

THE RECORD is read every week by almost everybody that's anybody.

THE CHATHAM RECORD

THE RECORD is the paper that's in every home, and the only paper in many homes.

ESTABLISHED SEPT. 19, 1878.

PITTSBORO, N.C., CHATHAM CO., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1921

VOL. XLIV NO. 16

REGISTRARS.

Birth and Death Registrars Listed for Chatham County.

Mrs. R. H. Hayes is the registrar for Pittsboro and Center township, and others in Chatham county are as follows: Dr. R. M. Fields, Goldston, J. B. Marley, Siler City and R. J. Yates, Merry Oaks, for those towns, and for the townships as follows: S. P. Teague, Albright; C. E. Hackney, Baldwin; Dr. W. L. McManus, Bear Creek; R. J. Yates, Cape Fear; Dr. R. W. Palmer, Gulf; W. M. Lindsay, Hadley; S. J. Harmon, Haw River; Cicero Burke, Hickory Mt.; J. B. Marley, Matthews, N. J. Wilson, New Hope; J. C. Williams, Oakland; and J. T. Mills, Williams.

All deaths and births, in the respective township or town, should be registered with the proper person in that locality.

In the case of births it is very important to report the name of the child promptly. Name the baby early and report it.

There is a heavy penalty for failure to look after these matters and recently the state board of health has indicted persons for neglecting them. Therefore, the above list is given for the information of our readers and we urge everyone to attend to such things at the proper time.

It is not only law, but is very important to keep this record and the state is making every effort to protect its citizenship in the matter of voting and other things that might enter into an age center in future years.

Report all deaths and births to your registrar, whether still birth, natural or accidental deaths.

Mrs. J. C. Boone, Frank Boone, and Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Eubanks spent Thursday with Mrs. Rufus Walls, at Lockville.

Chatham Spirit.

The folks down in Oakland township, five miles south of Pittsboro, again demonstrated that charitable Chatham spirit last week when they went to the home of J. H. Thomas with 17 head of horses and a number of plows and sowed his wheat, oats and rye. Mr. Thomas has been confined to his home for sometime with lagrippe.

BEAR CREEK.

Miss Mattie Loyd, of Rt. 2, has gone to accept a position at Burlington.

D. T. Brooks, who is employed in S. C., visited his home folks here recently.

Joe Loyde, who has been working at Little Rock, S. C., has returned home.

A DOLLAR STORY.

What an American Dollar Can Do, Read at Red Cross Meeting

A dollar rolled into my office the other day, sat down on the edge of the desk, and rubbed its silver face.

"Well," he said wearily, "I've had a busy year. Gosh, but I'm glad you didn't put me in the bank or pay me out on your car."

"You'd better be glad you didn't go to pay the income tax," I responded. "Where have you been all this time? Sit down and give an account of yourself."

"I have been spending most of my time among the ex-service men," he admitted. "Do you know that in this country there are at present 26,000 ex-service men in hospitals served by the Red Cross?"

"I've been visiting Oteen, where there are 1,100 men suffering and dying with tuberculosis, contracted through the war, and Kenilworth, where men lie year after year in plaster casts because of a bit of shrapnel in their pines. And I visited the Psychiatric hospitals where the boys we sent away in 1917 scream and rave and are kept behind bars till they die."

Ten million of my dollar friends went to help the ex-service men last year and through the Federal Board of Vocational Training we have helped 80,000 ex-service men thrown out of jobs because of disability. And these 80,000 men represent at least 250,000 women and children dependent on them. Oh, no, the war isn't over yet, by any means. In the hospitals and sanatoriums it is still being fought."

The dollar paused a moment and stroked the E. Pluribus Unum on his brow, then continued pensively, "Ah, yes, I've seen some strange things since you sent me away last year. I've been in seventy disasters in the United States alone - calamities like the San Antonio flood

I must tell you what we have done through your own Chatham County Chapter A. R. C. and her auxiliaries. You will remember, I know, those of us you sent out on your mission of mercy soon after your 4th Red Cross Roll Call was completed last fall. Well you may be sure we've been busy since that time.

We spread out just as far and wide as we could, possibly. Some of us went straight to Oteen to help carry Christmas cheer to those ex-service men I've told you of, and by the way, while at Oteen we found one of your own men there who had received a Christmas box from you "all his own," and gee! he was a happy man, so overcome with the joy of it, he could scarcely untie the string to find what the box contained. Such is the joy your shining collars gave to these men at Oteen at Christmas, along with many others of us sent from elsewhere, and added to this were the cheery words and merry smiling faces of the R. C. nurses who served those men so faithfully.

Then, too, the Near East was twice made glad through your generous gifts for their relief. The many Chinese children who were starving, for want of enough food to keep them alive, send you their grateful thanks for sending us to them when they most needed us.

"I must mention too," said the dollar sitting on the edge of my desk, "your generous gift of twenty-five of us, you sent to one of your own townswomen, who was sick and needed your help. She might have known we would come to her, through you, for while the A. R. C. loves, and loves to do for her ex-service men she, too, is always ready and looking out for any suffering ones who need her shining dollars."

"You have certainly earned a vacation," I assured him. "Do you want to spend a quiet life time in the safe deposit vault or how about a few months in the baby's bank? Either one is guaranteed to be restful." The dollar hesitated so long I could see

The Record hopes that every citizen of Chatham county will begin now to do everything they can to make it a huge affair, plan exhibits and otherwise offer it assistance.

DEATH OF VETERAN.

G. W. Maddox, Formerly of Chatham County, Passes Nov. 4.

G. W. Maddox, one of the few remaining old soldiers of the Confederate War, died at his home in Hillsboro on November 4th. Mr. Maddox formerly lived in Chatham county, having been raised here and went to the army from this county, but had made his home in Hillsboro for the past twenty years.

He had reached the ripe age of eighty-one, and ever since serving his country in the war, he has been a continual help to those around him. In addition to his wife, he is survived by five children, Cynthia, Sidney, Mrs. Lizzie Roberson, Mrs. Bella Bivens and Mont, all of whom live in Orange county. Mrs. C. F. Murdock, of Chatham, and Mrs. Sina Jane Griffin, of Durham, are his sisters and J. M. Maddox, of Durham, is his brother.

The burial took place on Saturday Nov. 5th in Hillsboro.

Northern Hunters.

Dr. W. H. Lawrence, Jr., 129 Summit Avenue, Summit, N. J., B. G. Downing, 90 West Street, New York, C. K. Nichols, 90 West Street, New York and W. A. Babson, 29 Broadway, New York are guests this week of the Hickory Mt. Gun Club, on a hunting expedition.

Cotton Report.

The Government report gives the number of bales of cotton ginned prior to November 1 as 6,646,136 as against 7,508,633, same date last year.

To the same date this year North Carolina had ginned 581,974.

Goldston Letter.

Dear Editor:— Seeing the news in the Record from all the other places in the county, we want you to know that Goldston is still on the map although we are not making any noise about it.

The new bank building will soon be completed. This building will compare with any in the county.

O. S. Alexander and family have moved into J. J. Harris' new house which has just been completed and painted. W. H. Burke has moved into the house vacated by Mr. Alexander.

B. N. Gilmore, H. M. Phillips and Miss Myrtle Alston visited Mr. Gilmore's sister near Cameron last week.

The school here is doing fine, with Prof. W. H. Tiler principal. Other teachers are Mrs. Tyler, Mrs. J. C. Norman and Misses Copeland and Johnson, with J. W. Harner music teacher. He has quite a large music class.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Womble have more help, — 11 pound boy.

A. F. Goldston, Herbert Murray and W. N. Ellis went opossum hunting one night last week, struck 10 tracks, treed 10 times and caught 11 opossums. The way the extra one was caught, there was two up the same tree and it wasn't a good night for them either. Who can beat that?

T. C. Dixon and brother, Jacob, carried of seven premiums from the fair with their exhibit of fine chickens.

J. G. Goldston has opened up a shoe store here. He says he has got the price down right. He is in the Stinson building.

Marvin Burns, of Charlottesville, Va., visited his sister, Mrs. A. F. Goldston, recently.

Recent buyers of autos are: E. M. Harris, a new Dodge; J. E. Brafford, a Ford.

H. M. Phillips, J. C. Norman and A. F. and H. P. Goldston went down the country last week deer hunting. They brought back one fine deer.

Mrs. Joe Williams and little daughter, of Hartsville, S. C., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Gilmore.

Marvin Goldston has sold out his garage business at Glendon and is now at home.
