TRIBUTE TO MRS PATRICK

Local News of Interest to Our Readers From Mt. Zion

Moncure, Rt. 2, Feb. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith and little daughter Dorothy, of Raleigh, spent last Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
J. W. Griffin.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Farrell and son, Lester, of Pittsboro, were visitors of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Griffin last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Hendrix and children have moved to Lee county. They have lived here on the farm owned by Mr. Oscar Petty two years.

Mr. Petty has sold his farm to Mr.
Carey Griffin who expects to build and live there.

Mr. Clyde Griffin attended the Ford-son tractor school at Charlotte last week. He reported a very pleasant time as well as an instructive one.

The people of this community were deeply grieved when the news reached us that Mrs. Victor Patrick was dead.
She was Miss Betsy Johnson before her marriage, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Johnson, of Pittsboro.

Mrs. Patrick was well known here because she lived in this community several years and attended Mt. Zion Sunday school regularly. She was always willing to assist in carrying on God's work in every way possible, and was a devout christian.

Mrs. Patrick (Betsy as we knew her) had a lovable disposition, was admired by all who knew her. She could win friends readily and was always a friend. If there was any thing she could do for others, she was always willing to lend a helping hand.

Her life was made short on earth, but it is not always the longest life that does the most good, she did her best while here and God called her to heaven.

Bell has served the route faithfully and has become popular with the patrons on it and they regret to give him up. However, they will have a splendid successor in the person of Mr. Harmon and they will soon become to like him as a carrier. We wish Mr. Bell success in his new undertaking.

OBSERVATIONS

By Rambler.

"This is my house cleaning day," said a Pittsboro lady to her husband, "and you get out with the other trash."

"Let's go seining," remarked a young man to another young man, last Friday morning, when the thermometer stood at 20 above zero. A stranger, standing near and overhearing the question, remarked: "Good gosh, man! Don't you know you'd freeze?"

"It looks like horses and horse traders are getting like liquor," remarked an old gentleman a day or two ago. "They are getting scarcer and scarcer. A few comes to Pittsboro during courts but nothing like they used to be. And you can't find a drop of liquor."

"Pittsboro is freer of dogs now than for a long while," said a citizen. "It used to be that you could hardly walk the streets at night without stumbling over an old hound.
I guess the electric lights has something to do with keeping them off the streets at night."

"These are dark nights now," said an old gardner, "and it is time to plant taters. But this has been such a funny winter I don't know what's going to happen in March and April.
Who ever saw such a February. No snow, not much cold and only three or four days of rain. I am looking out for a water famine next summer, and those who have any kind of plant on the rivers of the county, had better be preparing for the drouth that is sure coming."

"I hate to poison a dog," remarked a Pittsboro lady, the other afternoon, as she started to her coop to gather up the eggs. "I have been getting a dozen or more a day." She stopped talking and peered into her hen nests.
Not an egg was in sight. "Well, I'll be dratted to ding dang nation," she exclaimed. "Here's where a dozen good eggs have gone down the throat of some dirty, sneaking hound. I'll fix him. I'll poison him." Sure enough the were a pile of shells lying around where some dog had sucked and left them.

There's a Difference Between 'Investment' AND SPECULATION

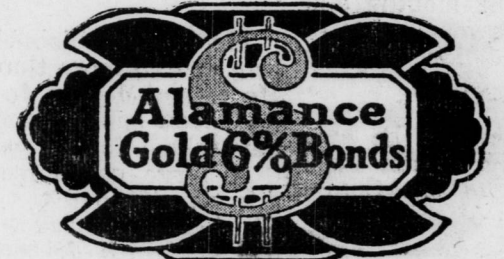

Some people buy beautifully engraved certificates in different propositions with the belief that they will get rich quick. The "glib talker who sells the stock pictures big returns." This is speculation. Others, the more conservative, buy certificates too, but they KNOW exactly what their returns will be and that their money is safe.

THIS IS "INVESTING."
"A LEADING INVESTMENT."

Standing well out in front of the entire list of investments are First Mortgage Bonds. No other investment carries the security, safety of principal and soundness of a good First Mortgage Bond.
