

THE CHATHAM RECORD

ESTABLISHED SEPT. 18, 1878.

PITTSBORO, CHATHAM CO., THURSDAY, APRIL 29, 1920.

VOL. XLII NO. 39

BRILLIANT RECEPTION

Given in Honor of Dr. J. S. Milliken and Bride

Two of the most brilliant receptions ever held in this county was given in honor of Dr. J. S. Milliken and bride, Mrs. J. R. Milliken at their country home near Pittsboro last Saturday afternoon and night. The house with its lovely decorations and shaded lights was a scene of beauty. The guests were received at the door by Mrs. James H. Cordon. In the parlor Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Griffin presented them to the receiving line, which was composed of the following: Mrs. J. R. Milliken, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Milliken, Miss Elizabeth Milliken, Messrs. Fisher Makepeace and Jesse Milliken, Miss Monroe and Mrs. Seaton, of Sanford; Mrs. A. S. Johnson and Dr. J. B. Milliken, of Smithfield; Mrs. W. H. Turner and Miss Pauline Turner, of Winston-Salem; Mrs. Sara Siler, of Siler City; Miss Stafford, of North Wilkesboro; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Farrington, of Riggsville; Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Bell.

Punch was served in the hall by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Farrington, of Riggsville. Then the guests were invited into the dining room where the color scheme of pink and white was artistically carried out in the decorations and refreshments. Serving in the dining room were Misses Myrtle Pilkington, Emily Thompson, Elizabeth Chapin and Camellia London.

In the library the presents were beautifully arranged. The many handsome gifts attested the popularity of the young couple. Mrs. J. S. Milliken before her marriage was Miss Celeste Hill, of Washington, D. C., and is the daughter of Mr. Ivy Hill, formerly of Pittsboro.

Announcement Party

Mrs. J. R. Milliken delightfully entertained a number of friends Saturday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30. The house was beautifully decorated, the color scheme of green and pink being carried out in apple blossoms and ferns.

After the guests arrived a most interesting contest, a "Shakespearean Romance," was entered into. Delicious punch was served in the halls by Misses Stafford, of North Wilkesboro, and Pauline Turner, of Winston-Salem. Mrs. W. H. Turner, of Winston-Salem, invited them into the dining room where an ice course was served.

The surprise of the afternoon came when the guests were asked into the "Room of Mystery." Mrs. Sara L. Siler, of Siler City, in her witty way, explained the mysteries of this room. When the door was opened, instead of the usual witches and spooks, there appeared a tiny little bride in the person of little Miss Margaret Horne Brooks. The little maid was attired in the conventional wedding dress with train, veil and shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The mystery was solved when she gave each guest a tiny white satin bag filled with rice with a heart attached, bearing the following: "E. K. M. to H. F. M. Sept. 29th, 1920." This proved to be the announcement of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Milliken to Mr. Henry Fisher Makepeace, of Sanford.

Marriage Announcement

An issue of last week's Kinston Free Press contained the following announcement: "On Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Copeland, on Vernon avenue, Miss Hattie Woodard Copeland, in the midst of a few close friends delivered a message of great surprise from little Dan Cupid, saying that on Saturday, June 12th, her cousin, Miss Hattie Wooten Copeland, will become the bride of Mr. Nathaniel Maurice Hill, Jr., of Pittsboro.

Immediately following this announcement little Miss Sara Copeland, sister of the bride-to-be, came forth carrying in her dainty little hands a lily holding close to his heart the ring, expressing more typically the significance of this fact.

Miss Hattie Wooten Copeland is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Copeland, of this city. Having been born and reared in Kinston, she has many warm friends here who will wish her much happiness.

Mr. Hill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Hill, of Pittsboro, and is a promising young business man, who is at present engaged in business in Smithfield."

Church Services

The pastor on next Sunday, 11 a. m., will preach at the M. E. church of this place on a very timely subject for both Christians and sinners. At night his subject will be, "The Call of Jesus to the Young Woman of Today." All who have not paid their missionary collection are requested to bring it to the services next Sunday, or as early as possible.

There will be services at St. Bartholomew's church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Afternoon service will begin at 4:30 o'clock. All welcome.

—Quite a number of Pittsboro citizens went to Chapel Hill yesterday to attend the inauguration of President Chase, of the University.

Good Roads for East Chatham

Editor of The Record:

It is gratifying to those who know something of the road condition of eastern Chatham that the county commissioners are now constructing a road leading from Moore's bridge, touching the Wake county line about Cotten's X roads; and also a road intersecting this road somewhere between Moore's bridge and Cotten's X roads leading to the Durham county line.

I want to say to the people of eastern Chatham that it is my conviction that they need have no fear about these roads being built for several reasons, to-wit: The road leading from Moore's bridge has already been surveyed, and within a few weeks the road leading to the Durham county line will be surveyed. The surveying of these roads cost something. It would be folly to presume that the commissioners are making these surveys with no intention of carrying them out, as has been intimated by some; but, on the other hand, it is only right to conclude that these roads will be built within due course of time.

I believe that when the two roads are completed the people of New Hope and Williams townships ought to issue bonds to build their branch roads into these two roads. This will give them a perfect system of roads, which is the only way that a country can derive material benefit from road building.

The commissioners of our county are to be commended for this action. I say this, because I believe that it is right that every citizen should commend the action of the officials of our government when such action results in material benefit to the people whom they serve and represent.

We all know there are no better people in Chatham than those people who live in the eastern section of this county. If I understand the sentiment of these people correctly, I believe it is their hope and desire to keep pace with the progress of road building and school building throughout the state, and to have roads and schools that will be a living monument to good citizenship. Respectfully submitted, W. F. HORTON.

Republican Convention

The courthouse was nearly filled Wednesday by Republicans and quite a number of Democrats to listen to the speech of J. J. Parker, Republican candidate for governor. Mr. Parker was met at Moncure and brought through the country by Mr. S. D. Johnson.

Mr. Parker is a forceful speaker, has a fine delivery and his speech created much enthusiasm among his friends.

In the afternoon the Republicans held their county convention and nominated the following ticket:

- For Sheriff—R. A. Brewer, of Albright township.
- For Register of Deeds—Raymond Hutchings, of Baldwin.
- For the House—N. J. Dark, of Hickory.
- For County Commissioners—J. F. Morgan, of New Hope; J. H. W. Bowman, of Gulf; J. B. Atwater, of Williams.
- Coroner—Dr. R. M. Fields, of Goldston.
- Surveyor—F. R. Dark, of Gulf.
- S. D. Johnson was re-elected chairman of the Republican county executive committee and J. C. Hammond secretary.

"Mr. Bob"

"Mr. Bob," a play, was given by members of the high school here under the auspices of the civic department, Mrs. R. H. Hays, chairman, Monday night to a large and appreciative audience. But for the inclement weather many more of the citizens of the town and surrounding country would have gone. All connected with the play acted their parts to perfection. The want of room prevents us from giving a fuller account of the play. The Burton Bros. band were there and gave the large crowd some splendid music. The admissions amounted to $42.70.

WILL REBUILD

Modern Mill to Take Place of One Recently Burned

We are pleased to learn that the Moncure Mill & Ginning Co., whose entire plant was destroyed by fire three weeks ago, have taken steps to rebuild. An order has been placed for machinery for the installation of a modern flour mill having a capacity of 50 barrels a day.

A corn mill of the latest type will be installed with a capacity of turning out from 15 to 30 bushels of meal an hour. In addition, a cotton gin will be built of sufficient size to take care of the local ginning. All of the above equipment will be delivered in July, in time to take care of the new crops of wheat, corn and cotton. Mr. C. D. Orrell, the general manager of the company, is one of the liveliest and most progressive men of Chatham and he has the best wishes of his friends (whom he numbers by his acquaintances) in the success of his undertaking.

Elected Commissioner

Mr. A. C. Ray was elected a commissioner to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States by Fayetteville Presbytery at Maxton last week. The assembly is composed of ministers and laymen from each Presbytery in the assembly which includes the various Presbyteries of the southern states.

The assembly meets May the 20th in the First Presbyterian church at Charlotte, this being the first time since 1897 that this assembly was held in North Carolina. It met a year ago in Orlando, Fla., two years ago in Durant, Oklahoma, three years ago in New Orleans and four years ago in Birmingham, Ala.

Meeting of the U. D. C.

The Winnie Davis Chapter of U. D. C. met on the 20th of April with Mrs. James H. Cordon, a large number of members being present. Two new members, Mrs. P. D. Woodall and Mrs. Roscoe Farrell were cordially welcomed into the Chapter; and application blanks for five new members have been requested for next meeting. The U. D. C. are making strenuous efforts to secure the history of the men who served in the World War, who are descendants of Confederate Veterans. To this end, blanks were given to the members, to be distributed among their soldier friends to be filled in. A copy of each will be sent also to the Historical Society for preservation. Great interest was expressed in the approaching Memorial Day exercises, which will be held this year on Saturday, the 8th day of May. It was enthusiastically decided that this should be a re-union day for the Chatham Confederate veterans—and that the Daughters would give them a sumptuous dinner. It is hoped that every veteran in the county will be here with his wife to enjoy the re-union. After dinner there will be a speech by a distinguished orator, who thoroughly appreciates the brave Confederate soldier. After the exercises, the graves of the immortal Confederate dead will be decorated with wreaths and flowers. Committees were appointed and plans were enthusiastically made for the re-union. After the salad course, the meeting adjourned. MRS. JACOB THOMPSON, Sec'y.

Good Roads Rule

Roads rule the world, not kings nor congresses, not courts nor constables, not ships nor soldiers; the road is the only royal line in a democracy, the only legislature that never changes, the only court that never sleeps, the only army that never quits; the first aid to the redemption of any nation, the exodus from stagnation in any society, a recall from savagery in any time, the high priest of posterity; without beginning of days or end of life. The road is the umpire in every war, and when a new map is made, it simply pushes on in the great campaign of help, hope, brotherhood, efficiency and peace.—Exchange.
