VOL. XLV NO. 10

NOVEMBER ELECTION

Registrars and Pollholders Appoint-ed by Election Board.

THE JEROME-LONDON WEDDING | 85

Marriage of Prominent Young Couple in Pittsboro Last Week.

The marriage of Miss Camelia London, of Pittsboro, and Mr. Frederick D. Jerome, of Goldsboro, took place Thursday evening, October 5, 1922, at 7:30 o'clock at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal churlh in Pittsboro. The Episcopal churlh in Pittsboro. The Episcopal churlh decorated with Southern smilax, palms, ferns and white candles. Mis. Fisher Makepeace sang "O Perfect, and Mrs. Victor Johnson played the wedding music. Rev. W. E. The whole Young crowd was down an appreciative set of people and almost everyone was loud in the praise of the exhibits and the manner in was an appreciative set of people and almost everyone was loud in the praise of the exhibits and the manner in which they were handled and displayed by the superintendents in charge. We want to add to this also, because he ring Mr. Marvin has to have a car foll-land around Dunlap's Cross Roads where he will build immediately.

In the filled name of the Church was an appreciative set of people and almost everyone was loud in the praise of the exhibits and the manner in was an appreciative set of people and almost everyone was loud in the praise of the exhibits and the manner in which they were handled and displayed by the superintendents in charge. We want to add to this also, because he ring Mr. Marvin has to have a car foll-land around Dunlap's Cross Roads where he will build immediately.

In the fellowing list it will be observed that the Cloutty, and Mrs. T. H. Buchlors of the exhibits and the manner in was an appreciative set of people and almost everyone was loud in the praise of the Words and Mrs. T. H. Buchlors of the exhibits and the manner in which they were handled and displayed by the superintendents in charge.

We want to add to this also, because the children grow of the departments of the clouse very and by with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Buchlors of the will be a populative set of people and almost everyone was loud in the praise of the whorth Mrs. T. N. Norwood is visiting his fath-exher the well of the well of the well of the word of the church wa palms, ferns and white candles. Mis.

Fisher Makepeace sang "O Perfect Love," and Mrs. Victor Johnson playright on over to my house and put the car under my cow shed where it heride, who was escorted and given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Henry M Londoz, of Raleigh, wore a bridal gown of white Dutchess satin trimmed with a court train. Her tulle veil had a coronet of rose point lace and fashioned with a court train. Her tulle veil had a coronet of rose point lace and was caught with orange blossoms. Her ornaments were a pearl and diamond
the Young girls had some fancy work naments were a pearl and diamond
the Young girls had some fancy work and Mrs. Victor Johnson playright on over to my house and put the car under my cow shed where it
than those who were in charge.
Efferies Berwer was the general superintendent; J. C. Fesmire was in charge of the live stock; Mrs. C. N.
Bray, Mrs. June Wren and Mrs. P. D.
Bray, Mrs. June Wren and Mrs. P. H. Eltime to see what was going on. This work is on and they never took the time to see what was going on. This work is on and they never took the dim to see what was going on. This work is on and they never took the time to see what was going on. This work is on and they never took the dim the County Fair and it Bray, Mrs. June Wren and Mrs. P. H. Eltimes Berwer was the general superintendent; J. C. Fesmire was in charge of the live stock; Mrs. C. N.
Bray, Mrs. June Wren and Mrs. P. H. Eltimes the car under my cow shed where it than those who were in charge.

Under the car under my cow shed where it than those who were in charge.

The County Fair and it and the County Britant to too, so he can send for a doctor right than those eats to many scupperintendent; J. C. Fesmire was in charge of the live stock; Mrs. C. N.
Bray, Mrs. June Wren and Mrs. P. H. Eltimes the car under my cow shed where it than those who were in charge.

The Chatham county Fair at Siler City gets bigger and better every low they have had many complimentary remarks about the attracti naments were a pearl and diamond pin, the gift of the bridegroom and a pearl necklace that has been worn in the sights, Jim and Mrs. Young in the sights, Jim and Mrs. Young the sights and Mrs. Young the sights are the my house to get the more deadly interheart rosebuds.

door were Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. It is a sight to see the things that the London. Receiving at the parlor door Were Mr. and Mrs. Isaac S. London, of the was always a good cook but with were Mr. and Mrs. Isaac S. London, of the was always a good cook but with the were Mr. and Mrs. Isaac S. London, of the was always a good cook but with the wear feed your Rockingham, who presented the guests the girls to help, they can feed you. time, let everyone begin to plan now to the receiving line, composed of Mrs. It has been told that Bill Watson for the biggest fair in 1923 that has P. Jerome, of Goldsboro, parents of carnival bunch but I don't know how the groom; Mrs. E. E. Moffitt, Mrs. J. true it is. The wonder is where the R. London, of Greensboro; Mrs. J. H. nineteen came from in the first place. Currie, of Fayetteville; and the members of the bridal party, Mr. and Mrs. if he did lose, for any fool knows that Jerome received their friends under you can't beat another fellow at his a huge wedding bell of white, this own game. corner of the large parlor being a bower of white flowers of Southern candidates will be around pretty soon smilax. Receiving at the dining room I saw some of them at the Fair doing son, of Fayetteville, and Mrs. J. H. being glad to see your friends but I fell, of Trenton, N. J. Serving in the dining room were Misses Margaret a thing.

Mrs. W. B. Cheek, of Chapel Hill; and Mrs. P. L. Elkins and family, of Bear Creek, route 2. One son, D. A. door were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ander-Womble, Pauline and Emily Taylor, Elizabeth Chapin, Evelyn Alston and Emily Thompson. Suspended from the ceiling of the dining room was another wedding bell with tulle looped from it to the four corners of the old mahogany table. Underneath the bell was the bride's cake iced and decorated by her mother, with two iced doves on top, the same that were used years ago on her mother's wedding cake, and used since in the fmily weddings. Receiving at the library door were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jerome, of Winston; Mr. and Mrs. James H. Cordon, of Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. David Currie, of Fayetteville; Mr. and Mrs. W.

D. Siler and Richard Gregory. In the gift room were Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Currie, of Fayetteville and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. London,of Pittsboro. Miss Carrie M. Jackson presided over the guest book in the hall and

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Makepeace served punch on the front porch. At 9:30 the bride and groom left Pittsboro for Raleigh where they caught the Seaboard midnight train for Washington. From there they went on a motor trip through the northern states to Canada, where they are now spending ten days, before returning to Goldsboro, where Mr. Jerome is located for the present. The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Major Henry A. London. She is an alumna of St. Mary's School in Raleigh, and for the past two years has spent most of her time in Raleigh where her attractive, personal worth has endeared her to a large circle of friends. The groom is a son of Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Jerome, of Goldsboro. He was graduated from State College in 1919, in engineering, and is now con- FOUR MEN TO DIE THIS WEEK. nected with the State Highway Commission road work, with headquarters and Mrs. James H. Cordon and son, Jim, Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. London lowed on Thursday, the 10th, followed on Thursday, the 12th, by Mc-And Mrs. James H. Cordon and son, John S. James H. Cordon and son, John S. James H. Cordon and son, Mrs. James H. Cordon and son, John S. John Mrs. James H. Cordon and son, John S. John Mrs. John George Ellowed on Thursday, the 12th, by McJohn Mrs. John George Ellowed on Thursday, the 12th, by McJohn Mrs. John George Ellowed on Thursday, the 12th, by McJohn Mrs. John George Ellowed on Thursday, the 12th, by McJohn Mrs. John George Ellowed on Thursday, the 12th, by McJohn George Ellowed on Thursday, the 12 shall Mrs. E. E. Moffitt, of Richmond, into the hereafter together. Va., Mr. and Mrs. Linnehan, Mr. and It will break all records of the pris-

REGISTRATION BOOKS OPEN.

Registration books for the November election are now open and will be ber election are now open and will be ber election are now open and will be ber open until Saturday, October 28th. W. L. Johnson is registrar for 28th. W. L. Johnson is registrar for 28th. W. L. Johnson is registrar for 28th where the can be found every Saturday at the courthouse, and the rest of the week at his home. If no will hold a meeting in Siler City Johnson and family, of Burlington and Robert H. White and family of Pitrsboro, James 19th and 1 by every London bride for the past five generations. She carried a shower things together to go home. I insisted ested and had everything nicely arlies and centered with pink sweet- that they had to get back. We argued that the exhibits were presented in er. and they finally let the boys take the the best manner possible. The bride had as her maid of hon-or, Miss Bettie Fell, of Trenton, N. J. and they finding let the they stake the the best manner possible.

LOOK AT YOUR LABEL

SIDE STREET GOSSIP. By Joe Foreman.

As stated elsewhere the fair fail-stock and Mrs. Young and Jim spent ed to make expenses this year. There now. stock and Mrs. Young and Jim spent the night with us. It cetrainly was a frock and carried Russell roses.

The dame of honor, Mrs. Thomas Myers Wooten, of Fayetteville, wore a frock of apricot satin and silver and carried Russell roses.

The bridesmaids were Misses Marie

The Copieth school will ones of the many rose round to get here.

The Copieth school will ones of the many rose round to get here.

The Copieth school will ones of the many rose round to get here.

The Copieth school will ones of the many rose round to get here.

The Copieth school will ones of the many rose round to get here.

The Copieth school will ones of the many rose round to get here.

The Copieth school will ones of the many rose bitthdey dinner at his home.

The Mrs. Young and Jim spent the might with us. It cetrainly was a time down to the dust, following closely upon the heels of the dust, following closely upon the heels of the Randolph and Mebane fairs, the Copieth school will ones a visitor near Bear Creek durbust.

We heard last week that the community pictures would start up again at Corinth on Tuesday, October 17.

We are very glad indeed to know that it will meet with the continued approval and hearty support of the community.

The Copieth school will ones of the skin beautiful ones of the many rose round to get here.

The Copieth school will ones of the skin beautiful ones of the many rose bitthdey dinner at his home.

The might with us. It cetrainly was a visitor near Bear Creek durbust the down, was a visitor near Bear Creek durbust the community pictures would start up again at Corinth on Tuesday, October 17.

We heard last week that the community pictures would start up again at Corinth on Tuesday, October 17.

We heard last week that the community pictures would start up again at Corinth on Tuesday.

We are very glad indeed to know that it will meet with the continued approved the c and carried Russell roses.

The bridesmaids were Misses Marie Lithnehan, Julia Manning and Alice Lathan, of Raleigh, and Eunie Jenoms were grain frocks and carried Russell roses.

The groomsmen were Messrs Willows and the other felow is doing in the tother felow is doing in the felow what the other felow is doing in the tother felow is doing in the felow is doing in the tother felow is doing in the felow what the other felow is doing in the felow is doing in the felow what the other felow is doing in the felow is a ferrification of the felow is doing in the attended by scores of friends, both in Pittsboro and surrounding communities, a large number motoring from Raleigh. The proverbial London hospitality was in evidence on every side.

The decorations of the home were fell very of Siler City and Mesdames R.

The decorations of the home were saw any better cooking that she never saw any better cooking the never saw any better to any county or community cannot be easily computed.

It is the one thing that she and family, Mrs. T.

I. Gardner deftly conceived by Mrs. E. E. Moffitt, of Richmond, a great aunt of the bride.

Greeting the guests at the front
Greeting the guest the guest to gleet the guest to guest the guest the guest to guest the guest to guest the guest to guest the gu Henry A. London, Rev. and Mrs. C. was hooked for $19.00 by some of the ever beenheld in this entire section.

> The next stop is election and the some tall handshaking. I believe in being glad to see your friends but I

> It is good enough for Bill Watson

COTTON PICKING--PERSONALS

Frosty, Oct. 9.—Cotton picking around Frosty seems to have become Rives and Mrs. C. M. Andrews and and Mr. Carey Griffin. more of a picnic than real work. Last family, of Bonlee.

non and John Strowd spent the week- at times that he hardly knew what end at home.

of Mr. C. H. Strowd.

A number of young people were visitors in the home of T. S. Harris ever knew, they both say there is coming back next year.

It. It was educational as well as entertaining. We are glad that it is coming back next year.

distance were Miss Myrtle Perry, happier. They live a quiet life.

Jamie Perry and Emory Burns from The table was 18 foot long loadweek. Everything seemed to be ar-Mr. and Mrs. Victor R. Johnson and Pittsboro, route 2.

> vorable report of the program rendered. Conference Saturday afternoon and filled his regular appointment Sunday at Cedar Grove. Mr. R. W. Morgan and family, Mrs. Tysor and Miss Fannie Tysor were visitors in the home of T. S. Harris Sunday afternoon. KennonStrowd, from Bonlee high school, spent the week-end at home. Miss Lou and Pearl Mann and Grady Norwood spent Sunday after-noon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. eigh in November. John Meacham.

Four men will be electrocuted in Raleigh this week between the 10th Among the people who attended the wedding from Raleigh were Mr. county burglar will lead the dismal

Oliver Smith, Carey Hunter, James Johnson, Gus Powell, Robin Phillips, C. B. Williams, Louis Crisp.

On when the four men are electrocution in the State has been an institution in the State neighbors and friends gothern.

dertaking, and all should be here to awoke to find a burglar in the act of young man and will make her a good enter into the agreement.

CHATHAM FAIR AFTERMATH

Good Work of Superintendents and Appreciative Attendance.

THE CHATHAM

he best manner possible.

As stated elsewhere the fair fail
Mr. B. N. Dickens has been on the theria.

Sick list for a while but is out again Mr. a

D. E. RIVES REUNION.

There was a reunion of the children of D. E. Rives at their father's home on Sunday, October 1st, the following being present:

Messrs G. E. Rives, H. R. Rives and Bear Creek, route 2. One son, D. A. prepared and all enjoyed it. Rives, of Cumnock, could not be present.

Monday three families were seen picking in the same field, and all having a good time. Anyway, all were talking at the same time.

Mr. Rives is in his 85th year, being a Confederate veteran. Despite his mature years, he is able to get around pretty well. He enjoyed having his children and grand children with him children and grand children with him children and grand children with him drs. J. W. Griffin. Mary Strowd, Ruth Harris and Ken- all at one time. He seemed so happy Mrs. J. W. Griffin. to do or say. His wife, 12 years Miss Emma Lee Knight, of Pitts- younger, was getting around among boro, spent the week-end at the home the crowd like a matron at her first qua at Pittsboro thoroughly enjoyed last Sunday afternoon. Those from a nothing they need to make them any Some of our folks happened to be Misses Lou Pearl Mann and Laura eat imaginable. After they had all its were of the kind that the people Harris attended the Chautauqua Sat- eaten, there was more than enough should be proud of. urday evening and gave a very fa- to have fed them again.

joy the delicious fruit. Mrs. C. J. RIVES.

GET BUSY, BOYS.

There are some as pretty girls in lady to be crowned the Queen of the carnival. Wouldn't you feel proud of her if she did gain that coveted place?

All the town within a radius of 75

BIRTHDAY DINNER SUNDAY.

celebrated.Quite a large number of his neighbors and friends gathered at his home on Hickory Mountain, where Brown, and Miss Edna Knight,daughin one week.

IMPORTANT MEET SATURDAY. there was a profuse spread of all ter of Charles night, both of Chatkinds of good things to eat, as also ham county, were married. They really a lot of presents given by the friends turned a day or so after the mar-taking it.

CAR FOR AN EMERGENCY BEAR CREEK WEEKLY LETTER 8

ranged and displayed in a manner Brickhaven, Buckhorn, etc. Be a boost-

Mrs. W. A. Allen, of Charlotte, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Clark. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Cole spent the week-end with their daughter, Mrs. D. A. Clark.

PROUD OF ELECTRIC LIGHTS

Moncure, Route 2, Oct. 9 .- Last families, of Goldston; C. J. Rives and family, who live near the old home; of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Griffin when most of their children met there for dinner. A delicious dinner had been

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Far-In addition to the family were Mrs. C. G. Kirkman and family, formerly of Graham, but now of Gulf; Mrs. J. daughter, Dorothy Virginia, of Raleigh, Mr. Clyde Griffin, of Roxboro, in sch Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Dorsett and

Mr. W. B. Thomas, of Raleigh, spent the week-end at home. Those who attended the Chautaut. It was educational as well as en at the Siler City Fair one day last ful callers on Miss Annie Lutterloh ed down with all the good things to ranged in good order, and the exhib- Sunday afternoon. We are indeed proud of the beau-

Last, but not least, they visited the tiful electric lights that have been scuppernong vine, where they all installed in Pittsboro. We, who live Pittsboro, can see the lights shining of a son, Cecil, on Oct. 6, 1922.

Misses Hilda Lasater, Lilla Ellis something doing in Pittsboro.

THEY LIKE OUR PAPERS.

It does make us feel good when so Chatham as there are in the State, and many friends come in and renew their and R. C. Beckwith motored to Dur-The Record wants to see some of paper or subscribe as new friends. We ham Friday. them contend for the Mardi Gras have a splendid list this week, and event which is to take place in Relard a very good letter from way out in callers in the home of Mrs. Addie eigh in November.

Tangier, Indiana, from an old Chat-Webster Sunday afternoon. Young man, if your sweetheart is hamite that does not want to do withreal pretty, and we know youthink out the paper. Among the following Mrs.C. J. Beckwith, Mrs. W. H. Beckshe is, get to work and secure votes list of good people we have words of with and Mrs. J. C. Puryear spent for her. She may be the lucky young encouragement and letters of praise. Sunday in Raleigh.

miles of Raleigh, are going to work for this prize, and why not Pittsboro, Siler City, Bennett, Goldston and oth-R. H. Andrew.

KNIGHT-BROWN.

Community Pictures to Start Again. Some Build Houses While Others Buy Personal and Local. Cars—Personals. Cars-Personals.

Ernest, the 12-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Womble, has diph-Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Vestal and fama surprise birthday dinner at his home the money they are not even consid-

Iver, the crowd left, wishing him many more birthdays.

NEWS FROM BROWNS CHAPEL.

Pittsboro, Route 2, Oct. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Clark and children and Mrs. Fisher spent Saturday night and Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Burns. Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. B.
W. M. Perry, also Mr. and Mrs. O. B.
Mann and children were callers at the end visiting Miss Truman Fields.
R. R. Knight visited his parents

Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lutterloh. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Durham spent ble Sunday. Sunday in the home of J. T. Mann. Mrs. Erie Clark and children are visiting her mother, Mrs. J. A. Mar-

Misses Blanche Cheek, Pauline Wright and Mary Ellington who are List of Jurers Who will eSrve Durin school at Chapel Hill, spent the week-end with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Perry and chil-iren spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Walter Henderson. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lutterloh, Elizabeth and Charles Wallace, spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. June Dark.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Justice have een visiting their sister in Sanford, Mrs. Will Cheek. Mrs. Ada Henderson has been on a short visit to her mother who is confined to her room by rheumatism. Misses Grizell and Ila Copeland with Mr. Isaac Durham, were delight-

NEWS FROM NEW HOPE.

New Hill, Route 2, Oct. 9.-Mr. and Rev. J. R. Edwards held the church feasted again, for who does not en- just three miles south and nearer to Mrs. W. A. Mann announce the birth and Mozelle Poe, have been on a short visit to Mrs. R. E. Harirs. Miss Nina Sturdivant was guest of Miss Mabel Mann Sunday. Messrs A. M. Goodwin, T. E. Mann

> Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harris were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lasater, Mr. and is the first time in many years that of good things to eat. Belton was pre- bonton, and two step daughters, Mrs. running races have been made a part sented a Bible and Beatrice a glass R. W. Street, of Los Angeles, Caliof the race track program, and this alone will bring a large number of a new class of horses to the Fair.

Clarence Durham spent Sunday with and Danville.

ABOUT THE STATE FAIR.

sented a Bible and Beatrice a glass pitcher, by their mother. There were other members of the family present to enjoy the day.

COTTON RUNNING AHEAD.

LOOK AT YOUR LABEL

RECORDETTES

friends, having opportunity at different times to accommodate each other served that the first named is the regto great advantage. Well, as time istrar of the township, the two folrolled on this editor became the pos-sessor of two papers in Chatham coun-holders, the first name after that of week, while unloading some cross ties, to make the indication of two papers in Chatham countries.

It was papers in Chatham countries the registrar being a Democrat and up in Iowa, all his own. We 'exchange' the last named a Republican. Following are the names:

With placement to make the indication of the registrar being a Democrat and the last named a Republican. Following are the names: City gets bigger and better every year.

Pittsboro has electric lights and my

R. L. Nelson has purchased an Overland the side of his fingers.

Pittsboro has electric lights and my

R. L. Nelson has purchased an Overland to mash one of his fingers.

Stickley, himself, frequently has something to say about us, and in his light.

Albright.—W. M. Duncan, J. B. Ingless and personally 1 look forward with pleasure to getting that paper.

Stickley, himself, frequently has something to say about us, and in his light.

Baldwin.—T. S. Harris, T. J. Hearn, R. L. Nelson has purchased an Overland car.

Miss Mary George Blair, a student of the Pittsboro high school, spent the week-end with her mother and grand parents.

Something to say about us, and in his last issue he ups and says: "Our old friend and "side-kick" Colin G. Shaw, down in Pittsboro, North Carolina, must be seeing things, according to the following item in his paper. Their the following item in his paper. The the following item in his paper. The brand down there must be worse than h. C. Clegg.

H. C. Clegg.

Gulf—Fred W. Knight, J. M. McIver, Gulf—Fred W. Knight, J. M. McIver, Gulf—Fred W. Knight, J. M. McIver, James our "Cadaver Pickle," up here." He you know it was in the 'good old days

The Stone-Age advertiser who sends out a kid to ring front door bells and litter up the front porches with samples and circulars, is getting some notoriety, but the wrong kind. The more he gets, the worse off he will be. The newspaper advertiser is the man who gets the kale, brings in the shekels, garners in the long green and carries a pocket full of Jack. The Stone-Age advertiser with his circu-

--0ever stop to think that cupies space just like a producer, although he has not done a lick of work in years and years? However, he has attained a life time ambition to excel in something, for he can sit in one spot without moving longer than any-body else in town or county.

NEWS FROM OAKLAND.

Moncure, Route 2, Oct. 9.—G. G. Burns and family, from near Moncure, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ed-J. R. Knight has accepted a position in Raleigh.

Jamie Perry spent the week end in Pittsboro, visiting Vannie Bland. Jack and Frank Burns, of Roxboro,

Mrs. Wesley Thomas, of near Siler City, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wom-

CHATHAM SUPERIOR COURT

ing the Term. The October term of Supeiror Court for Chatham county will convene in Pittsboro r .- Monday, October 23rd. Judge Oliver H. Allen will be the presiding judge. There is quite a full docket but none of a serious nature. Following is a list of the jury that will serve during the term:

Albright-J. W. Harris. Baldwin-S. A. Mann, N. T. Mann, K. H. Hackney. Bear Creek-Claud Bray, Benton Williams, W. N. Fields. Cape Fear—J. A. Ausley, Jr., R. F. Sturdivant, Will Seagroves, C. W.

Center-Lee W. Copeland, Duncan McIver, Charles Murdock. Gulf—J. D. Emerson, J. W. Cheek, George McIver, I. H. Edwards. Hadley-I. A. Durham, C. C. Durham, Dayton Justice. Haw River-C. E. Lasater. Hickory Mountain-W. T. Parish, H. A. Brooks, N. B. Justice. Matthews-Wade Paschal, W. Edwards, James Poe, E. R. Smith, R. F. Huddleston, R. O. Welch, R. E. Edwards.

New Hope—N. J. Thrailkill, J. N. Goodwin, E. F. Baldwin. Oakland-D. A. Moore. Williams-J. B. Fearrington.

NEWS FROM WHITES BRIDGE.

Pittsboro, Route 3, Oct. 9.-Beiton Sunday in Raleigh.

Miss Rose Sturdivant has been on a short visit to Miss Dora M. Holt.

Messrs J. C. Pickard and Clarence Pickard went to Siler City Thursday to attend the Fair. They reported a

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Griffin visited his aunt, Mrs. E. E. Griffin, at Keeling, Va., last week. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Green spent Raleigh, Oct. 9.—The $5000 offered Saturday and Sunday at her mothers

Several in this neighborhood have been enjoying 'possum sop and taman, U. G. Willett.

Buckhorn-S. A. Harrington, B. M. Hadley-A. F. Whitaker, James

T. W. Herndon. Bear Creek—D. H. Ellis, R. I. Till-

D. Jones, A. S. Self. Haw River-W. H. Lassiter, W. H. Utley, W. B. Moore. Hickory Mt.-J. B. Burke, R. P. Alston, H. J. Dark. Merry Oaks-J. M. Craven, J. B. Little, W. E. Mann. Mt. Vernon Springs—E. H. Foust, R. L. Edwards, H. W. Johnson. New Hope—A. J. Wilson, W. A. Wood, F. M. Holleman.

Oakland-R. R. Seagroves, P. H. Johnson, Numa Bright. Richmond-Fred C. Straughan, L. B. Hester, F. R. Dark. Siler City—R. G. Edwards, J. T. Ferguson, R. H. Fox. Williams-J. T. Mills, R. L. Ward, C. Carson.

FROM ANTIOCH SECTION.

Cumnock, Rt. 1, Oct. 7 .- The Antioch correspondent has been busy in school, hence her silence. loafer eats food, breathes air, and oc- in Central Carolina hospital at Sanford, is slowly improving after an illness of nearly two months. Among the recent visitors in the the home of J. E. Johnson was Miss Daisy Dowdy, of Sanford. Mr. Houston Alexander went to Raleigh Friday. Mr. Aleck Dowdy was a recent visitor in the community.

The many friends of Mrs. Frances Oldham will be glad to learn that she is still improving, now being able to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Alexander and sons, Houston and Douglass, accompanied by Benjamin Burke motored to Sanford last Sunday.

Among those from this com who went to the Chatham Fair this week were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Burke, Miss Mattie Eva Dorsett, Messrs Benjamin and Houston Burke. There will be a sock social for the benefit of Antioch Christian church at the home of Dennis Dowdy Satur-day night, October 14th, 1922. The public is invited to attend, bring the pennies and get a sock.

Numerous little socks have been made, one for everyone who will attend, and the following poem is composed to meet the requirements of your purpose in going: This little sock we give you; It is not for you to wear, Please multiply your size by two, And place therein with care; In pennies or in cents, Just twice the number you weer. (We hope it will be imense.) So if you wear a No. 10, You owe us twenty, See? Which when dropped within this little sock,

Will fill our hearts with glee.

If more you wish to add,

Drop it too, within the sock, And our hearts will be supremely glad; "Tis all we ask—it isn't much, And hardly any trouble, But if you only have one foot, We'll surely charge you double. Now, if you have a friend quite dear, You'd like to bring with you; Or, if you know someone who'd Please send them one too; And if its so you can't attend. Your sock don't forget to send.

ROSALIND. NEWS FROM SANFORD NO. 3.

Sanford, Rt. 3, Oct. 7.—Miss Mag-gie Pickard, of Reidsville, came down Thursday to spend the week end with her mother Mrs. Fannie Pick-

Mr. J. F. Gilliam has opened up a store in the old store building of Mr. W. E. Paschal. Messrs J. C. Pickard and Clarence

Miss Thelma Pickard, of Reidsville, came down Friday to spend the weekend with Mr. J. C. Pickard and fam-

Every one was shocked and griev-

HAS A MARRIED DAUGHTER.

Lots of women have married daughters, but not many of them have a