WHO HAS THE BUTTON?

At their meeting on June 23rd, in addition to drawing a jury to serve for the criminal term of the coming court, the Board of Commissioners passed the following order:
 "Be it ordered by the Board of County Commissioners of Chatham county that ex-sheriff and ex-treasurer Leon T. Lane be allowed his regular commission on all errors and remittances, allowed by this Board."
 Rights and lefts through, boys. Who has the button? Give us a chance.

A Good Compliment.

Generally newspapers say nice things about one another, but taking into consideration the influence of the paper and the type of the man that said it, the Record appreciates above the average the following compliment from editor B. C. Ashcraft, of the Monroe Enquirer:
 Mr. Colin G. Shaw, formerly foreman in the Enquirer office, leased the Chatham Record some time ago and took charge of that paper. He has made good and has bought the paper and is now owner, editor, general manager and besides does a considerable part of the work in getting out a good paper. Mr. Shaw is just naturally a newspaper man and the people of Pittsboro have a live wire in their newspaper plant.

Bennett Items

These days the Bennett black berry pickers are singing:
 "The June bug has the gawdy wing,
 The Lighting bug has flame,
 The Red bug has no wings at all
 But he gets there just the same."
 Mr. Emmerson Jones, contract builder of the Bennett southwest highway is planting his bridge material at the creek sides. Mr. Jones has been long identified with road work here that when we find a good one we say: It has been "Emersonized."
 The public highway running directly north from Bennett, has been surveyed and plans for construction mapped out.
 Mr. and Mrs. Will Phillips, of Prosperity, was in Bennett one day last week.
 Mrs. Joe Powers, of Bear Creek Rt. 3 was in town one day last week shopping.
 Mr. Bascom Brown, of Greensboro, and Miss Annie Bray, of Bennett, were happily married last Thursday.
 R. E. Baldwin, of Kannoy, N. C. was in Bennett on business one day last week.
 Mr. Thomas Davis, of Coleridge is visiting his daughter, Mrs. H. F. Brown of Bennett.
 Bennett's first and second nine cross bats with High Falls second nine—score 12 to 3 in favor of Bennett.
 Mr. and Mrs. Dossie Dunn, of near Bennett visited Mr. W. A. Moffitt Saturday night and Sunday.
 Dr. J. F. Amick, our dentist, went to Liberty Saturday on business.
 Mr. Claudie Jones, of Bennett, motored to Randleman Saturday on business.
 Mrs. Fannie Brown who has been visiting her parents of Randleman has returned home.
 Mr. M. M. Hammer and family visited his brother of Biscoe Sunday.
 Mrs. G. M. Phillips visited Mr. J. W. Jones's family Sunday afternoon.
 Isaac H. Lutterloh, of Sanford, is one of the 49 to pass the medical examination in Charlotte last week and is now licensed to practice medicine in the state.

Barbecue Dinner

On Thursday, July 21st, the citizens of Oakland township will celebrate by having a barbecue dinner, and all day speaking and eating and a general good time at the new bridge over Rocky river. The event will be to express the appreciation of the people that the bridge has been built. The filling in of the abutments is under way this week and early next week the road will be opened to traffic.

CORINTH

Happenings of Interest to Our Readers.

Mrs. T. J. Harrington, of Brickhaven is spending a couple of weeks in Aberdeen with her sister, Mrs. Ferrell. Little Irene Sexton who fell off a bridge at Buckhorn about ten days ago and who has been in a Sanford hospital for the last week, was able to be brought home Monday.
 The Methodists held their quarterly meeting at Buckhorn church last Saturday and Sunday. They had a splendid attendance and a successful meeting. The presiding elder, Rev. J. D. Bundy, of Fayetteville, preached some good sermons.
 The Sunday school organized at Corinth school house last month is growing rapidly. It started with about 50 members and on Sunday the attendance was about 125.
 Dewey Dickens who is employed at the State Garage, Raleigh, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Dickens, last week.
 We are indeed glad to see some road work being done on the main road from Corinth to Raleigh by way of Holly Springs. The part of the road in Chatham county, about 2 1/2 miles, is now the only section of unimproved road between Raleigh and Sanford, by way of Avents Ferry. It is to be hoped that our Road Supervisors will see fit to bring this road up to a condition that it may take its share of the through travel between Raleigh and Sanford, as the route is about 8 miles shorter than the route along the Seaboard railroad. Chatham county is progressing. Let the good work continue.

Bynum Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Williams went to Holly Springs last week to the funeral service of Mrs. Williams' father, Mr. Bean, who died at his home in Greensboro on July 4th; aged 63 years. Having lived here at one time, Mr. Bean will be well remembered by his many friends as a christian gentleman and a good citizen.
 Mrs. Clarence Andrews and children have gone to Saxapahaw to visit her father, N. S. Brown.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hartsell have gone to Fayetteville and other places to visit relatives.
 Little Miss Margaret Poe, and brother Jack, have returned to their home in West Durham after a visit to relatives here.
 Quite a number of our citizens are reading The Chatham Record now, and are very much pleased with the great improvement in the paper.
 Mr. R. L. Strowd and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, of Chapel Hill, and Misses Ida Bynum and Grace Tompkins, of Rock Hill; S. C., will spend the week end with Misses Julia and Effie Lambeth.
 Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Williams and daughter Ruth, spent the week end at Carrboro.
 Little Eladis Woods, of Raleigh, is visiting her cousins, Mesdames O. H. Williams and R. H. Abernathy.
 Mr. Will Abernathy, wife and mother spent Sunday in Carrboro.
 The Bynum ball team played Holly Oaks, near Chapel Hill, last Saturday. The score was 9 to 6 in favor of Bynum.

Webster's Place in History.

While acting as the organ of the government in foreign affairs Webster showed that his powers as a diplomatist were scarcely inferior to his legal and oratorical endowments, but it is as secretary of state that he is least thought of now. His country proudly thinks of him as one whose brain and voice did more to inspire Americanism than any other man between Washington and Lincoln; as the greatest Federalist since Hamilton; as the finest exponent of the Constitution since Marshall.
Cross on Fox's Back.
 The American red fox is found in many localities from Canada to Georgia, and westward to the great plains, says the American Forestry Magazine. When it exhibits a dark cross on the back and shoulders, it is known as the Cross fox, and when the animal is all black with a white-tipped tail, it is called the Black fox.
Scent of Vanilla.
 The umburana of Brazil is a soft yellow wood so delightfully scented with vanilla that one is tempted to eat it, says the American Forestry Magazine.

A bird like this makes a model husband

HER NICE new husband.
 STEPPED OUT of the horse.
 WHISTLING LIKE a bird.
 WHICH ALARMED young wife.
 ESPECIALLY WHEN.
 SHE FOUND she'd picked
 THE WRONG package.
 AND INSTEAD of oatmeal,
 HAD GIVEN him birdseed.
 BUT DON'T think from this,
 THAT EVERY guy,
 YOU HEAR whistling,
 HAS NECESSARILY,
 BEEN ROBBING the canary.
 OTHER THINGS inspire,
 THE ALMOST human male,
 TO BLOW through his lips,
 AND MAKE shrill noises.
 A RAISE, for example,
 OR A day off when,
 A DOUBLE header is on.

OR AN everyday thing.
 LIKE A good drag.
 ON ONE of those smokes.
 THAT SATISFY,
 WHICH CERTAINLY are,
 THE REAL birdseed.
 FOR MAKING men,
 TRILL THEIR pipes for joy.
 SO LADIES, if hubby,
 GOES AWAY whistling,
 YOU NEEDN'T worry,
 ALL'S SWELL.

WHEN you say that Chesterfields "satisfy," you're whistling. You know—the instant you light one—that the tobacco in it is of prime selection, both Turkish and Domestic. And the blend—well, you never tasted such smoothness and full-flavored body! No wonder the "satisfy-blend" is kept secret. It can't be copied.
 Did you know about the Chesterfield package of 10?
