RALPH MOORE SERIOUSLY SHOT.
Local and Personal Notes From Our Bear Creek Correspondent.
Bear Creek, Rt. 2, Nov. 20.—J. H. Edwards has moved his saw mill from near Hillsboro to his place near Bear Creek, where he will do some saving, we are informed.
G. G. Sharpe has purchased himself a Ford car.
G. G. Burke, who has been living at the H. H. Stout place for the past year, has moved to Joe J. Check's.
Messrs J. A. and E. J. Woody carried a load of tobacco to Sanford last week.
Mrs. J. H. Nall, after spending sometime with her parents, has returned to her home at Pomona.
Rev. J. Tysor, of Sanford, is spending some time with his father.
Mrs. W. I. Paul and Wilbur Williamson, of Sanford, were week-end visitors in the home of T. B. Beal.
M. F. Norwood was off last week on business.
Ralph Moore had the misfortune, while hunting Saturday afternoon, to shoot himself.
It seems he became tired and sat down on a log to rest. When he and his uncle, who was hunting with him, got up he pulled his gun toward himself and in so doing he pulled the hammer against the log, but not far enough to catch, therefore when it had passed over the log, the hammer was released, driving the plunger forward and firing the gun.
The lead entered his left shoulder. At the time of this writing, he is resting easy, but he is in a serious condition. He has good chances of recovery.
Mr. Moore is an ideal young man. We join his many friends in wishing for his speedy recovery.

Jas. Watson Says, "I'll Never Forget When Father's Hogs Got Cholera."
"One morning he found 20 hogs dead and several sick. He called in the Vet., who after dissecting a rat caught on the premises, decided that the rodents had conveyed germs. Since then I am never without RAT-SNAP. It is the surest, quickest rat destroyer I know." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, and $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by W. L. London & Son, and Pilkington Pharmacy, Pittsboro. Nov 24
