Washington.-The peace treaty with its league of nations covenant was debated for three hours in the senate, and at adjournment the resolution which furnished the vehicle for the discussion went over as unfinished business.

The resolution merely calls on the state department to furnish the senate with the complete text of the treaty, but as the debate progressed discussion shifted to the merits of the league and treaty themselves. A dozboth sides, were drawn into the discome when the treaty actually comes

This assertion drew an indignant charges of responsibility for delay in reply from Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, ranking Democrat of the foreign relations committee, who declared the President was following well established precedent in keeping the treaty text in confidence, and that for the senate to request him to do otherwise would be "a gross breach of international proprieties." In the course of the debate a bitter attack on the league covenant and on President Wilson's course in the peace conference was made by Senator Sherman of Illinois, who earlier in the day had presented a resolution declaring it the sense of the senate that the treaty and the covenant should be considered separately.

Summer School Faculty. Superintendent H. P. Harding, of the city schools, announced the composition of the faculty for the summer school, which will begin the first Monday in June and continue for eight weeks. The school is operated annually for pupils failing to make their grade during the regular term.

Prof. Wade H. Williams will be prin cipal of the sammer school and will also teach one of the grades. Teachers for the high school grades will be Misses Fannie Moore, Bertha Donnelly and Jessie Henderson. The grammar grade teachers will be Miss Majorie Washburn, grade six; Miss Ellen Bryce, grade five; Professor Williams, grade seven.

The classes will be held in the city high school. The average annual enrollment at the summer schools here has been about 300. A large majority of those entering the school are enabled to secure promotion at the beginning of the next term. The school officials declare the summer school saves the city much money and saves the pupil much time. The difference in cost the child for the term is far greater than the cost the child for the eight-week school.
