ESTABLISHED SEPTEMBER 19, 1878.

PITTSBORO, N. C., CHATHAM COUNTY, THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1923.

VOLUME XLV, NO. 31.

WEATHER BIG HELP TO SCHOOL

Senior Roll For Month at Bells and Local and Personal School.

Apex, Rt. 4, March 3.—School work is again on the incline, the roads having been improved during the few days of dry weather. The heavy rains during the week, however, done some damage. We are very optimistic and believe in March the roads will become "better and better" and that the school attendance will again become normal. In spite of the many difficulties confronting us at Bells school last month, the average attendance was 128.47.

Those present every day were:

First grade—Pittman and Golie Howard.

Second grade—Cecil Wilson.

Third grade—John Howard.

Fourth grade—Katherine Womble.

Fifth grade—Gladys Copeland, Foust Johnson and Mae Horton.

Sixth grade—Jane Moore, Ted Johnson and Onyx Hunt.

Seventh grade—Jessie Horton.

The Lincoln and Washington program Thursday, Feb. 22, was a feature of enjoyment. We were glad to have Mrs. C. M. Hunt and Miss Letta Goodwin with us upon that date and hope others will visit us often.

Chapel exercises were conducted by the 8th and 9th grades Thursday, March 1st. There were many sketches of Longfellow.

Miss Lila Upchurch entertained a host of friends Feb. 24 at her home. Don't forget the Fiddlers convention at Bell's school March 8th.

A play entitled "A Daughter in the Desert" will be given here in the near future. The exact date will be announced later.

Miss Lila Copeland of the Pittsboro high school was a most welcome visitor at the school Saturday.

Miss Evelyn Greene spent the week end with Miss Lila Upchurch.

THE BIG LAND SALE.

The sale of the lots on the Headen property, fronting court house square, and the Headen property at the foot of West street, took place Tuesday morning. The two lots adjoining the Blair hotel were not sold. The corner lot was knocked off to J. A. Woody for $2,035. Mr. Woody also bought two other lots.

G. R. Pilkington bought lot No. 9 paying $1,205. for it. Only four of the nine lots were sold on the Headen property.

At the Haughton place those that bought lots were J. N. Peoples four lots; Carey Griffin, F. P. Nooe, R. E. Boone, G. W. Blair, B. M. Poe two lots, C. C. Poe five lots, Miss Margaret Womble two lots, L. A. Nooe two lots.

These lots brought from $75. to $125, and the sellers were satisfied with the prices.

There were not many bidders at the sale, although there was a tremendous crowd in town.

CLARENCE JOHNSON HURT.

Red Roadster Again Goes to Ride—Personal and Local.

Corinth, March 5.—A boy's curiosity is sometimes abundantly satisfied. Last Saturday afternoon Clarence Johnson, aged 12, son of J. M. Johnson near Corinth, investigated a peculiar looking piece of tin with a match. It soon proved, in action, to be a dynamite cap and Clarence is minus the ends of two fingers on his left hand, has a black eye and a somewhat disfigured countenance. He was taken immediately to a Sanford hospital for treatment, but is now home and wounds doing nicely.

Mr. C. W. Cross is reported on the sick list this week.

Horton Mims, of Raleigh, was seen about town Monday in his Auburn Beautiful Six.

Mrs. R. S. Ashworth is home from Baltimore where he has been purchasing goods for his new store at Fuquay Springs.

Mrs. C. S. Harrison, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Buchanan at Corinth, has returned to her home at Clayton.

The red roadster took Jim Dickens to ride one night last week and didn't get him home till morning. Four punctures and a trip through Shattucks Creek canal, where the "good roads" used to be, got Jim's goat. He got disgusted and mad, and parked the roadster in a good shed to remain there indefinitely. Jim has decided that it is more economical to use the railroad in getting to and fro and incidentally to acquire funds for a final set of new casings and other extensive items, too numerous to mention. He is using the N. & S. local now to get about and to get pin money holds down the regular run between Raleigh and Star.

Mr. Albert Nord, erecting engineer for the S. Morgan Smith water wheel Co., of York, Pennsylvania, is spending a few weeks at Buckhorn overhauling the water wheels for the Carolina Power & Light Co.

Messrs. Frankin & Hendricks, formerly with the Izidore Minstrel, but more or less permanently in the employ of the C. P. & L. Co., are now working, eating and sleeping at Buckhorn, the rest of their time being spent at Corinth "cross roads."

MORE BOLL WEEVIL STUNTS

Hart, of the Carolina school section comes to the front with another weevil story. He brought in a turn of wood in his house one day last week. A few moments later his wife found a weevil crawling up the mantle, then she found another and finally found a third one right in the center of the mirror looking at itself.

Verily, there is trouble ahead of the farmer during the coming season.

YOUNG FOLKS KEEP A SECRET.

Mr. Walter Johnson and Miss Lucy Connell Married Long Time.

Many Pittsboro people were thoroughly surprised to learn last Friday night that Mr. Walter Johnson and Miss Lucy Connell were secretly married in Greensboro on February 6th, 1921, and had kept the marriage a secret until they were ready to leave town Friday for Sanford where they were to take a train for sunny Florida.

It was not suspected by some that they were so much as sweethearts, so quietly did they do their courting. For several years Miss Connell held a position in the store of L. N. Womble, where her courteous and industrious manners made her many good friends.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Connell and is a charming young woman in every particular.

Mr. Johnson is the manager of the L. N. Womble & Co., store and he is widely known in Chatham county, both for his business ability and sterling qualities as a man.

Mr. Johnson was born and reared in Oakland township and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carson Johnson. He is a world war veteran, and with the exception of the time spent in the army has been with L. N. Womble & Co., for many years.

The happy young couple will occupy the handsome bungalow on west Salisbury street, recently completed by Mr. Johnson, upon their return to Pittsboro next week.

The Record joins their numerous friends in wishing them a long life, full of happiness and joy.
