NUMBERS 29 & 30.

MISS ELLINGTON WINS.

Gets Six Months Subscription for Answer to Puzzle Last Week.

The correct solution to our puzzle last week was: "Your Answer is Fine."
Miss Annie Mae Ellington, of Pittsboro, route two, won the premium of six months subscription to the Record.
Many replies were received and a great many were correct in substance but the arrangement of the answer and other requirements gave Miss Ellington the premium. One answer was considered better than that of Miss Ellington, but the writer of the letter neglected to sign it. It was merely signed: "Yours respectfully, Siler City, N. C., Route number two." If there had been a name to that letter it would have received the premium.
Many of those answering neglected to give their age; others had the answer as "Is Your Answer Fine," while others merely gave the answer and gave no consideration to the construction of the letter, the address or general arrangement, therefore the answer of Miss Ellington was considered the best.
Some of those answering left off the postoffice and some were under sixteen years of age.
In another column will be found a puzzle for this week to be solved by some lucky person. Read it and try for the prize.

WEDDING AROUND CORINTH

Local and Personal News of Eastern Neighbors.
Corinth, Dec. 31.—Chatham County Home one of the best in the State. This is the headline of an article in Public Welfare Progress. Some jump from one of the poorest homes to one of the best homes in two years. Another striking instance of the fact that what the people of Chatham County or any other community want had enough is what they will have.
Mr. J. A. Jones and Miss Gertrude Yearly, of Raleigh, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Nash. T. V. Sexton and family are back at Buckhorn after a two weeks vacation.
Miss Georgia Alexander, of Washington, D. C., spent Christmas week with her aunt, Mrs. F. M. Nash, at Buckhorn.
Miss Marie Phillips came in Monday morning to take up the work as grade teacher in the Corinth school. This is the place left vacant by the resignation of Miss Audrey Maynard, of Apex.

Miss Carrie Lee Cross spent the week-end with Misses Tula and Reffie Mims, at Merry Oaks.
Mr. Roy Cole, who is teaching at Sparta, spent Christmas with his sister, Mrs. D. A. Clark.
Mr. S. W. Harrington spent the week at Clifton Forge, Va., visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. F. Drewery.
Mrs. L. G. Wilder, whose husband is bridge foreman on the N. and S., is spending a few days with Mrs. S. W. Harrington.
Mr. K. Allgood spent the week-end at Mt. Gilead.
Mr. T. H. Buchanan and family spent the week-end with their daughter, Mrs. P. S. Ashworth, at Fuquay Springs.
We have had weddings and rumors of weddings galore for the past two weeks.
First, our neighbor R. W. McDonold, was married to Miss Spence, of Fuquay Springs, on December 25. They will make their home on their farm near Truth.
Then if present rumors can be verified, we will next week extend our congratulations to about three more couples in the community.
Mrs. W. A. Allen, of Charlotte, and Mrs. L. G. Morgan, of Raleigh, are spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Clark.
Well, that seven percent tax paid quarterly dividend that we need right on time January 1st on our Carolina Power and Light Company preferred stock looks mighty good. Did you get yours? If not write or call on Frank M. Nash and get lined up in time for the next quarterly dividend, date of April 1st.

GOLDSTON ROUTE ONE NEWS

Goldston, Rt. 1, Dec. 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Smith and children, of Greensboro, spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Carroll.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barber and Miss Lillian Goins, of Hyman, S. C., were guests of Mr. Barber's brother, E. P. Barber, last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Harvie Washburn and children, of Siler City, and Mr. J. A. Oldham, of Greensboro, spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Oldham.
Mr. and Mrs. Harvie Washburn and children, of Siler City, and Mr. J. A. Oldham, of Greensboro, spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Oldham.

STOCKHOLDERS' ANNUAL MEET.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Citizens Bank & Trust Company, of Siler City, N. C., for the election of directors and the transaction of any other business that may come before the meeting, will be held at the office of said bank on the 6th day of January at 10 o'clock, a. m. Jan. 3-c J. Q. SEAWELL, Cashier.

WEDDINGS IN CAPE FEAR

News That Will Interest Many Record Readers.

New Hill, Dec. 31.—A marriage of interest to their many friends took place Sunday morning, December 23, when Mr. Lattie Beckwith and Miss Hallie Bryan were married. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Beckwith, of New Hill, route two. He is a young man of splendid character and is very industrious.
The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Bryan, of Apex, route four, and by her charming personality has won a host of friends.
Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Beckwith left for points of interest in Florida. Upon their return they will make their home in Chatham where the groom is engaged in lumber business.
One of the most interesting social events of the season was the marriage of Mr. Henry Webster and Miss Eunice Hatley, which occurred Monday evening, December 24. The groom is the eldest son of Mrs. Addie Webster, of New Hill, route two. He is an energetic young man of splendid character and was in service several months over sea during the world war.
The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hatley, of Pittsboro, route one, and by her sweet disposition has endeared herself to a score of friends.

These young people will make their home in Clayton, where the groom holds a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Asycue Mr. and Mrs. Peoples, of Henderson, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jones.
Friday evening Miss Janice Carr charmingly entertained a large number of the younger set at the lovely G. F. Carr. Many games and con-home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. tests were enjoyed. Mrs. Carr, mother of the hostess, assisted by Mrs. John W. Bland, served a delicious sweet course.

OTHER MONCURE LOCALS.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Green and little son spent the Christmas holidays with relatives at Columbia, S. C., and Statesville.
Misses Lizzie and Thelma Harmon, of Biscoe, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Moody Burns.
Miss Lillie Mae Wilkie, of Raleigh, is spending the holidays with her father, Mr. C. D. Wilkie, on route two. School will open January 2, 1924.

WRECKED CARS.

While on his way from his home in South Carolina to Hillsboro, where he was going after his wife, Dr. D. C. Barber was run into by a car driven by a negro named Walter Jeffries, near Gum Springs, last Friday. Both of the cars were somewhat damaged but no one was hurt. The negro driver was arrested and brought here and lodged in jail. Before going to jail he paid for the damage done to the doctor's car. Squire Blair also fined Jeffries $50. He did not have money enough to pay for the fine and damage, so he went to jail expecting to pay the fine this week.

Over Nine Thousand

According to Mr. George G. Lutterloh, special agent for Chatham County, there were 9,520 bales of cotton ginned in Chatham prior to December 13, 1923, as against 8,785 on the same date in 1922.

EDITOR ENJOYS TURKEY.

Among the many, many remembrances that the editor received during Christmas was a nice, large young turkey gobbler, the gift of Squire Lysander Johnson. We greatly enjoyed that bird and we highly appreciate our good friend's present.

FOR THE SCHOOL CHILDREN

Another Puzzle and a Chance to Get a Free Subscription.
To the first boy or girl in Chatham County, or a native of Chatham County, who is now in a public school or will be a scholar in school beginning the New Year, between the ages of twelve and twenty years, that sends us a correct answer to the following riddle, we will give a six months free subscription to The Chatham Record:

RIDDLE.

In offices and schools
I'm found, I'm everywhere;
I'm dangerous if I'm broken,
So handle me with care.
Sometimes I have three feet,
But n'er a step I travel.
Now see what you can do
This riddle to unravel.
Observe this condition closely. No answer must reach us before Saturday, January 5, 1924. It is not necessary to write the verses but merely tell what it represents. Arrangement, spelling, penmanship, and the object itself will be determining elements in awarding the prize.
No winner of a former prize will be credited as a winner in this contest, but we invite them to compete.
Winner of puzzle letters in our issue of Thursday, December 20, is announced in another column.

Very Complimentary.

Among the many subscriptions that we received during Christmas week we had letters that were highly complimentary. Many of them said The Record was the best paper ever published in Chatham county. Some said they just couldn't do without it. Others said they would take it if it cost $10 a year. Three gratis subscriptions were sent out and the letters said we were giving the paper to them so that we may keep ours and not have them borrowing it every week. Altogether the subscribers were very complimentary. Even those who brought their money to the office were loud in their praise of the Record. We thank each and every one for the many nice things that was said to us.

Death of a Good Woman.

Mrs. D. J. Hatley died at her home in New Hope Township last Saturday night after an illness of a few days, aged forty-four years. She was buried Sunday afternoon in the cemetery at Mt. Gilead Baptist Church, Revs. R. R. Gordon and K. E. Clark conducting the burial services.

Mrs. Hatley was the daughter of Mrs. Bettie Thomas and was highly respected by all who knew her. She was a Christian lady and had been a member of the church for many years.
Besides her husband, she leaves several children to mourn her loss.

MR. BLAND ENTERTAINS.

Host of Friends at His Home During Christmas Holidays.
On Wednesday night, December 26, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Bland entertained a host of their friends at their elegant home on Goldston Avenue in the western section of Pittsboro, in honor of a home gathering of the children and other relatives, all the children being present except Mrs. W. H. Cox, of Laurinburg. A brother-in-law, Mr. W. E. Poe, wife and two children, of Cheraw, S. C., were also present. There were four daughters, three sons and nineteen grand children there in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Poe and their children.

The children and grand children were as follows: Mrs. M. M. Guinn and three children, of Durham; Mrs. D. D. Guinn and two children, of Lamar, S. C.; W. F. Bland, wife, and four children, Pittsboro; C. E. Bland, wife and two children, Pittsboro; B. W. Gilmore, wife and two children, Pittsboro; Miss Mary Bland, Pittsboro; Mrs. Fred Boone, wife, and two children; Mrs. R. E. Eubanks, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Poe and sons, George and Dwight.

Among the guests participating in the joy of the occasion were: Hon. and Mrs. A. C. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Terry, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Farrell, Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Farrell and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Farrell, Elsie Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Poe and son, Charles Poe, Mrs. G. W. Ellington, T. P. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Neal, Mrs. E. Riggsbee, Mr. and Mrs. Colin G. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Farrell, Moncure, C. T. Desern, Squire and Mrs. John R. Blair, Mrs. Fanny Moore, W. E. Brooks Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Farrell and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Williams.

At six o'clock the guests were invited to the spacious dining room that had been prepared for the occasion, where a repast elegant in nature and abundant in preparation was greatly enjoyed by everyone. Everyone fully enjoyed the dinner and were pronounced in their appreciation of the opportunity of being together on such an occasion. The editor enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. Bland and his family and can truly say that those invited and failed to attend missed a treat that was indeed a good one for the festive season of the good year 1923.

MISS WILKIE WINS

Miss Beaman Wilkie, route one, Bear Creek, N. C., won the ten dollar gold piece given away by Mr. C. B. Fitts, at Bear Creek to the one guessing nearest correctly the number of beans in a jar. Miss Wilkie guessed 7,705 and there were 7,738. A large number of people made guesses.

There were thirty-two licenses issued during the month; four more than in the month of December, 1922, eighteen for white couples and fourteen for colored people.

A Brand New Subscriber.

Mr. W. T. Herndon, reared in Chatham county and lived in it all of his life came in during Christmas and subscribed for the Record. He says he has never subscribed for the paper before, but having seen a few copies he was so impressed that he was impelled to subscribe.
Mr. Herndon recently lost his wife during an illness in a hospital in Durham and his many friends deeply sympathize with him. His little baby is now in the hospital and is not expected to recover.

THREE CHRISTMAS TREES.

Much Visiting and General Good Time at and Near Moncure.

Moncure, Dec. 31.—Christmas week passed off very pleasantly and quietly in and around Moncure. Up to Christmas eve everyone was very busy but Christmas day, Tuesday, and the following day were very quiet. Everybody spending Christmas at home, the bank was closed and the post office kept Sunday hours. After enjoying Christmas and turkey dinners at home the day closed with a Christmas tree and treat at the Methodist Church. The main features of the program were singing appropriate songs by the choir, the marching of the children holding candles and singing "Holy Night"; the earnest talk by Mr. Joe McIver was enjoyed, but the last, Santa and Mrs. Santa giving presents off the beautifully decorated holly tree, which was loaded down with nice presents for the members of the Sunday school, was enjoyed very much by the little folks. The treat, which consisted of apples and oranges, was passed to the large congregation present and enough was left to treat again at Sunday school last Sunday.

It seems that this has been the happiest Christmas for many years, everyone feeling good and showing it by remembering everybody with Christmas cards and gifts.
Mr. J. K. Barnes, the cashier of Moncure Bank, spent Christmas day with his people at Jonesboro.
Mr. Allen Moore the assistant cashier, spent Christmas at Durham.
Miss Mary Olinger, of Sanford, spent Christmas with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Moore.
Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Cathell and daughter, Miss Virginia and sons, Edwin and James, spent Christmas with relatives at Lexington.
Mr. Clarence and Miss Annie Lois Stroud of Chapel Hill, are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Womble and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Womble, on route one. We were glad to have Mr. Stroud as a visitor at the Methodist Sunday school last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Cresswell spent the holidays at Badin, with relatives.
Mrs. C. D. Orrell and little daughter, Miss Barbara, of Yemassee, S. C., are spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Watkins.
The Baptist Sunday school had their Christmas tree on Thursday evening. Although Thursday was a dreary and rainy day, there was a good crowd present to enjoy the beautifully decorated cedar tree that was loaded down with gifts for the members of the Sunday school. Rev. R. R. Gordon, the pastor, was present and made an appropriate address. Mr. Edwin Cathell also made a good talk. Santa Claus was present and the little folks always enjoy Santa. Last but not least was the nice treat. Everyone went away happy but sorry that Christmas was about over.
Miss Edith Hilliard, of Carthage, is visiting Miss Edna Hilliard of Moncure.
Mr. Cecil Poe, of Durham, is visiting Mr. Rudolph Wilkie this week.
Mrs. C. J. Howell, of Hamlet, spent the holidays with her sister, Mrs. S. V. Holt.

Mrs. Jennie L. Jennings, of South Boston, Va., is visiting Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Cathell this week.
Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Wilkie and Mrs. C. C. Thomas took Christmas dinner on Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stedman at Providence Farm. Miss Roberta Lambeth spent Wednesday during Christmas with Camelia and Ruth Stedman.

Capt. J. H. Wessler spent Christmas holidays at Goldsboro with Mr. and Mrs. Borden. He rode home in a new Buick car, which was a Christmas gift.

The Christmas tree, which was given at Providence Methodist Church, four miles from Moncure, on Wednesday evening, was enjoyed very much. The holly tree, which was beautifully decorated and lighted with candles, had many presents for the members of the Sunday school. The theme of the program was "The Babe of Bethlehem." The program was given by the children and was enjoyed very much. The pantomime, "Holy Night," which was given by Miss Lora Lee Johnson, was well rendered.
An address by Mr. George D. Harmon, which was outlined as follows:
1. The birth of Jesus.
2. The childhood of Jesus.
3. The life of Jesus.
4. The saving power of Jesus.
5. The promise of Jesus.
The talk was enjoyed very much. The program was closed with a treat, which consisted of apples and oranges.

College students at home for the Christmas holidays include Miss Amey Womble, Davenport College, Lenoir; Miss Virginia Cathell, State Normal, Fredericksburg, Va.; Miss Esther Womble, Peace Institute, Raleigh; Mr. R. W. Utley, Elon College; Mr. Edwin Cathell, Wake Forest College.
Mr. C. N. McAfee and Mrs. Bertie Knight, of Phoenix, spent Christmas holidays at Baltimore, Md.
Messrs. W. M. Holmes and Rodgers Holmes, of Phoenix, spent Christmas at Birmingham, Ala.

Mr. C. M. Brown, the barber, spent Christmas day at his home near Sanford.
Miss Virginia Cathell spent last Monday at Jonesboro.
Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Budd, on route one, are spending two weeks visiting relatives at Ridgewood, N. J.
Mrs. Nell Brown spent the holidays with her sister, Mrs. T. B. Lambeth.
