

NEXT Monday should be a red letter day in this state, and in every county seat there should be held a grand patriotic celebration with appropriate exercises, at which the drafted men should Hail to the flag our fathers bore! be the guests of honor. This is recommended by the governor of this state, and his recommendation should be carried out fully. He also recommends that special religious services be held in every church in this state next Sunday. It is to be hoped that our preachers will find it convenient to carry out his recommendation. At these services prayers should be offered "for the To brighten earth's most dreary hour, safety and success of the men who are going into battle and that lasting peace may come upon the land."

BY SION M. LYNAM.

Hail to the flag so great in story! Hail to the flag, our fathers' pride Beneath its gorgeous folds of glory Sweet freedom cannot be denied. When breezes its fair folds are filling, Unfurled it upon the air,

Within the heart there is a thrilling; Then we are ready much to dare.

Hail to the flag of land and sea! Hail to the fiag so great of yore, And greater still it is to be!

The poets all have sung its praises; Great anthems from the people rise The nation one great chorus raises, As airs unfurl it to the skies.

Hail to the flag, sweet freedoms sym bol! Hail to the emblem of our land!

Its colors morning skies resemble. This flag our God and great men planned
