

THE RECORD is read every week by almost everybody that's anybody.

THE CHATHAM RECORD

THE RECORD is the paper that's in every home, and the only paper in many homes.

ESTABLISHED SEPT. 19, 1878.

PITTSBORO, N.C., CHATHAM CO., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1921

VOL. XLIV NO. 17

PRINT FRIDAY

Record in Future Will be Mailed on Friday Morning.

Beginning with our issue next week the Record will be printed on Friday morning and mailed out on the train and rural routes the same morning. We have made every effort to get the paper to our subscribers promptly by printing on Thursday, but find it is not practical.

Owing to the fact that some of the routes from here are star routes, leaving here Monday, Wednesday and Friday, it is necessary to get the papers on them and we cannot get all the letters and local news in the paper in time to do this on Wednesday.

We want the correspondents to mail us the letters just like they have been doing to reach us not later than Tuesday noon and preferably on Monday. We have had to cut the letters a great deal the last week or two in an effort to get them in at all and we don't want to do this any more.

Gum Spring School.

The Gum Spring school opened the 24th of October and has closed a very successful month. There has been sixty-five enrolled already.

The teachers for this year are Prof. Hurst, of Mandale, principal, Mrs. Hurst has the primary work and Miss Ola Harmon the intermediate and also the music.

The school celebrated Armistice Day Nov. 11th, with appropriate songs, readings and recitations. Several from the community were present and seemed to enjoy the program. The exercises were very impressive. We cannot give too much honor to the boys who gave their lives fighting for liberty. The stage was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves, pine, cedar, chrysanthemums and flags.

Prof. W. R. Thompson made a very interesting talk to the parents and children of the community last Wednesday evening. The purpose of this talk was concerning the needs of the school. They decided to enlarge one of the rooms which is very much needed and they expect to begin the work after Thanksgiving. Athletics for the children were also talked over. They expect to enlarge the ball ground for the boys and arrange for games for the girls. We believe in clean, out-door sport for the children which means healthy bodies and minds.

Gum Spring is in its fifth year as a school. It has made a splendid record the past four years, and still has a brighter future. This school is in the midst of progressive people and the majority are interested in the school and education.

Prof. Hurst is attending the Teachers Assembly at Raleigh this week. He was sent as one of the delegates from Chatham county.

Those on honor roll for being present every day during the month in the lower grades are as follows:

1st grade—Elizabeth Lutterloh
2nd grade—Dorothy Whitaker.
3rd grade—Senard Eubanks.
4th grade—Jessie Wright.
5th grade—Charlotte Wright, Ruby Wright, Evelyn Justice, Jewel Justice, Hazel Perry.
6th grade—Leona Eubanks.

THE BANQUET

Columbus Lodges of Masons Have an Enjoyable Time Last Week.

The banquet given by the members of the Masonic lodge last week at the Blair Hotel was an event that will long be remembered in Chatham county. There were near a hundred in attendance and a general good time was had. The ladies attended with the members and all the wives, sweethearts and friends of the lodge were there to enjoy the occasion.

Rev. W. E. Allen was toastmaster and all the men responded with interesting zeal, making the affair one of continuous pleasure and enjoyment.

The gathering had been planned for sometime and was the culmination of the general desire to have a get together meeting, in which both members of the lodge and their lady friends could enjoy the meeting.

The supper was all that could be desired and the management of the Blair deserve all the honor and praise they have received for the splendid success of the banquet.

NICE JUICY TURKEY may be a powerful incentive to Thanksgiving, yet is not necessary when there is genuine appreciation of the real blessings of the year.

GIVING THANKS may be made so formal that the Almighty doubts the existence of gratitude. It was the poor Publican's prayer that was commended to us all.

Thanksgiving

AND THOU shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the Lord thy God with a tribute of a freewill offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the Lord thy God, according as the Lord thy God hath blessed thee.

AND thou shalt rejoice before the Lord thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite that is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the Lord thy God has chosen to place his name there.

AND thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt; and thou shalt observe and do these statutes.

THOU shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in thy corn and thy wine;

AND thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gate.

SEVEN days shalt thou keep a solemn feast unto the Lord thy God, in the place which the Lord shall choose; because the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thy increase, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice.

HISTORIC GROUND

The Record Now on The Location of Chatham's First Paper.

Our good friend R. Percy Eubanks, now living in Grand Junction, Colorado, gives us the information that The Record office is now on the site of the old building where the first paper ever published in this section, had its office.

He states that the paper first published in Chatham county was called the Central Reflector and was published by Henry Ward, and that the late Hon Maurice Quincy Waddell gave him a copy of the paper in 1880, and that it was dated March 15, 1882. Mr. Ward was a brother of Rev. Eubanks' grandmother on his father's side. He went from Pittsboro to Montgomery Alabama, where he became prominent in the newspaper field.

The late Mr. Charles Dismukes told Mr. Eubanks that his brother, A. H. Dismukes, Henry and Hiram Ward, went to Raleigh in 1815 to learn the printers trade. A. H. Dismukes was the grand father of Dr. Clarence Poe of Raleigh. He published a paper in 1840 or 1845 in Pittsboro.

Rev. Mr. Eubanks writes further to say that he notices that we are to get a linotype machine. "What an evolution from the old No. 4 Washington hand press of 1878. I congratulate you on your paper and may it go on from place to place in its great work for God and humanity," he says.

Memorial Tablet.

Mrs. Henry A. London states that very soon a memorial tablet will be placed in the court house in honor of the men from Chatham who lost their lives in the World War. A list of these men has been supplied by the adjutant-general of the United States.

It is desired that a short sketch of each man be sent to either Mrs. London, county chairman or Prof. W. R. Thompson, secretary.

The time of the unveiling will be announced in the Record at a later date.

Mr. Waff Resigns.

People of all the denominations over Chatham county will learn with regret that Rev. W. B. Waff will leave Pittsboro after this year, having tendered his resignation as pastor of the first Baptist church here to accept a call from the church at Mocksville. Mr. Waff is a splendid man, an excellent preacher and a citizen that the Record regrets to see leave.

School News.

Battle school is progressing nicely with Mrs. T. M. Clark as principal and Miss Luta White as assistant. There is an enrollment of about sixty.

An interesting program was rendered by the school on Armistice Day, and everyone enjoyed the talk lawyer Ray made. It was very appropriate.

There will be a box party and program given at the school building Wednesday night, Nov. 23rd, at 7 o'clock. The proceeds will go for the benefit of the school.

UNDER REPAIR

Improvements Being Made in The Presbyterian Church.

For the next several weeks the congregation of the Presbyterian church will hold their religious services in the court house, owing to the repairs that are being made on the building on East street.

Entirely new windows will be placed in the church and in addition a new carpet will be put down and other interior improvements will be made. This work has been contemplated for some time, but owing to the delay in getting the desired kind of glass for the windows, the work is late in its beginning.

Until the church is completed in every particular all the services will be held in the court house.

Siler City Wins.
