THE CHATHAM RECORD

THE RECORD is the paper that's in every home, and the only paper in many homes.

ESTABLISHED SEPT. 19, 1878.

PITTSBORO, N.C., CHATHAM CO., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1921

VOL. XLIV NO. 15

DIED THURSDAY.

Mrs. T. M. Bland Suffers Stroke of Apoplexy and Dies Suddenly.

Mrs. Artonette Bland died at her home in Pittsboro last Thursday morning about eight o'clock, after a stroke of apoplexy, suffered near midnight of the same date. She never regained consciousness after the attack. She is survived by her husband, Mr. T. M. Bland, to whom she had been married for forty-five years.

Mrs. Bland was 65 years of age and was prominently connected in this county and had a number of relatives elsewhere in North Carolina. She was a sister to C. C. Poe, register of deeds, and Dr. E. D. Poe, pastor of the First Baptist church, in Durham.

The splendid Christian qualities of this good woman are fully evidenced in the character of the sons and daughter that she has raised. She was the mother of Mrs. M. M. Guinn, and Mrs. D. D. Guinn, of Lamar, S. C., Mrs. W. H. Cox, Laurinburg, N. C., Mrs. W. B. Gilmore and Miss Mary Bland of this city, and Messrs. Joe, Will and Clyde Bland, all of this place, and by whom she is survived.

She was indeed a good woman and will be sorely missed in the town as well as in the family.

The funeral services were conducted on Friday at Gum Springs Baptist church by Revs. W. B. Waff, pastor of the Pittsboro Baptist church, G. W. Perry, pastor of the Methodist church in Cartilage and Rev. B. J. Howard, pastor of the Christian church, in Durham.

The large number of people attending the funeral as well as the floral designs attested well the high esteem in which the deceased was held by the people of this community.

The Record extends sympathy to bereaved ones.

The Game Laws.

For the benefit of our readers that are not conversant with the laws in regard to game, we give below the dates and game that may be hunted and killed in Chatham county:

Deer, Nov. 1-15; partridges, Nov. 15-March 1; Doves, Nov. 1-March 1; pheasants, Nov. 1-15; wild turkey, Nov. 15-March 1; woodcock, Nov. 15-Jan. 1; black-bellied and golden plover, yellow-legs, Sept. 1-Dec. 16; ducks, geese, Wilson snipe Nov. 1-Feb. 1; opossum, Oct. 1-Feb. 1; foxes, Sept. 1-Feb. 1; Center, Haw River and Oakland townships, squirrel, Nov. 1-Feb. 1. Nonresident license $10.25.

There are many other restrictions as to shipping quail, land posted, etc., that those not informed should acquaint themselves before becoming liable.

Here Friday.

J. F. Teague, of Siler City Rt. 2, came in to see us Friday. He gives us a good report of things in general in Siler City and says that everything is on a hustle in the town.

Until a few weeks ago Mr. Teague resided near Pittsboro on route 1. He is a splendid citizen and everyone regretted his going away to his old original home in the Siler City section.

Recruiting

The recruiting officer at Camp Bragg, Fayetteville, tells the Record that recruits for the regular army are being received at this time.

Jas. Watson Says, "I'll Never Forget When Father's Hogs Got Cholera."

"One morning he found 20 hogs dead and several sick. He called in the Vet. who after dissecting a rat caught on the premises, decided that the rodent had conveyed germs. Since then I am never without RAT-SNAP. It's the surest, quickest rat destroyer I know." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25.

Sold and guaranteed by W. L. London & Son and Pilkington Pharmacy.

Thomas-Pickett

The marriage of Miss Gladys Pickett and Mr. Henry Frank Thomas, popular young couple of Durham, took place Saturday evening, October 29, at 8:00 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on Chapel Hill Street. Rev. Wallace H. Hartsell, of the Lakewood Baptist Church, officiated, and the ceremony was witnessed by friends and relatives of the young couple.

The ring ceremony was used, and the bride was given in marriage by her father. Mr. Emmet T. Sturdivant acted as best man, and Misses Ethel and Meta Belle Goodwin as bridesmaids.

The bride wore a charming suit of blue tulle and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The parlor of the home was decorated with ferns and cut flowers.

After the ceremony the party attended a reception given by the groom's aunt, Mrs. Emma Goodwin, at her home on Morninglory Ave., where the young couple will make their home.

Still Captured.

C. H. Crutchfield brought to Pittsboro Monday morning a galvanized still he had captured, together with two caps. The boys are going after them these days. It will not be long until Chatham can boast of being free from these evil agencies.

Preach Another Year.

Rev. W. A. Crabtree held services at New Salem Baptist church last Sunday, a large congregation being present. It is good news to the people of that section to know that Mr. Crabtree will be the pastor at New Salem for another year.

The Hallowe'en Party.

The Hallowe'en party given by the children of the confederacy at the school auditorium last Tuesday night was very much enjoyed. A nice little sum was realized, considering the bad weather. Those who won the prizes were Mary Dell Bynum, Wyeth Ray and Graham Connell.

Residence Improved.

The residence of Lee Farrell, on East Street, opposite the court house, has been covered with metal shingles and otherwise remodeled. Its appearance is greatly improved.

FIFTH ROLL CALL.

American Red Cross Will Expect Everyone to Respond Freely.

The committees of Chatham County Chapter of the American Red Cross today made their final preparations for the opening of the Fifth Red Cross Roll Call which begins today. According to those plans every home, every place of business, every school, every industry in Pittsboro will be canvassed before the Roll Call closes November 24.

Largely increased demands have been made on the Red Cross for the extension of its public health nursing service—particularly in the rural districts and industrial communities. This work, along with the instruction given in home hygiene and care of the sick, is regarded as one of the most important and imperatively necessary of the Red Cross functions.

Colin G. Shaw, Roll Call Chairman, is confident of enthusiastic response to the Red Cross appeal in Pittsboro and in the entire county.

Elizabeth Chapin, Fannie Noe and Evely Alston constitute the soliciting committee.

Complimentary.

The Record appreciates highly the complimentary remarks made by The American Issue, official organ of the National Anti-Saloon League of the United States, when it reproduces our editorial of two or three weeks ago entitled "Time to Act."

Some Hunters.

Rev. J. J. Boone and J. W. Griffin spent last Thursday in the woods after game, with the result that they brought home 41 squirrels and one possum.

Farmers Busy.

Since the copious showers last week, farmers all over Chatham county have been busy putting in small grain and many acres are now sown down in wheat and oats.

NEW HILL.

Mrs. Clarence Lasater and little son, Yale Tucker Lasater, of Durham, have been on a visit to the home of John Lasater.

Miss Mamie Goodwin has returned to her home in Sanford, after spending several weeks with her uncle, W. M. Goodwin.

Mrs. Bettie Aumann is visiting friends in Asheboro.

Mrs. Maggie Thomas is spending several days with her son, Charlie Thomas, in Lee county.

Gardner's school began Monday Oct. 31. Prof. Mathews as principal and Miss Clara Moore as primary teacher. We think with these teachers we will have a good school.

Mr. and Mrs. Alpha Mann and children spent the week-end with Will Lasater and family, near Durham.

Messrs. Daniel L. Webster and T. Emmett Sturdivant attended the marriage of Miss Gladys Pickett and Mr. Frank Thomas, Oct. 30, at the home of the bride in Durham. The groom made his home in Chatham until a few months ago when he accepted a position in Durham.

W. L. Beckwith motored to Raleigh Saturday on business, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. T. H. Windham, of Merry Oaks.

About twenty-five of Millard Goodwin's young friends gathered at his beautiful new home and "stormed" him out, it being a surprise to him. Mr. Goodwin's house is near completion and when finished will be a nice one. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Thomas and son, Myatt, spent Sunday afternoon with his sister, Mrs. Webster.

Famous Mann, of Raleigh, has been on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mann.

Misses Rose Sturdivant and Mary and Roan Webster visited Miss Mazeli Poe, Pittsboro Rt. 1, Sunday.

1922 ALMANAC.

The Record Printing an Almanac Exclusively for Chatham County.

The Chatham Record has begun work on an almanac exclusively for Chatham county. The calculations in our almanac will be reduced from the old fashioned ten and confined to three calculations only, that of the moon, sun and the signs, thereby making it one of the most desirable to be had.

The almanac will have a beautiful cover, printed in colors with an illustration of the Christmas dinner, and best of all is to be given to everyone taking the Record absolutely free. The book will be mailed to everyone taking the paper as soon as it is completed, sometime about December 15th.

Another feature of this almanac is the fact that there will be no patent medicines, or other foolishness to bother those wanting a good book stating all the chronological events and particularly adapted to this county. There will be advertisements in the front and back of merchants of this section with whom you can trade in confidence, people in business that we can highly recommend to you.

In addition to the almanac proper we expect to fill it with much useful information, cooking receipts, measurements, etc. It will be a book that you will be proud to keep and enjoy having. Names of the county officers and such information that will appeal to any real, red-blooded Chathamite.

Youth's Companion Folks

The folks you meet in Youth's Companion stories are no different from those of your own home town, but you meet them in unusual circumstances, crowded with incident and adventure, in which courage, resourcefulness and integrity are put to the severest tests. The Companion's purpose is to picture the permanent satisfaction that springs from following the path of duty rather than fleeting, perishable distractions of those who always choose the easiest way. And The Companion has proved again and again that stories based on this principle are in no way lacking in strength and sustained interest.

The 52 issues of 1922 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues
2. All the remaining issues of 1921.
3. The Companion home calendar for 1922. All for $2.50.
4. Or include McCall's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashions. Both publications only $3.00.

Chatham Church.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Knight and Ralph Knight spent Sunday in Gulf visiting Mrs. J. A. Knight.

Emory Burns delightfully entertained a number of friends at his home Saturday night. Some interesting games were played, after which cocoa and cake were served and was enjoyed by all.

Miss Clytie Foushee, of Bynum, came to take charge of her school near Chatham Church last week. ANDE.

Services Sunday.

The services at the Episcopal church Sunday were appropriate to the one hundredth anniversary of the Mission work of the church.

Rev. Harry North, of Raleigh, filled the pulpit at the Methodist church under the auspices of the Womens Missionary Society of that church.

In Chatham

All germs our Chatham air consumes. Its purity inspires and thrills. Save when polluted by the fumes That emanate from blockade stills.

Our scenery, for miles and miles, Is one long vision of delight. But this is marred by furnace piles, That burn their fiendish fires at night.

Has Chatham men and means enough To apprehend the men who sell— The makers, vendors of the stuff That starts the very fires of hell?

Aye, certainly; a faithful band Of which they all may stand in awe Will take them, one by one, in hand And teach them due respect for law.

NIMROD

COUNTY HOME SECTION.

C. C. Edwards and family spent the week-end with Mrs. Edwards' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ward.

Mrs. W. A. Roberson and children spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Dowdy near Cummock.

There will be a play given at the County Home school house Friday night Nov. 11. It will be given free and the public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hall, of Charleston, S. C., are visiting Mrs. Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Murdock, of Pittsboro, Rt. 3. They made the trip by auto.

T. M. Murdock, of Durham, is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. C. F. Murdock, on route 3.

OFTEN.

Issues Book

The Record has received a book for the aid of bankers, business men and the public generally, from the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond. It is an authoritative and comprehensive one on the organization and operation of the Federal Reserve System. It answers many practical questions regarding the new banking law and meets a number of objections raised by persons not fully cognizant of the purpose and workings of the system.

The book is well printed on good paper, it is neatly bound in cloth, has a complete table of contents, and is fully and conveniently indexed. Those desiring copies of this book should write direct to the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond.

Doing Good Work.

The Childrens Home Society, of Greensboro, sends the Record an account of the work accomplished by that institution during the year. It is doing a good work and should have the support of everyone in the State.

The home now has ready for placement ten bright, healthy girls ranging from 5 to 14 years of age, and five boys from 3 to 8 years of age.

Anyone interested in the work or caring to adopt a girl or boy can address them for particulars.

Dr. Chapin Coming Here.

Dr. W. B. Chapin, now residing at Townsville expects to return to his old home here to practice. He states that it will probably be about March first before he can move, as it is intention to take a post graduate course, beginning at once.

Dr. Chapin is the son of the late Dr. H. T. Chapin and the folks of Chatham county will give him a royal welcome here, not only as a medical doctor but as a splendid citizen and neighbor.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our many friends, for their expressions of love and sympathy during the dark hours which have come to us. We wish to say also that we can never forget them and what they have done for us.

INTEREST SHOWN.

Cotton Mill Men and Others Taking Notice of Pittsboro Lately.

Since the arrangement has been made for electricity for Pittsboro, the Chamber of Commerce has received a great many letters from business men and manufacturing concerns about the place.

There are two pretty good prospects for the establishment of cotton mills at this time and it is considered that others will take advantage of the opportunities offered here to establish other manufacturing enterprises.

There is ample opportunity now for the people here to get busy and get these enterprises to come. By supporting the Chamber of Commerce, becoming a part of it, paying your membership fee and helping in every way that you can, there can be accomplished much for Pittsboro and Chatham county.

Let's pull together now and get these things here.

Pay Your Taxes.

The sheriff has the 1921 tax books and has given warning through the Record to those who are due. If you pay now, you save 1 per cent.

Mrs. R. M. Burns was the first to pay in Centre township after the books were turned over to the sheriff.

Still Only $1.25.
