Mail addressed to members of the American expeditionary force in France should have the word "American" written or spelled in full so that in the address the designation will read "American E. F.," according to a request made by the postoffice authorities. The new order is deemed necessary in order to distinguish American mail from that addressed to the expeditionary forces of other countries.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. A. H. London is attending the Episcopal convention at Salisbury. Mr. David B. Moore has returned to Camp Jackson after a short visit to his mother here. Miss Katherine Eubanks returned last week from the State Normal College at Greensboro. After spending two or three weeks here with his parents Lieut. Louis Nooe left last Monday for Camp Sevier. Rev. T. A. Cheatham, of Raleigh, will preach in the Episcopal church here next Sunday. At the morning services he will preach a patriotic war sermon. Mr. Norwood Eubanks, of Carthage, is here on a visit to his parents. He has just returned from a trip to Jacksonville Fla. He will go to Camp Jackson next week to enlist in the army. Among the visiting lawyers attending Superior court here this week are A. F. Seawell and K. R. Hoyle, of Sanford; Fred. W. Bynum, of Rockingham; H. M. London, of Raleigh; J. Elmer Long, of Graham; N. Y. Gulley, of Wake Forest. Miss Bertha Williams, of Williams township, has the honor and distinction of having made the highest record on her examination of any nurse specializing in surgery that every graduated from the Sarah Elizabeth hospital in Henderson. She stands the state board examination in Raleigh this week. Canning Club Organized. On last Friday Mrs. M. M. Davis, of Raleigh, made a talk here on the subject of canning clubs which are to be organized in every community in the county shortly. Our county commissioners have appropriated $200 to employ a woman county agent who will assist the various communities in this important work for the next six months. The following were elected officers of the local canning club: Mrs. R. H. Hayes, president; Mrs. L. E. Farthing, secretary. North Carolina subscribed over $25,000,000 to the third liberty loan bond issue, exceeding her allotment by $6,356,350, or 24 per cent. The Y. M. C. A. today is using more motion picture films than was the total output of all the studios in this country three years ago.

Federal Jurors.

The following citizens from Chatham county have been drawn as jurors for the Federal court which convenes in Raleigh Tuesday, May 21: Stephen J. Harmon, Alex M. Walters, W. E. Clark, C. V. Tally, Samuel Cox, Jack Mann, Manly Barber and A. L. Phillips. For the second week, beginning May 27 the following were drawn: A. C. Williams, J. B. Council, T. G. Rollins and Charles Forrester; and for the third week, beginning June 3, C. N. Justice, N. R. Dixon and John W. Carson were drawn.

Memorial Day in Pittsboro.

Memorial Day was most appropriately celebrated in Pittsboro on the 10th. The Daughters of the Confederacy and children met at the residence of Mrs. H. A. London at 10 o'clock and, led by Revs. W. B. Waff, P. D. Woodall and Mr. R. L. Sutphin, marched to the Confederate monument on the courthouse square carrying wreaths and flowers. All joined in singing "America." Rev. W. B. Waff, pastor of the Baptist church, then offered a beautiful prayer, after which was sung, "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder, I'll Be There." The address, "The Heroes of the South," delivered by Rev. P. D. Woodall, was a splendid tribute to our Confederate heroes, living and dead. Mrs. Henry Bynum and Miss Elizabeth Milliken sang most beautifully "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground." The children strewed flowers around the monument and then all marched to the different churchyards and decorated with wreaths and flowers the graves of those dead heroes of ours.

Another Still "Took."

This thing of capturing stills is getting to be monotonous (?). First thing we know we prohibitionists will not have a place to go to get our mornins' morning. Officer Gunter and aids captured another still (which makes the fourth in the last three weeks) last Thursday up in Hadley township, where the "mist of the morning" is made promiscuously in most every nook and corner and on most every little and big branch, so it is said, and brought the German long gun back here and lodged the innocent looking thing in jail. Some 800 gallons of beer were poured out besides destroying other things usually found around such places. The blockaders, by the signs in the moon, sniffed the air and got a whiff of Col. Gunter's watermobile and made tracks to the distant peaks. But it is sad to state that all of that good beer and liquor had to be thrown away. If the officers had not bothered it some poor devil might have drunk it, got into trouble and then got into jail where the "trouble-maker" now resides instead.

Superior Court.

The May term of Chatham superior court for the trial of criminal and civil cases convened last Monday morning, with his honor, Judge H. W. Whedbee, of Pitt county, presiding. Solicitor W. D. Siler was promptly at his post of duty and, after an able and instructive charge to the grand jury by the judge, the prosecution of cases on the criminal docket was begun. The following were drawn as members of the grand jury: N. J. Wilson, foreman; J. B. Beal, J. M. Dickens, J. E. Tillman, J. J. Peoples, D. R. McManus, J. W. Jones, A. L. Markham, A. G. Thomas, W. M. Perry, Jerome B. Brown, J. M. Farrell, J. C. Fesmire, A. R. Pugh, J. J. Edwards, A. M. Webster, W. J. Buckner and C. M. Eddins. Up to going to press the following cases were disposed of: State vs Tom Scurlock; manslaughter; four years in state's prison. State vs Charlie Barbee; practicing medicine without license; 6 months on Wayne county roads. State vs Adolphus Stone and Teresa Churchill; f. and a.; both guilty; verdict: Stone to pay her husband $500 and all costs. State vs Erastus Wilson; retailing; six months on the roads. State vs Andrew Rives; larceny; six months on the roads. State vs Vona McLean; affray; $10 and costs. State vs Fred R. Edwards; retailing; $25 and costs. State vs Joe Lane; retailing; 3 months on the roads. State vs Sexta Chavis; assault; costs. State vs J. H. Smith and T. L. Stone; affray; Stone was fined $20 and half the costs; Smith half the costs. State vs Zeb Caviness, Wade Caviness and Ivy Caviness; affray; costs. State vs C. V. Johnson; larceny; not guilty. Mrs. Emma Dark vs N. M. Dark; divorce; granted from bed and board. State vs Eurie T. Clark; seduction; defendant submits and judgment suspended on payment of $300 to prosecutrix and costs of action. The trial of cases on the civil issue docket was begun Wednesday morning, the first case being that of N. A. Jones vs Siler City Loan and Trust Co. Court will probably adjourn Friday as several cases on the calendar have been continued.

Red Cross Work.

President Wilson has issued a proclamation designating the week beginning May 20 as "Red Cross week," and calling upon the American people to contribute generously to the second $100,000,000 war fund of the American Red Cross for the alleviation of suffering among the American troops in France, and their dependents at home and among the fighting forces and civilian population of the allied countries.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the bar of Chatham, held this day in the courthouse in Pittsboro at the adjournment of court, his Honor, Judge Whedbee, presiding, the following resolutions were adopted and ordered spread upon the minutes of the court: Whereas, it has pleased an all-wise Providence to take from the activities of this life and from our midst our departed brother and associate, the Hon. Henry Armand London, who was and had been for years the dean of this bar; and Whereas, we, feeling the loss which we have sustained and realizing the high character and example so worthy of our emulation, are desirous of expressing in permanent form and manner our sentiment; therefore, be it Resolved, first, that in the death of the Hon. Henry Armand London our state has lost a brave, courageous, patriotic and loyal citizen; our county a citizen, who was ever jealous of its best interests, traditions and life; our town one of its oldest and truest promoters and our profession a learned, upright, cautious, honorable, able and eloquent character whose life and character at the bar are worthy of the emulation of our entire association. Second, That we deplore his going away and shall cherish his memory. Third, That the clerk of this court be directed to spread upon the minutes of the court on a page set apart for that purpose a copy of these resolutions and that a copy be sent to the bereaved family extending to them our deepest and sincerest sympathy in this hour of sadness and assuring them that the Bar and the people at large hold in loving memory the many virtues and the spotless character, the honorable life which has been transmitted to them as a priceless heritage. WALTER D. SILER, R. H. DIXON, R. H. HAYES, Committee.

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Terrible Suffering From Headache, Sideache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days. I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go. I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery; my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of my getting anything to help me. One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle. I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today. E 78
