CONVICT DRUNK SUNDAY.

News From Lower Cape Fear Fear Section.

Corinth, May 26.—Miss Cecelia Jeffries, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at Durham spent the week end with Mrs. F. M. Nash at Buckhorn. Sunday was a beautiful day and a good crowd turned out to hear Mr. Piland at Buckhorn church Sunday afternoon.

We think that there is a screw loose somewhere in the system of handling county convicts, when a big burly negro, serving 18-months with the road gang for handling liquor, is given freedom enough on Sunday to get drunk, threaten a deputy sheriff and get by with such deviltry. If the management of our road gangs are not more careful about the control of convicts, if they allow them to go about Sunday and get drunk, the citizens will have to resort to strenuous measures to defend themselves and their families.

Mr. R. S. Ashworth and family spent Sunday with relatives at Corinth.

Mr. J. A. Jones, of Raleigh, gave a big fish fry to a party of a dozen friends Saturday night at Buckhorn. Mr. Jones bears the enviable reputation of being some cook as well as a good sportsman, especially when it comes to frying fish. But this time he sprung something new that came near costing him his cooking reputation. At first it was thought that an entirely new variety of "sweet" fish had been discovered. The fish, about 20 pound in all, were dressed, rolled in meal, salted and cooked brown over an open fire to the Queens' taste, but it so happened that no one tasted the fish until the last piece was cooked. Then when the feast began they discovered the new variety of "sweet" fish. Mr. Jones had got his labels mixed, put the salt in the coffee and had rolled every piece of fish in sugar, mustard and meal.

Mrs. H. M. Morgan, of Raleigh, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. D. A. Clark.

Mr. L. H. Mims is fitting up the rooms over his store for housekeeping. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Horton will move into them soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Williams, of Raleigh, had a son born at Rex hospital May 22nd. Mr. Williams is a son of our neighbor, J. W. Williams. There will be a special service at 3:30 p. m. This service will be conducted by the Evangelistic committee of Sanford, and will be of interest to everyone. Good music and good talks by all denominations. Let's all go.

Mrs. A. E. Rollins, of Duncanson, spent last week with her mother, Mrs. C. W. Cross at Corinth.

Mrs. D. A. Clark spent several days last week with her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Allen at Charlotte and with her brother-in-law, W. G. Clark at Badin.

We are indeed glad to see the Shattucks Creek Road being top soiled with good material, after having been graded up in good shape.

Rumors are circulating thru the community that the Carolina Power & Light Company have bought a controlling interest in the Deep River Power Co., but we cannot verify a thing for we have heard nothing of it yet except the rumors.

DEATH OF A SPLENDID MAN.

Columbus Battle Utley Buried at Pleasant Hill Last Monday.

Mr. Columbus Battle Utley, died at his home on Siler City, Rt. 5, last Sunday at about 1 o'clock. He was nearly 76 years old, being 75 years, 11 months and 14 days old.

The direct cause of his death was heart trouble, although Mr. Utley had been in feeble health for several weeks from causes incident to old age.

His funeral was conducted on Monday morning at 11 o'clock at Pleasant Hill Methodist church by his pastor, Rev. J. J. Boone and interment was in the cemetery there.

The pall bearers were W. C. Braswell, Sam Burke, Milton Lemmond, Frank Griffin, Alfred Bowers and Willie Bowers.

Surviving Mr. Utley are two sons, L. A. Utley, of Rt. 5, Siler City, and E. D. Utley, of Norfolk, Va., two brothers, W. F. Utley, of Raleigh, and M. F. Utley, of Biscoe, and one sister, Mrs. Victoria Norris, of Holly Springs.

A large crowd attended his funeral and his loved ones have the sympathy of everyone.

Mr. Utley was a man of means. He was a studious worker in early manhood and accumulated well. He was a native of Wake county, but moved to Chatham 47 years ago and settled on the home place where he died. His influence in the community as well as in the county will be missed.

He bore his illness with a christian fortitude, and expressed a willingness to go when he was called.

A VAGRANT LAW NEEDED.

If Pittsboro has no vagrant law, the town commissioners should adopt one. There are too many half grown men here, especially negro boys, who will not work for love or money. Several complaints have reached this office where men who wanted work could not get a single man to do it. Yet at one place here seven or eight nearly grown men were seen sitting idly by and refused to work. If a man won't work, and can, then he should be made to work.

There is too much work here and too many men to do it, for great big, healthy looking men to be allowed to loaf around in the shade.

4 THOUSAND BOGGERS.

A Few Words in Regard to Mr. Horton's Little Pamphlet.

W. P. Horton, county manager for A. W. McLean, is sending broadcast over Chatham county a leaflet in which he says that after a "thorough study of the situation and a full analysis of the principles enunciated and the policies outlined by the different candidates, I have reached the conclusion that A. W. McLean, of Robeson county, is the proper man to be chosen next governor."

We were not aware that there was a peculiar situation; in fact we had not heard of the enunciation and we did not know that it was necessary to put the principles through a process of chemical labor to analyze them. But he has brought the compound idea into its component parts to consider them distinctly. Then he proceeds to say "I have reached the conclusion" which carries its full weight if you will note that the consonantal sound is a capital letter.

A great deal is said in the pamphlet about Mr. McLean being a successful farmer and in regard to the speech made by Mr. Bailey in the 1919 legislature when he paid his respects to goats, sheep, jacks and lady jacks, but nowhere are we able to find in that statement of Mr. Horton's that the Farmers' Union, as a solid unit, is backing Mr. Bailey for governor of North Carolina. If he has a record for anything that is detrimental against the farmers of North Carolina, then why should Mr. Stone and the organization of farmers be giving Mr. Bailey backing?

Mr. Bailey is fighting the "machine" organization in this state. He has intent to lessen the burden upon the shoulders of the farmer, the laborer and the small home owner and he will be the next governor of North Carolina.

Mr. Bailey in a statement on the "hog and ham" propaganda has said: "I have invited my opponent to come out in the open before the people, and discuss these matters face-to-face; but instead of doing this, I have absolute information that he is sending around circulars throughout the state. I have no means of following up these circulars, as I do not know to whom he sent them. I think it would be far better if he has any criticisms upon my record, to make them in the open forum—where I could meet them; but since he has chosen otherwise, I am forced to the necessity of making this statement; and asking my friends to give it the widest possible publicity."

Fortunately for me, the officers of the Farmers' Union in this State heard my arguments in the Legislature of 1920-1921, against the Revaluation Act; and in the hearing in 1921 there were present at least 500 farmers, representing 60 counties. They, at any rate, know my position—and they heard my plea for them in the 1921 Legislature, in response to which the County Commissioners were enabled to relieve many land owners from unjust valuations.

Next week The Chatham Record will publish Mr. Bailey's full statement in reply to Mr. Horton's pamphlet and we ask our readers to look for it. As to whether Mr. Bailey is a friend to the farmer or not can be found in this statement from Mr. Stone:

An Open Letter to the Public: Mr. McLean's friends are trying to make it appear that Mr. Bailey's speech before the Finance Committee of the Legislature of 1919 was directed against the interests of the farmers. This is not true. If the farmers had thought that, they would not have employed him the following year to fight Revaluation. Neither would 500 representative farmers from 60 counties in North Carolina have employed him six months thereafter to lead the fight for the repeal of this iniquitous Act.

It is worthy of note that the crowd that is now fighting Mr. Bailey—circulating the Hog and Ham letters—is the same crowd that put the Revaluation over, and loaded the farm lands and small homes with millions of dollars of taxes taken from the Coast Line and other railroads. Mr. Oliver, Mr. Barnes and Mr. Grantham were all members of that legislature.

Surely Mr. McLean's friends must give the farmers of North Carolina credit for knowing who IS, and who is NOT, their friend. They are not fools. They know whom to trust; and what is more, they know whom not to trust.

R. W. H. STONE, President N. C. Farmers' Union.

Watch The Record next week for Mr. Bailey's statement.

BUILD A HOME IN PITTSBORO.

THEN YOU MUST; NOW YOU CANNOT

First Want Republicans to Vote Democratic, Then Refuse the Privilege to Them All

LONG & BELL MAKE A DEAL

Threaten Three Republicans By Demanding They Vote for Democrats.

This election business is a funny proposition and it has caused more than one farmer, laborer and intelligent countryman to determine to go to the polls on June 7th and vote their convictions, regardless of the "ring" and "machine" influence.

We note by the daily papers that the lines are to be tightly drawn; the electoral board and the attorney general have ruled that poll holders and registrars must be on the job and immediately halt any republican that would dare enter the primary and vote for any man that they deem highly important to fill any particular office. Regardless of the fact that a majority of the citizens of North Carolina may confidently believe Bailey is the logical man for governor of this great state they will be prohibited from voting for him because the franchised citizens may have at some time voted for a radical.

This is indeed strange; it takes a turn that was not anticipated in Chatham county as early as November, 1922, when it was attempted to compel republicans to vote the democratic ticket. During the year 1922 there were three men who got mixed up in a case about liquor in some way, Messrs. Colon and Charlie Johnson and Claud Ellington, Long & Bell, a local law firm entered into an agreement with Walter D. Siler, who was solicitor of the courts in this district, that if he would not prosecute these cases that they would have the defendants vote the democratic ticket in the general election. At least in his letter Mr. Bell says so. Now that the two Johnson boys and Ellington were by conviction republicans at heart, they MUST vote the democratic ticket to save themselves from prosecution. Mr. Bell is a town commissioner for the town of Pittsboro, also secretary and treasurer for the town. Mr. Long, his partner is a practicing attorney in Durham.

It is stated that money will be used in this campaign and at the election. We hope that some one who may be tendered money will take it and report it to this paper. We will donate the change you get to charity and consign the donor to his just reward. If you are offered a bribe please let us know it.

MARRIAGE POPULAR COUPLE.

Miss Elizabeth Chapin Becomes Bride of Mr. Edwin B. Hatch.

On Wednesday, May 22, 1924, at the Baptist church in Pittsboro, Miss Elizabeth Chapin became the bride of Mr. Edwin B. Hatch, both of Pittsboro, the ceremony being performed by the pastor of the bride, Rev. R. R. Gordon.

The church was beautifully decorated, carrying out the old fashioned idea. An arch, banked with flowers was used with the wedding bell. Miss Emily Thompson, first cousin of the bride rendered two selections, "Traumerie," and "Minuet in G." Mrs. Chas. Morrow, of Hendersonville, sang two selections, "All for You," and "For You Alone."

To the strain of the wedding march from Lohengrin, the bridal party entered. The bride's only attendant was her niece, Miss Miriam Chapin; Mr. Rhoades Moxit, was the best man. Little Miss Sarah Griffin carried the flowers and little Bobbie Hinton carried the ring.

Miss Thompson softly played "Sousvenir" during the ceremony. Mendelssohn's wedding march was used as a recessional.

The bride and groom left immediately after the ceremony for Washington and points north for a wedding tour. They will make their home in Pittsboro upon their return.

Mrs. Hatch is the daughter of Mrs. H. T. Chapin and she is loved by all who know her for her winning personality, strength of character and lovable disposition. She is a lady of strong personality, a leader in social affairs and is active in the general welfare of the community. At the present time she is president of the Woman's Club of Pittsboro, and she has always been active in all things that were for the betterment of her town and community.

Mr. Hatch is the son of the late Artemus Hatch and is well known in Chatham. When he was quite young his mother died and he made his home with his aunt, Mrs. E. A. Moffitt at Asheboro. For several years he has been a resident of Pittsboro, having been elected manager of the Asheboro Wheelbarrow Co., soon after his coming to Chatham.

He is a splendid citizen and is liked by everyone.

The Record joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life.

GEORGE PASCHAL TO SPEAK.

Hon. George W. Paschal, a native son of Chatham, having been reared near Siler City, and known to almost everyone in Chatham, will deliver an address at Goldston next Saturday at 12 o'clock. He will speak again at Bonlee at two o'clock and also in Siler City at four o'clock.

Everybody is urged to hear Mr. Paschal speak at one or the other places named. He is now a member of the faculty at Wake Forest college and is a good speaker.

LONG & BELL MAKE A DEAL

and is also a candidate for Lieutenant governor of North Carolina. Not only was the trade made for these young fellows to vote the democratic ticket, but later on a member of the law firm wrote one of the defendants and told him that they MUST vote the democratic ticket and that they MUST have their wives' vote the democratic ticket and that all of them should do so without a single scratch.

We also call to mind that in the election of governor four years ago that Wilkes county republicans voted almost solidly for one Cam Morrison to the detriment of Bob Page and Max Gardner. Why should they not be privileged to vote in 1924 if they support the democratic ticket?

Oh, consistency thou art a jewel. The "machine" idea of politics is strongly impressed here and it should have a greater impress upon the voters of North Carolina in the coming primary. Will you free born American citizens let a handful of town lawyers, bankers and retired office-fed politicians demand what you shall do and for whom you shall vote, while you pay all the tax, support the government and they take it easy?

If the time was ever at hand for the people as a whole to assert themselves and demand a fair show it is now. Every qualified citizen must go to the polls and vote on June 7th without molestation, and not only that they must see that everything is conducted in a regular manner and an honest way. Stand by and demand it.

When you go to the polls to vote and someone approaches you to question you as to whom you expect to vote for, be he friend or foe, lam the stuffing out of him and tell him you expect to use your God given right and liberty and vote for whom you please and that it is none of his business.

It is stated that money will be used in this campaign and at the election. We hope that some one who may be tendered money will take it and report it to this paper. We will donate the change you get to charity and consign the donor to his just reward. If you are offered a bribe please let us know it.

NOTICE TO THE VOTERS.

I want to thank everyone who has given me such strong endorsement for the office of county commissioner and the voters who have personally told me that they would support my candidacy, but owing to business connections I realize it would be disastrous for me to undertake to serve the county at this time.

Therefore I have withdrawn from the race and will not be a candidate for county commissioner.

Thanking one and all for their interest, I am,

Yours very truly,
J. J. HACKNEY,

MCLEAN BEATEN SAYS GULLEY.

Dr. N. Y. Gulley, head of the law school at Wake Forest college, speaking in advocacy of the nomination of J. W. Bailey for governor at the court house in Wilmington Friday night, declared that even now Mr. Bailey had A. W. McLean beaten and that with fair balloting and a just count the Wake county man would be victorious when North Carolina democrats register their choice for governor on June 7th. He attacked high taxes and the extravagant administration at Raleigh.

FRIDAY DECORATION DAY.

News of Interest to Our Many Readers From Brickhaven.

Brickhaven, May 26.—Miss Della Well, of Franklinton, will come tomorrow to spend a few days here with her sister, Mrs. O. C. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Overby and children returned from Charlotte Friday. They were accompanied home by Misses Dorothy and Bennie Honeycutt and Mildred Freeman.

Mr. Cliff Mims, of Raleigh, was the week end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mims.

Miss Nell Yarborough, of Sanford, has been on a short visit here to her sister, Mrs. C. H. Thompson.

And next Friday, May 30th, is Decoration Day. On that day we honor our dead heroes by putting flowers on the graves of our fallen soldier boys—not only those of the War between the States, but we also honor those of the late gigantic struggle.

Perhaps it might be interesting to our readers to know that the first general observance of Memorial Day was in 1868. The idea originated in Columbus, Miss., in the Spring of 1866, and from this local memorial observance sprang our national Decoration Day, as we have it today. The northern states celebrate May 30th, North and South Carolina May 10, (Stonewall Jackson, the great southern chieftain, died on that day. Several southern states observe April 26, in commemoration of Johnstons surrender at Durham station, while others celebrate June 3rd, the birthday of Jefferson Davis.

With the thinning line of old veterans, and the new line of young ones, standing side by side, this day is indeed an impressive one. There is little chance that Decoration Day will ever cease to be celebrated, for it is impossible to forget our heroic dead, those who made the supreme sacrifice, and too, we should not forget to honor our heroic living, those who faced the horrors of war—not only on the great battle fields of active conflict, but also those who faced military life in camp—A great cause and a great sacrifice march on hand in hand. And when we think of the dead and the living thus united a greater love and a deeper patriotism swells in our hearts, as the poet says: "In the fervor of Thanksgiving We keep Memorial Day."

BENNETT IS BLESSED.

Our Correspondent Tells of The Many Good Things—Locals.

Bennett, May 26.—While farmers throughout this section are late planting cotton, corn, tobacco, etc. Crops are beginning to start off nicely and they look good. Bennett has always been blessed with enough to live on. Better farming is being done than ever and the farmers are using more improved methods in preparing their land. Cotton is being planted throughout this section this year and with good seasons there will be a larger yield than ever before. About fifty cars of fertilizer was purchased by the farmers in this section. The wheat and oat crops are looking fine.

The editor of The Chatham Record was through here last Friday and spoke highly of our little growing town. Of course we are proud of Bennett and the residents are doing all they can to develop our little town. We have the most industrious farmers to be found anywhere, and all we need to do is to study our needs more closely and unite on everything that will pertain to the betterment for farmers as well as the industries. We can make this section one of the most ideal; we have the soil that will produce anything. Bennett will always make something on her farms if any one section makes anything.

Mr. W. A. Ward is adding more machinery to his lumber plant, also putting in a modern system of kiln drying for lumber. Lots of lumber is being brought here now and more being shipped regularly than for a long while.

Mr. C. C. Cheek is running his plant regular and buying and producing a great deal of lumber.

The roller mill is doing a fine business and the merchants have a good trade.

Mr. C. R. Scotten, who has been living in Bennett a long time, has moved his family to Glendon, where he is engaged in the lumber business. Mr. Scotten taught two years in the graded school here and has been a great help to the town. We regret to give him up, but we are glad that his move is only temporary.

Several families have moved to Bennett recently and all are well engaged in some business or occupation.

A great many marriages have recently taken place in this section—so many that we can scarcely keep up with them.

Mr. J. H. Peace and family visited his mother at Thomasville latter part of last week. Mrs. E. W. Kidd, who has been in the hospital at Asheboro for two weeks, has returned home and is getting on nicely. Mrs. Kidd was taken ill suddenly and Dr. H. A. Denson thought best that she be taken to a hospital. She is 79 years old.

Mrs. A. C. Jones, who returned from a hospital several days ago, is now at home improving nicely.

The new type of engine the B. & W. Railway Co., are now using on the railroad here, is a good one and is capable of doing a great deal more work than those heretofore used; they pull heavier loads and many more cars. This is the largest pattern in engines that they have ever used, but it is mounted so that there is no more wear on the track than heretofore.
