

COMES DAY OF REJOICING

Penitential Season Over, the World Takes on a Renewal of Joyful Hopes.

The long season of fasting and penitence is over. Just over the threshold of silent night, that is filled with the brush of the angels' wings, waits the dawn of the holy day—
—Easter—
—The Awakening—
—Joy after sorrow—
—Peace after pain.

From the churches, chiming out their songs of gladness. Out from the pipes of mighty organs roll the triumphant Easter anthems; "Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates," the choirs sing.

Churches are filled with flowers that have blossomed just for the Day—insignia of love and beauty and hope fulfilled.

At the base of the holy statues, freed from their coverings of gloom; from altar and chancel, roses and lilies and hyacinths breathe out their perfume till the atmosphere of the holy places is heavy with their fragrance.

It is the day of flowers and music and gladness.

Over all the Christian world float the songs of Resurrection and Life—over all, the triumphant strain, "Oh, Grave, where is thy victory?"

Easter—
Spring a
Resurrection

Resurrection! Child of Spring!
In the Savior's name we sing
Of another Easter Morn,
For the chime of Easter bells
To God's children sweetly tells
O'er and o'er how Christ is born.

Though the world know somber sadness,
Christ is risen!
Though the race be lured by madness,
Christ is risen!
Though ten million selfish schemes
Still confound the Prophet's dreams
God's white sun in Heaven gleams
Christ is risen!

Heaven's rain and Mankind's loss
Triumphed o'er the Roman Cross,
Vanished from His earthly prison;
And the lily in the dell
Like an ermine Easter Bell
Tells the cold earth He is risen!

Though in darkness mortals grope,
Christ is risen!
Leaving here his Gens of Hope,
Christ is risen!

To the skies the four winds throw
Easter's message, high and low,
Till the stars eternal know
Christ is risen!

—William F. Kirk in the Chicago American.

SYMBOL IN GROWTH OF LILY

Proof of Life Eternal Shown in Sermon That Can Be Understood by All.

"But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept.

"For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

"For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive."

Amos Wells in a sermon to children says:

"Here are two pots of earth. One is crowned with a beautiful Easter lily, pure and white and beautiful, rising out of its green leaves. The other is black and ugly. But what is this? A bulb, an Easter lily bulb. See! I will plant it in the black earth, and now both flower-pots are alike, are they not? They both contain an Easter lily.

"What, you think they are different? To be sure, one is beautiful and the other is still ugly and black; but I am going to water the last, and make it grow, until it is just as lovely as the other. But what must the bulb I just planted be thinking about, down there in the close black soil? Little it guesses of the beauty and the light and the joy into which it is going to spring up, some day.

"Now do you know why Christ came to earth? It was for many reasons, but this was one of the chief: to tell us that we are really buried in the close, black soil, just as this bulb I planted.

"You look at the great, blue sky and the wide, green earth, and you cry, 'Buried? Why, how can that be? But Christ came to tell us of a country as much more lovely and bright and happy than this world as it is brighter and better than the black ground beneath our feet, so that we can fairly call ourselves buried while we live here, and can think about the next world as our time of rising and blooming.'—Exchange.

Refreshment to the Soul.
The dew of the first Easter morning still clings to the simple story of the Resurrection. It refreshes our souls today, even as it did the souls of the faithful ones who came to the Lord's grave.

WRENN BROTHERS IMPROVE.

Siler City News Happenings—Local and Personal Items.

Siler City, April 7.—Messrs Haner, Makepeace, Pardo, Kennedy, Palmer and O. E. Makepeace, of Sanford, representing the Evangelistic Club of that city, conducted the service at the Methodist church last Sunday evening which was inspirational. This club which has grown from ten members in four months to nearly two hundred and is composed of men from all denominations, is exerting a wonderful influence not only in their own town but throughout this section of the state.

A ball game which furnished plenty of amusement was played Saturday afternoon between the school faculty and the ninth grade girls, resulting in a victory for the latter in a score of 13 to 9. Prof. Husketh was given the place of short stop but it was necessary to constantly remind him of the fact as he seemed to be here, yonder and everywhere at the same time.

Within the next few days active work will begin on a 24x30 foot addition to Wrenn Brothers' already commodious department store building. A part of their old wooden structure which now stands near their present brick building, will be removed to make room for this addition. When this work is finished an entirely new front will be placed, giving to their establishment a modern appearance.

Miss Eula Phillips, of Cedar Falls, is the guest this week of Mrs. W. J. Richardson.

Herbert Andrew, of Mount Airy, has been here for several days on a visit to relatives and friends.

Mrs. L. P. Dixon has returned from Goldsboro where she attended

CONVENTION NEXT SATURDAY.

The democratic convention will be held in Pittsboro next Saturday at noon. There will probably be a large crowd here to attend the meeting.

Last Saturday the precinct meetings were held, but no great interest was manifested in them. We regret that we could not get a report from all of them, but in Center township, the following delegates were selected to attend the County Convention:

Attend District U. D. C.
Mesdames Henry A. London, William Eubanks, Ed Fearington, John Milliken, Bunn Fearington, Ed Hinton, and Misses Evelyn Alston and Carrie M. Jackson attended the district meeting of the U. D. C., at Sanford Tuesday.

Blinding Headaches

"For about twenty years," says Mr. P. A. Walker, a well-known citizen of Newburg, Ky., "one of our family remedies has been Black-Draught, the old reliable. . . I use it for colds, biliousness, sour stomach and indigestion. I was subject to headaches when my liver would get out of order. I would have blinding headaches and couldn't stoop about my work, just couldn't go. I used Thedford's Black-Draught and it relieved me.

"About eight years ago my wife got down with liver and stomach trouble. . . We tried all week to help her, . . . but she didn't get any better. One day I said to the doctor, 'I believe I will try Black-Draught, it helps my liver.' He said that I might try it and to follow directions. She was nauseated and couldn't eat or rest. She began taking Black-Draught and in two days she was greatly improved and in a week she was up."
