ESTABLISHED SEPT. 18, 1878.

PITTSBORO, CHATHAM CO., THURSDAY, JULY 1, 1920.

VOL. XLII NO. 48

Meeting of U. D. C.

The U. D. C. met with Mrs. Henry Bynum, Monday, P. M. There was a good attendance, and to the delight of all, five new members were received, these being: Mrs. W. B. Waff, Mrs. W. T. Hunt, Mrs. L. N. Comble, Mrs. Lee Farrell and Miss Jessie Waff. Each Daughter was asked to collect all the World War relics that could be gotten and place them in court house. Prof. Franklin is trying to get correct list of all the boys and their titles, who went to school here and were in the world war. He asked that each Daughter read the list of names carefully and if there are any corrections, notify him at once. These names are to be placed on a marble tablet and hung in the Pittsboro auditorium. Mrs. J. Milliken, Mrs. Alley and Mrs. Hunt were elected delegates to the district meeting at Louisburg, June 29th and 30th, with Misses Noe and Waff as alternates. Mrs. Bynum had as guest of honor Mrs. W. P. Horton and her house-guest, Miss Stewart, of Elon College. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her little daughters, Mary Dell, and Annie.

Mrs. Henry London, President.
Mrs. Jacob Thompson, Secretary.

Community Meeting.

Editor Record:-
A very interesting and instructive meeting of the people of the North, Truth, and Brickhaven schools was held Sat. 19th, inst. that community in the interest of community organization for the betterment of the social and economic condition of the community.

At four o'clock P. M. a mothers meeting conducted by Dr. Delia Dixon Carroll of Raleigh was held which was very instructive and at 7 P. M. a gathering of the people of the community was addressed by Dr. Carroll on organization and the advantages of cooperation. Rarely have we had the opportunity of being better entertained and more thoroughly instructed along the line of community betterment.

We hope that other communities will get the idea of cooperation and organize so effectively that they may handle any and all problems which may arise relative to the welfare of the people. We will be glad to render any assistance possible to any community in this work.

Very truly,
H. B. NORWOOD,
Supt. Public Welfare.

Making Mistakes

When a plumber makes a mistake he charges twice for it.
When a lawyer makes a mistake, it is just what he wanted, because he has a chance to try case all over again.
When a carpenter makes a mistake it is just what he expected.
When a doctor makes a mistake, he buries it.
When a judge makes a mistake, it becomes the law of the land.
When a preacher makes a mistake, nobody knows the difference.
When an editor makes a mistake, good night!

In Memoriam

Mrs. Mary F. (Harmon) Perry, daughter of James and Jane Harmon, was born Jan. 11, 1844. She was 76 years, 4 months, and 26 days old. In the year 1866 she was married to Marion Perry. They are survived by one son, Mr. Theo. H. Perry. The subject of this brief sketch professed religion at the age of 13, and joined the Methodist church at Chatham church on the Pittsboro circuit. At the time of her marriage she moved her membership to Brown's chapel, where she remained a consistent member until her death. As to her pure, exalted, Christian character, too much can hardly be said. She was greatly beloved by those who knew her. Several weeks before she died her health began to decline; her intense sickness lasted only a few days—her sufferings were great—but when the Master called she was ready. All who knew anything about her life have the assurance that she is in the Better World.

Her funeral service was conducted by the writer at the church where she held her membership, in the presence of a large circle of sorrowing friends and relations. The floral offerings were beautiful. Her body rests in the cemetery of Brown's chapel church.

P. D. WOODALL

The Hill-Copeland

Wedding Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Hill delightfully entertained at a reception on Tuesday evening from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Hill, Jr., who were recently married in Kinston and just returned from Signal Mountain, Tenn.

The home was beautifully decorated in ferns and cut flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur London received at the door. In the receiving line were: Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Hill, Jr., Mr. Arthur Copeland and Miss Hattie Copeland, Miss Azile Hill, Mr. Oliver Smith, Miss Julia Manning, Mr. Luke Coley, Miss Lill Hill, Mrs. Ivey Hill, Mrs. W. J. Calvert and Master Lawrence London.

Mrs. W. L. Powell and Mr. Will London ushered the guests into the dining room which was lovely in decorations of pink and white sweet peas and tulpe, and many brilliant lights. Here a delightful ice course was served. Miss Lida Alston and Mr. W. D. Siler presided at the punch bowl.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. Arthur Copeland and Miss Hattie Copeland, of Kinston. Miss Julia Manning, Messrs. Luke Coley, Oliver Smith, and Mrs. R. B. Raney, of Raleigh. Miss Lillie Hill, of Greensboro. Mrs. Wm. J. Calvert, of Portsmouth, Va., Mrs. Ivey Hill, of Washington, D. C., Miss Margaret Houghton, of Wilmington, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Darden, of Farmville, Miss Ida Cowan, of Durham, and Mrs. Hellen Woodward, of New York.

Morrison Strong in Moore.

Carthage, June 21.—A Morrison for Governor Club was organized here Saturday night with two hundred and forty-three members. U. L. Spence was made chairman and M. G. Darymple, secretary. Spence, in his speech of acceptance of the chairmanship, said he had known Morrison for thirty years and he knew him to be a man possessing a pleasing tongue, an alert mind and an irreproachable character.

Mr. Spence devoted about five minutes to Max Gardner and said nothing but good of him except to express surprise that Gardner, hearing Henry Page's denunciation of Morrison, did not then and there publicly resent the libel. Morrison, Mr. Spence said, has been a Democrat for thirty years and has struck mighty blows for the party.

Mr. Spence was an ardent supporter of Robt. N. Page in the first primary, as were a large number of the members of the Morrison club. Mr. Morrison will speak here at 2 p. m. Wednesday and in Aberdeen at 8 p. m. the same day.

IT CAN BE DONE

Somebody said that it couldn't be done. But he with a chuckle replied, That "maybe it couldn't" but he would be one.

Who wouldn't say so 'till he'd tried. So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin.

On his face. If he worried, he hid it. He started to sing as he tackled the thing.

That couldn't be done, and he did it. Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never do that."

At least go one ever has done it," But he took off his coat and took off his hat.

And the first thing he knew he'd begun it. With a lift of his chin and a bit of a grin.

If any doubt rose he'd forbid it; He started to sing as he tackled the thing.

That couldn't be done, and he did it. There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done.

There are thousands to prophesy failure; There are thousands to point out to you, one by one.

The dangers that wait to assail you, But just buckle in with a bit of a grin, Then take off your coat and go to it.

Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing. That couldn't be done, and you'll do it.

PHARMACISTS OF STATE IN SESSION

Over 300 Delegates Present for Initial Meeting at Asheville; Features

Asheville, June 22.—Over 300 delegates were registered at the Battery Park Hotel today when the 41st annual meeting of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association was called to order by President G. R. Pilkington of Pittsboro, and in the opening session an enthusiasm was evident over the work before the druggists which brought forth the prediction that the meeting would be the greatest in the history of the association.

The annual address of the president and the report of the secretary-treasurer, J. G. Beard of Chapel Hill, were heard at the afternoon session, which was by far the most important of the opening day.

In his address President Pilkington urged co-operation with the medical profession, endorsement of the work of the N. A. R. D., the A. Ph. A., the ladies auxiliary and the traveling men's auxiliary; advocated the passage of the Stephens bill by Congress, opposed the placing of the sale and dispensing of whiskey for medicinal purposes in the hands of druggists, and recommended the appointment of a committee to formulate some definite duties for the vice-presidents, ascertain what new committees are needed, and work out some definite plan for what will be brought up before the next session of the Legislature.

S. C. VANN GIVES $100,000 IN BONDS

Big Gift To Methodist Institution Announced at Annual Board Meeting

BONDS WILL BE HELD FOR BUILDING FUND

Mr. Vann In Letter of Donation Says Gift Is Made On Account of Love For and Interest In Orphanage; Donor Is Member of Board of Trustees

A gift of $100,000 to the Methodist Orphanage by Mr. S. C. Vann, of Franklinton, member of the board of trustees, was announced at the annual meeting of the board here yesterday. The gift is in the form of Liberty Bonds of $100,000 cash value today. The bonds are to be held in trust by Mr. Vann's son, Mr. A. H. Vann, of Franklinton, and Mr. Joseph G. Brown, chairman of the board of trustees, until the donor and the trustees shall determine the exact character of the permanent improvements to which the proceeds of the bonds shall be applied.

In his letter conveying the gift to the board of trustees, Mr. Vann said: "I make this gift because of my great love for and interest in the orphanage, and because as one of its trustees, I have long been familiar with its work and its excellent management, and because I have full confidence that the fund will be wisely administered for the best interests of the orphanage and of the children under its care."

Mr. Vann has before this made frequent gifts to the orphanage. Just a little while ago he contributed $20,000 as a loan fund for the higher education of the students who have completed the course at the orphanage. Already 23 boys and girls are availing themselves of this fund to secure a college education.

WILSON URGES SPECIAL SESSION IN TENNESSEE

Washington, June 23.—President Wilson tonight sent a telegram to Governor Roberts, of Tennessee, urging that a special session of the Tennessee legislature be called to act on the Federal suffrage amendment.

The President in his telegram said: "It would be a real service to the party and to the nation if it is possible for you under the peculiar provision of your State constitution, having in mind the recent decision of the Supreme Court in the Ohio case, to call a special session of the legislature of Tennessee to consider the suffrage amendment. Allow me to urge this very earnestly."

The State constitution of Tennessee has a provision prohibiting action by the State legislature on a Federal constitutional amendment except when the legislature taking the action has been chosen at an election in which the proposed amendment was an issue. Some legal authorities have been quoted as holding that such a provision was invalidated by the Supreme Court's recent decision in the Ohio referendum case.

GOV. ROBERTS SAYS HE WILL CALL SPECIAL SESSION SOON.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 23.—Governor Roberts announced here tonight he would call a special session of the Tennessee Legislature for action on the Federal suffrage amendment in ample time for the women to vote in the November election.

This announcement was made after the Governor had been shown a copy of a telegram sent him tonight by President Wilson urging such action.

The Governor declined to comment on the constitutionality of such action, saying it is in the hands of Frank M. Thompson, State's attorney general, who has the matter up with the Federal Department of Justice.

"It is purely a Federal matter and not a State question," said the Governor, "and I have nothing to do with that end of it."

TAR HEELS STRONG FOR WM. G. M'ADOO

North Carolina Delegation Now On Way To Denver; Interesting Sidelights

By JOHN A. LIVINGSTONE. (En Route to San Francisco.) Kansas City, Mo., June 22.—It has required no caucus to put the North Carolina delegation squarely in line for McAdoo. Sentiment is practically unanimous among the Tar Heels for his nomination, notwithstanding his declaration that his name must not be presented to the convention. Mr. McAdoo's withdrawal has aroused general speculation among the delegates that President Wilson's name may be presented for a third term nomination.

Of course, North Carolina will cast her 24 votes for Senator Simmons at the first ballot and will continue to vote for him as long as there may be any opportunity to nominate him. Senator Glass, however, doesn't stand a chance of getting the Tar Heel vote in the convention, as the delegates thoroughly agree with Wilton McLean that if a Southern man is to be named, North Carolina should be for a North Carolinian.

Pin Faith In McAdoo. North Carolina delegates, however, are pinning their faith in Mr. McAdoo, and if any sort of movement for him is launched in Frisco, the Tar Heels will rally to his banner with great enthusiasm, and the same can be said of the West Virginia delegation, which feels much as do the North Carolina crowd.

Leaving here tonight after an all-day trip through Missouri, getting breakfast this morning in St. Louis, the North Carolinians are heading tonight into Wyoming and will reach Denver Wednesday.

Meet West Virginians. A pleasing incident of today has been meeting members of the West Virginia delegation, which is traveling on the same train with the North Carolinians, who left Raleigh over the Seaboard Sunday.

The Scotch-Irish Tar Heels found many West Virginians of the same stock and they found much joy in getting together. Former Governor MacCorkle, of West Virginia, was pleased to meet the McGeachys and the McEacherns of North Carolina.

West Virginia delegates are backing John W. Davis for president and brought along a cartload of literature boosting the ambassador to Great Britain. However, like North Carolina, they are for McAdoo if they can't name their home product for the place. Some of the West Virginians think Bryan stands a good show if McAdoo can't be named.

With Bryan on Dry Plank. The North Carolina delegation will be in line with Mr. Bryan for the insertion of a dry plank in the platform, though the "private" views of some of the delegates might indicate otherwise. There are some who feel that the Democrats might garner a few votes by putting in a wet plank, but they are a hopeless minority.

The Los Angeles earthquake is heralded by the Tar Heels as the forerunner of a landslide for McAdoo at San Francisco, and if they can't get him then they may turn to Cox, of Ohio. However, they would prefer to put him on as vice presidential nominee.

The McComb's outburst against Wilson aroused little interest among the Tar Heels, as they believe Mr. Wilson can be depended on to do the square thing and they are not worrying about the possibility of a third term nomination.

Miss Pou Honored. The Chicago Tribune today plays up prominently a photograph of Miss Margaret Pou, daughter of Congressman Pou, who has been named as one of the assistant sergeants-at-arms at the national convention.

Mock conventions in the smoking cars each night give the delegates a lot of pleasure. J. Walter Williamson, of Wilmington, was nominated for president last night and Judge S. F. Austin, of Nashville, for vice president. J. T. West, of Raleigh, ran as a "dark horse" on both tickets, but didn't make a show.

Beard-Clegg Wedding

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Beard was the scene of a pretty wedding Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Flossie Gray, became the bride of Henry C. Clegg, Jr. Dr. Love, president of Louisburg college, officiated at the ceremony, which was performed before an altar arranged in the living room.

The bride and bridegroom entered the room together attended by Miss Julia Johnson and Thomas Clegg, Miss Emma Copeland, of Cary, rendered the wedding music. The bride wore a frock of white georgette with dainty accessories and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held and the couple motored away for a trip through eastern towns, after which they will be at home near Pittsboro.

We have enjoyed a long era of comparative prosperity; but every farmer should begin to plan and deal carefully for possible lean years ahead.

MORRISON IS THE MAN!
