ARE THEY WANTED THIS YEAR

No Town or City Has Invited the North Carolina Veterans

Not a single city or town of convention size, or any other size, for that matter, has shown any inclination this year to invite the North Carolina division, United Confederate Veterans, to hold a reunion in its patriotic midst, according to Gen. James I. Metts, commander of the division, who was quizzed yesterday on the subject, says the Wilmington Star. This same situation has obtained in other years, more or less, and it may obtain until the last old defender of the commonwealth in the bloody days of the war between the states is laid away—so far as the confederates themselves are concerned; that is to say, not one of the gay veterans would consent to be, hat in hand, that any community in the state for which they fought will play host to them in the years when to them little is left but memories of the bivouac, of the uproar of battle, of four prisons where the pestilence and starvation were the companions of the boys of the "storm-cradled nation that fell."

Last year a bare 600 attended the state reunion. Fewer might attend a reunion should one be held this year. It is felt that no great sum would be required for staging a three-day entertainment for those tottering old fellows who once shook the continent to its foundations. And what if it does cost a little money—in Heaven's name, when North Carolina has poured out millions since 1917 for every purpose under the sun, and has given of its wealth freely to peoples from pole to pole, is it impossible for public spirited citizens in any of the cities which the state is proud, to create a small fund to show honor and give happiness to men who will march through human history as the most marvelous any country ever produced?

It would be a source of shame to North Carolina to be so backward about her old soldiers. How can we boast: "First at Bethel, Farthest at Chickamauga and Gettysburg; Last at Appomattox"—when none of our cities appear to desire to entertain the men who carved that boast upon the enduring memory of North Carolina?

(Since the above article was put in type we are notified that the reunion will be held in Durham on August 23, 24 and 25. The dates were decided upon and accepted Monday. We shall publish a complete report of the reunion program in our next issue.—Editor Record.

From New Hope

Mr and Mrs. Ernest Moore, of Raleigh, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr and Mrs C D Moore.

Miss Clara Moore is attending the summer school at Bonlee.

There was an interesting ball game between Martha's chapel and New Hope teams last Saturday at Martha's chapel, the score being 6 and 8 in favor of the New Hope boys. OLIVER.

Rub-My-Tism is a powerful antiseptic. Cures infected cuts, old sores, tetter, etc.

DEED AND CREED

I'd rather see a sermon than hear one any day, I'd rather see a man walk with me than merely show the way, The eye's a better pupil and more willing than the ear, Fine counsel is confusing but example's always clear, And the best of all the preachers are the men who live their creeds,

For to see good put in action is what everybody needs, I soon can learn to do it if you'll let me see it done; I can watch your hands in action, but your tongue too fast may run.

And the lectures you deliver may be very wise and true, But I rather get my lesson by observing what you do; For I may misunderstand you and the high advice you give, But there's no misunderstanding how you act and how you live. Edgar A. Guest.

Pittsboro vs. Sanford.

A large number of the younger set, boys and girls, went to Sanford last Friday, and witnessed a splendid game of ball, resulting in a score of 4 to 3 in favor of Pittsboro. Following is the box score and summary:

State College

The advertisement of the North Carolina state college of agriculture and engineering appears in this issue. This growing technical college is doing a fine work for young men who expect to be farmers, chemists, engineers, textile manufacturers or scientific workers in any of these lines. Write to the college for full information if you are interested in technical education for yourself, your son or any of your young friends.

Will Locate Here

Dr. W. H. Fowler has come to Pittsboro with the intention of locating provided the people feel the need of a veterinary surgeon. There is great need for a man here of Dr. Fowler's profession and the folks should prevail upon him to stay. From the looks of some of the dumb animals with sore backs, galded shoulders, spavin joints and lumps on the body, the editor thinks that he should be kept busy for awhile that he would not find time to think of leaving.

Buried Saturday

The body of Rufus Cotton, son of Mack Cotton, who died from shell shock in the trenches in France, while serving with the A. E. F., was returned here last Saturday from New Jersey and was taken to his old home near Bynum, where he was buried. He was the only colored man from Chatham county killed in the world war.

So long as the schedule on the Seacoast remains as it is, there is only one chance to get to Sanford in the morning and make connections from there to Greensboro, and that is to call on the old reliable, Dick Ramsay, who will take you ever in his automobile.

BIG TIME AT BROWN'S CHAPEL

Many People Present at Children's Day Exercises--Program

Last Sunday crowned the efforts of the Sunday school workers at Brown's chapel with success. This church is noted for the perfection of its undertakings and it exceeded itself with glory last Sunday.

The people began to gather early and all through the day hundreds of people continued to come and a splendid time was had by all those present. The entire program was a credit to any church anywhere and demonstrated time and effort on the part of the promoters. Superintendent C. A. Lutterloh was the master of ceremonies and the whole program was carried out to the letter.

In addition to the regular program by the children in the forenoon, the pastor, Rev. J. J. Boone, made a short and instructive talk and Harry B. Norwood delivered an address on the memorial feature of the occasion.

After the exercises in the church, the many beautiful flowers that had been brought by the people of that section, was placed in the hands of the girls and boys that had taken part in the program and they repaired to the cemetery and placed them on the graves of the loved ones of the church.

Then came the dinner, and there is where the editor exceeded Solomon in all his glory. There were many, many tables filled with the most inviting dishes, and enough of it to feed several hundred more people than were present there, although the grove, and the church as well were filled all during the day.

After the congregation had reassembled in the church Rev. B. F. Boone, from Windsor, brother of the pastor, preached a splendid sermon.

During the whole day the singing was beautiful and we dare say there is a choir there that can equal any church in North Carolina.

The day was indeed a pleasant one for the Record man and we mark it down as one of the happiest events in our lives to be with these folks on this occasion.

The complete program by the Sunday school in the morning was as follows:

Song by congregation, All Hail the Power.

March and song, by the children.

A Snappy Salute, by Charles Willis Lutterloh.

Children's Day, Clayton Marshall.

Song, by the choir.

A Basket of Roses, Christine Perry, Elizabeth Lutterloh, Katherine Durham, Estelle Dark, Lillian Henderson and Lucile Perry.

The Aim, Audrey Mann, Jerome Durham, Kiah Henderson, John Durham and Hassel Brady.

Summer Time, Cornie Perry. Song, by choir.

Johnny Jump Ups, Boyd Perry, Wallace Marshall, Edwin Dark, Robert Glosson, Leon Henderson and John Mann.

A Problem Solved, Emory Cole. Two Rosebuds, Alie May Cole. Song, Irene and Aubrey Mann. Your Part, Grady Henderson, Guess, William Wright.

Grandpa's Children's Day, Dwight Mann. Give with a Cheerful Heart, Brevard Brady.

Song by the choir. Collection. What I Would Be, Edwin Perry, Pearl Dark, Arthur Perry, Allene Dark, Gordon Marshall and Hazel Perry.

Two Rules from Grandma, Jessie Wright. Recitation, by Aubrey Mann. Roses, Lector Maye Mixon. Duet, Josie and Rosa Thomas. A Discovery, Charlotte Wright. Recitation, by Irene Mann. Gifts for Jesus, Alma Perry, Camelia Henderson and Mary Frances Perry. Quartet, Doran Dark, Frank Durham, Henry Durham and Zeb Dark. The Dying Heathen, Junius

Griffin-Justice

On Wednesday, June 15, at 2 o'clock, the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Justice was the scene of a beautiful but quiet wedding when their daughter, Sarah Ada, was united in marriage to Mr. Sam B. Griffin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. Boone. Immediately before the ceremony, Mrs. Henry Bynum very sweetly sang "Because." Then the bride and groom entered as the bridal march from Lohengren was played by Mrs. Bynum. "Schubert's Serenade" was softly played while the solemn words were spoken which made them man and wife.

The happy couple left immediately amid congratulations and best wishes from all present for a trip to western North Carolina and other points. The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. C. N. Justice and has many friends throughout the state. The groom is the son of Mr. J. W. Griffin, one of Chatham's commissioners, and is well known for his splendid traits of character and excellent business ability.

Boy Scouts Camp

Last Friday night the local troops of Boy Scouts, under the guidance of Scout Master D. L. Bell, spent the night on Haw river, near Bynum, on a camping expedition. Included in the list of those who were in the party were John London, Thomas Morgan, Glivian Overacre, Lawrence London, Archie Ray and Luman Overacre. Assistant Scout Masters W. R. Thompson and W. E. Allen ate supper with the boys but returned home the same night. A splendid time is reported by the troop.

Teach Thrift in School

New bulletins recently prepared at the request of Superintendent E. C. Brooks, of the department of education of North Carolina, to show how the teacher of thrift may be co-related with instruction in other subjects in the elementary grades, have just been published, and they are now being mailed to the city and county superintendents in this state, as well as to teachers in the summer school's. Announcement has also been made that thrift instruction is to be given in state summer schools as a part of citizenship education.

Succeeds Miss Stalvey

The board of trustees of the Pittsboro graded school has selected Miss Burwell Patterson, of Littleton, to succeed Miss Louise Stalvey in the primary department here, the latter having resigned. Miss Patterson comes to the Pittsboro school highly recommended. She has been teaching for three years in Halifax county.

Veterans and Widows Paid

Clerk of Court Jas. L. Griffin has finished mailing vouchers to the Confederate veterans of Chatham county and the widows of confederate veterans. A total sum of $5,545 was mailed. The list is gradually dwindling down and there are now only one of the second class, receiving a pension of $50, while there are 98 of the fourth class receiving $35 each. There are 59 widows in the county who also receive $35 each.

The repairing of the depot platform on both sides of the building, putting in good sleepers and new flooring, is a great improvement.

Durham

A Drill, by ten girls, Irene Mann, Rosa Thomas, Mary Perry, Cornelia Henderson, Josie Thomas, Alma Perry, Allie Thomas, and Daisy Mann.

Give Mother the Best, Wade Perry. Good-bye, Children's Day, Rosa Thomas.

Song, by the choir. Talks by the pastor and H. B. Norwood. Quartet, Misses Annie Mann, Lela Mann, Lora Dark and Emma Mann.

ROAD COMMISSIONERS MEET

Proceedings of the Meeting Held Here on Monday, June 13th

The general reports coming to the commissioners at the meeting held here on the second Monday were very encouraging to the general public, and shows that the work is progressing finely. The repair work as well as the constructive contracts are nearing completion, that is, the larger ones, and new contracts will no doubt be let on other sections at an early date. The road from Moore's bridge to the Wake line and that from the Cape Fear township line to the Durham county line, passing through New Hope and Williams township; also the road in Matthews township from Siler City to the Albright township line and from the same township line to that of the Alamance line, are all in favorable condition and promise soon to be first-class highways.

At this meeting there was something like $20,000 paid out. It must be taken into consideration, however, that much of this money goes toward old contracts that were not completed and were placed in charge of the road work in Chatham county.

There has necessarily been a great deal of expense attached to the road work to get things started in a systematic way. The commissioners have great demands made upon them in the way of making investigations, taking time and money, but a great deal of this in time will be eliminated, it is said.

The following accounts were allowed: J. E. Jones, bridge timber, Bear Creek township, $241.07.

W. E. Griffin, work on roads in New Hope township, $45.

S. L. Curl, work on roads and bridges, Albright township, $156.48.

C. C. Cooper, work on roads in Albright township, $38.

J. H. Norwood, work on roads, Baldwin township, $8.75.

B. R. Hargroves, work and repair on scrapes, Albright township, $41.

O. Z. Barber, lumber for bridges 5, 6 and 7, Gulf township, $427.80.

J. T. Plott, estimate No. 3, Siler City to Albright township line, $1,034.87.

J. T. Plott, estimate No. 2, Matthews township line to Alamance county line, $2,948.70.

J. T. Plott, estimate No. 3, Cape Fear township line to Durham county line, $3,721.30.

B. Nooe, lumber for bridges and hauling, $241.95.

T. W. Chandler & Co., estimate No. 10, from Moore's bridge to Wake county line, $2,363.77.

Forline Bros. & Co., hauling bridge lumber, $12.

Johnson & Burns, estimate No. 2, and completion of contract road in Center township, connecting with Oakland township, $500.88.

Atlantic Bridge Co., estimate no. 1, Rocky River bridge, Oakland township, $2,084.15.

A. H. Jones, labor for bridge, Matthews township, $106.15.

R. H. Cheek, labor for bridge, New Hope township, $421.59.

Chatham Hardware Co., oils, gas and supplies, Center, $27.85. B. M. Poe, oils, gas and supplies, Center, $8.80. Roy Beard, work on road force, Center, $35.75. W. P. Carter, Maddox Bros., account, Center, $32.16. R. M. Garrell, labor, nails, etc., Matthews, $375.01. W. P. Carter, salary for May, $101.50. Clyde Griffin, May salary, $100. Little & Farrell, gas, oil and supplies, $83.66. J. T. Henderson, work on roads Baldwin township, $20. Murchison & Alexander, supplies to road force, Gulf township, $30.30. E. F. Craven, Greensboro, wheelers and supplies for the county, $412. Dillon Supply Co., Raleigh, (Continued on Page 2.)

Chatham Lady Married

Mrs. Effie Wicker, daughter of Mr. W. A. Ellington, of this city, and who is now matron of the Christian orphanage at Elon, and Mr. Charles D. Johnson, superintendent of the orphanage, and one of the most influential men in Elon, were married at the Christian parsonage in Raleigh yesterday afternoon.

Immediately after the ceremony the newly married couple left for a bridal tour of ten days, and upon their return will be at home in Elon. Mrs. Wicker is the widow of the late Cort Wicker, and Mr. Johnson is intimately known to many people here, having served for a number of years as register of deeds in Alamance county.

PAREGORIC

BY RAMBLER. Jas. L. Griffin says there is one advantage in having enemies—they never ask to borrow your money.

Victor Johnson says that in the home the husband preaches economy and the wife practices it.

Jack Lanus says that the man who tells the absolute truth deliberately and carefully isn't believed near so often as the fellow who can lie gracefully.

Harry Norwood says that all this talk about draft evaders' names being published has subsided. He thinks that a list of tax-evaders will soon be supplemented all over the country.

Two scenes. Scene 1: Man in automobile. A railroad crossing. A locomotive. Man tries to cross ahead of train. Scene 2: Taking man home in a box.

Crush a fly and he will rise again—if you don't kill him.

The difference between a rich man and a poor one is, the rich man has a twin-six and the poor man has six twins.

Adversity tries some men and Magistrate Blair tries others.

School Begins

The summer school for the Chatham county school teachers began Monday with Prof. Earl Franklin in charge, assisted by Miss Grace Holton, and Miss Lillian Nance, assisting. Miss Holton is a graduate of Davenport college, having had two years in High Point and last year in Durham schools as instructor. Miss Nance is a teacher well experienced and last year was with the Winston-Salem graded schools.

The road force is now in the corporate limits of Pittsboro, blasting the rocks about the school house and widening the street as they pass through. The road to Bynum has been scraped as far as the work has been graded and they are now in good condition. At an early date the road all the way from Chapel Hill to Siler City, through Pittsboro, will be a good one.

LIST OF COMMUNITY SONGS

Miss Wood To Use These Verses at The Sing in The County

You are asked to keep these as well as the cards for future use:

Let the Rest of the World Go By

With some one like you, a pal good and true, I'd like to leave it all behind and go and find Some place that's known to God alone, Just a spot to call our own. We'll find perfect peace, Where joys never cease, Out there beneath a kindly sky, We'll build a sweet little nest, somewhere in the west, And let the rest of the world go by.

Battle Hymn of the Republic

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord; He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored; He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword; His truth is marching on.

CHORUS

Glory! Glory! Hallelujah! Glory! Glory! Hallelujah! Glory! Glory! Hallelujah! His truth is marching on.

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat; He is sifting out the hearts of men before His judgment seat. Oh, be swift, my soul, to answer Him! be jubilant, my feet! Our God is marching on.

Sweet Adeline

Sweet Adeline, my Adeline, At night, dear heart, for you I pine. In all my dreams your fair face beams; You're the flower of my heart, sweet Adeline.

There's a Long, Long Trail

There's a long, long trail a-winding Into the land of my dreams, Where the nightingales are singing And a white moon beams; There's a long, long night of waiting Until my dreams all come true; Till the day when I'll be going down That long, long trail with you.

Smiles

There are smiles that make us happy, There are smiles that make us blue, There are smiles that steal away the tear drops As the sunbeams steal away the dew. There are smiles that have a tender meaning, That the eyes of love alone can see, And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine Are the smiles that you gave to me.

We expect to start a children's department in the Record in a short time and hope to make it interesting to the young folks. Watch for the beginning.
