TRIBUTE TO FLORA MACDONALD COLLEGE

College, was written by Miss Lillian Ray, of Pittsboro, a student of that college, and appeared in the "Pine and Thistle." the student's magazine for October-November:

Our own true Flora McDonald College.

That's found within thy sacred walls.

We come to seek the knowledge

It was for Christian training true

And from thee may we ever learn

And as away from thee we'll turn,

Then we shall others onward lead,

For thou hast shown to us the need

After thy lesson we shall learn,

But make us strong and brave

While thy true walls do stand,

And thy pure ones be in our land.

When evil signs are lurking near,

Whose name shall ne'er from history fade

White cause he never like Joe. ing for aid in the same cause.

Of those great truths which make up life,

Of those which give us strength for strife

Here on this green hillside.

With water running ever free

Our fathers founded thee.

It is to thee we ever turn

Against all sin, all false.

Of those who cannot come.

Oh, Flors McDonald, dear,

Pray teach us not to fear.
