

THE RECORD is read every week by almost everybody that's anybody.

THE CHATHAM RECORD

THE CHATHAM RECORD

THE RECORD is the paper that's in every home, and the only paper in many homes.

ESTABLISHED SEPT. 19, 1878.

PITTSBORO, N. C., CHATHAM CO., FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 1922

VOL. XLIV NO. 83

PROSPECTS

Snow and Sleet Kept Tender Fruit Buds From Appearing.

The recent snow, sleet and rain in Chatham county have been odious to many sunshine-loving citizens...

Without the sleet tender buds of fruit trees would unquestionably have burst forth...

The wheat and oats crops are in fine condition. The so-called terrible weather has been ideal for the grain.

Pea and onion crops stand fine chances of becoming very valuable to the farmers.

It is winter has been an unusual wet one, and it is well. Last summer's dry spell left the subsoil dry and the wells and springs short of water.

So, all in all, the crop situation in Chatham looks very encouraging indeed.

Income Tax Facts.

Farmers, rangers, herders, dairymen, truck gardeners, vineyard and orchard owners, and other food producers must compute their net and gross incomes for 1921 and ascertain whether an income tax return, or a tax, or both are due.

In determining income, upon which the tax is assessed, the farmer may deduct from gross income all necessary expenses incurred in the operation of his farm during the year 1921.

About Dogs.

The crowded condition of the paper prevents publishing a letter this week about dogs running at large. Look for it next week and in the meantime keeps your dogs confined, especially at night.

Pittsboro School News.

The following had perfect attendance in the fourth and fifth grades: Ivez Blake, C. C. Hamlet, Hugh Johnson, Annie Bynum, Lloyd Nooe, Brooks Petty, John Lea Burns, Nyal Womble, Charlie Poe, Pearl Johnson.

Those making the honor roll on spelling are: C. C. Hamlet, Macie Harris, Pearl Johnson, Pauline Farrell, Ralph Riddle, Pauline Crews, Robert Connell, Pauline Brook, Annie Bynum, Margaret Brooks, Ralph Connell, Aline Eubanks.

On Wednesday morning, March 8, the following patriotic program was rendered by the fourth and fifth grades:

Song—America. 19th Psalm (from memory)—Pearl Johnson. A Boy's Intentions—C. C. Hamlet.

An Ill Treated Flag—Inez Blake, Macie Harris.

The History of Our Flag—By Four Girls.

Song, My Own United States—Both Grades.

A Gentleman—Jamie Harper. We're Going to Fight—4 Boys.

A Test of Courage—Lester Farrell, Pauline Farrell, Ralph Riddle, Truman Fields and Brodie Griffin.

We were delighted to have several visitors present. They were: Mesdames Lee Farrell, E. R. Hinton, J. M. Harper, W. O. Petty, S. D. Johnson, Taylor Henderson, R. A. Glenn, Miss Margaret Horne, Bobbie Hinton, Dunwood and Al Harper.

Live-at-Home Campaign

Gov. Morrison is calling on the people of North Carolina to plan this year for a "live-at-home" campaign—to plant more food crops. Committees have been appointed in each county to look after this matter and urge our people to the necessity of planning and having better gardens, a cow for every family on the farm, poultry and pork for home use.

The governor calls on the children throughout the state to plant gardens and form garden clubs.

Mr. Johnston, secretary of the Chatham county fair association, will be glad to co-operate with both teachers and parents of the county to promote the interest of the "live-at-home" campaign.

Let's begin now to get exhibits ready for the county fair this fall. Prizes will be given for the best exhibits.

BROWN'S CHAPEL

Mrs. C. M. Justice was taken quite sick last Saturday, but her many friends will be glad to learn that she is improving.

We missed Bro. Isaac Durham at Sunday school last Sunday, but on inquiry we found that he had gone on a visit to one of his children at Carrboro and attended Sunday school there.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Lutterloh spent the week-end with C. W. Lutterloh.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Taylor Mann spent last Sunday at the home of W. M. Lindsay.

Miss Blanche Henderson returns to Raleigh after spending several days with her mother, Mrs. S. J. Henderson.

Miss Lelia Mann is spending several days with her sister, Mrs. R. G. Cheek, at Carrboro.

On account of high water last week our mail was cut off for several days.

New Hill Notes

Famous M. Mann, of Raleigh, spent Sunday with his parents.

Miss Gertrude Ray spent the week-end with Misses Bettie and Nina Sturdivant.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Windham and little daughter, May Belle, of Merry Oaks, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beckwith.

Miss Blanche Holt spent the week-end here with Miss Flossie Goodwin.

Misses Mozell Poe, Liila Ellis and Hilda La-ater were guests of Miss Mary Webster Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Hatley and children, of Bynum, spent Sunday with Mrs. Hatley's parents.

Mrs. W. A. Drake was the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. F. Sturdivant Sunday.

Miss Dara Holt spent Sunday afternoon with the Misses Webster.

Miss Swanna Drake spent the week-end with Miss Eula Carr.

Miss Vara Drake motored to Sanford Monday on business.

Postmaster Exams

Sanford has been designated as the place for the examination of a postmaster for the Pittsboro office. The examination takes place April 8. The vacancy at the Pittsboro office takes place April 6. The salary is $1,800 a year.

S. D. Jonson has been endorsed by the county Republican executive committee to fill the office at Pittsboro, and will meet the demand if appointed.

There will probably be many applicants, but we would warn Democrats to save time, because "to the victor belongs the spoils."

MEETING CLOSED

Rev. William Elack Finishes Up a Remarkable Week

Sunday night closed the series of meetings which were held by the Presbyterians here under the able preaching of Rev. William Black, of Charlotte, the Presbyterian evangelist.

All the denominations of the town took an active part in the services and did everything they could to make the meetings a success.

During the services, especially the latter part of the week, Mr. Black invited the colored people of the town to attend the meetings and seats were specially reserved for them.

There is no comparison between the whites and blacks when it gets down to vocal music. White people sing by notes and books and are educated, out there was a great difference in the new songs white people sang and the old songs colored people sang, such as "There Is a Fountain Filled With Blood," and other old time religious hymns.

These colored people seemed to put their whole souls and hearts into the songs. They are not educated like the whites and neither did they sing by note, but their deep mellow voices carried the old people who were in the audiences back to their childhood days, when they listened to the old darkeys sing in their meetings.

And today the old colored people have not forgotten their old songs—"Jesus, Lover of My Soul," "Rock of Ages," and others, that when sung by the unlettered old-time darkey touched the hearts of many in the audience.

Saturday night there was an old colored man among them, away past 70 years of age, who can neither read nor write, sat there on his seat, his head thrown back, a happy smile on his face, and he was keeping time with the rest, repeating word for word of the song as the mellow notes floated over the large court room.

There were 21 professions, 10 joined the Presbyterian church and 3 by letter, the balance joined the other churches here. The collections in all amounted to over $200. Mr. Burr, the choir leader, received $52 and $134 was raised for the synod home missions. Mr. Black is paid a regular salary.

Antioch

Rev. Sion M. Lynam preached a most excellent sermon at his regular appointment at Antioch last Sunday.

Miss Mattie Eva Dorsette has returned home after spending a few days at Cummeck with her aunt, Mrs. D. A. Rieves.

Her many friends will regret to learn of the illness of Mrs. Frances Oldham. Mrs. J. D. Dowdy, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Heartt and baby were dinner guests Thursday in the home of O. M. Dorsette.

Good Painting.

W. H. Overacre and Son have finished a job of painting on the Presbyterian church here that is a credit to them. The interior is remarkably changed and the church is now one of beauty.

In addition to the painting the exposed floor has been oiled and new carpeting put down over the church.

BRICKHAVEN.

Mrs. Nash, the principal of our school here, did not return to her work last Monday, as was stated, but she is getting on splendidly and hopes to return within a few days.

Miss Leone Luther, our grade teacher, spent the week-end with her parents at Bonsal.

We are very sorry to learn that Lida Mims, a member of the 7th grade class, will not be able to return to school during the spring term.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Kennedy, little Ruth, and Mrs. T. J. Harrington motored to Raleigh Sunday for the final services by Dr. Truett.

Miss Maizie Womble, of New Hill, spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. A. M. Cotten.

Mr. Griffin, of the Boylan ranch, is very ill with influenza. There is quite an epidemic of colds, but so far only one case of influenza has developed.

Mrs. C. H. Mocks is suffering from an attack of appendicitis. It still remains a serious proposition when any one is ill enough to require the aid of a physician. As yet no one has taken Dr. Strickland's practice at Moncure, and to say the least, the situation is critical.

Ray Yarboro is spending awhile with his sister here, Mrs. C. H. Thompson.

Mrs. R. H. Marks has returned from Lockville, where she visited relatives last week.

Quite a number of people here and from Corinth were at the school Tuesday evening for the moving pictures and all were very much disappointed when "the picture wagon" did not come.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Emerson, the 9th, a daughter.

Mrs. D. E. Rives has been sick, but is improving somewhat, we are glad to note.

H. M. Tysor continues very feeble; he has been confined to his room for some time.

O. G. Tysor has recently had an attack of "flu." R. J. Tysor, of Sanford, has been staying with his father, O. G., since he has been sick.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Beal spent Sunday visiting Mrs. Beal's sister, Mrs. W. I. Williamson, of Sanford. W. A. Coggins accompanied them as far as Sanford.

A Pie Party

There will be a pie party given at Gum Spring school March 22, 1922, beginning at 7 o'clock. Everybody invited to attend.

Resolutions

"The silver cord is loosed, the golden bowl is broken; the dust has returned to earth as it was, and the spirit unto God who gave it."

In view of the recent death of our coworker, Mary Perry, it is most fitting that we, as members of Brown's Chapel church, should make expression of our high esteem and regard for her, and our sense and sorrow and loss.

Resolved, that our church has sustained the loss of a very loyal and highly esteemed member, who has left a name and memory fully worthy of our emulation, and we are glad to have known her and called her friend.

We shall miss her genial smile and cordial greeting at her home. The faithful husband of her youth and their sons have been bereaved of an unusually devoted wife and mother, who dedicated the strength and power of her womanhood to their care and protection.

This church has lost a valuable and influential member, who was always greatly interested in the upbuilding and development of her community.

That we wish to render to her dear ones our cordial sympathy in their sorrow and grief, assuring them of our love and prayers.

And we would earnestly commend them to the allwise Heavenly Father, whom she loved and delighted to serve, and who has graciously promised, "I will strengthen thee. I will help thee. I will uphold thee with the right hand of righteousness."

COMMITTEE.

Moses School.

In a recent game of ball between Carolina and Moses school it was called on account of rain, the score being 24 to 4 in favor of Moses when stopped.

Mrs. D. J. Jones is improving after a spell of sickness.

Mrs. W. F. Mann visited her son, E. F. Mann, recently.

Lillie and Ike Bynum have recovered from a case of the flu.

Charlie Hart has moved into our neighborhood.

Squire Blair's Home

Squire John R. Blair has moved into his new bungalow on west Salisbury street, having slept there for the first time Saturday night. It is a well appointed home, having eight rooms and all modern conveniences in every particular.

The contracting carpenters say it is one of the best bungalows built in this section so far.

CONVENTION APRIL 12.

Republicans Will Meet in Winston-Salem For Action.

At a conference of the State Republican Executive Committee held in Raleigh last Wednesday, it was decided to hold the State Convention in Winston-Salem on April 12.

The meeting was well attended and much business concerning the Republicans of the State was transacted. J. J. Jenkins, ex-sheriff of Chatham county and cashier of The Chatham Bank in Siler City, acted as secretary in the place of Collector Grissom who holds that position at present.

In their deliberations the Republicans declared for a whole ticket and a vigorous campaign. They believed their hour has come. Taxes have reached the point of oppression, it was argued, and the people are ready to hear. As answer to this intolerable burden of taxes, the administration creates new departments of taxation, fills them with expensive officeholders and embark upon a program of greater extravagance.

Moreover, this department of taxation is the ministry of politics, it was observed. The Republicans see their chance and with the ready pen of a Bailey and a few independent papers they believe they can carry the message to the uttermost parts. It was this aspect of the coming campaign which was discussed in the executive session. The school were considered a good subject, too.

Neck Broken.

A four year-old colt, belonging to Moyle Johnson, who lives near Moore's bridge, failed to come to the stable Monday afternoon. On searching for it in the pasture next morning the colt was found dead with its neck broken. It is not known what caused the accident.

A Chathamite Dead.

The relatives and friends of J. Martin Campbell will regret to learn of his death, which occurred at his home in Tibbs, Miss., Feb. 30th. He was reared in Chatham and was a man of high ideals, and an honest upright christian gentleman.

Notice of Land Sale

By virtue of the powers contained in a mortgage deed, executed by Walker Clegg, on the 5th day of March, 1913, and registered in the office of the register of deeds for Chatham county, in Book F2, at page 212, I will sell to the highest bidder, for cash, at the court house door, in Pittsboro, N. C., on Monday, April 10, 1922, at 12 o'clock m., one town lot located in the village of Lockville, Chatham county, N. C., and known as the old Luke property and being the lot on which the said Walker Clegg recently resided.

This 6th day of March, 1922. JAS. L. GRIFFIN, Mortgagee.
