BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

A Morning Prayer. Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.—Psalm 51:10.

Mrs. Charles Hudson and children have been on a visit to Mr. Hudson's mother at Durham.

Misses Margaret Womble, of Raleigh, and Emily Thompson, of Siler City, spent the week-end with their parents.

Fun to Mr. and Mrs. Will F. Bland, Friday, November 16, a daughter, Julia Moore. Mother and daughter doing fine.

Mrs. J. C. Norwood is preparing to give a big Thanksgiving dinner at the Exline Hotel. See the ad in another column.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Henderson and Mrs. M. L. Harris motored to Salisbury one day last week on a shopping expedition.

Misses Mary Griffin and Mary Thompson, teachers in the blind institution at Raleigh, spent the week-end here with relatives.

This is the greatest climate ever. The Apex Journal reports the gathering of a second crop of May cherries in that vicinity.

Miss Edna Mills, a teacher in the Olive Chapel school, has been quite ill for the past few days. She is the daughter of J. B. Mills.

The annual bazaar of the Woman's Club of Pittsboro will be held in the Club room Saturday, December 9th, from 2:30 to 9:30 p. m.

The little son of Mr. Jeter Griffin, who sprained his ankle about four weeks ago, is improving some, but is not yet able to walk about.

Mrs. J. B. Womble, of Gainesville, Fla., who has been visiting her people here, has returned to her home. She expects to join her husband in California soon.

Mr. S. T. Culberson, Rt. 2, Siler City, has sent us a nice bunch of turnips for which we thank him. They were of a delicious variety and one of them weighed 4 pounds, six ounces, measuring 23 inches.

Our citizens experienced the first real cold snap of the season last Tuesday morning. The thermometer dropped down to 28. Monday morning at 8 o'clock the thermometer registered 68. Quite a fall in 24 hours.

Chatham can boast of the tallest pupil at Trinity College, in the person of W. E. Atwater, of Bynum, who takes the cake at 73.3 inches in height. Young Atwater is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Atwater at Bynum.

Mr. Murphy Harris has moved his family to his house in Raleigh at No. 605 Adams street. His many friends will regret to know that he has left Chatham county, and wish for them good luck. Colin G. Shaw has purchased the home place of Mr. Harris at Pittsboro and will move into the house this week.

SEE MISS PLUNKETT. In Her Pleasing Play Tonight at The School Auditorium.

Miss Lottie Stone, one of the faculty of the high school here, has been working faithfully for the past few weeks on a side splitter to be given tonight, (Friday) at the school auditorium, under the fascinating name of "Miss Plunkett's Pleasing Play." There are 16 school girls and 9 boys in the play, and from what we can learn is to be a screamer with laughs for every minute. To find out what is going to be done, you should go and see for yourself. If you do not feel like laughing don't go. Admission 15c and 25c, and it is for the benefit of the school.

NEWS NOTES OF BRICKHAVEN. Brickhaven, November 20.—The friends of Mrs. O. C. Kennedy are very glad to have her back with them again, after a four weeks stay at the Mary Elizabeth hospital, at Raleigh.

Mrs. T. J. Harrington taught one day last week for Miss Bland, who attended the Christian Conference at Hines Chapel near Greensboro.

The people of this community regret to lose Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Marks. They expect to make their future home at Carboro. We wish them success at their new home.

Mr. Clinton Seawell spent the week-end in Raleigh.

The Brickhaven school met Friday, November 23rd, to organize a Society. The name of the society is Brickhaven Literary Society. The following officers were elected:

President—Eunice Thompson. Vice-president—Louise Harrington. Secretary and treasurer—Hilda Utley.

Critic—Miss Laura Harris. Censor—Claire Eve Mims. Chaplain—Ruth Kennedy.

The first program was given November 17th. As a whole it was very interesting, and well rendered. All the patrons of the school are invited to attend these meetings.

The school was glad to have Mrs. J. A. Mims present at the last meeting of the Brickhaven Literary Society.

If nothing prevents, the community pictures will be at Brickhaven on Tuesday, Nov. 28th. In connection with the pictures, there will be a short Thanksgiving program. We are requested to say that the pictures will begin at seven o'clock, instead of the usual hour.

THE METHODIST APPOINTMENTS

J. J. Boone Back to Pittsboro—O. I. Hinson to Siler City.

The North Carolina Methodist Conference adjourned its sessions in Raleigh on Monday night, November 20, after the appointments for the succeeding year had been read. It will be a pleasure to many readers that Rev. J. J. Boone has been returned to Pittsboro and that Siler City gets a good strong preacher in Rev. O. I. Hinson. Cunningham, president Scarritt Bible Training School; J. M. Ormand, professor in Southern Methodist University and H. M. North Conference secretary of Education.

There has been considerable complaint made to us about the delivery of the Record on New Hill route No. 2. We have notified the postoffice department with the hope that something may be done to avoid the trouble.

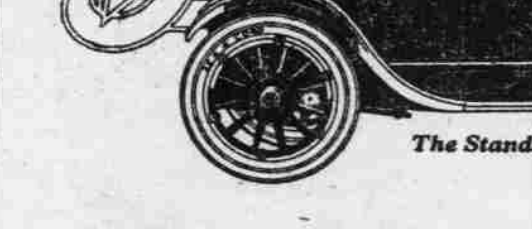

It will pay you well for the little time and expense to have that your stock is well and comfortably housed during the winter.

A Buick Roadster Satisfies

The "Six," $1165; The "Six-Sport," $1265; The "Four," $865

For those who want the intimacy of the roadster design, Buick provides a completely satisfying selection of models, in appearance as well as in price. Business men find the six-cylinder, two-passenger roadster well suited both to the work day trips and to social motoring.

Equally fine for these, and at the same time luxurious in its appointments and smart in its snappy lines and coloring is the six-cylinder sport-roadster—the de-luxe model of its kind.

While a modest, dependable and convenient car is the four-cylinder roadster. And all are Buicks with all that Buick provides in power, dependability and flawless performance.
