News of a Local Nature Gathered Here and There--Personal Mention

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY. PERFECT PEACE.

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.—Isaiah 26: 3.

Now for some warm weather.

Free moving picture show at the court house tomorrow night.

See the picture show at the court house tomorrow night—eight reel absolutely free.

Born, to Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards, of Bynum, Monday morning, April 2, a son.

Whenever you hear the cooing of a dove you can paste it in your hat that cold weather has departed.

Much liquor was in evidence on the streets of Pittsboro Saturday night. You cannot down a bootlegger, it seems.

Archie Ray, of Davidson college, and Wm. Hunt, Thomas Morgan, Arthur H. London, of the University, spent the Easter holidays with their parents in Pittsboro.

Miss Lillian Ray, with the State board of education at Raleigh, and Miss Evelyn Ray, teacher at Merry Oaks, spent Easter with their parents.

Our good friend Rev. R. Percy Eubanks, at 1217 Upper 8th street, Evansville, Ind., has sent us a renewal for another year to the paper.

The Chatham Motor Company is giving a free picture show of eight reels at the court house tomorrow night.

When the thermometer drops to 22 degrees, as it did in this county last Sunday morning, fruit trees, gardens and other growing things must suffer considerably.

Mrs. J. H. Cordon, of Raleigh, as a matron, leaves Raleigh April 8th for New Orleans, where she goes to attend the Confederate reunion from the North Carolina division.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Foushee and two grandchildren, of Broadway, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean, of Sanford, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Foushee, on Moncure, route 2, last Sunday.

Among those attending the State meeting of the Woman's Missionary Association in Durham last week, were Mesdames J. S. Wrenn, Mrs. Jeter Griffin and Jas. L. Griffin.

The firm of Bland and Connell, in the wholesale and retail business near the depot, have dissolved co-partnership. Mr. Bland will continue the business at the same old stand. We have not learned of Mr. Connell's intentions but suppose he will go into the grocery business in Pittsboro.

Rev. Jonas Barclay went over to the prison camp in Albright township Sunday afternoon and preached to the prisoners and also a large crowd of citizens. After the sermon a large box of cakes, pies and other good things to eat was opened and the contents given to the prisoners, which was much enjoyed by them.

Mr. Earnest Williams, who has for some time held the position of salesman in the store of Brooks and Eubanks, resigned last week and has accepted the position of assistant cashier in the Farmers' Bank of Pittsboro. Mr. Williams is a most clever young man and his many friends in Chatham are proud to learn of his promotion.

Delia Womack, a very worthy old colored woman, is seriously sick at her home on Chatham street. Her husband is blind and unable to work.

Mrs. E. W. Goodwin, of Apex, route 3, has been in Pittsboro on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Jack Farrell. She and her daughter visited the Record office and were surprised at what they saw.

Sunday afternoon Mr. A. C. Ray went out to the county home and made a splendid talk to the inmates. A large number of citizens of the neighborhood were present and enjoyed the services. An organ has been purchased by the ladies of the health department of the Woman's Club and presented to the home.

Little Miss Mary George Blair returned Monday from Norlina, where she went to visit her father, Mr. M. Blair. Miss Blair made the round trip, changing trains and was unaccompanied, which speaks well for her ability to take care of herself so young.

Word comes to us that Mr. Henry F. Durham has returned to the hospital in Burlington where the plaster cast has been removed from his hip and the injured member has been found to be improved. The doctors have informed Mr. Durham that he must find some other occupation than farming. He would be glad to locate something he could do.

Broken Arm.
While two little children, a boy and a girl, son and daughter of Charles W. Lutterloh, were riding a mule last Thursday, one of the children fell off, dragging the other one with it. In falling to the ground the boy's left arm was broken and the girl's arm was dislocated at the elbow. Dr. W. B. Chapin was called and set the broken arms and the two children are now swearing their arms in slings. Mr. Lutterloh lives near Gum Springs.

A moratorium of about a month of talk might help out in Europe.—Oma-ha Bee.

April showers.

Druggist G. R. Pilkington returned from Raleigh Wednesday where he had been on business.

Mr. Ehrie Farrell, of the University, spent Easter at his home in Pittsboro.

Mrs. H. A. London and Miss Carrie Jackson leave for Raleigh Friday for a short visit.

William Tatum and family have moved to Fearrington to make their future home.

Miss Clara Bell, of St. Mary's, Raleigh, spent Easter with her aunt Mrs. R. P. Johnson.

Tourists keep passing through Pittsboro daily. There must have been thousands of them down in Florida.

Eggs are down to 15 cents a dozen in Pittsboro. Every day in every way hens are laying more and cheaper eggs.

Mrs. Merritt Newell, Miss Christie Adams and Mr. Edmond Taylor, of Townville, spent Easter here with Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Chapin.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. London and son, George, of Raleigh, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jerome, of Goldsboro, spent Sunday with Mrs. H. A. London.

The Pittsboro high school baseball team played Moncure Monday. Only seven innings were played. The score stood: Pittsboro 8, Moncure 8.

The Winnie Davis Chapter of the U.D.C., will hold a Spelling Bee in the school auditorium, Pittsboro, on Thursday, April 19. Watch for a detailed statement next week.

Mr. Mark Stone, of Apex, a student at Columbia University, New York City, who has been spending the Easter holidays with his wife here, returned to New York today.

Pittsboro Circuit.

Preaching at Moncure Sunday morning and night. Subject for Sunday morning: "Facts that We All Should Know." Let everybody come prepared to take some part in these services. The choir will do its best. The preacher will try. J. J. BOONE.

How Easter Was Spent Here.

Easter Sunday here was a cold, raw day, especially before noon. In the afternoon the weather moderated and people began to crawl out of their homes and get on the sunny side of the streets. Religious services were held in the churches Sunday morning and at night at the Methodist church in Pittsboro an Easter musical program was carried out.

Easter Monday passed off quietly, a few of the brave and fair ones venturing out to the river and other places and quietly picniced through the warmer part of the day. But the heat from stoves and wraps felt much better than the cold northeast winds.

LIGHTNING STRIKES BED.

Alamance Observer.
During an electric storm here recently the residence of Jule Boggs, who resides in West Burlington, was struck by lightning. It is reported that a bolt of lightning entered through an open window, cutting a hole in the screen and penetrating the footboard of the bed in the room. Two of Mr. Boggs' children were sleeping in the bed but were uninjured, according to the report. The bed was completely split, causing it to fall to the floor. It is said that the children were not awakened by the lightning but awoke when thrown to the floor as a result of the bed being split by the lightning. It was a very unusual occurrence, and has no parallel in the history of Burlington citizens.

MORE NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

We have a good list of friends this week to add to our list and we are proud of them. The following have renewed for the paper or subscribed new during the past week:

Mrs. John Burns, R. H. Durham, J. H. Langley, Elias Stewart, H. G. Beard, Manly Brady, J. R. Smith, W. W. Langley, Mrs. Lucy Edwards, Africa Siler, Rev. J. R. Edwards, W. P. Smith, J. W. Hinshaw, W. H. Overacre, A. A. Cockman, Clayton Richardson, Miss Jennie Covert, Rev. R. P. Eubanks, W. F. Brooks, Ben Matthews, A. M. Thomas, W. W. Fogleman, Louise Brooks, Mrs. Martin Brewer, Speight Alfred, R. T. Mann, C. K. Brewer, Mrs. Lula Elmore, Mrs. J. T. Henderson, Eli Maness, Floy Woody, Miss Mamie Roberts, Van Patten, Mrs. C. C. Wright, R. A. Connell, Miss Fanny S. Dark, G. C. Cooper, O. E. Stone, I. A. Durham, D. T. Vestal and M. C. Yow.

From Hank's Chape

Pittsboro, Rt. 1, Apr. 2.—Sunday, April 1, being Mrs. J. M. Farrell's birthday, her children and other relatives crowded the home with large baskets full of good food and gave her a very delightful surprise birthday dinner which she enjoyed very much.

Mrs. Farrell was 57 years of age. All of her children and grand children were present except Mr. Ira G. Farrell, of Durham, N. C. Mrs. Farrell received several nice presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Farrell spent the Easter holidays with Mrs. Farrell's mother, of Durham.

Mrs. Emma Riddle, who has been confined to her bed for some time, is improving very slowly.

Mrs. J. M. Farrell and her daughter, Mabel, spent Easter holidays with relatives near Sanford.

WOULD ABOLISH ALL DIVORCES

Judge Who Presided Over Stillman Case Says Congress Should Act.

New York, March 31.—Complete abolition of divorce is urged by Supreme Court Judge Morschauer, who presided over the Stillman case in an article in the April number of Columbia, official organ of the Knights of Columbus, made public today.

Declaring that he believed the abolition of divorce should be brought about by congressional legislation, he added:

"But that is a long way ahead because there are unfortunately—so many middle aged and elderly men—and some young ones—who for one occasion, or another want new wives."

"But one great practical step which should be taken immediately is the passage of legislation making decrees obtained in Paris or elsewhere in Europe invalid. It is all wrong to let rich men or women run off to Paris to get divorced. We should not allow a condition to exist which permits wealthy Americans to escape from the operation of American laws."

Justice Morschauer would have divorce cases tried in the open because he believes publicity has a wholesome effect. He would permit separations and annulments.

OUR SLANG.

Some slang expression, ancient and modern:

Skidoo.
Must is.
Oh, boy!
'Atta boy!
Search me.
How come?
You tell 'em.
Twenty three.
Have a heart.
Wouldn't miss.
Chase yourself.
I should worry.
Take it from me.
I'll tell the world.
Ain't nothing else.
I'm from Missouri.
Tell it to Sweeney.
Who wants to know?
How did you get that way?
Where did you get that hat?
You win the glass fly swatter.

IS IT NOT WHEAT HARVEST TODAY?
(By Henrietta Morgan.)
Pittsboro, N. C.

O'er the earland fields are waiting,
Mid the shining rays of Dawn,
In the night there comes an echo
Of a throng fast moving on,
Through a lonely shadowland,
Guided by no Heavenly hand.

Even now there go forth toiling
Faithful ones o'er hill and dale;
Sowing in life's early springtime
While the dreams of youth prevail,
Reaping in the peaceful fall,
God's great blessing over all.

May the Master of the Harvest
Ever by His Spirit guide,
Send the sunshine and the raindrops
And the dews at eventide;
Till the long night ends in day,
And earth's heartaches melt away!

Democracies will save us?—Never!
Neither will the woman's right!
All our grand and noble structures
Are as nothing in His sight!
He who longs for one faint heart,
Set from all the world apart!

Oh, the sadness and the darkness
Brooding o'er the blinded earth,
Blinded by the darts of Satan
Laughing in unholy mirth.
Let us break those bonds asunder!
Stand ye forth like sons of men!

Oh, my people, won't you listen?
Won't you wait for one short hour?
Gladly will He gently lead you
From beneath the Tempter's pow'r.
Shield you with His precious love,
Shared by saints below, above.

Are your lights then dim and feeble,
Only Satan says they are,
Even now they may be guiding
Some poor struggling soul afar!
Go then, set them on a hill,
Lighting all the nations still!

He that sleepeth in the harvest
Is a son that causes shame!
Let us then arise and hasten
For the glory of His name.
For the days are hastening on,
Soon will come the Great Day's Dawn.

OPERATE FOR BRAIN TUMOR.

New York, March 31.—An operation for brain tumor, during which the patient, Henry A. Brown, 49, of Newark, N. J., under local anaesthesia only, discussed his feelings with doctors and nurses has been described by the staff of Beth Israel hospital.

The operation was performed February 27. The patient has recovered sufficiently to return to his home. More than a year ago Brown was forced to leave his furniture shop when his right side became paralyzed. He complained of severe headaches, and sometimes was seized with epileptic fits. Then his memory failed him and he fell into a semi-stupor.

Finally he was taken to Beth Israel hospital for an operation. Because of his weakened condition, it was decided that he could not stand a general anaesthetic.

During a period of lucidity, Brown agreed to submit, under local anaesthetics, to a two-hour operation. He was told to tell the surgeons whenever he felt the anaesthesia wearing off and was warned that unexpected movement on his part would mean his end.

Dr. K. Winkelfield May performed operation, pausing only when the patient asked for more anaesthetic. The skull was trepanned, the brain covering removed and a tumor two by four inches and three-quarters of an inch thick was revealed.

Brown said the first result he noticed after the removal of the tumor was cessation of the headaches. Then he regained his memory gradually. Finally his paralysis disappeared, and now he can move about freely.

Co-Ops. Meet Saturday.

All members of the Tobacco Growers Co-Operative Association in Chatham county are requested to attend the mass meeting to be held in the court house at Pittsboro, Saturday, April 7, at 12 o'clock, noon. Please attend. Any non-members will be welcome.

D. J. WILLIAMS,
Chairman.

Spring poetry never will stoop to realism until man invents more words to rhyme with slush.—Wichita Falls Record-News.

THE VOILETS.

The following poem was written by one of Miss Mary Bland's fifth grade pupils at Brickhaven:

"The violet has a purple hue,
A touch of yellow and of blue,
It has a little hood of green,
That can scarcely be seen.

"It nestles in the leaves
That bend in the breeze,
Near to the earth it clings,
Sure of the joy it brings.

Down in the fresh, green meadow,
Where the cattle browse and low,
You will find this modest flower,
After the hasty April shower.

"This wee flower gives joy
To every girl and boy,
Who takes time to look
For them by the brook."

CORINTH NOTES.

Corinth, April 3.—The good weather, a dragging and some-hauling have put our roads in fair condition again.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Thomas are out again after a two weeks' siege of measles.

We certainly did enjoy the play, "When a Man is Single," put on at Corinth school house Easter Monday night by the good people of Lystra school, near Chapel Hill. This is the second time they have come to our community and each time they have made a big hit. They displayed some talent that would be a credit to most any road play.

One day last week a big crowd of school children came to Buckhorn for a picnic and in less than 30 minutes one of the other parties was inquiring where he could get a bit of joy water to help out on the picnic.

When will this damnable notion that a picnic even of 15 year old boys and girls, be incomplete without a bottle of booze ever be stamped out? That is most easily answered. Just as soon as not more than one half of the best people in the country really want it stamped out. Just enforce the laws we have and we will soon have the curse under control.

Then on Easter Monday at another big annual school picnic two boys from a neighboring county came to the picnic loaded for bear and after being relieved of two partially filled pint bottles of liquor landed in the hands of an officer on a charge of public drinking, disturbing the peace and having liquor in their possession.

We will sure appreciate the laws when the people learn that they do not have to get drunk to have a good time at a picnic.

Miss Effie Morris spent Monday in Raleigh having some dental work done. Miss Gayle Mims substituted in her room for the day.

Mr. T. H. Buchanan and family spent Easter in Fuquay visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Ashworth.

The Easter Monday picnic at Buckhorn was quite a success. The day started out cold and clear but warmed up so that the Betterment sold out all their 15 gallons of cream and bar-

MEMORIAL.

Herbert Hackney, departed this life January 26, 1923.

Herbert, he has ceased to be,
His little form no more we see,
His sweet voice we hear no more
Nor clatter of feet from door to door
His lifeless form we laid to rest
In Hank's cemetery—God knew best
To take him from our fond embrace,
Where he'd behold his Savior's face
There he'll be till judgment day,
When God to all the dead will say,
"Rise to meet your risen Lord,
And wear a crown—your great reward."

We miss him every passing day,
Where once he used so much to play
His sweet voice and pattering feet,
We hear no more out on the street.
We all must die, God's way is best.
We rest assured his soul's at rest,
And of His goodness he will share,
When the roll is called he'll be there.

His stay on earth was a short time,
But now he is in that sun-bright clime,
Resting in Jesus' sweet embrace,
Beholding his Savior, face to face.
Free from toil, free from care,
We hope one day to meet him there
Free from earthly toils and fears,
Where God will wipe away all tears.
The blessed Jesus spake these words
free,
"Suffer little children to come to me,
Forbid them not," the Scriptures say,
Then let us all the command obey.
—Mrs. David Baker, Bynum.
