

CHATHAM BRIEFS

Get The Record eight months for 75 cents.
Subscribe for The Record and get 100 cents.

Court convenes in Pittsboro on March 17th.
Time, money and health are gained having a garden.

Mr. J. S. Wrenn, of Durham, was Pittsboro visitor Monday.

County commissioners will be in session in Pittsboro next Monday.

Miss Fannie S. Dark, of Raleigh, was a week end visitor to relatives in City.

Prune the orchard before growth starts, caution horticultural workers the State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hudson and Mrs. W. C. Hamlet, were visitors in Siler City last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wrenn, of Raleigh, were here Tuesday morning, the 19th, with a nine-pound daughter.

Miss Marie Brown, from Raleigh, spent the week end with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Brown.

Messrs C. C. Poe and John Linder returned from Smithfield Friday where they had been on business.

The Record leads all local papers in Central North Carolina in local news, advertising and subscription.

Misses Lucile and Irene Henderson, daughters of Mrs. J. T. Henderson, are recovering from an attack of the measles.

Messrs Murph Harris and son, Ernest, and John Clark, of Raleigh, spent a short while in Pittsboro last Friday.

Work on the bridge over Robersons Creek, on the new highway leading out to Sanford is progressing and will soon be completed.

Don't forget the millinery opening by Misses Caviness and Harmon in the postoffice building in Pittsboro, tomorrow and Saturday.

Get The Record eight months and the Progressive Farmer twelve months for only one dollar, or both a whole year for only $1.25.

Republican convention will be held in Pittsboro on Monday, March 17th. See the advertisement of the Chairman in another column of this paper.

Mr. A. F. Goldston, of Cameron, sends us a renewal for The Record and says: "You are doing a great work. Here's hoping you much success."

Mr. Lysander Johnson has moved his family from Route 3 to Pittsboro and are occupying the old Halthcock house, corner East and Masonic streets.

About fifteen thousand rural boys and girls in North Carolina obtained prizes from organized club work last year. The number should be larger this year.

The Record through error omitted the name of Mrs. Della Fike, the maternal grandmother of little Foy Chapin in the write up of her death last week.

Rev. J. S. Carden, of Durham, will preach at Hanks Chapel Christian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Everybody invited to come and hear him.

The paving, grading and building of streets in Siler City is making good progress and the old town is looking on prosperity and showing every sign of progress.

Mrs. J. T. Henderson has moved into the store in the Blair Hotel recently vacated by Mr. Cecil Lindley. Mr. Lindley has opened a store in the Janus block on Hillsboro street.

Mr. and Mrs. Carson Johnson have moved into the Dr. Farthing residence on West Salisbury street, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Farrell, who have moved to Mr. Farrell's country home.

There are really some smart girls living in Pittsboro. Mr. Jim May asked a young lady if he could see her home one night last week. She told Jim that she'd send him a picture of the home.

As soon as cold weather is over and growth begins is time to apply a top dressing of Nitrate of Soda to small grain. Use from 75 to 100 pounds per acre, say agronomy workers of the State College.

Don't forget our special offer on The Record will close on March 8th. Get busy and tell your friends and neighbors about it. Line up with the good people of Chatham and help support a wide-awake newspaper.

Editor Colin G. Shaw spent the week end at his old home in Fayetteville, returning through a portion of Moore county. Everywhere he finds Mr. J. W. Bailey for our next governor.

Grading on the new state highway from Sanford to Pittsboro is progressing rapidly and in a very short time barring accidents, the road will be opened, shortening the distance to the capital of Lee and making a most excellent road.

Our good friend, Mr. L. E. Cole, of Pittsboro, sends us a renewal for his paper, and along with it he sends another for his eldest daughter and three more for his grandchildren, making five in all. Mr. Cole thinks the Record a fine paper.

Next stop—St. Patrick's Day.

The bird law is out of fashion now.

Cotton was selling in Pittsboro Tuesday at 29 cents. It was only half a cent higher in Raleigh.

Let the boy have a radio. You will be surprised at the valuable information he will secure from the air, say engineering workers of the State College.

On account of the breaking down of some of the machinery, all of the employees of the Chatham O. I. & F. Utilizer Co., have been off duty for the past few days.

Every ad in this paper is worthy of your consideration and you should always patronize an advertiser. You can depend on a person who uses printer's ink—they are always reliable.

Ten years ago last Tuesday, Raleigh had a seven-inch snow. We presume it was also that deep in Pittsboro. Last Tuesday night and Wednesday morning another snow, the second slight one of this winter, fell. The ground was covered an inch or more when we began printing this paper.

DEATH OF MR. O. M. DORSETT.

Mr. Orren Dorsett, an old Confederate soldier, died at his home near Antioch Christian church, on Cumcock route 3, last Friday night, aged 79 years. Funeral services were held over the remains at Antioch and he was laid to rest in the cemetery there.

Mr. Dorsett was married twice, his first wife was a Miss McIntyre. He is survived by his last wife, who was Miss Elizabeth Dowdy.

Besides his wife he leaves several children, two brothers, William Dorsett, of Hickory Mountain and Hezekiah Dorsett, of Burlington, and one sister, Mrs. Jones, of Burlington.

Mr. Dorsett has been a sufferer for several years, and more recently has been confined to his home from acute illness. He was watched by his children and ministered unto by loving hands; all being done that skill and devotion could render, but all to no avail.

In the death of this good man, Chatham county loses one of her old time christian men, one that had full confidence in his fellow man, and was ever ready to befriend one in need, a devoted father, a master of the best interests in life and his good deeds and memory will be an inspiration to follow on after him for the years to come.

Mr. Dorsett joined Antioch Christian church more than fifty years ago. He was a deacon in this church and had been superintendent of the Sunday school for 33 years.

A large concourse of sorrowing friends attended the funeral services, and he was buried with Masonic honors of which fraternity he was an honorable member.

MR and MRS HARRIS ENTERTAIN.

Local Items From Goldston That Will Interest Many People.

Goldston, Feb. 25.—Goldston basketball team was disappointed when Moncure failed to play on their court. We shall expect them to play Goldston at a later date.

We are glad to see Mr. N. F. Barber on the street again after being confined to his room for some time.

Mr. J. Rod Hilliard is very sick at this time with a cold. We hope for his early recovery.

Miss Louise Womble, a student at Greensboro College for Women, spent the week end at home.

Misses Grace and Mollie Dark, of Meredith College, spent the week end at home.

Miss Fannie S. Dark, of Raleigh, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Dark.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Harris gave a supper on Washington's birthday. Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Olive, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Harris, and Miss Bessie Reynolds. It is always a pleasure to visit in this hospitable home.

There will be an entertainment at the Goldston school Wednesday night.

FROM MERONIES SECTION.

Siler City, Rt. 5, Feb. 25.—There has been lots of sickness in this section. Meronies school closed for one week on account of sickness among the students.

E. D. Hart was the lucky man to get the kitchen cabinet at the store of Mr. Joe Dunn.

A mad dog passed through here Saturday and many of the dogs were bitten.

Mrs. J. W. Burke has nearly one hundred chickens ready for the market.

R. L. Beal will soon have his new dwelling complete and will be occupied by D. M. Womble.

The right of way has been surveyed from Dalton Harris' to T. B. Bray's.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burke had an operation performed by Dr. Capps in Winston-Salem Wednesday. She has returned home and is getting on nicely.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Oren Rives, a daughter.

NEWS ITEMS OF CENTER GROVE

Moncure, Rt. 2, Feb. 25.—Miss Mary Bridges, of Sanford and Miss Fannie Carmichael, of Lynchburg, Va., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thomas.

Mr. Benjamin Harward, who was slightly hurt last Monday, when his truck was overturned, will enter school again this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gunter have greatly improved from an attack of the measles.

Mr. M. W. Spivey was a visitor in this community last Sunday.

Mr. C. C. Clifton, who lost his home by fire recently, is preparing to rebuild again on the same site.

Miss Lucile Thomas, of Greensboro, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thomas, recently.

A twelve year old boy at Tarboro shot and killed a nine year old boy in a dispute over a game of marbles.

FATHER WRITES ABOUT SON.

After an illness of nine days, on February 16th about four o'clock the death angel entered our home and claimed our son, Garnel Siler. He was 17 years, 8 months and 11 days old. The funeral was held at Pine Grove church Sunday afternoon by Rev. Mr. Talbert.

Surviving besides his mother and father are four sisters: Zelma, Eugenia, Martha and Alberta, and one brother, Grady.

My wife and daughter, Martha, are now extremely ill with pneumonia.

We are deeply grateful to the many people who were so kind and generous to us during the sickness and death of our boy. We shall ever remember them for the kindness shown us. We appreciate the help and kindness of Mr. Brower and Mr. Marley, of Siler City.

The sickness and death in my family has placed me in a distressing condition and we will appreciate any assistance that may be rendered us at this time. Any help will be greatly appreciated by us.

W. M. SILER.
Siler City, Rt. 1, Feb. 25.

WANT ADS.

DO NOT WAIT UNTIL YOUR dog has been exposed before having him vaccinated against rabies with a reliable vaccine and by a competent veterinary surgeon. Protect your dog yourself and others from that dread disease—hydrophobia. For a limited time I will furnish vaccine and vaccinate for $1.50 per dog at my office in Siler City. Dr. C. R. Sears, Siler City, N. C. Mch6

Better than a Mustard Plaster
MUSTEROL
WILL NOT BELIEVER
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

For Coughs and Colds, Headaches, Neuralgia, Rheumatism and All Aches and Pains

ALL DRUGGISTS
35c and 65c, jars and tubes
Hospital size, $3.00

Illustration of a horse and mule.

Just received car load of good Virginia Mules and Horses, well broke, ages from 4 to 6 years, weight 1,000 to 1,200 pounds.

HERE DURING SEASON,
CASH OR TERMS.

R. L. PERKINS,
Pittsboro, N. C.

Mules — Horses

Just received car load of good Virginia Mules and Horses, well broke, ages from 4 to 6 years, weight 1,000 to 1,200 pounds.

HERE DURING SEASON,
CASH OR TERMS.

R. L. PERKINS,
Pittsboro, N. C.

OPENING

On Friday and Saturday,
Feb. 29 and March 1

WE WILL HAVE OUR FORMAL OPENING IN PITTSBORO OF MILLINERY AND LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR.

UP STAIRS OVER THE POSTOFFICE.
AT THIS SHOWING WE WILL HAVE ALL THAT IS NEW AND SMART.

YOUR PRESENCE IS DESIRED.

CAVINESS

MISS BESSYE CAVINESS MISS CORDIE HARMON

For the Handy Man

Dependable Hardware.

The man who works about the house needs good, dependable tools to work with. We carry a complete line of Tools—Materials—and General Hardware—for you to choose from.

Readers of The Chatham Record will be given special consideration.

LEE HARDWARE CO.
SANFORD, — — — NORTH CAROLINA.

DRAMATIC DEBATE SUNDAY.

Moncure, Feb. 26.—There will be dramatic debate at Moncure next Sunday morning, March 2nd, at 11 o'clock a. m., by Rev. M. E. Cotten and R. L. Davis, Jr.

The public is invited to attend.

Mrs. B. G. Womble spent last Sunday in Raleigh with her daughter, Miss Esther, who is at Peace Institute and they went to hear Evangelist Hamm in the afternoon, which they enjoyed very much.

Brevity may be the soul of wit, but there are plenty of brief people who are not witty.

SEE YOUR LABEL
NOTICE OF SALE OF

Personal Property

DON E TEUCH

On Saturday, the 1st day of March, 1924, at 2 o'clock p. m. there will be offered for sale all the personal property belonging to Don E. Teuch, including a valuable set of shop tools, wagon, household and kitchen furniture, and all other articles of personal property in and around the premises of Don E. Teuch, in Oakland township, Chatham county, N. C.

Place of sale. Home place.
Time of sale Saturday March 1st, 1924, 2 p. m. Terms cash.

BY BOARD OF CO. COMM'RS.
C. C. Hamlet, Commissioner.
Wade Barber, County Atty. It-c.

GO FROM HOME LEARN NEWS

N. C. Christian Advocate.

Miss Margaret Womble writes that they are contemplating the organization of a senior league at Pittsboro. "Everybody's doing it." A leagueless church today, a leaderless church tomorrow.

WANTED

Agent for the Singer Sewing Machine at Pittsboro and country territory—have an attractive proposition.

Write W. F. RAGLAND, manager, Singer Sewing Machine Co., Raleigh, N. C.
March 13-p.

DOLLAR DAY

Sanford, N. C.,
March 6, 1924

BELOW WE LIST A FEW OF OUR SPECIALS FOR DOLLAR DAY, FOR CASH ONLY

Regular $2—Blue-Bell-Overalls, one pair to a customer, for $1.25.

Good full cut blue work shirts worth $1.00, special 75 cents each only one shirt to a customer.

One thousand (1,000) pairs of Good Shoes and Slippers, all colors, all sizes, for Men, Ladies and Children, OLD STOCK, but the Biggest Bargains you have ever heard of, Special $1.00, a pair—while they last.

Eight thousand (8,000) good big 5-cent school tablets, for pen or pencil, at half price for Dollar Day—two for five cents.

STROUD & HUBBARD,

THE SHOE AND HOSIERY STORE.
SANFORD, — — — NORTH CAROLINA

In Step With Spring!

OXFORDS, $3 to $7.50

Here's Footwear that possesses every qualification you demand in Good Footwear. Ours were made that way because we insisted that the manufacturers follow our specifications to the letter.

That's why you get superior leather, better trimmings and certain fit. Its a great combination, especially in Oxfords that sell for $6.00.

Others $3 to $7.50

Don't forget that we have a full stock of Dress Goods, Men's Furnishings and can suit you in almost anything that you may need, and our goods are all new and up-to-date. We are headquarters for reliable merchandise.

J. J. JOHNSON & SON,

Square Deal Merchants
PITTSBORO, N. C.

SAFETY STRENGTH SERVICE

The combination that a man demands before entrusting his hard-earned money to any Bank. The man who places a part of his income in Savings Account here has no fear over its safety. The same courteous, efficient service awaits the small depositors as well as the larger ones. Savings and Time Certificates here earn 4 percent.

BANK OF PITTSBORO

PITTSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA.
Capital, Surplus and Profits, $35,000.00

A. H. London, Pres., J. L. Griffin, Cashier, W. L. Farrell, Assistant Cashier.