There will be on old Fiddlers' Convention at the Eli Whitney high school near Saxaphaw, Saturday night. It is given for the benefit of the school.

Mr. G. E. Moore and family and Mr. Bernest Moore and family, of Raleigh, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Moore, near Pittsboro.

There will be an oyster supper and Valentine party at Mt. Pleasant school house Saturday, Feb. 14th, 1925, from 7 to 10:30 p. m. Proceeds go for the benefit of the church.

Two cars, one driven by Mr. Jim May and the other by Mr. Brooke Lanus, ran into one another on West street Friday night. The May car was damaged somewhat. No one was hurt.

Sheriff Blair and deputies Burns, Harrington, Johnson and Desern made another raid into the Buckhorn country and got a forty-gallon still and poured out about 1,000 gallons of beer.

Mr. J. E. Hearne, a former resident but for several years a resident of Chapel Hill, took the train here Tuesday for Sanford, where his daughter, Mrs. S. J. Harmon, is quite ill.

Chief of police John Burns came out in his new police uniform Saturday—blue coat, blue pants and the regulation police cap. He was admired by all admirers. Pittsboro is sure moving.

Young Roland Glenn was taken by surprise Friday night when a number of his young friends were ushered into his home on Hillsboro street, where they came to celebrate his 15th birthday.

The editor met in Sanford Tuesday Mr. A. L. Gilliland, who moved from this county to a farm near Vass in 1886. Mr. Gilliland was enroute come from a week's visit to his brother J. L. Gilliland at Siler City.

One passing the Pittsboro school finds quite an improvement in the grounds. The front has been well graded and roadways built. This, however, is only a beginning of the work of making the grounds the beauty spot of the town.

Mr. J. L. Pace of Greensboro stopped in last week to renew the subscription of his mother down at Maxton and we discovered that his father, our old friend of Lumberton days, T. B. Pace, was reared up here at Pace's Mill and that Mrs. Pace is a native of Chatham. Mr. T. B. Pce has been dead a year.

The furniture department of the Wrenn Bros. Co., of Siler City, is now under the management of Mr. E. R. Wrenn, who was formerly with the Citizens Bank & Trust Co. Mr. Wrenn has a message for Record readers in this paper as have the other departments of that good firm. That is easily one of the big mercantile companies of the county.

The Chatham Bank, one of the county's strongest and most useful financial institutions, announces the association of Mr. J. Dewey Dorsett with the bank as assistant cashier. Mr. Dorsett has had considerable banking experience, is a young man of most excellent parts, and is a real acquisition to the Chatham Bank.

The editor met photographer Darden the other day returning from the Phoenix Utility plant near Moncure, where he had taken views of the now completed plant. In Raleigh we were assured by Mr. Tillery of the C. P. & L. Co. that we should have a cut of the new views and show Chatham people how the great plant now looks.

Mrs. E. D. Woody and Miss Beulah Headen, of Siler City, are visiting the New York and Baltimore emporiums this week, buying spring ready-to-wear for the trade of the good firm of Woody Brothers, of Siler City, who this week are advertising their beautiful new piece goods.

Mrs. Bessye Caviness, accompanied by Miss Cordie Harmon, manager of Miss Caviness' Pittsboro store, left Siler City Saturday afternoon for the northern markets. While gone they will visit the Baltimore and New York emporiums of millinery and other ladies' wear, and select goods for the spring trade of both the Siler City and the Pittsboro store. Miss Caviness has already received some of her spring stock and tells the lady readers of the Record about it in an interesting advertisement today.

STILL CAPTURED.

Friday officer C. T. Desern and Henry Harrington captured a 65-gallon copper still over in Cape Fear township. They also destroyed 450 gallons of beer.

The operators had been making liquor at the still and were getting ready to make more, but the officers broke up their little game. No one was arrested and nobody hurt, except the feelings of the owners of the still.

DOGS VS. POISON.

There are more worthless dogs in Pittsboro than any town in the state the size of the place. It has become dangerous for a person to go out into their back lots after sun down. One citizen here says he is tired of being bothered with these pests and he is going to use poison on them. The Record has warned dog owners to keep their canines at home time and again and if an owner misses his pet hound no one is to blame but himself. Keep your dog at home.—Joe Snyder.
