FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save Your Hair! Get a 25 Cent Bottle of Danderine Right Now-Also Stops Itching Scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and seraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff-that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die-then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight-now-any time-will surely save your hair.

Danderine from any store, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, luster and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after, just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair-new hair-growing all over the scalp. eenth century valentines in the form of a sheet of note paper, in which were inscribed some sentimental verse or contained a courteous expression of attachment, were popular.

The children of the more refined class were not willing to lose their merry-making, and for their sake a few prettier pictures and verses were produced; but the old custom having fallen into disrepute was sinking lower and lower, when it was arrested by a powerful upward movement.

This improvement began in the thirties and was due to a number of ladies who, aided by the highest in the land, opened for a large number a new field of labor. Hundreds of refined women became engaged in the manufacture of valentines, the work being done in

Nor were these little love tokens the only articles to benefit by this uplift, but art in all its branches rapidly progressed, as was shown at the opening of the first international exhibition by Queen Victoria and the Prince
