

Dr. James Sprunt, who recently died in Wilmington, left the First Presbyterian church of that city a legacy of $450,000.

"Flu" Usually Starts with a Cold

And Musterole is Death to Colds
It does the work of an old-fashioned mustard plaster, and does it with comfort. Just spread Musterole on the neck and chest, with the fingers, before the cold has gone very deep. Usual results—first, a warm tingle, then a loosening of congestion and cough, easier breathing and a feeling of great relief. No need then to fear grip, "flu" or pneumonia. Near-by stores sell Musterole—35 and 65 cents in jars or tubes, and a special "Children's Musterole," of mild strength, for babies and tots.

FATHERS OF GREAT MEN.

Mr. S. S. Visher, the geographer, has taken the trouble to determine the occupations of the fathers of 18,400 persons who figure in the last issue of Who's Who in America. According to him, men of ability are born much more frequently in the families of professional men than in any other. Differentiating among professions he found that one hundred fathers in each of the following groups average a certain number of distinguished sons thus:

Physicians	1.0

CLYDE EUBANKS HONORED

March Issue of Journal of Pharmacy is Dedicated to Him.

Chapel Hill Weekly. The March issue of the Carolina Journal of Pharmacy is dedicated to Clyde Eubanks. The frontispiece is a full-page picture of him, and with this goes a sketch.

Old-timers in Chapel Hill are familiar with Mr. Eubank's career, but it is not so well known to scores of the newer citizens who see him in his store day in and day out. Here is an extract in the Journal of Pharmacy:

"Mr. Eubanks received his early education in the Pittsboro high school, and then became a student in Thompson's Military School in Siler City, completing its four-year course in 1892. He then moved to Chapel Hill and apprenticed himself to Dr. A. B. Roberson in the drug store which stood on the site now occupied by the Battle dormitory. He attended classes in the University's medical school during his spare hours. Being assured that pharmacy was for him a satisfactory life work, he went to Raleigh and became a student under Mr. William Simpson. He obtained his license in July, 1896, and returned to Chapel Hill and worked another year for Dr. Roberson. In 1897 Dr. Roberson died and Mr. Eubanks purchased the store and stock. In 1899 he moved his business diagonally across the street to a building which stood about where the University Cafeteria now stands. Here he conducted his store until 1912 when he built and moved into the larger structure which still houses his business. He has never changed jobs, still runs the business he began his apprenticeship in, and still uses the same shelf bottles he first poured medicine from. Another interesting fact is that he succeeded Mr. Isaac Emerson at Roberson's drug store when Mr. Emerson moved to Baltimore to set up his bromo-seltzer establishment."

SILER CITY TO HAVE A MODERN LAUNDRY.

A letter received from Dr. R. W. Vann, of Ore Hill, just after we went to press last week informed us that he and Mr. W. L. Vann, more recently of Burgaw, will establish a laundry at Siler City. These are capable young men and it doubtless means a successful venture. They expect to have the plant in operation in June. They will remodel and occupy the former Blosiery mill plant.

MRS. J. R. PHILLIPS PASSES.

Goldston, March 8.—Early Thursday death claimed Mrs. James R. Phillips, who resided about four miles from here.

She was born in Chatham county June 25, 1895, and so, was 29 years old at the time of her death. Before her marriage she was Miss Bessie Glosson.

The funeral was held from Meroines M. E. church, of which the deceased was a member, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. H. L. Witten, pastor of the Goldston M. E. church, conducted the service, which was attended by a large crowd. Floral designs were lovely and numerous. Interment was made in the church graveyard.

The deceased leaves her husband J. R. Phillips, a well-known farmer of this section, two youthful sons, Venia, aged 14, and Raymond, aged 10; six sisters, Mesdames R. E. Stack, of Greensboro O. L. Moody, of Bear Creek; N. G. Norwood, of Durham; Eula Beal, Jack Fields, and J. W. Burke, of near Goldston; and two brothers, Morris M. Glosson, of Raleigh, and Hugh Glosson, of Siler City.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Entertain Merritt Bible Class.

Thursday evening of last week County Superintendent W. R. Thompson and Mrs. Thompson entertained the Merritt Bible class and officers of the Methodist Sunday school from 8 to 11 in their beautiful new home on Hillsboro street. Prof. Thompson has been teacher of the class for the past two years. While the meeting was of a social nature, plans which concern the progress of the class were discussed. At the conclusion of the discussion, a very delightful social hour followed. Refreshments, consisting of a salad course and an ice course, were served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames W. P. Horton, W. M. Eubanks, E. R. Hinton, Misses Evelyn Alston, Cordie Harmon and Margaret Womble.

In the Rice Lake district of Wisconsin, a ghost comes nightly to the home of John Kubis and scrubs the floors and bakes dainty biscuits. One night the ghost climbed in the bed of two children and now the house stands empty.

Mrs. Dora Pentress of Pasquotank county, has been arrested, charged with the murder of her husband last November. She is now in jail.

TWO GOOD FARMERS.

This is not the best time of year to judge of the ability of farmers, but a jaunt up the Chapel Hill road Friday convinced the editor that he could locate two. At Mr. Lonnie Oldham's he was shown a lot of fine cotton seed that gentleman wished to advertise and to show that they were the real thing, Mr. Oldham took the editor to an acre field nearby where he grew a bale last season despite the worst rain and the weevil could do. Practically half of the burrs showed five locks. See Mr. Oldham's advertisement. Every one of those seed should be planted.

The next evidence was that of a great pile of cotton bales at Mr. R. J. Johnson's place, convincing evidence of his ability as a farmer.

Sending pictures over telephone is the latest invention.

Editor and General Manager WILL ROGERS

Another "Bull" Durham advertisement by Will Rogers, Ziegfeld Follies and screen star, and leading American humorist. More coming. Watch for them.

The fourth of March is a Politician's uncertain day. He is either coming in or going out. If he is staying in it's because they haven't got wise to him yet. I have always said Office holders should be elected for life (subject, of course, to impeachment for neglect or dishonesty). Then they could give their work all of their time, instead of worrying about how to stay in, and that would do away entirely with the biggest social problem we have to face in this country. And that is the thousands of Individuals who go through life just trying to get in office. If we could get their mind off offices, and get 'em to working at something useful. But what's the use talking about a Heaven on earth. We got to die to get rid of the Office seeker, and then I bet you we will find them, either wanting to have Saint Peter impeached, or to get a job as Superintendent of the Furnace. Oh Yes, I like to forget 'Bull' Durham. It will be on sale in both places, no advance in prices.

P. S. I'm going to write some more pieces that will appear in this paper. Keep looking for them.

MORE OF EVERYTHING for a lot less money. That's the net of this 'Bull' Durham proposition. More flavor—more enjoyment—and a lot more money left in the bankroll at the end of a week's smoking.

Sanford's New Theater Opens.

Sanford, March 7.—Temple theater Sanford's new $35,000 amusement house on Carthage street, opened this week. This house is of the latest design, and stands out as being equal to any in the south in quality, and is only outnumbered in seating capacity. J. R. Ingram financed this magnificent structure. Joseph Walters, of Blackstone, Va., is manager of the theater.

Simple Way To End Night Coughing

No matter how long you have been troubled with expiring coughing at night, robbing you of valuable sleep and thereby weakening your system and laying you open to dangerous infection, it can usually be stopped at once by a very simple treatment. Most people have found that they can sleep the whole night through undisturbed often the first time they try it.

The treatment is based on a remarkable discovery known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The result is you usually sleep soundly the very first night, and the entire cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription is for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, bronchitis, spasmodic croup and almost every throat irritation. It contains no opiates or other harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. On sale at all good druggists. Ask for
