VOL. XLV NO. 8

REPORT of the condition of the BANK OF PITTSBORO.

Table with financial data for Bank of Pittsboro, including assets like loans, discounts, and liabilities like deposits and capital.

RECORDETTES

A few days ago the state papers and the local papers in Rebocon county, carried an account of the death of M. G. McKenzie. The editor of this paper knew him well, and as he read the account of his death and useful career, we were carried back a number of years when we sojourned in Maxton and was associated with Gaston McKenzie in the publishing of the Scottish Chief.

CORINTH SCHOOL BIRTHDAY.

Rufus Holt, of Buckhorn Falls into Clutches of the Law. Corinth, September 25.—Our school birthday party was a success, both financially and socially. Mr. W. C. Crosby, our former state community service director, came out with his machine and two excellent pictures, "The Luck of Roaring Camp" and "Gallagher," which were much appreciated.

ROAD COMMISSIONERS MEET.

The regular monthly meeting of the Road Commissioners was held in the court house in Pittsboro, on September 11th, and the following business was transacted: Bills paid: H. G. Herndon, $36. E. R. Thomas, lumber, nails, building truck, $13.80.

C. N. GUNTER IN CHATHAM.

The above well known negro educator has been engaged for work in Chatham county during the ensuing school year. He will have charge of the negro school at Haywood. This school will occupy a large four room Rosenwald building located on the National highway.

SIDE STREET GOSSIP.

Down at the store the other morning, Bill Watson was telling of a family row that was over in his part of the town. He never called any names but all knew who he was meaning. He told me not to say anything about it as it was not general news and he hoped it would not get out. Bill said he knew the whole town would be on it and I thought as much with the headway it had, with Bill going about telling it. Some things should be put to a stop but it never occurred to me that Bill was the man to straighten that crowd out and I am thinking that it is not half as bad as he has put it. It always was strange to me that some folks can't ever see anything but the bad in others. Most of the time, there is absolutely no foundation, to the lies you hear about folks. Many a man or woman has been deliberately lied about and their character in the community damaged—all on account of some busy body telling something, and some honest people taking it as the truth. It has been my observation that when somebody has something to tell—very confidential and it is all a lie to begin with, and it is not to repeat it, you will do well to pass him up and that right now. The chances are, that there is no foundation for trash in it. There is so much good and so many good neighbors that it is a poor come-off to be telling the bad especially when nineteen times out of twenty, it is all a lie to begin with.

PEOPLE TO OUR WRITERS.

Our correspondents will please take notice that next week is Fair week and we want to get a paper out early so that we may give our men a little time to attend the exercises and we will greatly appreciate it if they will get their contributions in early, so that we may be able to print The Herald on Monday and The Record on Wednesday. Then on the week following, Monday, October 9th, we will want you to do the same thing. We want to print The Herald on Monday and The Record on Wednesday. We are compelled to give our office in Pittsboro and expect to move on Thursday, Oct. 12 and will have to gain the time in order to do it. We thank you for the courtesy. Mr. Teague Pays Taxes. Mr. S. P. Teague was in our Siler City office on Friday of last week and showed us a letter he had received from the sheriff, acknowledging receipt of his remittance for 1922 tax. Mr. Teague sent this in on the 15th. He says that if everyone would pay their tax as soon as the sheriff gets the books, it would save the county many thousands of dollars each year, both in interest and discount.

IN OAKLAND TOWNSHIP.

THE EDITORIAL STAFF OF SOME OF OUR EXCHANGES HAS ITS SCISSORS FIEND WHO CUTS UP OR LESS NUMBER OF ITEMS THAT HAVE BEEN CARRIED IN THIS PAPER.

Well, there is an allowance, of considerable latitude, as news items become common property after they have been once published. But the practice of plagiarizing is the primary sense of the term is a discredit to any newspaper, the plagiarist gives as original that which belongs to another and which can be used without credit by theft. The daily papers of North Carolina very frequently quote our paper and be it their everlasting credit, we are given due consideration for its origin—a practice that some weeklies might also accept.

IN THE HOME OF THE EDITOR IS WHAT IS NOW COMMONLY KNOWN AS A "RADIO."

His young son, Gilbert, some few years ago became enamored with the "wireless" fever and since that time has devoted considerable energy to mastering wireless detector bulbs, aerials, switches, battery boxes, static, click keys, diagrams, coils, grounds, connections, broadcasting, charging, and a hundred other things which we are not in common and the task of listening to all the things are worse than a man who has just acquired his first horseless carriage. It is true that night after night we listen to Pittsburg, Atlanta, Des Moines, Schenectady, Detroit, Kansas City, Chicago, and all of the other "broadcasting" stations, but it is alarming just what enthusiasm a young fellow can put in to an infant discovery. He is proud of the fact that he has the only one at present in Chatham county and says he is the pioneer for Siler City. We hope, after long suffering listening to the technical terms of this little apparatus, that we may get something of value to tell our readers just what happened. The November election returns, if nothing else.

RADIO AT THE FAIR

The secretary of the Chatham County Fair, to be held in Siler City on October 3, 4, 5 and 6, has arranged with Gilbert Shaw to have an exhibition during the four days, a radio outfit for the benefit of the many people who may have never seen one of the instruments and those who do not know how the machine is operated, or of its purpose or construction. It is very probable that at many times during the day, it will be possible to hear the musical concerts, market reports, and other interesting items. However, this is not guaranteed. But whether you hear or not, you will be enabled to get a good idea of the working condition of these instruments and this in itself will be of benefit to many.

SOME NEW HOPE NEWS.

New Hill, Rt. 2, Sept. 25.—B. W. Thomas has returned to his home in Henderson, after a visit to his mother, Mrs. J. A. Thomas. Miss Grizzell Copeland was the week-end guest of Miss Mozelle Poe. Mrs. J. M. Bland and children were called at the home of J. L. Goodwin Sunday. Miss Vera Drake, who is attending Kings Business College at Raleigh, spent the week-end at home. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beckwith and Edgar Beckwith have been on a short visit to Mr. and Mrs. Miles, near Apex. A number from here attended a singing rally at Gum Springs Sunday, and report a nice time. Miss Rose Sturdivant was the guest of Miss Swannie Drake Sunday. A crowd of young people as well as the older ones, enjoyed Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. J. A. Thomas, especially the violin and banjo music by Mr. R. L. Hatcher and sister, Mrs. D. L. Thomas. Mrs. C. L. Lasater has returned to her home after spending sometime in Durham, accompanied by Mrs. Woody and children.

NOTICE!

All parties having an account against the Chatham Fair must present detailed statement to the secretary not later than October 10th. J. B. JOHNSTON, Secretary.

HE IS NOT DEAD.

On Sunday, September 17th, a good many people went to Mt. Vernon Methodist church to attend the funeral of Amick Johnson, who it was reported had died the day before in Burlington, as a result of blood poisoning. It was reported to this paper and we had an item about it last week although we said it was Aleck Johnson. It develops that Mr. Johnson is recovering nicely and the report coming from Burlington as to his death was a false one. He has many friends in Chatham county that will be glad to know he is so much better.
