CHILDREN'S EXERCISES MT. PLEASANT

A Large Attendance and a Day of Genuine Pleasure For All That Were Present and Ideal Weather For The Occasion--Cedar Grove Next Sunday.

PROGRAMME OF MUCH MERIT

Attorney A. C. Ray, Speaks in The Afternoon.

Last Sunday marked another red letter day for the Methodists of Chatham county, children's day exercises having been held at Mt. Pleasant church, eight miles north of Pittsboro on the Haw River circuit, of which Rev. J. W. Autry is pastor.

The day was an ideal one for such an occasion, the showers of Saturday having cooled the atmosphere and settled the dust, and the beautiful surroundings of the church were grand for the outdoor dinner and social intercourse.

The dinner was spread family style. Just like Pleasant Hill and Browns Chapel, there were enough tempting victuals there to feed an army of hungry soldiers. The Record man viewed that long table after the dinner spread, before the folks were allowed to eat and it is needless to say that the picture surpassed that of an artist's hand, especially to a hungry printer man's mind.

There is no use for the rural people of Chatham county to insist that they are experiencing hard times. It is impossible. Anyone that has observation at all can look into the faces of those people, in fact all these country churches, and partake of the splendid viands, and know they are the salt of the earth and that the good God has blessed them with an abundance, and with a splendid women folk who know how to cook it.

The Mt. Pleasant choir is a good one--the singing was good and we want to hear them again sometime.

The rendition of the program by the little folks was splendid and we could enjoy seeing and hearing that exercise again. To appreciate the splendid manner in which it was carried out and just how those young folks acquitted themselves, would be to see it.

B. W. Mann, the superintendent of the Sunday school, and who by the way, has held the place for more than 40 years, was master of ceremonies and directed the following splendid program:

Recitation--Welcome, by Mary Gattis.

Exercise--Children's Day Greeting, Nettie Hamlet, Julia Gattis, Billie Norwood, Clyde Avent.

Recitation--His Message, Albert Powell.

Song--Sweet Peace, the Gift of God's Love--Choir.

Exercise--Those Who Do Not Sing, Carlton Mann, Clementine Gattis, Billie Avent, Jeanette Norwood, Paul Sturdivant, Louise Henderson, Elizabeth Mann, Rudolph Henderson.

Recitation--Silently, Mildred Norwood.

Exercise--Jesus our Helper, Bessie Hamlet, Addie Sturdivant, Mary Gattis, Clyde Gattis, Jessie Sturdivant, Eugene Sturdivant.

Song--Little Stars, Maud and Martha Mann, Novie Hamlet.

Recitation--An Earthen vessel, Clara Mann.

Exercise--Inasmuch, Nettie Hamlet, Raymond Avent, Herman Norwood, Albert Powell.

Song--Sail on, Choir.

Recitation--'Mid Pastures Green, Stella Gattis.

Recitation--Bird Song, Warren Norwood.

Song--All for the Lord, Louise Henderson, Julia Gattis.

Recitation--Tiny tots, Lucile Henderson.

Recitation--Loyal Words, Ben Hall Hamlet.

Song--Sunbeams, Clara Mann, Stella Gattis and Nettie Hamlet.

Recitation--All for Jesus, Julia Gattis.

Recitation--Give, Clementine Gattis.

Duet--Every Prayer will find its Answer, Ruth Avent and Ola Williams.

After the program was completed, the folks repaired to the grove where the dinner was spread and the editor was well fed. An intermission of more than an hour followed and then the congregation re-assembled in the church where Attorney A. C. Ray, of Pittsboro, made an inspiring talk, so much so that he persuaded many that he had missed his calling as a lawyer, and it was suggested that he should receive his commission as a preacher.

The Record editor was pleased to speak a few words to the congregation and only wished that his ability as a talker should have been equal to his ambition to be one, but it was a genuine pleasure to be with those good people and we hope to be there again.

ROME BOY BURIED

A Large Number of People See Ben Clark's Body Interred.

Ben Clark, the son of Donnie Clark, of Albright township, was a soldier in France during the World War. He was one of the unfortunate boys who lost his life on November 9th, 1918, just two days before the armistice was signed, a bullet piercing his head while on duty in the trenches.

The young man's body reached his old home last Saturday and was buried in South Fork church cemetery on Sunday. Many people were there, and the military service by members of the American Legion from Graham was an impressive one.

The sound of the 21 volley salutes, as they were fired over the body, in military honor, on the still Sabbath day, caused his many friends greater sorrow for his death.

The casket was opened at the home and the body identified.

666 cures Malaria, Chills and Fever, Bilious Fever, Colds and LaGrippe, or money refunded.

BEAUTY CONTEST.

Picture Show and Voting at School House Tonight.

Everybody vote again tonight, (Thursday) at the picture show at the school auditorium, for the most beautiful girl in Pittsboro. There are five girls only in the contest now, these having been selected from the first ballot.

Those to be voted on tonight are Misses Clara Knight, Blanche Carter, Lucile Farrell, Katherine Johnson, and Nannie Lanisus. The girl receiving the most votes will win the distinction of being the prettiest girl, as well as the prize given by Miss Wood.

Go out and vote and boost the community spirit.

The picture is a good one and you will enjoy the fun.

Play hour for everybody at 7 o'clock instead of 4.

District Conference

Rev. J. J. Boone, left Monday for Jackson, Northampton Co., to visit his father. He will return by the way of Carthage, where the North Carolina Conference will be in progress. The opening session was held last night when Rev. J. H. Frizzell, former pastor of the Pittsboro church, preached the sermon.

The conference will remain in session through next Sunday. Messrs. W. P. Horton, Henry Clegg, J. F. Womble and N. A. Perry are delegates from the Pittsboro circuit. Revs. Porter and Autry from Siler City & Haw river circuits are attending, but we were unable to get the names of the delegates from these circuits.

Pittsboro No. 2 Items

Miss Edna Burke, who is taking training at Raimey hospital, Burlington, is at home on her vacation.

Her friends will be glad to know that Mrs. G. W. Foster is able to be visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Burke.

Mrs. R. S. Campbell went to Rex hospital, Raleigh, last week to take a treatment. She has been in bad health for several months. Her friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

There will be all day services held at Hickory Mt. Methodist church the first Sunday in July. The children's exercises will be rendered in the morning and Rev. H. B. Porter will preach in the afternoon. Everybody is invited. FORD.

In Memoriam

Mrs. Thomas L. Peay, who "fell upon sleep" June 1st in Durham, at her home on Dillard street, was the only child of John and Delia Alston DeGraffenreid, of Chatham county.

For the past several years she has lived on her farm, four miles west of Pittsboro. This farm has been in the family for more than three hundred years. A number of the tenants now living on this farm are Alstons and DeGraffenreids. Linked inseparably with the history of Chatham county are the names of Alston and DeGraffenreid; and where you find one today there is the indelible imprint of breeding and character.

Mrs. Peay was the typical southern gentle-woman, quiet and unassuming, good and devoid of all sense of self, pure and noble in thought and deed, she blessed, helped, taught, encouraged and lived for the good she could do.

Her four children are: Mrs. George M. Peek and Mrs. Harry T. Jordan, Durham; Mrs. N. M. Alston, New York city and Mrs. J. Elmer Long, Graham.

Married Last Week

Miss Bettie Brady, of Moncure and Mr. Wm. R. Lawson, of Liberty, Randolph county, were married Wednesday of last week in Raleigh. They left immediately after the ceremony for a bridal tour to Washington and will be at home after their return in Hamlet, N. C., where the groom is employed by the Seaboard. He was flagman on the Pittsboro branch for a while last year.

TWO INTERESTING GAMES.

Baseball Predominates on Friday and Saturday of Last Week.

Last Friday Siler City came over to combat the Pittsboro team in a game of baseball. The conflict was interesting from the very beginning and greatly interested the large attendance. It was soon learned though that Pittsboro would have a battle for victory and our boys put ginger in the playing. However, the visitors copped the game as is shown by the box score and summary following:

Wide Awake Farmer

Mr. R. E. Harris, who lives on route 1, New Hope township, is one of those farmers who live at home and boards at the same place. He has a pleasant home and a good farm. He has recently purchased a 15-27 Case tractor and now has his farm fully equipped.

Mr. Harris says that he had heard and read of tractor plowing but until he purchased the Case he had never seen any real plowing done. He has something like 40 acres in beautiful low grounds in addition to his other lands, and also a drove of 70 or more sheep, numbers of turkeys, chickens and hogs and ham in the smoke house that are two years old.

Family Reunion

Mrs. W. H. Ward celebrated her 62nd birthday Sunday, June 19th. All her living brothers and sisters, with their children, about 50 in number, were present. Among them were Mrs. C. C. Edwards, Everett Abernathy and wife and children, Mrs. Nellie Brown, her sister, Mrs. Nell Glern, Mr. James Perry, Miss Rosa Abernathy, Mrs. Anna Crutchfield, all of Durham, Mrs. Nancy Hobby, of Bynum, Mrs. Rosa Gilmer, Mrs. W. T. Williams, husband and children, and her brother, H. C. Abernathy, of Portsmouth, Va., Mrs. Edgar Ward and children. All brought baskets and dinner was served in the grove. It was enjoyed by all.

Editors Home Invaded.

A good Samaritan came to the home of the editor Monday during the absence of the family and left a large box of varied vegetables. Thanks.

Meet Tuesday

Our readers should take notice that the county commissioners will not meet next Monday, owing to the fact that the date falls on a legal holiday, July 4th. The regular meeting will be held on Tuesday, the 5th.

666 has more imitations than any other Fever Tonic on the market, but no one wants imitations.

Announcement

Important Change Of Schedule Seaboard Air Line Train.

Effective Monday June 13th train No. 212 will leave Pittsboro 9:35 A.M. instead of 8:35 A.M. Arriving Moncure at 10:35 A.M.

There will be an additional supervisor appointed at a later date in Albright, Bear Creek, Gulf, Hickory Mt., Oakland and Williams.

All the above appointees are requested to be present at the meeting of the board on the second Monday, that being July 11.

Rev. G. T. Rowe Honored.

The people of North Carolina in general and Methodist in particular will be deeply interested in an announcement received yesterday from Nashville, Tenn., that Rev. Dr. Gilbert T. Rowe, at present editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, had been elected book editor and editor of the Quarterly Review of the Southern Methodist church by the book commission of the church in session at Nashville yesterday. Dr. Rowe will succeed Rev. Dr. Frank Thomas, who died some months ago.--Friday's press report.

Marks-Thomas.

On Wednesday, June 23rd, Mr. Hillary Marks and Mrs. Louise Thomas were married in Raleigh. Mr. Marks is the son of the late Rufus Marks and Mrs. Thomas is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Womble, of Lockville.

The newly married couple will reside at the beautiful home of the groom at Brickhaven. Both are well and favorably known in Chatham county for their splendid qualities and they have the good wishes of many people.

Allison Norwood, a colored farmer on rural route 1, who has taken the Record for many years, came in Monday and extended his time to 1:22.

Rub-My-Tism is a powerful antiseptic. Cures infected cuts, old sores, tetter, etc.

Wise-Otherwise

[Succeeding Paregoric.] Prepared by The Town Skipper

Residents of Pittsboro should worry. It is said icebergs in the arctic regions are neither so large or so numerous as these seen in the arctic seas, but they are usually loftier and more beautiful, with spires and domes.

Mrs. Warren says that she believes many pictures of health are hand painted.

A New York surety company says that husbands are more honest than bachelors. Mr. Mont Bland says that they have to be.

Mrs. Thompson says that many a man who wakes up and finds himself famous would have slept too long if his wife hadn't called him.

The head of the national reform bureau says that many girls become confused in their code of conduct when auto riding. June Peoples says that some cars will ratt'e anybody.

Talking about banking industry last week a crowd of men became involved in a heated argument relative to the savings department of banks. C. A. Poole convinced the audience that an account of this character was like a fish--the longer it lives the larger it grows.

C. C. Poe says that time and tide is all that will not wait for a woman.

TAKE OUR MORAL ADVANTAGE

Republicans Probably Get Together and Make Good Election Promise

(Special to The Chatham Record)
Washington, D. C., June 29.--The Dove of Peace with a broken wing is fluttering painfully between the republican senate and the republican house, both of which seem determined to display their surgical activities in a way to further mutilate the innocent victim.

As predicted the Knox resolution repealing the declaration of war was killed in the house. A resolution by Chairman Porter of the house committee on foreign affairs, declaring the state of war with Germany at an end and claiming protection of our rights under the Versailles treaty, was substituted under a special gag rule barring amendment.

The spirited fight against the gag rule by democratic members led by Congressman Flood (Va.) Cochran (N. Y.) and Linthicum (Md.), and democratic opposition to the resolution itself led by Congressman Flood, Garret and Davis (Tenn.) and Barkley (Ky.) not only exposed the futility of this unconstitutional method of attempting to make peace and to enter into contractual relations by an act of congress with another government, but also showed that it imperiled the property right of this government growing out of the war and was a blow to American honor, prestige and statesmanship, as Mr. Flood pointed out.

Congressman Flood declared that it was an invasion of the treaty-making power vested by the constitution in the president by and with the advice of the senate. This constitutional executive prerogative is one of which Mr. Harding is becoming more and more jealous.

Mr. Garret in a masterly speech declared: "The passage of this resolution throws away every moral and physical advantage which we now possess; it places us alone among nations with all our vital interests exposed to the constant menace of a selfish and irritated world."

Whether or not the Knox resolution passed by the senate and the Porter resolution passed by the house will result in a deadlock or whether the republicans will get together on an equally impotent resolution in an attempt to make good Mr. Harding's election promise for a declaration of peace remain to be seen.

In the meantime it has been made clear that neither the Knox nor Porter resolution will make peace which can only be done through a treaty negotiated by the executive and ratified by the senate.

Both the Knox and Porter resolutions are regarded merely as arrows shot into the air to divert the attention of the public from the fact that despite the passage of either or a substitute resolution, this country is exactly in the same position with respect to peace it was the day following the armistice.

SELL TOGETHER

Sing a song of sixpence
Mother's working too,
Boys and girls stay out of school,
What can a farmer do?

Price of cotton much too low,
Tobacco just the same,
Everybody's busted--
It's an awful game.

Just one way to beat it,
To get a price that's right,
Sign and sell together,
Then we will all see light
