THE CHATHAM RECORD

THE RECORD is the paper that's in every home, and the only paper in many homes.

ESTABLISHED SEPT. 19, 1878.

PITTSBORO, N.C., CHATHAM CO., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1921

VOL. XLIV NO. 8

NEW RAILROAD FOR PITTSBORO SOON

Bonlee & Western Ry., to Run Line Through Here to Chapel Hill and Durham.

BENNETT TO ASHEBORO FIRST

Traverse a Rich Section of Country to Mutual Advantage

The Bonlee & Western Railway will soon build a line from Bonlee to Pittsboro, thence to Chapel Hill and Durham.

A new line is also to be built from Bennett to Asheboro, this work to begin at once.

The Company backing this project will begin work on the line to Pittsboro as soon as the Asheboro section is complete.

Among the other reliable information we have as to this movement, is the following:

"Under an enlarged railway building company, including the Dunlaps of Bonlee and the Rosses of Asheboro, the Bonlee & Western is to be extended from Bennett to Asheboro, work to begin soon, and later from Bonlee to Pittsboro, Chapel Hill and Durham. This is a "consummation devoutly to be wished." The eastern section would connect Bennett, the Athens of Chatham, with the state university, and give us the shortest line of shipment to and from the great eastern markets. Blow your horns and ring your bells and put on your gala day attire and help us whoop 'em up!"

H. A. DENSON.
Bennett, Sept. 19.

The Daily Press, of Montrose, says that the many friends of Mr. Eubanks will regret to see him leave there. Stating further that he has made a large contribution to the life of the town since he went there and is loved by all.

Mr. Eubanks has been rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church in Montrose, and in addition has traveled over the western slope as a missionary to towns in Ouray, Gunnison, Delta and Hinsdale counties.

Stolen Paragraphs Localized by the Editor to Tease His Friends

Red pepper is so called because it is pepper and it is red.

We were recently asked if turtles think. Well, we think they think they think.

A lady of Pittsboro tells the editor that when you are in trouble, the majority of your callers are after the particulars rather than to offer sympathy.

The average man given half a chance to talk about himself, will more than make good.

Since our short sojourn in Chatham county we have learned that many of the women get red in the face from modesty, some from anger and just a few from Dr. Pilkington's Pharmacy.

A subscriber tells us that Joe White came very near killing a squirrel recently. He saw where he had eaten some hickory nuts.

Elizabeth Burns says that the only reason all boys that tell stories are not struck dead is that none would be left.

The prosperity you see most men enjoying was reached by advertising.

If you are beaten at any game, don't use that old frazzled excuse that you are out of practice.

A lady told us Saturday that most men swear to love before they are married and love to swear afterward.

All those who returned from the summer vacation are now free of red bugs, wood ticks and asthma.

A girl in Moncure visited a girl in Haywood just because she didn't like her—she had a new dress.

There may be a bootlegger trust. We have never seen one we would.

Another Compliment.

B. D. Wilson who resides at Aberdeen, sends us his renewal for the Record and says:

"When I subscribed for the paper, I did not intend to take it but one year, but every copy of it gets better, therefore I cannot afford to stop it, if times are a little hard."

LYNCHED SUNDAY.

Eugene Daniels Pays Penalty For An Attempted Crime Friday Night.

Last Friday night, Sept. 16th, Eugene Daniels, colored, entered the home of Walter Stone in New Hope township and attempted a criminal assault upon his daughter, Miss Gertrude Stone, while he was away from home hunting. The young lady gave the alarm and a hunt for her assailant was begun.

Blood hounds secured from Raeford on Saturday tracked Daniels to his home and he was arrested in the afternoon, making confession of his guilt to the officers. He was placed in jail here Saturday night and at about 2 o'clock Sunday morning he was taken there from an angry set of men, carried 5 miles east of town and there swung up with an auto tire chain and his body filled with bullets.

Several crimes having been committed in rapid rotation here had worked the people into a frenzy and the folks that carried out these plans allowed the head to run away with the heart, and while it is a bad reputation for any town or county to acquire, it is too late to counsel in the matter. Our appeal to all would be to love mankind. Do noble things and make life and that vast forever one grand sweet song.

CORINTH

Alton Williams, of Raleigh, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williams.

The anniversary party held at the school house passed off very nicely Saturday night. A large crowd was present. The people of the district brought supper and there were two large tables filled with good things to eat and of course every one enjoyed it. Refreshments were also served. Music was furnished by T. F. and J. E. Cross, violins, H. J. Cross, banjo, W. Hubert Cross, piano. Miss Annie Womble, of Moncure, played several good pieces on the piano, others joined in and we had some good singing. Misses Stainback and Denmark, of Raleigh, entertained with games. Messrs. Hendrix, Norton and Crumpler motored from Raleigh to attend the anniversary party.

The water is fine at "Buckhorn Beach." A large crowd was in for a swim Sunday afternoon.

J. A. Ausley attended the Buckhorn church Sunday School picnic at Raleigh last Saturday.

Mrs. A. E. Rollins spent last week with her father-in-law near Fuquay Springs.

We were very glad to see so many out at Sunday School and hope they will keep up the good work being done.

ALFONZ.

Here Sunday.

Miss Lillian Nance and Messrs. Wendell Hamilton and Tom Russell, of Winston-Salem, were the house guests of Miss Katherine Eubanks, who spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Eubanks.

Mr. Woodson Powell has returned from Philadelphia, where he took treatment in a hospital. His friends will be glad to know that he was greatly benefitted.

Meet in Bennett.

Mrs. June Gunter, superintendent, informs us that the Women's Missionary Union of the Sandy Creek Association will meet on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 29, at the Baptist church at Bennett. Every Society in the Association is asked to send delegates and churches having no Society are asked to send representatives. An interesting program has been arranged.

Meetings.

The protracted meeting at Merritt's Chapel closed Friday night, Sept. 16. The pastor J. W. Autry was assisted by Rev. J. O. Long of Carrboro, who did the preaching and his wife who presided at the organ. The meeting was a success. There were 14 conversions and 10 additions to Merritt's Chapel.

The meeting is in progress at Ebenezer this week. The pastor is assisted by Rev. C. A. Jones, of Trenton, N. C.

COLORED FOLKS.

Public Preaching Service to Be Held Monday Night Here.

A public meeting of all the colored people in Chatham county will be held in the Court House next Monday night, September 26th. This is to be a preaching service and every colored man, woman, boy and girl is urged to come and participate in the service.

Rev. Virgil Davis will be the chief spokesman at the meeting and will be assisted by Revs. Long and Washington. The white people are invited and special seats will be provided for them.

The services will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock and the singing will be good as well as the talks. The purpose of the entire meeting is to warn the younger folks of the colored race as to the manner of their living, urge them to unite with some church and become better citizens. The movement is worthy of the support of everyone.

Keep It Up, Boys.

Deputy J. M. Womble and I. D. Darnell, of Williams township, were in town Thursday bringing with them Alvis Spain, who was recently seen to leave a wagon, loaded with beer and other ingredients to make liquor. The wagon belonged to Spain and it and the horse were brought to Pittsboro a week ago. He was captured and brought in as stated.

Given a preliminary hearing before Squire J. R. Blair last Thursday, Spain was bound over to October term of court under a $1,000 justified bond.

Our readers will remember that Spain was convicted at the last term of court here for dealing in liquor and given a sentence of 18 months on the roads. He appealed to the supreme court and his case is now pending.

The Exposition.

The editor visited the Carolina Exposition last Friday and Saturday and he was agreeably surprised at the magnitude of the affair. The newspapers have not enlarged on it at all. It is all that has been claimed for it and more. It is worth the time and expense of any North Carolinian to go to this exposition and really know their state. We were surprised at many of the products and advantages of our beloved state and yet we prided ourselves upon being pretty well informed. There are many things that we learned that everyone in the state should know and you can get it only by a visit to Charlotte.

Encouraging Words.

Mr. Editor:—I wish to add my hearty approval to all that you have said through the columns of your most excellent paper, in regard to those who deal in the manufacture and sale of blockade whiskey, and I think that I am speaking the sentiment of most all of the people in my community, when I say that we will stand by you on this most vital question. It is time for our people to arouse from their lethargy and bestir ourselves to help bring our young people to see the danger of dealing in the deadly stuff, which often brings the body to an early grave, and sends the soul into eternity unprepared to meet God.

Long live the Chatham Record and its present editor, to carry on this good work is the sincere wish of
