

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.—Adv.

The Wrong Disease.

A Greencastle physician was approached by a patient who was in poor health. The patient explained his illness, and also the fact that he was not able to pay for the professional services at once, but would do so within a short time.

EXPLAINS WILSON'S SILENCE

No Definite Policy Has Ever Been Announced By the Administration On This Particular Matter.

Washington. — Recommendations that the United States accept a mandate over Armenia, are understood to be contained in the report of the American mission under Major General Hartbord, which recently made a tour of inspection in that country to obtain first hand facts as to Turkish rule.

The report never has been published, although the senate twice has requested President Wilson to transmit a copy of it.

It was said that some senators had knowledge of the recommendation of an Armenian mandate and that they had attributed the President's silence to the presence of this recommendation in the report.

Representatives in this country of the Armenian national council have repeatedly urged that the American government accept a mandate over their suffering peoples but no definite policy has ever been announced by the administration.

EXPRESS CHARGES ARE GOING HIGHER

INCREASE IN RATES RANGING FROM 10 TO 75 PER CENT PUT UP TO COMMISSION.

TO EXPEND MANY MILLIONS

The $12,000,000 Approximate Amount Derived from the Previous Raise Paid Out to Employees.

Washington. — Increased express charges, ranging from 10 to 75 per cent and estimated to yield $25,000,000 additional revenue annually were asked by the American Express Company, in a petition filed with the interstate commerce commission.

Increased cost of conducting its business as well as the urgent need for more complete facilities and equipment was given by the company as grounds for asking additional revenue. Expenditures of "many millions of dollars" was necessary, the petition said, and additional funds could not be obtained under the present rates.

While explaining that previous rate increases added approximately $12,000,000 to the annual revenue, the company said this money was given immediately to employees in the shape of increased wages. Granting of extra wages for overtime on the basis of an eight-hour day was said to have resulted in a monthly outlay of $1,022,000 as compared to less than $50,000 before the eight-hour day and overtime may be given.

SEVERAL VIEWS ON BONUS ACTS GIVEN

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS TAKES EXCEPTION TO CERTAIN STATEMENTS.

WAS NO INTENTIONAL INSULT

A Witness Says It is Only Human to Accept a Bonus if Government Can Be Persuaded to Grant It.

Washington.—The frank statement by a witness that members of Congress would support soldier relief legislation in order to get votes started a rumormongering in the house ways and means committee, considering a multitude of bills dealing with the subject.

Frank P. Keech, a New York broker, formerly a lieutenant colonel in the inspector general's department, opposing additional compensation, for former service men, declared some legislation might be expected because of political pressure.

The inference that members would be swayed through fear of losing votes was characterized by Chairman Fordney as an insult to the committee.

Keech replied that his statement was not intended to be insulting, but that it was nevertheless true.

George M. Rushmore, a member of the American Legion, said members of his post did not think the legion "ought to club Congress into giving a bonus," but he added "it is only human to take it if the government is willing to give it."
