and 15 for children. adv

—For sale: The old McDonald homestead in Oakland township, about one mile from Woodard's bridge; contains 100 acres of timbered land. Terms, $1,000 cash, and $800 in one and two years at 6 per cent interest. A liberal discount for all cash. Mr. N. McK. Buie will show the property. Apply to H. A. London, attorney, Pittsboro, N. C. adv

—We regret to hear of the death of Rev. C. A. Boon, who died last Thursday at Durham at the home of his daughter, aged 77 years. He was born and resided in this county, about four miles east of this place, until a few years ago when he moved to Elon College. He had been a preacher in the Christian denomination nearly fifty years, and was popular with all who knew him.

—The Democrats of Goldston and vicinity had a jollification last Friday night over the election of Wilson. They had the Siler City brass band to enliven the occasion, and stirring speeches were made by Messrs. W. D. Siler and Isaac S. London. So enthused were they that after celebrating at Goldston a crowd with the band went in automobiles to Gulf and Caribton and celebrated at those places also.

—His old friends in Chatham will regret to hear of the death of Mr. Edmund W. Atwater, who died last week at the home of his daughter at Burlington, where he had been residing for several years. His residence until his removal to Burlington was in Williams township, and he was one of the most prominent citizens of this county and highly esteemed by all who knew him. He died very suddenly at night of heart disease.

—There was much rejoicing among the Republicans here on the night of the election when it seemed certain that Hughes was elected, and this made their disappointment the more bitter when it became certain that Wilson was elected. The Democrats went home that night very sad over what they feared was the defeat of Wilson, but "joy cometh in the morning" and next day they were as happy as the Republicans had been the night before.

—In the Congressional fight, E. W. Pou, of Smithfield, defeated J. J. Jenkins, of Siler City, by 6,927 majority. Pou's majority in Chatham was 263, in Franklin 1763, Johnson 351, Nash 1400, Vance 905, Wake 2246.

—Mr. S.P. Teague, of Albright township, says he raised on one acre this year 117½ bushels of corn and 800 bundles of fodder. At the Lee county fair, week before last, he won the premium of $12.50 in money on this yield.

—Our Republican neighbors at Siler City were so sure of the election of Hughes that they rented the town hall for the purpose of having a jollification there Wednesday night, but they changed their minds, for their joy was soon turned to grief when they learned that Wilson was elected.

—On Monday of court week Deputy-Sheriff Ernest White captured a whiskey still and two men, as has heretofore been published in THE RECORD, and on Friday night of the same week captured another still exactly at the same place, near Caribton, but nobody "was eating his dinner" there this time.

Personal Mention.

The "42" club will meet with Mrs. Logan Womble next Tuesday at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Isaac Fike, accompanied by his wife and baby, arrived here yesterday on a short visit.

Mrs. E.C. Winchester, of Monroe, is here on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Burns.

Mr. H. A. London, Jr., of Charlotte, arrived here last Monday on a short visit to his parents.

Misses Nora Passmore, Lettie Mann and Ida Jenks, of Apex, spent last Saturday and Sunday with Misses Rosa and Marie Brown.

Mr. Joe T. Bland requests THE RECORD to return his thanks to all those friends who were so kind to him in his recent sad bereavement.

Rev. L. Smith, the evangelist of the Fayetteville Presbytery, is holding a series of religious meetings this week in the Presbyterian church at this place.

The committee appointed by the Synod has decided that Rev. L. C. Wicker must reside at Gulf instead of at this place, but he will continue to hold services here in the Presbyterian church once a month, as heretofore.

The friends here of Mr. George Ross Pou were surprised to hear that on last Saturday night he and Miss Lillian Sanders were married at Fayetteville. Both were born and reared at Smithfield, but the bride was a student at the Flora McDonald College at Red Springs, and the groom went there in an automobile and returned with her to Fayetteville, where they were married.

Bond Election.

At a special meeting of the county commissioners, held last Saturday, they ordered an election to be held in Baldwin township on Saturday, the 6th of January, on the question of that township issuing $30,000 worth of bonds for the improvement of the roads of that township. Mr. J. Vance Harris was appointed registrar and a new registration was ordered.

The bonds, if issued, are to be payable in thirty years and to bear five per cent interest. The petition for this election stated that the first road to be worked must be the road leading from Bynum towards Chapel Hill, the road branching off from that road near the residence of Mr. Rufus Johnson and going to Lambville and also that the road from Pace's bridge northward to Mann's chapel. The advocates of the bond issue say that they will be certain to carry the election.

At the same meeting of the commissioners they declined to grant the prayer of the petition for a new township to be composed of parts of Baldwin and Williams.

Vote of Chatham.

In the above table is omitted the vote for president, county commissioners, coroner and surveyor. The total vote for president was 1839 for Wilson and 1501 for Hughes, from which it will be seen that Wilson ran ahead of any other candidate in this county. The total vote was much larger than two years ago, nearly 550 more votes having been cast last week than then. The Republicans had made a very active canvass and brought to the polls every man it was possible to get there. They voted many men who had not voted in several years, and the Democrats did their best.

The total vote for county commissioners was as follows: Moore, 1770, Fitts, 1776, Ferguson, 1750 (the Democratic candidates), and Norwood, 1580, Council, 1530, Fuquay, 1550 (Republican candidates). It will be seen that Mr. J. H. Norwood, one of the Republican candidates for commissioner, received more votes than any other Republican candidate for any office in this county. This was a deserved compliment to one of our county's best citizens, for whom many Democrats voted.

It was quite a coincidence that the vote on the amendments was exactly the same, a tie, and was much smaller than for the candidates. At this precinct and some others the ballots for the amendments were not enough, and this accounts for the small vote on them at some of the precincts. The Republicans generally voted against the amendments, but only one vote against them in the Republican township of Williams, though no Republican voted for them there.

Cut out the above table of election returns and keep it for future reference.

Birthday Party.

On last Friday night the Winnie Davis Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy celebrated the eighteenth anniversary of their organization with a birthday party, that was greatly enjoyed by them and their invited guests. They were much favored with the weather, bright moonlight and warm enough to do without fires.

The chief feature of the occasion was the contest in answering questions about the battles of the War between the States. This contest afforded much enjoyment as well as information, and the prize (a silk Confederate flag) was awarded to Miss Lida Alston by the president of the chapter, Mrs. H. A. London, in a very appropriate speech. Much amusement was afforded in cutting the birthday cake, on which were eighteen lighted small candles.

All present declared that it was one of the most delightful entertainments that they had ever attended, and the appetizing refreshments added no little to their pleasure.

A Grand Celebration.

One of the grandest celebrations ever held in this county was that held here last night by the Democrats of Chatham in honor of their victory last week in the county, state and nation. Notwithstanding the rain, which began in the afternoon and continued all night, there was a large crowd from every part of the county, many coming twenty miles and farther. The automobiles almost blocked the main street and courthouse square. A free oyster supper was served in the corridors of the courthouse, which was greatly enjoyed. This was a feature of the celebration that was not had anywhere else in the state.

After eating this treat the torchlight procession was formed in rear of the courthouse, just after dark, and paraded the principal streets, headed by the Siler City brass band. There were many transparencies that attracted much attention and created much merriment, and the torches lighted up the procession in quite a picturesque manner. Short speeches were made by R. P. Johnson, J. L. Griffin, H. A. London, A. C. Ray, W. P.

Horton, F. W. Bynum, R. H. Hayes, W. D. Siler, and then came the display of fireworks, that illumined the heavens and gave much pleasure to an admiring crowd.

It was a joyous and happy crowd and their shouts made the welkin ring, and altogether it was an occasion that those present will never forget. Too much credit cannot be given the public spirited citizens to whom the success of the celebration is chiefly due.

Township Officers.

At the election last week the Democrats elected their township officers in nine of our townships and the Republicans in only four. The Republicans elected the constable and magistrates in the following townships:

Albright: M. N. Thomas, W. P. Campbell, George Pickard, Jackson Carter.

Bear Creek: Luther G. Brewer, John H. Benner, S. W. Willett, John A. Purvis.

Hadley: Will Crutchfield, J. L. Self, Cisco Pickard, Orlando Lindlev.

The Democrats elected the constable and magistrates in the following townships:

Baldwin: Jeter J. Hackney, A. T. Ward, C. B. Smith, W. A. Snipes.

Cape Fear: J. E. Cross, R. J. Yates, J. D. McIver, R. F. Sturdivant.

Centre: S. G. Gunter, R. M. Burns, F. M. Farrell, S. D. Gilmore, W. H. Gilmore, W. A. Dew.

Haw River: S. J. Harmon, J. Vance Ray, T. W. Churchill, Moody Burns.

Hickory Mountain: J. C. Bowlers, W. T. Parrish, G. W. Brooks, W. R. Perry.

Mattews: J. Merritt Smith, O. A. Hanner, R. W. Dark, R. M. Gorrell.

New Hope: J. N. Bryan, L. J. Mills, G. T. Yates, John T. Farrell.

Oakland: C. B. Phillips, A. C. Brown, L. D. Johnson, O. H. Welch.

The first name in each of the above lists is the constable and the other three are the magistrates.

After the Election.

Editor of The Record:

Hughes—I thought I was going to have a landslide.

Wilson—They kinder humped themselves, didn't they.

Linney—I was just joking about my taking the governor's chair.

Bickett—I could have got 50,000 more votes if I had tried right hard.

Ray—You can't down a red-headed working man.

Budd—I talked and talked and talked, took down all the notes, but when election day came around I didn't get enough votes, did I?

Lane—Just like falling off a log.

Atwater—Now I've been and come and gone and lost my magistrate's place.

Johnson—I never have been "skeert."

Forrester—Next time I run it will be after a rabbit and not an office.

Democrats—He kept us out of war.

Republicans—Wonder where in thunder they got so many to vote the Democratic ticket?

79 YEAR OLD LADY

GAINED 20 POUNDS BY TAKING TANLAC

WELL KNOWN NORTH CAROLINIAN WHO SUFFERED 20 YEARS, NOW WALKS UP TOWN

To gain twenty pounds in weight at the ripe old age of 79 years is just what Mrs. L. B. Horney, of 722 North Main street, High Point, has enjoyed through 5 bottles of Tanlac. This venerable lady is loved by the hundreds of her townpeople who marvel at her remarkable change in health, for Mrs. Horney had suffered for the past 20 years.

"Why, I feel so good all over that I can walk up town now—a distance of 7 squares—and my friends tell me I look 10 years younger," Mrs. Horney said. "Only a short time back I was barely able to walk about the house. I would suffer from heart fluttering and, after everything seemed to turn black before me, I would fall, helpless. I lost in weight and strength until I was nearly completely run down. During those 20 years or more of my ill I was treated by five different physicians and took every kind of medicine I heard of without getting any lasting relief. I was low when I heard of Tanlac through a relative.

"From the start Tanlac did the work. My appetite returned and with it came strength and an increase of 20 pounds in weight. Heart trouble has left me. If 5 bottles of Tanlac can work such a change in a woman of my age, I feel it a duty to tell about it. It is now 4 months since I finished the last bottle and I keep on gaining right along."

Tanlac is sold in Pittsboro by George Pilkington exclusively; Moncre, C. B. Crutchfield; Siler City, Siler City Drug Co.

Her Son Subject to Croup.

"My son Edwin is subject to croup," writes Mrs. E. O. Irwin, New Kensington, Pa. "I put in many sleepless hours at night before I learned of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need not fear this disease if they keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and use it as directed. It always gave my relief." Obtainable everywhere. adv

[For The Record, "After The Ball."

We are sorry for the "Bud" that blossomed so late.

For the "Ray" of sunshine sealed his fate.

Into the woods "Forrester" went After receiving the word "Johnson" sent.

The "Few-Wood-Cl's" exclaimed, We have "At-water" on the brain, And then they turned into that "Lovely Lane."

The last of office led "Dock" astray, And now "Dock" says I humbly pray That my sins be washed away. So all the ringers of his clan Exclaim, "O, Dock! they'll tax your land."

The "Postmasters" with their petition went To every one for their content. The final word, and then despar't, To find no "Postoffice" there.

Under the leadership of Thomas W. Bickett We find Linney and his hosts now residents of the thicket.

Hurrah for "Wilson," down with "Hughes," We got the "President," they got the "Blues." W. F. H.
