NO BETTER SENSE

Officers Do Not Give the Moonshiners Half a Show

"Moonshiners will keep on making stills, and the officers have no better sense than to keep on capturing them," remarked a citizen last Friday, when Jo Moore, rural carrier on route 2, drove up to the jail with a 30-gallon copper still, cap and worm, captured that morning in Hickory Mountain township by W. H. Ferguson and A. M. Webster.

Earlier that day D. M. and C. B. Atwater and C. H. Strowd, of Baldwin township, brought in a copper still, minus the cap and worm, that they found in the woods near Lambville. They poured out about 200 gallons of beer.

Then again during the same day another still was brought in by Sheriff Blair and some of his deputies, captured in Hadley township. The still was about 30 gallon capacity and was of copper. No cap or worm was found, but a quantity of beer was destroyed.

This thing of breaking up 'shiners up from making an honest (?) living, stopping them and others from work, is getting to be monotonous. Three stills in one day is enough to discourage the most courageous 'shiner and make him stop, look and listen a bit. For their own good, they had better.

What will the holdup man do now? The income tax man has about heldup every person that had anything.

A SPLENDID RECORD.

Young Chatham Man at Elon College Making Good.

Mr. H. G. Self of Siler City, son of Mr. J. E. Self, a citizen of our county, is a senior in Elon College this year, and according to advices received from that institution is making a very fine record for himself, both as a student and as a leader in the college activities.

Especially has he stood out prominently during his college course as a public speaker. This spring he is to represent Elon College in the annual debate between that institution and Lenoir College. He has won several medals on the public platform during his college course, and is a strong candidate to represent his Class at commencement.

Mr. Self, however, has been very active in other lines of student activities. He is this year Business Manager of the Phippsville, the college year book, which is one of the important offices a student can hold.

And in addition to his prominence in the student activities he has made a record well above the average in his academic studies.

His many friends in this section will be glad to know that these distinctions have come to him.

A BIG CELEBRATION.

Dinner at Home of Robert Dixon in Albright Last Sunday.

Last Sunday, March 19th, it was pleasure of the editor to attend an anniversary celebration of the 75th birthday of Robert Dixon in Albright township, near Silk Hope. It was indeed a pleasant occasion and we delighted to mingle with the two hundred people present there to enjoy the splendid dinner that had been prepared by the neighbors and friends of Mr. Dixon.

There were present there some twelve men that ranged in age 67 years to 88 years of age, all hale and hearty.

The table was set in the front yard and the 60 foot in length and 2 foot wide was literally loaded with viands fit to tempt a king. Among other things were boiled ham, fried chicken, pies, custard, more than 30 cakes and in fact anything that was good to eat.

Mr. Dixon is even 75 years of age today, March 22, and his next door neighbor, S. D. Brewer, was 67 years of age on Sunday. Other men 70 years of age or over present were John W. Perry, Joe Bridges, S. P. Teague, W. W. Edwards, Bill Phillips, Frank Pike, D. M. Smith, Thos. E. Thompson and Murphy Vestal.

Mr. Dixon has four children, three sons and one daughter, one son, Zack lives with his father, while Jesse lives in Pasco, Wash., his daughter, Mrs. David Evans, resides in High Point and the other son, M. W., lives in Pulaski, Tenn. The last named sent a nice box of fruit, home made candy and a birthday cake.

In Memory

Many hearts were made sad on Feb. 23rd, 1922, when the death angel called at the home of John E. Clarke and took the spirit of Mrs. Clarke back to the One who gave it.

In early life she professed faith in Jesus Christ and joined Center M. P. church, of which she remained a member until her marriage to Mr. Clark. Then she joined Emmanuel Baptist church and remained a faithful member until her death, always taking an active part in all church and Sunday school work.

At her death she was president of the W. M. U. and we will miss her to lead and direct us in this great organization, as well as in other activities in the community.

She was a kind mother, a devoted wife and a friend to all who knew her.

She leaves four small children, the oldest being 15 and the youngest 3 to mourn their loss, a husband, brothers and sisters and a host of other friends and relatives.

She was laid to rest in Emmaus cemetery amid her relatives and a host of friends. The funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev. L. R. Dixon.

Now is the time for the grower to turn his attention to the growing and production of the things for exhibition at the Chatham County Fair which comes off October 3, 4, 5, and 6.

The officers of the Fair are working plans for a very fine Fair this year and will make it of real interest to the producers of farm products, fruit growers, truckers, livestock men, and the ladies. The secretary is sending out circulars instructing the teachers of the county and adjoining counties how to prepare and properly enter school exhibits as a school as well as by the individual student. It is his intention to have several games of basket ball between the girls of various schools, also games between the boys. Athletic features bid for part of the features School day will be Tuesday, October 3rd. W. R. Thompson, County Superintendent, will proclaim that day as School Day for the Fair and no school will be held any place in the county, thus giving all teachers and students opportunity to attend the Fair, enjoy the competitive games between schools and compare the school exhibits.

Carnival and other attractions are being closely investigated to have only the best obtainable.

With reasonable support given the officers Chatham County Fair will make a reputation this year that all people will be proud of. It's your Fair, so begin to prepare your school exhibits, farm and stock exhibits, and the ladies must not neglect their exhibits.

The votes were cast for the prettiest girl and the ugliest man. Miss Myrtle Perry received the prize as the prettiest girl and C. Dezeron the ugliest man.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Miss Francis Haire is a Specialist in This Work—Now in Chatham

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Clark spent the week-end with Mr. Clark's father, L. E. Cook, near Pittsboro.

Miss Francis Haire, who is here in our county doing some special community service work, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Nash at Buckhorn. Miss Haire is a Missourian from our own town and our own school and it was a treat to talk over old times again.

Mrs. T. V. Sexton and son, Vance Lea, returned home last Friday.

The Hazel Adams players from Moncure failed to show up at Corinth last Friday night, so we had our ice cream, etc., all to ourselves.

We want to urge all Chatham county people, especially teachers and school children, to take advantage of the training in community service work now being conducted by Miss Frances Haire. She is a specialist along that line and is being loaned by the national bureau to Mr. Crosby, the state director, who in turn has favored Chatham county again by sending her to us. Mr. Allen, the local director, is using Miss Haire to help get the work organized in each community.

Miss Haire was in this work during the war. She spent most of the time in the training camps. Now she has been retained to continue her work through the national organization which is also an outgrowth of the war times.

She is a splendid organizer, a trained leader and a charming woman. So let us all get behind this effort and push the good work along.

Mr. and A. E. Rollins spent Sunday at Varina visiting at Varina visiting Mr. Rollins' father.

Sam and Cary Gunter, Robert Perry and Mr. Smith, of Raleigh, spent Sunday at the home of F. N. Gunter.

B. M. McIver is quite sick at his home here with an aggravated attack of flu.

Well, we got one on Joe McIver. A charming young lady visited in the neighborhood last week and Mr. Joe at once became interested, but had not met her. So a little later we introduced the lady to Avery Ausley and she thought it was Mr. Joe and called him Mr. Joe. Now, who even thought of Mr. Joe being so young and handsome that he would pass for his own nephew.

FOR SOLICITOR

Marshall T. Spears of Harnett County to Run

Our esteemed contemporary, The Harnett County News, published at Lillington, the county seat of Harnett, has the following to say in regard to Marshall T. Spears:

Marshall T. Spears, of Lillington, solicitor of the recorder's court, is being urged to enter the race for solicitor of this judicial district comprising the counties of Chatham, Lee, Harnett, Johnston and Wayne. Mr. Spears has not as yet definitely decided upon what course he will take in the matter. He has under advisement the solicitation of many friends in Chatham, Lee and Harnett.

Hon. Walter D. Siler now holds the job of solicitor. There has arisen, however, a considerable revolt against what is termed the "Siler machine" in Chatham, and numbers of citizens over that way declare they are determined to oust Mr. Siler. Several causes are assigned for this step on the part of opponents of the solicitor. There is complaint that he is not prosecuting blockaders with the vim and vigor becoming a solicitor. But that is only one of the "kicks." Chathamites opposed to his re-nomination express their extreme weariness of the "Siler dictatorship."

Marshall T. Spears is one of Harnett county's busiest attorneys. Also, he is one of the most popular lawyers of the local bar. After returning from service overseas, his health was not of the very best, but after a few months in Oteen hospital he resumed his practice and has kept steadily at it ever since. His numerous friends would be greatly pleased to see him elevated from solicitor of the recorder's court to that of the superior court.

Spears is another one of these brave lads that volunteered his services during the world war and deserves the consideration of everyone. His services would be all right because he is a young man of ability, determination and a lawyer of splendid attainments. The Record welcomes the information carried by Harnett county's splendid family paper.
