

ATHAM BRIEFS

W. Hackney, of Raleigh, was short while Sunday.

Louise Riddle has returned to visit to her uncle, at Dillon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ellis, of Monro, Sunday, July 20, a Bennett Noe, of Leaksville, Friday night here on his way.

Della Fike and Mrs. Clara are spending two or three at Mt. Vernon Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Webster, and daughter, of Mebane, are visiting friends in the county.

J. C. Jones and sister, Miss Jones, of Broadway, have been on a visit to their sister, Mrs. Farrell.

Bath Avert, of Bynum, is ten days with friends and at North Wilkesboro, Boone.

Ethel McDonald of Charlotte, Miss Esther Covington, of Mebane, are visiting Miss Julia Barclay.

James (not the original Jesse) with false pretense, was here Friday from New Hope and turned over to sheriff and locked up.

Mrs. C. B. Way, of Lexington, spent a short while at the office Saturday. In addition to her, Mr. Way also is associated with The Lexington Dispatch.

Lonnie Moore and Miss Caro were united in marriage at their house Thursday by Justice Peace, John R. Blair. After the ceremony the couple left for their home.

G. R. Gunter, of Durham, says better to the editor, "Continue to me The Chatham Record, as I want to miss a copy. You sure improved The Record since you are the owner."

W. R. Dorsett, son of Mr. W. Dorsett, at Siler City, accompanied his family, are visiting relatives in the county for a few days. Mr. Dorsett is associated with the J. G. Co., wholesale grocers in Raleigh.

Harry Lester Johnson, of Siler City and Coy Tillman, of Apex, have been granted a license to practice medicine, at a meeting of the state board of examiners in Raleigh.

Mrs. S. R. Adams and children, Lillian, Christy and Townsville, have returned to home after a short visit to Dr. W. B. Chapin. Little Billie accompanied them home to a few days.

playing under the house at near the depot, one day last week the child of Mr. and Mrs. Clark was bitten on the foot by a snake. The child suffered much at the time, but restoratives were used and the danger is now over.

Norwood, colored farmer on the farm, comes to the front with an egg. A few days ago he had a nest of eggs of the chickens was a comely double chicken, having four wings and two heads, or one head and a semblance of a second body. The bird did not live long but it was a curiosity.

county commissioners have an insert in their paper, that has been inserted three times, setting aside Tuesday, August 5th, as complaint day for those who believe they have progressed too high. Don't wait for the regular day and then the commissioners because they will hear your plea. If you have a complaint it will be given attention August 5th.

Children's Home Society of Carolina, located at Greensboro, C., now has ready for placement approved foster homes a number of children, both boys and girls, ranging in age from infants of a few weeks up to large boys and girls twelve years. Correspondence from respectable citizens about the state who are interested in receiving desirable children for their homes for legal adoption.

from Rev. J. J. Boone, at Durham, says that he is getting on all right but that he craves freedom. He is confined to his room, but he is desperately ill, but in a manner of treatment that he is recovering, therefore it is a terrible relief for a man who has been confined as he is and we wish for him freedom at an early date. His illness in Chatham will be known that his illness is of a character and that he will not recover so very long.

reports we have received from The Rosebloom Orchard, at Aberdeen, the peach crop are in a desperate condition at present time. With the Georgia crop of peaches going into the market the Sandhill fruit just being moved in large quantities, the price of peaches is going to be very low. Every person who should order a crate of peaches should order a crate of peaches from The Rosebloom Orchard Co., at Aberdeen, in our paper last week in this column with this idea in mind to order a crate and help the peach grower.

she is up against.

How'll you swap!

Mr. James Womble spent the week end here with his father, Mr. David Womble.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh T. Hornady, of Laurinburg, are visiting relatives in Chatham.

Little Catherine Overacre is on an extended visit to her aunt in Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Farrell and children spent the week end with relatives in Raleigh.

After spending a few days in Raleigh, Miss Evelyn Ray has returned to her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Holder, of Durham, spent a short while here Sunday with Mrs. Lula Jones.

Mr. Gerald Leftwich is spending some time with his cousins, Messrs Luman and Glivion Overacre.

Don't forget the Farrell reunion to be held at Hanks Chapel Christian church next Sunday, August 3rd.

Mrs. S. D. Johnson was taken to a hospital in Durham Sunday, where she underwent a minor operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Boone, of Carrboro, were here Sunday on a visit to his mother, Mrs. J. W. Boone.

Miss Lilla Edwards, stenographer for McPherson & Barnes, Raleigh, is here on a visit to Mrs. Rufus Farrell.

Miss Gertrude Seymore, of Apex, Rt. 4, was a visitor in the home of Miss Maggie Ellis, on Rt. 3, Pittsboro, last week.

Mrs. J. J. Thomas and daughters, Verdine and Rosa, Rt. 2, Pittsboro, were callers at The Record office on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Burns, of Roxboro, spent a short while here Sunday with parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Burns.

Mr. Carl Jones, on his way home to Durham, from Camp McClellan, stopped over here Sunday with friends for a short while.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Leftwich have returned to their home in Richmond, Va., after spending several days with her brother here, Mr. W. H. Overacre.

A postal card from Mr. Frank Pearce says he is having a real good time in Philadelphia. He is with the U. S. S. Dobbin, now in the navy yard at that city.

More horses and horse traders are here this week than seen in a long time. One thing about them is that nearly all stock is in good order—no many "plugs" among them.

There will be an ice cream supper at Mt. Pleasant M. E. church Saturday, August 16th, from 4 to 9 o'clock. The proceeds will go to the piano fund. The public is invited to be present.

Mrs. Henry A. London will have a reunion of her family next Saturday, when Mrs. J. H. Anderson, of Fayetteville, Mrs. J. H. Cordon, of Raleigh, Mrs. Fred Jerome, of Clayton, and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac London, of Rockingham, will be present.

The A. M. E. Zion colored church of Pittsboro, raised $110.25 at a singing rally Sunday. The contest was between Monro, Fayetteville and the local choir. Rev. E. W. Sloan is the pastor of this church. The proceeds will be used for general church expenses.

Mr. John Thrift, who lives on the Phillips farm, three miles west of Pittsboro on route 1, sent The Record a curiosity Monday in the shape of an ear of corn. It was one big ear in the center and was dotted up all around with nine smaller ears. With the exception of one of them, all the smaller ears were well filled out with grains of corn.

Mrs. J. W. Autry and three sons, John Watson, Jr., David Green and Paul Geddie, of Carrboro, are keeping camp near Fayetteville and in the mean time they will visit relatives and friends, spending about five weeks in Cumberland county. After holding three meetings, Rev. J. W. Autry will join them for a few days the latter part of August.

While on their way to Durham Saturday afternoon, a car driven by Geo. Saunders, colored, and containing six other colored passengers, was run into by another car about five miles west of Durham. One of the front wheels of the Saunders car was knocked off but no other damage was done and no one was hurt. The car driven by a white man, was not damaged so far as we could learn, and it never stopped going.

Many friends in Chatham will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. J. J. Thomas, which occurred in Greensboro Saturday morning. Mrs. Thomas was born in Columbus county and was married to Mr. Thomas on June 9th, this year. She soon became desperately ill and spent several weeks in a hospital in Greensboro, where she died. Mr. Thomas is a son of Mrs. Sallie Thomas of Siler City, Rt. 5, and is well known in Chatham and has many friends who will sympathize with him in his bereavement.

Another one of Chatham's hard-working farmers has encountered bad luck. Last Saturday Mr. B. M. Sanders, of Rt. 1, Pittsboro lost a valuable mule; the greatest thing about it was that Mr. Sanders had just finished paying for the mule. Mr. Sanders is nearing 73 years of age and he has a broken shoulder, despite these handicaps he makes good crops and is constantly on the go, doing something worth while. We trust that the good people of the county will help him in his loss.

BYNUM PERSONAL ITEMS.

Bynum, July 28.—Miss Minnie Moffitt is visiting her brother at Aberdeen.

Mr. Carney Abernathy, of Mebane, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Abernathy.

Mrs. Jeter Ellis, of Bahama, is visiting her brother, R. S. Abernathy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bridges, of Aberdeen were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Williams Sunday.

Little Miss Elzada Abernathy has gone to Aberdeen for a weeks stay.

Miss Adelaide Cole, of Riggsbee, spent Sunday with Mrs. E. Riggsbee.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Durham, of Carrboro, spent Sunday afternoon with relatives here.

Mr. J. E. Sturdivant has been on a short visit to his daughter, Mrs. H. Tillman, of Burlington.

Mr. W. I. Snider and son, Clayton, motored to Burlington Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Clyde Stout spent Saturday in Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Neal and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Neal attended services at the Baptist church in Carrboro Sunday night.

Miss Ada Caviness, of Burgaw, spent a few days with her father, Rev. C. H. Caviness.

Miss Betsy Page, of Raleigh, spent a few days with Miss Nell Page Atwater.

Quite a number of the men here went seining Saturday afternoon. They reported a big catch and enjoyed a big fry on the river banks.

Miss Minnie Moffitt left Sunday to spend the remainder of the summer with her brother, Mr. Charley Bridges.

Quite a number of the Bynum people attended Childrens Day at Hanks Chapel Sunday.

Mrs. J. E. Thomas and son, Edward, spent the week end with Mrs. W. T. Suit.

Mr. Harlowe Thomas has returned to Raleigh to his work, after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thomas.

The Mt. Gilead Sunday school gave an ice cream supper at the home of Mr. Rufus Johnson on Saturday night. Everybody seemed to enjoy it and the proceeds amounted to about thirty-five dollars, which will go toward painting the new section of the church.

Mr. Walter Jordan and wife and Mrs. Viola Jones, Ada Brasington and Myrtle Ellis spent Saturday afternoon in Chapel Hill.

Mr. William Abernathy and son, Ora, and Kyle Jones have returned from a trip to Morehead City. They report a good time.

TWO SUCCESSFUL FARMERS.

Mr. W. H. Cross, who is 81 years old and Mr. T. Y. Mims, 80 years old, are both old Confederate soldiers and both are successful farmers. Mr. Cross is the uncle of Mr. Mims and both live in Cape Fear township. Mr. Cross is without assistance on his farm, while Mr. Mims has a sixteen year old son and his family only as a help. Yet these men have as good crop as any farmer in Chatham and it is said that the fields are free from grass and the crops are all "laid by" in apple pie order.

BUILD A HOME IN PITTSBORO.

NEW STORE.

We have opened up a grocery store, next to the Bank of Pittsboro, in which we will soon be prepared to keep all kinds of Groceries, canned goods, etc. We ask our friends to give us a share of their patronage.

Perry & Garner
B. A. Perry. Eland Garner.

Latest Model
—New Green Fountain just installed at The—
PILKINGTON PHARMACY.
Everything as sanitary as can be possible. All drinks dispensed in Sanitary Cups. Ice cream every day, made by the Waverly Company, served in Sanitary Dishes. Milk Shakes, Grape Juice and other Fountain Drinks.
Agent for Norris and Nunally Candies.
Tobacco, Cigars and Cigarettes.

Pilkington Pharmacy
PITTSBORO, — — — NORTH CAROLINA.

Successful Opening

Our formal opening was a sure enough success and many of our old friends as well as new ones have visited our new store at our old stand in Chapel Hill.

Remember we still have prices on all classes of merchandise that cannot be duplicated by anyone in the larger cities. If you have not been to see us since we reopened our store, be sure to come in at once, as we want everyone to share in the specially priced new goods.

New goods are still coming in every day.
You are always welcome at—

S. BERMAN,
Chapel Hill, N. C.

BIRTH ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY.

Siler City, July 28.—A most pleasant social gathering was held Sunday at the home of S. P. Teague, east of this place when a number of relatives and friends met to celebrate the birthdays of Mrs. Teague and her daughter, Mrs. Frank Smith.

Following an appropriate speech from Col. P. H. Elkins, who paid worthy tribute to "mother Teague," who by her life and example had given to the community a splendid family of children, and a prayer by Col. J. Dan Dorsett, the guests enjoyed all the tempting dishes necessary for such an occasion, served on a table underneath the shade of stately trees.

C. C. Teague, of High Point, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Teague, attending the birthday dinner.

The premium list for the Chatham County Fair, which will be held here October 7-10, are being distributed and are unusually attractive, both as regards the prizes offered and their mechanical appearance.

Work on the new Fair grounds, located one mile east on highway No. 75, is rapidly being executed, a number of the buildings and other equipment being in place.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Having qualified as administrator of the estate of Carson Johnson, deceased, of Chatham county, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the said estate to file them with the undersigned, duly verified, on or before the 31st day of July, 1925, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to the said estate will please come forward and make settlement.

This 31st day of July, 1924.
W. C. JOHNSON,
Administrator.

Many of our friends have visited the Record office this week. On account of the great number visiting us during court it is impossible to give the names of each. We are always glad to have our friends call and a welcome awaits you.

NEW BARBER PRICES

Effective from this date until further notice, the following prices will prevail at the Hotel Blair Barber Shop:

Hair cut or hair bob, .....	35c
Shave, .....	20c
Shampoo, .....	35c
Singe, .....	25c
Tonic and Oil, .....	35c
Massage, .....	35c

BLAIR HOTEL BARBER SHOP
GRADY PICKARD, Proprietor,
PITTSBORO, — — — NORTH CAROLINA.

Men, We Have Bargains a'Plenty

$10.00 Cord Suits @ .....	$ 7.50
$15.00 Palm Beach Suits @ .....	$11.00
$17.50 Mohair Suits @ .....	$13.25
$25.00 Tropical Worsted Suits @ .....	$18.75
$27.50 Tropical Worsted Suits @ .....	$20.75
$35.00 Best Worsted Suits @ .....	$26.25

Come and see our Bargains in other lines.

Dalrymple, Marks & Brooks,
"ONE PRICE CASH STORE."
SANFORD, — — — NORTH CAROLINA.

Business Is Not So Bad

As people would have you believe. It is never anything extra at this season of the year. We can't stand back and complain, for that doesn't help matters. Just go ahead and buy what you need as you have always done, for none of us can stand still. We have the goods and the prices are just what you want and are looking for. Come in and let's talk it over. We have some fine bargains to offer you in Ready-to-Wear Clothing, Dress Goods, Etc. Shoes—we are especially strong on Shoes, Styles and Prices are correct.

J. J. JOHNSON & SON,
Square Deal Merchants
PITTSBORO, N. C.

