THE CHATHAM

RECORD

ESTABLISHED SEPTEMBER 19, 1878.

PITTSBORO, N. C., CHATHAM COUNTY, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1923

NUMBER 27.

PITTSBORO GIVES AN OLD TIME MINSTREL PROGRAM

To The Largest Audience Ever Seen in New Auditorium.

Citizens of Pittsboro and surroundthe new school auditorium. Everybody thought that the performance would be a good one but they had no idea the control of the Misses Lossie Stone and Margaret The four Harrington brothers, Large deserve much credit for the Messrs S. W., A. F., T. J. and H. A. they did exceedingly well.

came on the stage, dressed as many is a real event in their lives. negroes used to dress and do dress even today they felt that there was something rich in store for themand there was,

Miss Large and Mr. Luman Overlike telegragh poles, on one end and $60.00. Who says the young people Mr. Joe Hammock on the other, with don't want and can't appreciate the rest of the troupe, dressed in old worth while entertainment? cast-off clothing, the young ladies who took part in the cast, especially HERES ANOTHER BRAIN TESTER with their head gear fitted up with stockings and ragged shoes, made a picture rarely seen in these late days of minstrelry.

The program opened with Miss Large giving an amusing talk to one of the young lady actors, and there is no use denying the fact that she acted the old mamy and looked it to perfection. Then there was a song by Miss Jennie Connell which greatly pleased the audience by her sweet singing. This was followed by gags, singing. This was followed by gags, solling. The wherewithal to—this day."

The program opened with Miss four letters transposed to one flucture words. Each word contains for the same four letters transposed to make the five words needed to fill the blanks:

Mr. C. M. Brown the barber, spent the words needed to fill the barber, spent the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the whole words needed to fill the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the week end with his parents near Sanford.

LIVE LOCAL NEWS CAPE FEAR. Duty of the w The program opened with Miss' Thompson and Harry Norwood, who upheld the negative that "it ain't no crime for a negro to steal chickens."

good, although the song, "Swing Low, gardless of where they may live. Sweet Chariot," sung by the entire fainting of a young lady in the aulience at this time the decision of the debate was not given out, although many people sided with the affirmaroad" will give a repeat performance the near future.

The show was a good one and everyto go missed a real treat.

The receipts amounted to $60. A nice little sum to be used at the school building.

OUR NEW AND OLD FRIENDS.

During the week just passed the ord or become new subscribers. Our ive Sunday school last Sunday. folks continue to brag on the paper. an o'possum dinner at R. H. Lindley's We certainly appreciate the large pat- Sunday . ng is our list for this week:

nes, W. F. Chears, W. M. Siler, with Mr. J. J. Thomas. iss Margaret Brooks, Henry May, C. Mendenhall, L. L. Boone, three end with Miss Pearl Foushee. hat her anme be not published.

LOCAL ITEMS FROM OAKLAND.

Pittsboro, Rt. 3, Dec. 10.—Miss this week. She attended Pittsboro aura Harris and Mr. Will Griffin. of high school Monday. rickhaven, spent Sunday with Miss ena Burns.

Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Clegg left last aturday for Leesburg, where he will ake up his new work.

rank Thomas r. and Mrs. W. M. Burns.

NO PAPER CHRISTMAS WEEK.

There will be no Record issued on advertisers and correspondents er and the paper will continue. govern themselves accordingly. e need the rest and I am sure our THE PISTOL WAS RECOVERED. sts of friends in Chatham will be ad to accord us this opportunity take a breathing spell. It will be a sacrifice for us to take a week but our help during the year has very faithful and we feel that should have this small recupera-Next week will be the last par in this year.

DID PRETTY WELL.

The ladies of the U. D. C., at the azaar at the Womans Club rooms, fired the sper of $156. The pound en away by the ber of nuts in the voting con-

WILL CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS.

Corinth School to Have a Tree-Other Personals and Locals.

spent Sunday with relatives at Cor-

Miss Fan Tutor, of Sanford, spent ing sections were greatly surprised last Friday night when they witnessed an old time negro minstrel show at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A.

that they would witness what they tree at the school house on Thursday night, December 20th.

perseverance and hard work they gave in getting up this show for the amusement of our people, but they did it, and with the help of others, they did exceedingly well.

Harrington, accompanied by their cousin, C. S. Harrington, spent Sunday with Dr. Ihrie, of Wendell. Dr. Ihrie was an old time friend of the father of the Harrington brothers, When the crowded auditorium and they knew him well as boys, so watched the "show people" as they this renewal of old acquaintances qua, preferred stock, and upon countacre acted as middlemen and "Slim" ing up their proceeds found they had Jim Lawson, with his legs looking doubled that amount, as more than all sorts of feathers and hats, white Six Months Subscription For First Answer Received Here.

The following four line stanza contains five blanks to be filled in by itest is open to any boy

The only condition is that no anstroupe, was hard to beat. By the wer shall reach us before Monday, December 17. This is done in order to give everyone an equal show; so that everyone will have opportunity to get the paper in all parts of the state, tive, according to Mr. Dorsett's ar- and can compete with those who may receive their papers earlier The first answer received will get the award. body enjoyed it and those who failed If the correct answer is received from more than one person, in the same It is hoped that these young la- mail and at the same time, the prelies of the "the biggest show on the mium will be given to each one. The prize last week was won by Miss Margaret Brooks, an account of which appears in another column. Address all answers to Joe Snyder, care The Record, Pittsboro, N. C.

NEWS FROM BROWNS CHAPEL.

Pittsboro, Rt. 2, Dec. 10.—Several t of good people below have come people from Browns Chapel attended or mailed their renewals to the Rec- a Missionary Play given by Mt. Olis getting larger every week and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mann enjoyed age that is being given us. Follow- Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas spent last Sunday visiting Mr. Thomas'

Mrs. J. T. Griffin J, T. Johnson, Ar- father, Mr. J. J. Thomas. Buckner, A. N. Poe, Tommie Grif- Mr. Boyd Hargrove, Mrs. Geneva , Ostia Perry, A. J. Morris, Mrs. Hargrove and Miss Myrtle Hargrove, m. Sturdivant, T. B. Clegg. Jasper of Burlingotn, spent the week end

Miss Annie Mann spent the week nt as Christmas gifts, to begin on Mr. Johnnie Marshall was a visitor huary 1, and one lady who requests at Swepsonville Saturday and Sun-

Mr. J. T. Wright is in Philadelphia where he is taking treatment. Mrs. Boyd Hargrove is visiting here

DON'T FAIL TO LOOK NOW.

This will be the last paper that will go to those who are behind with People of this community are very the paper. We are sending out notices rry to hear of the illness of Mrs. to all whose subscritions are due and we hope to hear from them before we Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bland and chil- print again. Let's keep together as en, of Pittsboro, spent Sunday with one big family. We need you as a friend and Wrs. W. M. Burns. friend and you need the paper. Short-Mr. Julan McIver and family visit- ly after the first of the year, we will in the home of Mr. Bob Thomas begin on our primary program and we want you to have first hand information, so send us your renewal now. If it is not convenient for you to pay now and you want the paper, just drop us a card and say not to stop nursday, December 27th, therefore the paper that you expect to pay lat-

Alton Prince, one of the men arrested in Cape Fear township last week and lodged in jail, charged with distilling, resisting an officer and carrying concealed weapons, gave a bond of $1,500 Monday and was released from custody. It will be remembered that Prince attempted to shoot deputy sheriff C. T. Desern, but threw the pistol in the creek. It in friendly letters, was recovered Monday by an officer. In little kindnesses It is valued at $35.00.

Married Here Last Saturday.

In his usual graceful manner, Squire In cultivating the mind, One or two John R. Blair united in marriage at In doing our duties cheerfully, f nuts, which his office last Saturday, Mr. Lloyd In facing life with a smile, Miss Margaret Jones and Miss Martha Jones, both In achieving worthy ambitions, a lucky ones to of Albright township.

SEE YOUR LABEL

"BASHFUL MR. BOGGS" WAS VERY MUCH ENJOYED

Corinth, Dec. 10.-J. E. Dickens Methodist Sunday School to Have a Christmas Tree-Other News.

Moncure, Dec. 10.—Mrs. J. E. Cathell and son, James, spent last Friday in Raleigh.

Mr. J. K. Barnes, popular cashier of the Moncure bank, spent Sunday in Norfolk, Va. Miss Hazel Holt spent last week end at Raleigh visiting friends.

The play entitled "Bashful Mr.
Boggs," given by the Apex High School at Moncure school auditorium last Friday night was enjoyed by the large crowd present. The characters acted their parts well and Apex school should be proud of their local talent. The amount realized was fifty-four dollars.

Mrs. Daisy Moore, of Durham, is visiting Mrs. Aurelia Taylor on route

The Sunday school of the Methodist church is preparing to have a Christ-We are sorry to state that Mrs.

Lois Womble was unable to attend church service last Sunday morning. We hope she is much better at this

Rev. J. J. Boone preached two able sermons at Moncure last Sunday, although a little car accident cut his sermon short in the evening, but it pauper $56.00. was enjoyed very much neverthe-

All the faculty of Moncure school spent last Saturday in Raleigh hunting Santa Claus.
Mr. C. M. Brown the barber, spent the week end with his parents near December 8th, when a host of young $40.00. or woman, who may live folks gathered at his home. A numam county, or who may have ber of games and a contest were play-This part of the play was really been reared in Chatham county, re- ed and greatly enjoyed by those pres-

Mrs. Bettie Thomas has been ill for several days. We wish for her an early recovery. Born to Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Moore, December 6th, a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Seagroves and daughter, of Raleigh, were recent guests of Mrs. Bettie Goodwin. Inez and Estelle Ellis were week $16.00. end guests of Vada and Georgette Goodwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Dandy Thomas and children, of Broadway, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Mann. Edgar Holt, of Hopewell, Va., the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Holt.

Henry Webster, of Clayton, and George Thomas, of Raleigh, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Addie Webster. October court, $9.75. R. F. Sturdivant spent Saturday in Raleigh on business.

W. L. Beckwith, of Apex, Rt. spent Sunday with his parents. Misses Mabel and Mary Lee Mann spent the week end near Merry Oaks cap, $20.00. with Mrs. Emily Holt.

Messrs Poole, Misses Bell and Annie Poole, of Bonsal, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Goodwin.

JURORS FOR JANUARY COURT.

The following jurors will serve at a one week's term of court for January, 1924. This court will be for the trial of criminal cases only, and Judge as follows:

Albright-Hugh W. Johnson, M. M. Bridges, Will Fox. Baldwin—E. P. Hackney, John Dawson C. A. Snipes, W. B. Cheek, Bear Creek—J. J. Moon, R. W. Vann, C. D. Brooks.

Cape Fear-C. W. Cross, R. Chappell. Center-William A. Boone, C. W. Lutterloh, W. H. Ward, C. W. Hack-

Gulf-C. J. Rives, N. F. Smith, J. B. Bright, M. F. Norwood. Hadley—J. W. Lindley, J. J. Lindley, J. A. Marshall. Haw River-C. E. Lassiter, J. N. lotte.

Hickory Mt.-J. T. Harris, C. M. Court, J. H. Watkins.

Matthews—J. C. Elder, W. B.

Straughan, C. K. Wrenn, J. F. Lambe, H. A. Brooks.

New Hope-W. H. Kelly, Frank Mulholland. Oakland-James W. Knight, R. H. Bobbitt. Williams-Lacey G. Wright, K. B. Cole, J. B. Darnell.

Where Happiness in Found.

"In friendships, In generous thoughts and helping oth-In friendly letters, in pleasant words, In work we love, in mutual confid-

In healthful recreations In the companionship of books, In always doing one's best regardless of reward."

OVER $400 PAID TO OUT-

County Commissioners Approve and Transact Routine Business.

The county commissioners met in regular session on December 3, and transacted the following business:

Chatham Hardware Co., half day pay for Herbert Jackson, $1.25. Pittsboro Cafe, meat $27.50. W. L. London & Son, merchandise, Chatham Oil & Fertilizer Co., hulls. etc., for county home, $39.90 Elliott-Fisher Co, typewriter rib-

John Burns, jailer, $81.90. R. V. Morris, still, worm and cap, F. P. Nooe, still, worm and cap,

Walden & Thomas, burlal expenses,

Virgil Davis, janitor court house November salary, $25.00. J. W. Boone, work on court house, C. C. Poe, stamps, express and pos-Wrenn & Wrenn, insurance agents, insurance on court house and jail, to November 1926, $850.00. Worrell Manufacturing Co., sprayers and disinfectant $55.00.

Will Johnson, work at county home, Mrs. J. W. Johnson, sewing at the glad to learn. county home $11.00. J. W. Johnson, superintendent county home, $75.00. Laura Johnson, cook county home, Eugene Farrell, 200 pound hog, for county home, $25.00.

R. R. Ramsey, auto hire sending Alice Foushee home, $5.00. J. W. Johnson, supplies and work at county home $31.30.

U. S. Fidelity and Guaranty Co., premium sheriff's bond to Dec. 1924, Blair hotel, dinner for 13 jurors, Riggsbee Electric Co., repairs pump house and jail, $11.26. C. E. Lasater, 1 day's service pollholder, $3.00.

A. M. Webster, still, worm and Paul Farrell, still, worm and cap, $20.00

R. E. Lanius, sawing 14 cords wood, C. G. Green, 3 cords wood for court to attend. house $12.00.

R. B .Farrar, 1 still $10.00 Several persons in the county had their taxes remitted. Over $400.00 was paid out by the commissioners in vouchers for the John M. Pittman, of Henderson, will outside poor. The register of deeds preside. Judge Pittman succeeds requests The Record to state that Judge John H. Keer to the bench, Mr. after January 1, 1924, vouchers for Keer having been elected from the the outside poor will be settled only third district to succeed the late Claud quarterly. There are many outside Kitchen in Congress. The jurors are poor vouchers still out and they should be sent in to the rgeister by roll. January 1st.

HEADED FOR CHAPEL HILL.

Scores of cars from Sanford and vicinity and even some from Monroe and Charlotte, headed for Chapel last Thursday with his parents, Mr. Hill to witness the championship game of football between Sanford and Charlote, passed through Pittsboro last Saturday. A truck load of children, numbering at least 25, were in the procession.

Sanford was defeated in the game by a score of 20 to 7 in favor of Char-

Pittsboro knew late Saturday afterthe quietness that was kept by San-ford rooters as they passed through release. Pittsboro and Chatham county were but the splendid playing and the good of consideration, and the fact that boro, and will be tried later. they were accredited with the contest at Chapel Hill is no mean honor.

COUNTY HOME XMAS TREE.

The Health Department of the Womans Club of Pittsboro will give a Bland says that hundreds of fox hunt- Campbell, of Pittsboro route 2, Had-Christmas tree to the inmates at the ers from all parts of the state gath- ley township, killed a hawk that county home on Friday before Christ- ered there for the annual event. Ap- measured four feet two inches from proximately 350 pedigreed hounds tip to tip of wings and 191-2 inches. The health department of the Club were entered and eight foxes were from bill to end of tail. It was one of mas ,December 21st.

fruits. Anyone else desiring to make any contribution to the inmates will please deliver them promptly to Mrs. the visiting hunters by Thomas R. wild turkey this season. He says dur-R.H. Hayes, so that they may be placed on the tree.

Mrs. J. C. GREGORY, Chm.,
Health Department Womans Club

L GIVE A PLAY SATURDAY. BOX PARTY A GREAT

SIDE POOR FOR NOVEMBE Bells School Will Entertain on Dec. 15th-News About School.

Apex, Rt. 4, Dec. 10.—The box party given on November 28th was a success. There were 46 boxes and candy for most popular girl, and a guess pie. The toal proceeds amounted to $122.00. Chatham Hardware Co., merchandise, $4.87.

G. R. Pilkington drugs, $18.60.

Pittsboro Electric Light account, current for county, $15.16.

I Dewey Derect clock for for the first state of the primary and proceeds the proceed the proceeds th come and enjoy it. Don't forget the date, Saturday December 15th, at 7:30 p. m.

FROM NEAR EMMAUS CHURCH.

Pittsboro, Rt. 2, Dec. 10.—There was preaching at Emmaus Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 by Rev. R. R. Miss Bessie Johnson spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson. Mrs. Myrtie Self and children spent a week with her mother, Mrs. R. S. Campbell. Mr. J. W. Campbell and wife are spending sometime with his father,

There will be a Christmas tree at Emmaus church on Christmas day, beginning at 11 o'clock. Everybody is Mr. A. B. Campbell, Mr. A. M. Webster, both of this route killed hogs

Mr. O. W. Campbell and family, Mr. O'Connell. B. Marley, Mr. Lacey Beal, Mr. Lacey Beal, Mr. Fourth grade Remit Cotten, Jay spent Thanksgiv- Cotten. Woodrow Cotten, Leon O'-Mr. H. H. Hilliard and Mr. Vetra Straughan, of Siler City, spent Tuesday night with Mr. A. B. Campbell. Mr. A. B. Campbell and Mr. G. B.

Thrift returned home with them Wednesday evening. Mrs. Mary Carroll is sick, but is improving, her many friends will be

BATTLE SCHOOL NEWS.

Pittsboro, Rt. 2, Dec. 10.—Battle school has just closed a month of work with Mr. N. J. Dark as principal and Miss Annie Mann as primary teacher. The honor roll for the month

First grade-Kenneth Johnson, W. D. Clark, Frank W. Wombles, Pauline and Louise Craft. Second grade-Glendwia Clark.

Third grade—Cleveland Campbell, Charm Clark. Fourth grade-Atlas Cooper. Fifth grade—Eulalia Clark, Elmer Cooper, Edward Brooks.

Sixth grade—Farthing Clark, Edna Cooper. Seventh grade—Julia Campbell. There will be a Christmas entertainment and Christmas tree Emmaus church at 11 o'clock on Christmas day. The community is invited to place presents on it and everybody is invited about seven years ago. They lived in Misses Buena Ferguson, Ola and Chatham county several years, some Josie Dorsett spent last Wednesday years before Mr. Smith's death and night with Mrs. W. R. Perry. Miss Annie Mann spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mann. Miss Edith Clark spent last Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. O. the great beyond only a week before Womble. Lewis Carroll, a student of Bonlee his parents, Mr .and Mrs. Frank Car-

Miss Evelyn Justice spent Saturday night with Mrs. W. R. Perry. Misses Dora and Edith Clark and Mr. Zeb Ferguson visited the Misses Bowers Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Webster spent and Mrs. James Webster.

IN MAGISTRATE'S COURT.

Tom Johnson, white, was arrested near Farmville Monday, charged with dealing in liquor. He was given a preliminary hearing before Squire John R. Blair who put him under a $500 bond. He failed to give the bond and puzzle, and she gets the three months noon that Sanford was defeated by went to jail. Tuesday he produced subscription to The Record.

went over to Haywood and arrested seventy-five answers received up to anxious for Sanford to win the cham- Tom Sutton and Lem Brantley, ne- Tuesday at noon. pionship, and we regret that they lost, groes, at a house there. They found several jugs of liquor in the house. puzzle for a six months subscription.

Has Returned From a Fox Hunt.

Mr. Mont Bland has returned from the fox meet in Lenoir county and he says he had the time of his life. Mr. will donate the confectioneries and caught during the four days hunt.

SUCCESS IN EVERY WAY

School Building Repaired-Other Interesting News.

Truth, December 10.—The box party at the school here last Saturday evening was a success, we think, both socially and financially. The boxes current for county, $15.16.

J. Dewey Dorsett, clerk's fees for November $162.76.

C. C. Poe, register's fees for November, $145.80.

Bonlee Telephone Co., phone rent for county, $26.10.

Proceeds as we felt we could not do as much in six months as the child could do in eight months, therefore it was unwise to premote in the Spring.

The Betterment Society at Bells is planning to give a play on December 15, at 7:30. The play is "Aunt Proceeds amounted to $61.60. The purpose of the entertainment was to raise money to meet the Chautauqua pledges, which the school has undertaken. We appreciate the support given by the general county of the cake for being the proceeds amounted to $61.60. The purpose of the entertainment was to raise money to meet the Chautauqua pledges, which the school has undertaken. We appreciate the support given by the general could not do as much in six months as the child could do in eight months, therefore it was unwise to premote in the entertainment was to raise money to meet the Chautauqua pledges, which the school has undertaken. We appreciate the support given by the general country of the could not do as much in six months as the child could do in eight months, therefore it was unwise to premote in the child could do in eight months, therefore it was unwise to premote in the child could do in eight months, therefore it was unwise to premote in the child could do in eight months, therefore it was unwise to premote in the child could do in eight months, the Bonlee Telephone Co., phone rent for county, $26.10.

Brooks & Eubanks, merchandise, $17.46.

Chatham Hardware Co., half day pay for Herbert Jackson, $1.25.

Pittsboro Cafe, meat $27.50.

The Betterment Society at Bells is planning to give a play on December 15, at 7:30. The play is "Aunt Dinah's Quilting Party."

The admission will be 25 cents with a ticket, giving everyone a chance at the beautiful quilt the Betterment ladies have made. We hope all will ment. The credit of the plan for work-given and arousing the composition of the plan for work-given and arousing the society at Bells is planning to give a play on December 15, at 7:30. The play is "Aunt Dinah's Quilting Party."

The admission will be 25 cents with a ticket, giving everyone a chance at the support given by the appreciate the support given by the distance of the support given by the ing for the Chautauqua, and arousing interest in the Chautauqua work in this community is due to Miss Orlan Mull and Miss Clara Cotten. Both young ladies have been untiring in their efforts in this work. We have some splendid young people here who will appreciate the ideals and inspiration of Chautauqua, and we hope the committee will go "over the top" and make its coming next Fall a certainty.

Mr. Hannon and Miss Laura Haffis

were here for the box party Saturday evening.

Miss Fannie Tutor, of Sanford, spent the week end here with her parents. The second month of school closed Saturday with a daily attendance of

33. Last month the average was 29. We wish to make an even better attendance the third month. The following students were present every day the past month:

Second grade—Hudson Cotten.
Third grade—Perry Cotten, Nell

Seventh grare—Robert Cotten, Paul O'Connell. The school wishes to thank Mr.

O'Connell for putting the new lock on the doors. Too, the broken window panes have been replaced and the oil for the floor is ready for use. We appreciate the cooperation the community is giving the school, and with such interest and help we hope to have a very successful school this

DEATH OF MRS. SMITH.

Contributed. Mrs. Alice Trollinger Smith died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. O. Smith, of Graham, N. C., on November 17th, 1923 and was buried at Burlington on the afternoon of the 18th. The funeral services and burial were conducted by Rev. R. P. Elling-ton, pastor of the Baptist church at Graham of which Mrs. Smith had been a faithful, consecrated member. Many relatives and friends were present at the home and the church during the Many beautiful floral designs were placed on the grave as tokens of love and esteem, by those who lover her.

Mrs. Smith's husband, Hayes P. Smith, preceded her to the grave have many friends in Chatham, who will learn with deep sorrow of the death of this good woman. One of their noble sons, Rev. W. A. Smith, of Charlotte, preceded her to

she was called. There are five children surviving, high school spent the week end with as follows: Mrs. G. G. Lutterloh, Rt. 2, Pittsboro; Mrs. W. J. Lancaster, Lexington, N. C.; Mrs. C. O. Smith, Graham, N. C.; Mr. Wheeler Smith,

Durham N. C., and Mr. Walter Smith, Raleigh, N. C. Mrs. Smith was 67 years of age and lived her life in prayer and service. May we all strive to do likewise is the wish of one who loved her. Mrs. W. F. JONES. Pittsboro, Rt. 2, Dec. 7, 1923

LITTLE MISS BROOKS WINS.

The answer to our puzzle last week was "BACKACHE." Little Miss Margaret Brooks was the first to win in having sent in her answer to the

There has certainly been a great deal of interest manifested in the Monday Sheriff Blair and deputies puzzle ,there having been more than

In another column will be found a sportmanship by the team was worthy of consideration, and the fact that boro, and will be tried later. The two men were brought to Pitts- open to everybody and we hope that boro, and will be tried later. children will make an effort to get the prize.

HAWK AND WILD TURKEYS.

One day last week, Mr. A. B. the largest hawks ever killed in Chat-ing the past forty-three years he hikilled seventy-three turkeys.