THE PROGRESSIVE FORMER FOR 25 CENTS.

Arrangements have been made whereby you can get the Progressive Farmer for 25 cents a year by subscribing for the Chatham Record, $1.75 pays for both papers a year. Or $1.50 for the Record from now to Jan. 1, 1926 and for the Progressive Farmer a full year. Tell your neighbors. Every farmer needs Dr. Clarence Poe's paper and it goes without saying that no Chatham county citizen can keep well informed on county affairs and events without The Chatham Record.

MONCURE NEWS.

Moncure, Feb. 9.—Miss Clara Bell spent last week end at Pittsboro with her aunt, Mrs. R. P. Johnson.

Mr. I. D. Wilkie went to Durham today on business.

We are sorry to state that Mrs. T. B. Lambeth was taken to a hospital at Sanford last Saturday on account of a nervous breakdown. We hope that she will have a speedy recovery and will soon be back home.

Misses Daisy Lee Northcutt and Zula Patterson of Moncure school have the flu at this writing. We hope they will soon be able to be back at school. Their positions in the school are being supplied by additional teachers.

Miss Helen Lambeth, little daughter of Mrs. Daisy Lambeth and also Miss Dorothy Lambeth and Eugene Lambeth, children of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lambeth, are sick in bed today.

Mrs. O. M. Mann is very sick at this writing. We hope she will soon be up again.

Mrs. Addie Gunter of Bonsal visited her sister, Mrs. J. R. Ray Sunday.

A Boy Scout Troop has been organized at Moncure with Mr. S. G. Marshall Scout Master, and Mr. R. A. Moore assistant Scout Master. There are twelve members with the prospect of several more to join. Cecil Badders and Delmas Hackney are patrol leaders. They hiked to Sanford Saturday, leaving Moncure at 11 o'clock. When they had gotten half way they enjoyed a Weiner roast. On the way Mr. Marshall drilled them on "trailing through the woods." On reaching Sanford they enjoyed supper and also went to the show. They reached home Saturday night about 10 o'clock, saying they had a wonderful trip.

Messrs. Marshall and Moore with the twelve scouts attended church at the Methodist church Sunday morning. They marched to and from the church and while at church occupied the same seats in front that had been reserved for them. Rev. C. M. Lance attended Sunday school and for the church services he was at his best. His text was taken from James 4:14: "Whereas you know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapor, that appeareth for a little time and then vanisheth away."

Mrs. J. E. Cathell is visiting her mother at Lexington this week.

After receiving a telegram that Mr. John Bell, Jr., who was at Lumberton, traveling in the interests of the Quaker Oats Co., had an attack of appendicitis and was at hospital there, Mr. John Bell, his father, left Monday evening (today) for Lumberton. Mr. Bell stated that Johnnie's doctor said that he was resting easily. We certainly hope that he will get on nicely.

Mrs. E. F. Benfield and little niece, Bettie Ann Hicks, left last Thursday for Mayesville, Ky., for a six weeks visit to her mother and sister there.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Benfield of Raleigh, passed through Moncure on Saturday for Tampa, Fla., where they will visit her mother for two weeks.

Rev. C. M. Lance and Mr. J. F. Womble attended the laymen's meeting at Sanford Sunday afternoon.

Play at Pittsboro School Building. The Carrboro Camp of the Modern Woodmen of America will give a play at the Pittsboro school building on Saturday evening, Feb. 14, beginning at 7:30. The subject of the play is, "Saved by Woodmen." Admission 20 and 30 cents. The school gets 40 per cent of the gross income. An enjoyable evening is assured all patrons. Be sure to go. Adv.

PITTSBORO'S BUILDING BOOM.

Pittsboro's building boom is gaining momentum. The last week has seen important real estate deals and plans perfected for the erection of three buildings on the site of the burned London building.

The Bank of Pittsboro bought the corner lot, the site of the main body of Connell & Johnson's burned store. Connell & Johnson have bought the rear lot, facing Salisbury street and fifty-six feet in breadth, covering the foot of the old store and the unburned warehouse, and extending several feet east of the old building.

The Bank, Connell & Johnson, and Mr. Arthur London for the Odell Manufacturing Company, will all build together and will have a joint heating plant.

Material is actually on the site for construction on the silk mill. Also, as stated last week, bricks are on the site for Dr. Farrell's two-story brick building.

ANY WHERE,

ANY TIME

Women are so active these days they haven't time for frequent change of costume. They are constantly asking us for frocks that can be worn "any time" and "anywhere." This season we are making it a point to secure a large assortment of—

All Occasion Frocks

Chic costumes that may be put on in the morning and worn throughout the day. Frocks appropriate for shopping, luncheons, teas, dinner and parties. Peggy Paige has designed some of these dresses for us, and they are the distinctive type of frocks that immediately reveal the influence of Paris.

Spring Mode Sponsors Prints

There was a time when prints was just prints. But this season they are masterpieces. The designs have been created by some of the greatest artists and hold as important place in the Spring mode as the new style notes themselves.

There are the new gravure prints, unique chene designs. The Millne Fleurs designs. The Directoire prints The Iron Workers design and many others. You will be sure to find what you want with this wide range of styles and prices.

We can show you silk dress any price from $10.00 to $59.00. We are now in New York and not an effort is being spared to make our line most attractive ever shown in this section.

Coats

A wide range of colors in all the Fetching Models, in all the new Fabricks, such as Kashona, Durona, Suede, Camel Hair, Donowool, Polo, Velour, Poiret, Chamouse.

Millinery

Never has Millinery been so pretty. One glance up 42nd Street and down 5th Avenue convinced us that the ladies had never appeared as charming as they would this season with what they had to select from. Be sure to see our line before you buy.
