

CHATHAM BRIEFS

Get your lunch at the Club room today—help the ladies.

Mayor A. A. F. Seawell was here court business this week.

Mrs. W. T. Johnson was taken to hospital last week for treatment.

Come to the bazaar Friday at two o'clock and buy your Christmas gifts.

Mr. R. A. Glenn, who has been visiting at Charlotte will be at home January 1.

Space for news is scarce this week. subscribers will have their turn at Christmas.

Shipments in Chatham to December were 7,377 bales against 9,121 last year at same date.

Mr. Fred Bynum passed through Pittsboro Sunday on the way to his home in Rockingham.

The Record failed last week to tell the good luck of Rev. R. G. Shanahan in killing a wild turkey.

Mrs. R. H. Hayes is visiting her mother and sister in Davie county. Expect to be gone two weeks.

Mrs. O. W. Hamilton and son, Billy Winston-Salem, are here on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Banks.

Mr. J. D. Oldham, a native of Chatham but a resident of Elon College, is on a business trip to Pittsboro today.

Mr. Cecil Lindley, who recently became a salesman for a cigar company in territory, was at home Tuesday evening and reported a fair start.

The Woman's Club will begin serving lunches Friday at twelve o'clock in the Club room. The bazaar will be at two o'clock in the afternoon.

Friends in Pittsboro have received congratulations to the marriage of Miss Robison, of Sanford, to Mr. Neill Hanner, of the same place.

Mr. T. M. Bland didn't go to the meeting of the State Fox Hunting Club last week at Seven Springs. He later went down to have a hunt which he could share more largely.

We were glad to meet yesterday S. Hicks, a stalwart new-comer to the county, who with Mr. E. Smithfield bought a farm from the estate in the Moncure section.

The 18-month-old child of Mr. Roy of the Lowe's Grove section in Chatham county, died at the home of his grand father early Saturday morning. The child had been in bad health some time.

Mr. McIntyre, a former Chatham bookkeeper in the Department of Printing and Commissioner Shipman the effect January 1. He has been in the department four years.

Mr. Oldham writing from Staley that the town has two garages, filling stations, two churches, five barber shops, two cotton ginners, one planing mill, two saw mills, a grist mill and about 10 families, and people.

The parent-teachers meeting Friday was held to be an independent organization. It seems to have been the idea to have it as an auxiliary to the Woman's Club. But as the idea have produced complications in organizations that scheme was abandoned.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Siler entertained the members of the Pittsboro Friday evening at their fine country residence. Clerk of court Mr. Dorsett was the only other so invited as to share with Mr. and Mrs. Siler and the lawyers in a turkey and possum feast.

Miss Susan Milliken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Milliken, of Pine, won the beauty prize at the recent South Hill Fair. She is a class (two years old) and the stake prize—a sterling silver cup. Little Susan is a grand daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. J. R. of Pittsboro.

Mrs. R. J. Hough and daughter, Miss Annie Hough, of Goldston, were guests Wednesday of Mrs. John R. Blair.

Mrs. H. A. London and Miss Carrie Jackson left yesterday to visit at and near Fayetteville.

Mr. Watson Clar, who for the past five years has been a resident of Colorado, is visiting relatives in New Hope township and was in Pittsboro Tuesday, his second visit in twelve years. Mr. Clark works on a big ranch on which there are 1900 head of cattle and 1100 head horses. Mr. Clark states that the horse business is so dull that the ranch will be devoted entirely to stock raising. Mr. Clark grew up in Pittsboro.

Who Gets Your Pay Check?
ARE you using it to buy the things you want and need—and to provide for the future? Or do you fritter away a good part in passing pleasure?
The answer to this question is a determining factor in your success, for someone is putting a part of your pay away as a Key to Opportunity and a step to Independence. Is it you or someone else?
Each pay day put a part of your check in a Savings Account in this Strong Bank. Then the money which you earn will earn for YOU.
