Notice Cotton Ginners.

Commissioner of Agriculture, W. A. Graham, Raleigh, writes: "There are a number of cotton ginners in the State who have not yet applied for license to operate a cotton gin during this season. Their attention is called to the fact that the last session of the legislature passed a law requiring that all ginners make application for license to the Commissioner of Agriculture and that such ginners collect for the next two years a tax of twenty-five cents per bale on all cotton ginned, remitting this tax monthly to the Department of Revenue. The law imposes a fine of five dollars per day on all ginners who operate without securing State license. Therefore it is directed that ginners who have not yet secured their license to operate write the Commissioner of Agriculture requesting a form of application for license, which should be filled out and forwarded immediately.

COUNTY HOME SECTION.

Mrs. J. B. Roberson has returned from a visit to her sister and daughter in Pennsylvania and Virginia. Quite a large crowd from this section attended the concert given at Pittsboro Wednesday night. Mrs. W. A. Roberson and children spent Sunday evening at the home of Julian McIver. Miss Lucy Gears is visiting at the home of Mrs. C. F. Murdock. Vernon Rizeron spent Saturday and Sunday with his sister, Mrs. J. D. Murdock.

Painful Injury.

Little John Wesley Williams, son of J. A. Williams, Bynum, was recently painfully injured by a bicycle. His feet were caught in the sprocket wheel and badly lacerated. He is recovering, but slowly. His right ankle and a portion of his leg was entirely stripped of flesh.

Rub-My-Tism is a powerful antiseptic. Cures infected cuts, old sores, tetter, etc.

BATTLE WILLIAMS.

Tribute to a Splendid Young Man of Chatham County.

Battle Williams, son of Fred Williams, of Williams township, died undergoing an operation in a hospital in St. Louis, Mo., on Sept. 2nd, and was buried at Merritt's Chapel, near his old home Sept. 7th.

In his death Chatham county lost what promised to be one of the greatest of her large number of great and illustrious sons. At the time of his death he was only twenty-six years old; yet at this early age he had shown that he had started on the ladder that leads to success through service, and that he possessed strength, energy and determination which would enable him to soon climb to the topmost round.

He was a student at the University of North Carolina when war was declared against Germany, and enlisted in the service and was sent to camp Gordon. While at Camp Gordon he was editor of the camp publication. After the war he entered the School of Journalism at the University of Missouri where he was preparing for his life work when death called him from his labors.

Service seemed to be his motto, and he was always on the alert to help some one. He was an active church worker, and at the time of his death was president of the B. Y. P. U. of his church in St. Louis.

Battle Williams was a true Christian with a profound faith and trust in God, and a confidence in and love for his fellow-man. He is gone, yet his gentle and unselfish spirit shall continue to lead and inspire us to greater lives of service.

A FRIEND.

Chatham Church.

Mrs. John Dezerne, of Raeford, spent last Thursday night with Mrs. C. M. Eddins.

Mrs. C. M. Eddins, and C. B. Knight and children, and Ralph Knight, went on a short visit to Mrs. Knight's sisters, Mesdames Numa Perry and Walter Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clegg visited Mrs. Walter Henderson last week.

THE ORPHAN CLASS.

An Entertainment That Pleased Every body Who Attended.

The concert here on Wednesday night of last week was one of the best to be given in many years. It was an entertainment that pleased everyone better than any amusement feature to come to Pittsboro for many months. It was presented by the singing class from the Masonic Orphanage at Oxford.

The program started promptly at 7:45 and lasted for an hour and a half, consisting of songs, dialogues, recitations, solos as well as chorus songs and an operetta "A Day in Flowerdom."

There were folks here from every corner of Chatham and all went home happy and pleased that they had come. So splendid was the program that all Pittsboro plans to see it again in Siler City on Saturday, October 1st.

The net receipts taken gave a total of $119.10.

CIRCUS EXHIBIT.

Howe's Great London and Wild Animals at Apex and Sanford.

Here's something new in the circus field—something new and huge and refreshing. It's coming soon—a combination of two famous old circuses—Howe's Great London and Van Amburg's Trained Wild Animals, featuring a three ring, two-stage circus performance, with a wild animal exhibition in two huge steel arenas as barbaric background for the activities of three hundred and eighty-four riding, aerial, acrobatic, gymnastic and wire dancing stars.

Its date in Apex, N. C., is Saturday, Oct. 1st. and in Sanford on Monday, Oct. 3rd.

There are eleven hundred people, five hundred and fifty horses and four hundred zoo animals with the show.

Jury List.

The County Commissioners at a called meeting held at the court house on Tuesday, Sept. 21st, drew the following jurors:

- Baldwin—E. W. Riggsbee, R. B. Lambeth, C. A. Snipes.
- Matthews—B. B. Bray, R. B. Edwards, H. C. Ivey, R. R. Brewer, D. C. Brooks.

- Hadley—Aven Perry.
- Williams—Weldon Merritt.

Chattanooga Re-Union.

Great preparation is being made in Chattanooga, Tenn., for all the Confederate Veterans and friends and kinsfolks, all of whom are given a special invitation to go and take a peep at their city and country from the top of Look-out Mountain.

The railroad fare is one cent per mile for the round trip. From Raleigh and return it will be only $10.22. Those unable to pay for board and lodging will be taken care of in private homes. All those who desire it can secure rooms in the hotels for $1 to $3 per day.

Those desiring rooms in private homes should write at once to Geo. L. Dover, 333 Market Street, Chattanooga. Those who intend to go will also let me know at once so that I may get your certificates in time.

Wise-Otherwise

Stolen Paragraphs Localized by the Editor to Tease His Friends

Some people would kick if they were hanged—take for instance a man grumbling because a rose has thorns—be thankful that thorns have roses.

The best advice—don't give any.

A boaster and a liar are first cousins. The greatest liar is he who talks most of himself.

If you want instructions as to how to succeed in life go to some one who has failed; successful people are too busy to talk.

A friend of the editor says you can't tell a thing about these women with hair like a hay stack and their faces painted like a barber sign. The first thing you know they are married to your rich relative and you're a poor relation, that's all.

Ernest Boone says that women have not reached normalcy in dress yet, but that they are in the outskirts.

Emily Taylor says that the key to success just fits the school house door.

Outside "a mutual admiration society," we find most disagreeable companions.

These times if you rave about a woman, you are called sentimental. If you do not, they'll call you a brute.

Newspapers say the next war will be in the air. Harlowe Taylor says so is the present peace.

Just think a woman like that can come in between us and my father's brother!

A. C. Ray says the greatest many have is that upon their memory.

Many a big gun politically is a small bore morally.

Ex-Service Men.

I am informed a great many ex-service men are experiencing a great difficulty in obtaining the proper adjustment as to your hospital treatment, allotment of pay for physical impairment and vocational training. If you are, I will be glad to have you write me.

I am in position to render you some service in getting more speedy action upon your application.

This applies to both white and colored soldiers and sailors who served in the World War.

You can write me at 835 W. Morgan St., Raleigh, N. C.

AT-CORINTH.

Detailed Account of Anniversary Celebration of School.

Being a visitor in the county, I had the pleasure Saturday evening, Sept. 17th, of attending at Corinth one of the most enjoyable community entertainments that it has been my privilege to attend in many years.

I wish to congratulate Chatham county upon the rapid strides she is making along educational lines. If every community is taking the same pride and interest in their school that Corinth is, there is no conceivable limit which may not be reached.

The spirit of co-operation aggressiveness and team-work seems to permeate the minds and hearts of every individual.

In the community there lives a very old lady who is dependent upon relatives for support. This old lady sent 25 cents to an official of the Women's Betterment Association the other day with the message that 50 cents was all she had earned this year and that her conscience compelled her to give half to help in paying for the new piano. She has only been living in the neighborhood a short time. This incident very forcibly illustrates how contagious this community spirit is that exists there, and should be an inspiration and an "eye opener" to any who may be inclined to shirk their responsibility to their children and community.

The Women's Betterment Association here is, indeed, a "live wire." The school is just one year old and I do not believe there is in the whole county a school so well equipped in every particular. It is a school of which any community might well be proud.

As a result of the untiring energy and perseverance of the "Betterment," as it is familiarly known here, they have an electric lighting plant, inside toilets, piano, up to date school equipment, and a drilled well, all representing an investment of hundreds of dollars.

The entertainment Saturday night was on the first anniversary of the school and was termed a "Birthday Party." A picnic supper was served at 8 p. m., and there was a spread fit for a king. Chicken, pork, beef, lamb, sandwiches, pies, cakes, pickles, and in fact, everything to make such a feast complete.

There were hundreds present, each having deposited with the door keeper one penny for each year of age, which netted the school a neat little sum, but was only a trifle compared with the priceless entertainment furnished and hospitality and good cheer dispensed by the good ladies of Corinth and vicinity. After the supper gallons of delicious milkshake was served, after which games were played in which both old and young took part.

It was unanimously conceded to be the crowning event in the brilliant history of the Women's Betterment Association of Corinth.

Respectfully,
VISITOR.

GUM SPRINGS.

Mrs. N. E. Bland and daughter, Miss Irene, spent Saturday night at the home of Mr. W. E. Harmon in Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Wicker, of Sanford, spent Friday night at the home of Mr. G. G. Burns.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Grady S. Bridges, of Sanford, and Miss Katie Eubanks, of Durham.

P. F. Bridges and family, J. A. Thomas and family, visited relatives in this community on the third Sunday.

DENNIS.

Welcome Here.

M. B. Blair, son of Esquire and Mrs. J. R. Blair, who has made his home for sometime in Norlina, has returned to Pittsboro to reside. His many friends will welcome him back home.

THE TAX LEVY.

County Commissioners Set Tax Levy For 1921 Taxes Last Week.

At the regular meeting of the county commissioners in September, the tax levy was laid for the 1921 taxes as follows:

For general county purposes, 15c. on the $100 worth of property and 45c. on each pole.

For interest and part principal on road bonds, 45c. on the $100 of property and 35c. on each pole.

For bridges, 5c. on the $100 of property and 15c. on each pole.

For road purposes, 5c. on the $100 of property and 15c. on each pole.

For county home, 2c. on the $100 of property and 6c. on each pole.

For public schools, 40c. on the $100 of property and $1.20 on each pole.

The above tax levy makes a total of $1.12 on each $100 of property and $3.36 on each pole.

Next week we intend to carry a complete list of the levy for each special school district, having voted a tax upon themselves.

BRICKHAVEN.

Mrs. J. H. Overby and children have returned from Charlotte where they have been visiting relatives the past month.

The friends of Mrs. Johnny Garner will be very glad to learn that she will return to her home within a few days. Mrs. Garner has been in the hospital in Sanford for the past six weeks.

J. C. Seawell, of the Cherokee Brick Co., spent the week-end in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Kennedy, accompanied by Mrs. W. L. Curtis and children, of Ahoskie, motored to Durham for a week-end with relatives.

C. S. Harrington is visiting his little daughters, Grace and Eileen, at Graham.

Quite a number of the Brickhaven people attended the Chautauqua at Moncure last week and thoroughly enjoyed the program. The lectures were the strong points in the Chautauqua program, but the entertainment features were splendid too. The people of Moncure and surrounding communities are to be congratulated upon the fact that they have made it possible for the Chautauqua to be here another year.

Miss Lida Mims is visiting Miss Nell Yarborough in Lee county this week.

Phil Harrington who was hit with a baseball and narrowly escaped a broken arm while playing ball several weeks ago, is still unable to use his arm, but it is zetting on nicely and his friends will be glad when he is all right again.

C. W. Hanks will arrive next week to spend awhile with Hiliary Marks. Mr. Hanks is a great favorite with the Brickhaven people and everybody looks eagerly forward to his coming.

Miss Annie Utley, who is a student in the Moncure school, spent the week-end with Miss Katharine Thomas.

Albert Thomas, accompanied by his friend, Ben Ziegler, of the Cary high school, spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Callie Steadman Thomas.

The regular meeting of the Betterment Association will be held at the school Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The work on the building is progressing nicely.

ARREST RAGAN.

Man Arrested For Dealing in Whiskey For Second Time.

It is said that Henry Ragan is an old offender in the violation of the prohibition law and that he is so shrewd that he is hard to catch, but he has at last been landed. In 1919 he was convicted and served a term in prison, but since that time it has not been possible to catch him in his violations.

Last week C. T. Desern, John Burns and Harlowe Taylor went to his place and found three bags of meal, two bags of sugar, 45 gallons or more of molasses, a lot of sheet copper, part of an unfinished still and three or four bushels of malt.

In the afternoon of the same day W. H. Ferguson, Robt. Campbell, A. M. Webster and John Burns again visited the place but could not get any additional evidence.

The same night Sheriff Blair, C. T. Desern, John Burns, W. H. Ferguson, A. M. Webster, Robert Campbell, T. C. Hackney and Raymond Desern went to Ragan's house and watched. At two o'clock in the morning he hitched his horse to his buggy, loaded the wheat malt into it and three bottles with about half pint each with whiskey.

At this time the officers arrested him and brought him to Pittsboro. He was given a preliminary hearing before Squire J. R. Blair and required to give $500 bond for his appearance at the October term of court, as well as $500 for the delivery of the horse and buggy.

Ragan is a man of considerable wealth and is about 60 years old. He is an old offender and it is supposed that in addition to dealing in whiskey, he was engaged in the making of stills. It required a truck and four deputies to bring the stuff in that was located at his house.

In the third search at night five quarts of whiskey were located in a stable on his place.

Street Work.

The contractors are finishing up the work on the street leading from the Seaboard station through the town. It is a good job and improves this thoroughfare greatly. The Town Commissioners deserve great credit for having had this work done.

Valuable Farm Land For Sale.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in the mortgage deed executed to me by J. D. Norden, such mortgage deed being recorded in Book F. S. pages 225 and 226, in the office of the Register of Deeds of Chatham County, I will on Monday, November 7th 1921,

(it being the first Monday in November) in front of the court house door in Pittsboro, Chatham County, North Carolina, sell at public auction the following described tract of land: Situate in Cape Fear Township, Chatham County, N. C.

Beginning at a stake on the west side of Chapel Hill road; thence with Carr's line north 82 degrees W. 114 poles to pine and pine pointer, Carr's line; thence with her line North (N. 3 degrees E) 74 1-4 poles to a stake, Carr's corner in Mrs. Gardner's line; thence with his line N. 86 1-2 degrees West 60 1-5 poles to an iron stake; thence N. 5 degrees East 4 4-5 poles to a stake, small pine pointer; thence N. 88 degrees West with Carr's line 34 1-2 poles to Chapel Hill road; (R. R. T. iron on east side of said road); thence with Chapel Hill Road N. 18 degrees east 23 1-5 poles to the beginning, estimated to contain 125 acres, more or less. For a better description, see deed recorded in Book "E. F." page 527 Chatham County Registry.

Terms of Sale: Two Thousand Dollars in cash and the balance in one year from date of sale with interest on deferred payments at six per cent per annum, the deferred payments to be secured by first lien on the lands sold.
