

THE RECORD is read every week by almost everybody that's anybody.

THE CHATHAM RECORD

THE RECORD is the paper that's in every home, and the only paper in many homes.

ESTABLISHED SEPT. 19, 1878.

PITTSBORO, N. C., CHATHAM CO., FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 1922

VOL. XLIV NO. 24

CORINTH

Messrs. A. F. Hally, J. A. Roxmond and F. L. Morton of Raleigh, visited friends and relatives at Corinth, N. C. We almost said relatives at Buckhorn and Corinth. And as usual, when Hally comes to Corinth, it rained all day.

Hickory Mountain News

Deferred from last week. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Campbell and son of Raleigh, have been on a visit to relatives.

BROWN'S CHAPEL

Deferred from last week. Fred Perry of Carrboro, returned home last week after visiting his mother, Mrs. Ann Perry.

Wise-Otherwise

Stolen Paragraphs Localized by the Editor to Tease His Friends. Being satisfied with yourself is not necessarily a compliment to your taste.

MT. ZION.

A. O. Harmon, of Raleigh, spent last week with his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harmon.

Bethel News Notes

Bethel school is doing good work since the Christmas holidays with the splendid teachers, W. H. Langley and Miss Annie Lutterloh.

BRICKHAVEN.

Mrs. R. H. Marks spent the week with her mother, Mrs. Womble, at Lockville.

The teachers of the lower Cape Fear reading circle held their bi-weekly meeting at Truth last Friday and report a good meeting. The Truth teachers, Misses Herring, Deer, are splendid instructors and are conducting a good school this winter.

Miss Alice Johnson has been on a visit to friends in Lusville, N. C. Miss Lula White spent Christmas at home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Cheek of Carrboro, visited Mrs. Mann and family last week.

Well, boy, don't blame her for the cutting remarks in the letter. She probably wrote it with the pen knife you gave her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thomas spent the week-end with Mrs. Thomas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Windborn.

The young people of this community were sorry to see such a bad day Sunday on account of keeping them away from Sunday school.

The social given by Miss Kate Marks last Thursday evening in honor of her brother, A. A. Marks, was a decided success.

Some time ago ye scribe, in an unsuspicious and "I-don't-care-if-you-don't" way, offered a good pig and a house to live in to either or both of the two Buckhorn bachelors who would marry.

Miss Ethel Campbell spent Monday night with Miss Audrey Johnson.

James Rolph, Jr., mayor of San Francisco, says the spending of less than one earns, the putting aside each week of as much as can be spared from one's income

Some men avoid acquiring a habit, that's the reason they refuse to work.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Farrell and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Perry motored to Burlington last week.

Luther Eubanks, who lives on route 2, Pittsboro, found a rabbit path on his place recently and set a box.

This is to certify that the undersigned has this day qualified as administrator of the estate of Mrs. Maggie Marshall, deceased.

Next Sunday morning and afternoon there will be preaching at Brown's Chapel. Dinner will be served on the grounds.

They are agents in Chatham county, as well as Lee, Moore and Harnett. If you are interested in a Buick, see the stock of all kinds of cars that they have in their building in Sanford.

Not knowing the first Sunday morning the full value of the gift to me from the Good Fellowship Sunday School Class, I wish to thank again each member for the beautiful and valuable watch given to me.

Will you allow an old Chathamite to speak a word through your valuable paper. I for another was born and raised in dear old Chatham county.

Recently the editor of the Record has made several trips to Siler City in a Ford. The new road that has been opened from Pittsboro to that town is a good one.

We, the undersigned, forbid any and all from transgressing or hunting with gun or dog on any of our lands in Oakland or Center townships.

Two pointers, one grown dog, white with few large brown spots on body and very heavily ticked with small brown spots, left fore legs small cut which causes him to limp.

Pittsboro Newspaper Man

Colin G. Shaw, publisher of The Chatham Record, left yesterday afternoon for his home at Pittsboro, after spending a day here with his brother, David Shaw, of The Observer. He was returning from the North Carolina press convention at Winston-Salem and came this way to see his brother and friends at Monroe, where he formerly lived for many years. He planned to spend the night at Monroe and proceed to Pittsboro today.

Mr. Shaw bought the Pittsboro paper about a year ago, and he reports that he had a good year. He spoke in enthusiastic terms of the support and friendship accorded him by the people of Pittsboro and Chatham county.—Charlotte Observer, Jan. 7.

WHAT DO YOU WEIGH?

A little boy watching the people get on and off a weighing machine saw each one drop a penny in the slot and the needle spin round telling each what he weighed.

The boy saw his chance and jumped on the scale. He felt in his pocket, but found no penny. The needle did not move. "I haven't a penny and so I don't weigh anything," said the little boy.

That's the way it goes, all through life. If you want to weigh anything in the estimation of those around you, ACCUMULATE SOME MONEY.

There's no better way than to become enthusiastic about your bank account. If you would accumulate, SAVE AND BANK.
