

CHATHAM BRIEFS

Now for 'possum and 'taters.
Read R. M. Connell's ad about flour in this paper.
Mrs. Jas. L. Griffin spent last Friday in Raleigh.
The Harding postage stamps have reached Pittsboro.
The next two stops—the Chatham Fair and the State fair.
Messrs. Little & Farrell have an appeal in this paper to creditors.
Mrs. W. H. Overacre and children have been on a visit to Chapel Hill.
The fall months are bringing some cool weather along with them.
Mr. J. S. Wrenn has returned from a trip to Mebane and Greensboro.
Hear the Oxford Singing Class at Bonlee on Oct. 13th, at 7:30 p. m.
Mrs. Lenora Bynum, of Washington, D. C., is visiting Mrs. Henry A. Bynum.
Get the Progressive Farmer, The Southern Planter and The Record a year for $2.00.
Mr. J. N. Mitchell, a former Chathamite, died near Broadway, a few days ago, aged 80 years.
Without a good local paper, what channel is there for the news of the town and the surrounding country?
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Poe have a new son at their home in Siler City, the little fellow having arrived Saturday, the 29th.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Paschal, Siler City, Saturday, September 29th, a son. Both mother and child are doing fine.

BEN—NET.

NOTES FROM BELLS SCHOOL.

Apex, Rt. 4, Oct. 1.—The pie party at Bells school Saturday night, Sept. 24th was not what we had hoped it to be, due to the rain. However, despite the weather the faithful few were present and the sum of $13.25 was realized.

The girls of Bells met Friday, Sept. 28th and organized a Society. It will be called Irving Literary Society. Jessie Horton was elected president.

Hallie Goodwin was elected secretary and Miss Bertha Poe, critic.

Program committee is Hallie Bryan, Mae Jacobs and Jeaneverette Seymour.

The boys at Bells are planning to organize their Society on Oct. 5th. After this the girls will have charge of the program on one Friday and the boys the next.

Bells ball team went to Bynum Friday and were defeated, the score being 8 to 11. They play Bynum again Friday, Oct. 5, at Ferrington. We hope to be victorious then as our boys will have more practice.

School closed today at noon in order that the teachers and pupils might attend the funeral of Mr. Robert Farrell. Four of Mr. Farrell's children were pupils in Bells school.

The teachers and pupils of Bells wish to extend to the mother, wife and children of Mr. Farrell our sincerest sympathy in the time of their great sorrow.

Four of the teachers from Bells and a number of the pupils attended the musical program at Pittsboro on Thursday night and we enjoyed the program very much. We hope to have the privilege of attending the next number of the Lyceum attraction.

Our enrollment is now about 215 and yet others are to come. We hope each pupil will come every day and do their best at work.

Mr. and Mrs. Justice, of Pittsboro, Rt. 2, visited their daughter, Miss Lela Justice Sunday afternoon.

FALL CREEK NEWS.

Bear Creek, Rt. 3, Oct. 1.—A large crowd attended Sunday school at Fall Creek Sunday morning and seemed to be interested in it.

A Clash of Wits.

Boston Transcript.

While Horace Mann, the famous educator, was sitting in his study one day an insane man rushed into the room and challenged him to fight.

"My dear fellow," replied Mr. Mann, "it would give me great pleasure to accommodate you, but I can't do it, the odds are so unfair. I am a Mann by name and a man by nature—that's two against one."

"Oh, come ahead!" the insane man answered. "I am a man and a man beside myself. Let us four have a fight."
