BEAR CREEK LOCALS.

(Too Late for Last Week)
Bear Creek, Nov. 19.—The supervisor of the Pomona Cotton Mills and seven others connected with the mill motored to the home of G. W. Burke, one route two, last week, for a hunt. We were told that they killed one possum, two squirrels and thirty rabbits. Some luck, eh?
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Holt, and family, of Kernersville, and Mrs. H. J. Elkins, of Greensboro, were week-end visitors in Bear Creek and on route two. Mrs. Holt, Alma and twins, Jack and Max, remained to spend the week with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stack and Mr. and Mrs. Kirkman, of Greensboro, were Sunday visitors in Bear Creek.
J. J. Norwood has been appointed acting postmaster at Bear Creek, effective December 1st.
R. W. Dowd, who holds a position in Greensboro, spent the week-end with home folks.
Rev. L. V. Coggins, of Semora, visited his father, I. P. Coggins, last week.
E. S. Baker, who has been very ill, is greatly improved.

NEWS FROM ROUTE TWO.

(Too Late for Last Week)
Siler City, Rt. 2, Nov. 20.—The Red Cross School is progressing nicely with Misses Eilene Daffron, of Liberty, and Lieta P. White, of Siler City, as teachers. The enrollment is 54.
In conference Sunday morning Rocky River Baptist Church elected Rev. DeLancy, of Greensboro, as pastor of that church.
Mr. and Mrs. Tate Culberson, of Washington, D. C., returned to their home Sunday night after spending the past week with their father, Mr. S. T. Culberson.
Mrs. Henry Cardwell returned Saturday to her home in Reidsville after spending several days in the home of her father, Mr. Ed. Johnson, on this route.
Miss Eilene Daffron spent last week-end with her parents at Liberty.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fox, the 10th, a daughter.
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Love, of near Liberty, spent the week-end with Mrs. Love's father, D. M. Smith.

Negroes Go Back to the South.

With housing shortages, fewer jobs and bleak northern weather, the tide of immigration that carried half a million negroes northward is beginning to turn back to the south. The southern colored man finds the north cold too nipping. Also he finds he is the first to be laid off when work is scarce, and that his increased numbers has carried race prejudice to the north. So now the south and the southern winters he is used to seem kinder, and the south needs him.

Attend Auction Sale.

Chapel Hill News.
Mr. Kemp P. Cole and several other Chatham citizens, whose names we failed to get, attended the auction sale of land on the Wa-Ha Yonda farm, near Durham, Tuesday, property of General J. S. Carr. The lots brought fancy prices. General Carr's Occaneechee Farm, near Hillsboro, was also sold at public auction yesterday.

More Than Seven Thousand.

Prior to November 14th, 1923, there were ginned in Chatham County 7,842 bales of cotton. During the same period last year there had been ginned 7,219 bales.
This is the record as obtained by G. G. Lutterloh, special agent for Chatham.

Logical.

May (watching ball-game): Where do they keep the extra bases?
Ray: What for?
May: Well, that man just stole third-base.
The world has 17,000,000 automobiles.

We can hardly wait for the newspapers these days to see who is shot or arrested.

STRANGE AND CURIOUS.

Peculiarities That Will Astonish Almost Anyone.

A Nevada bishop is gathering quilt rags to make covers for missionaries.
The town marshal of Durand, Mich., has been arrested for selling liquor.
A 13-year-old girl in Chicago is under arrest for burglary and shop-lifting.
Doctors in the United States gave more than 11,000,000 prescriptions for liquor last year.
A Mobile, Ala., negro died a few days ago, aged 115 years. His wife was 110 when she died.

Nathaniel Rothschild, of London, has a hobby of catching fleas. He has caught several thousand.

The police judge of Atchinson, Kan., fined his wife $1 for speeding. He compelled her to appear before him in person.

A monument to thirty-two children, killed by automobiles in St. Louis within the year, was dedicated a few days ago.

John Rogers, of Worcester, Conn., who has secured the conviction of 100 bootleggers, was recently arrested for being drunk.

A robber in Pittsburg returned $65 out of $85 he stole from a barber, saying he just wanted enough to buy a suit of clothes.

A horse in Ina, Ill., pumps water for the other stock in the lot. He grabs the pump handle with his teeth and goes to pumping.

A goat at Aurora, Ill., drank half a pint of nitro-glycerine and ate half a stick of dynamite and then walked away. Workmen who saw the goat fled.

Turkeys on a Kingston, Md., farm ate the mash from an illicit still, got drunk, and the owner, thinking they were dead, picked all the feathers off them. They are pretty looking things walking about featherless.

Women Preachers.

Women preachers in time will be the majority of pulpits in the sections, Rev. David D. Forsyth, responding secretary of the board of home missions of the Methodist Episcopal church, predicted at a meeting. The woman minister in a few years will be as familiar a figure in the country as the present school teacher, he said.

Why Father is Grouchy.

Twelve to fifteen years ago the average bill for a family of four would be about $15 a month. If a family bought $25 worth of groceries a month, it was considered plutocratic. If a family of four gets out with a week now for groceries, it is doing well.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF LAND.

By virtue of the power contained in a certain deed executed on the 2nd day of April, 1917, by D. H. Lane and wife, Lula E. Lane, for the purpose of securing certain indebtedness, as evidenced by bonds of even tenor and date and default having been made in the payment of said bonds and interest on same, the undersigned mortgagee will on Monday, December 24th, 1923, at 12 o'clock noon, in front of the postoffice in Siler City, North Carolina, offer for sale for cash to the highest bidder, the following tract of land, lying and being in Matthews Township, Chatham County, North Carolina, described and defined as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a stone, John Siler's corner (in M. M. Fox's line), and running east 108 poles to a stone, John Siler's corner (in C. H. Jordan's line), thence north with C. H. Jordan's line Jerry Lane's lines 70 poles to a stone, Feebee Glover's corner (in Jerry Lane's line); thence west 45 poles to a stone; thence north with Glover's and Cheek's lines 21 poles to a stone; thence west with Cheek's line to a rock on the east side of a branch (Cheek's corner); thence south five degrees west with M. M. Fox's line, being in all 94 poles from Cheek's corner to the beginning, containing 54 acres, more or less.

This 24th day of November, 1923.

Ford Trucks Are Bought On Performance Records

If you were to ask a hundred or a thousand—Ford truck owners why they use Ford trucks in preference to all others, they would likely say, "Because the Ford stands up."

They know that under the endless grind of daily service the Ford stays on the job month in and month out, with very little mechanical care, and with practically no expense for repairs or replacements.

They would emphasize the work this truck does, not its initial cost.
