JUST BUSY, THAT'S ALL.

For several weeks past the deputies, special officers and the sheriff himself have had just about all they could do to check up and get in shape to collect taxes preparatory for the sheriff to make a settlement. Therefore there has been little time to devote to the attention of the blockader, but woe be unto him nevertheless. There is time ahead and the whole force will very soon cover the county like the frost and the manufacturer of booze will be languishing in prison.

All the skills in Chatham county have not been captured, neither have the manufacturers and sellers, but they will eventually be eliminated from Chatham just so sure as the sun shines. It is time for the sinners to listen, else they will receive the same reward as have those folks who are now serving time on the chain gang. Just because a few cases have been delayed is no cause for the violator to feel secure with his sin, because everyone cannot attain a favorable consideration or be established in popular circumstance. Sentiment is the foundation of ever healthy law, and there is enough good, strong sentiment and determination among the Christian men and women in Chatham county to back up the officers. Watch and see.

ABOUT BIRDS.

The editor has received a letter from Siler City, written on a typewriter, mailed in a plain envelope and signed a "Chatham Sportsman." He takes issue with us on our editorial in last week's issue in regard to protecting the birds. The writer says he has never met the editor but is our friend and backs us up in the crusade against liquor but feels inclined to believe that "the screws are already tight" on the bird question. Then the Raleigh Times compliments our venture on the question, placing us just behind the Asheville papers in protecting the "chickens." Well, everybody is not of the same notion, is what Squire Hiram said when he kissed the cow. We appreciate friendly criticism, although our friend conceals his identity, yet we are convinced that unless the partridges are protected a little more securely for awhile, negroes and editors in a few years will be deprived of that luscious "on toast."

STOMACH CLEANER.

The Examiner, published in Los Angeles, gives out the information that prohibition authorities are to be asked to pay for repairs on the sewer lines in that city. The damage caused was the result of pouring home-made whiskey through them. All the booze that had been captured there for some time was poured through them and in a few days it was found that the liquid had entirely eaten out the piping.

Therefore, you folks that use this illicit liquor can readily see that it is pretty good for stomach cleaning. Then, too, you may be as fortunate as the old negro over in Kinston the other day. After taking a drink of it, he threw his hands to his head, called for help and fell over dead.

Vroome & Co., Butter & Cheese Merchants, New York City, says: "We keep RAT-SNAP in our cellar all the time. It keeps down rats. We buy it by the gross, would not be without it." Farmers use RAT-SNAP because rats pass up all food for RAT-SNAP. Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by W. L. London & Son and Pilkington Pharmacy.

U. D. C. Meeting.

The October meeting of the Winnie Davis Chapter of the U. D. C. was held at the residence of Mrs. H. A. London, the president, with Miss Carrie M. Jackson as additional hostess.

Meeting was called to order promptly at 2:45. After the responsive reading, followed by prayer, the following proceedings were had:

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. The treasurer then read the amount of expenditures and disbursements for the past year. This meeting marked the close of the fiscal year, and the election of officers for the coming year was then had. Upon motion of Mrs. J. C. Lanus, Mrs. H. A. London was unanimously elected president. Mrs. G. P. Alston was elected 1st vice president, Mrs. L. E. Horne 2nd vice president, Mrs. J. R. Milliken 3rd vice president, Mrs. E. A. Farrell, secretary; Mrs. J. W. Hunt, treasurer; Mrs. J. W. Johnson, cor. secretary; Mrs. Henry R. Noe, registrar; Miss Nellie Pilkington, historian.

The illness of Mr. Jack Thomas was also reported. Mrs. Cordon suggested that each daughter write a card to be sent Thanksgiving to Isaac Morris, of Bynum Rt. 1; G. L. Harmon, Moncure 2; Charles Eubanks, Pittsboro 2. This was put in the form of a motion and carried. Report of World War Relics committee was called for. Mrs. H. R. Noe reported that she had been advised that John Boone of Raleigh had a good many curios, also Ralph Knight and that she had written both of these young men asking that they contribute to this collection. Mrs. L. N. Wombie reported that her father was unable to meet with the Daughters at this time, but that she would ask him to write his experience as a member of the Junior Reserve, and that she would read same at the December meeting. Mrs. Kiar was also asked to prepare a paper on her husband's war record to be read at next meeting.

The applications of Mrs. C. C. Poe and Mrs. Olive Webster Perry were presented and the following ladies were asked to pass upon the papers: Mesdames J. C. Lanus, H. R. Noe, Jas. H. Cordon, Miss Effie Lambert, Miss Maggie Horne, and Mrs. John Taylor. While these applications were considered, Mrs. Milliken and Mrs. Eubanks told most interestingly of the meeting at Winston-Salem and of the delightful hospitality accorded them. Dimits were issued to Mrs. Fisher Makepeace, Mrs. Bob Ingram and Mrs. P. D. Woodall.

Mrs. London then told us that there are 169 chapters of U. D. C. in N. C. Division, 6200 members in the state, 100,000 members in the United States; that we have U. D. C. chapters in London and Paris. At the close of business session delightful refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Cordon, Mrs. Siler, Miss M. Horne and Miss Camelia London.

GUM SPRINGS.

The second month of our school has begun and we are having a good school. We have good teachers, three of the best in Chatham. Prof. and Mrs. W. T. Hurst, and Miss Ola Harmon. Miss Harmon's room is so crowded that it will be enlarged in a few days. We will also improve our playgrounds for the boys and girls.

Mrs. Walker Perry is in the hospital at Hamlet. We hope she will soon be able to come back home.

James T. Wright and Walker Perry went to Hamlet on a trip. Mr. and Mrs. William Carter from Siler City recently visited relatives here.

Mrs. Fannie Abernathy has returned to Kinston, after spending several weeks with her brother here, R. H. Herndon.

Minks, weasels, or something are destroying chickens in the neighborhood right lately.

The children surely enjoyed the stories that Prof. Thompson told to them last Wednesday night. We would like to know how to kill mosquitoes as well as her rabbit. We hope he will be back soon and tell us something else, as we like to hear stories.
