LOOKING UP ANCESTRY.

A dignified gentleman from Chicago, Dixon by name, was down here a few days ago searching the records in the court house for information of his ancestors. Mr. Dixon said that in September 1804 fourteen families comprising 43 persons, left Chatham county for the west. His ancestor Dixon was among them. Other names represented were Ray, Wilkinson and others. He could not get much information on the subject.

CORINTH NEWS.

Corinth, March 23.—Mrs. D. A. Clark spent Sunday at Star, visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Horton spent Sunday visiting relatives at Chalybeate Springs.

Mr. A. M. Pollard, who was very sick for a few days last week, is much better.

If you ask Mr. Joseph Dickens how he is getting along he always says, "not much," but we always note that he is up and about as well as any man for his age.

They say that one day last week someone sat picking a banjo, and all at once Mr. Lonnie Mims jumped up and went thru some fancy steps that would do credit to a professional buck and wing dancer.

One day last week Ed Marks who operates a store at Corinth missed some money and merchandise from his store. On looking around he found where some one had gained entrance into his store by crawling through a window. A few hours later evidence came in from someone that a quantity of nickels and dimes and cigars had been displayed by a 16-year old boy of the neighborhood. Armed with this and other convincing evidence, Ed and a friend drove down to the boy's home. The father and brother-in-law of the boy came out with rocks and pitch forks, so the story goes, and were very abusive. Did not wait for Ed to say that if he could get his goods and money back that would end the trouble. Ed then got papers out for the parties arrest. Then it seems that the father woke up and offered apologies, but a preliminary trial was ordered anyway. When time came for the trial the boy had disappeared, and so the unfortunate matter stands.

Mrs. W. H. Mims, who was killed in the awful motor accident near Sanford Sunday, was a sister of Mrs. L. H. Mims, of Corinth. This accident was not the result of the recklessness of anyone as they were all highly respected, law abiding citizens.

HURT WHEN ANTOS MEET.

Jitney With Nine Passengers Turns Completely Over.

Chapel Hill, March 21.—Four persons were injured, one probably fatally, in a collision between a Studebaker jitney and a Ford touring car four miles from here on the Durham-Chapel Hill road early this afternoon. The jitney, with nine passengers, overturned, completely pinning the occupants underneath, while the Ford turned on one side, all three occupants escaping injury.

The injured, all white, are:

Ennis Johnson, 25, electrician, of Goldsboro, fractured skull and not expected to live.

J. E. Horne, 35, jitney driver, Carrboro, broken shoulder.

L. D. Wright, 25, carpenter, Carrboro, lacerations about head.

D. V. Gray, 19, University student, New Bern, lacerations about the head and face.

D. W. Lockey, 30, mechanic, Wilmington, who was driving the Ford, is being held by the Chapel Hill police on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon, pending further investigation of the accident. Riding with Lockey were A. J. Stokes and I. T. Yopp, both of Wilmington, all three escaping with minor bruises.

Reports of the accident were conflicting. The Studebaker was trailing the Ford and the smash occurred when the driver of the smaller car attempted to turn into a road intersecting the main highway. The jitney driver jammed on his brakes and for a moment the two embraced then parted, toppling toward opposite sides of the highway. Lackey, driver of the Ford, claims he held out his hand in warning before trying to turn.

Victims Much Improved.

Durham Herald, March 24.

Victims of the automobile accident of Sunday on the Chapel Hill-Durham highway carried to Watts hospital were reported Monday night from the institution as "resting well and showing improvement in conditions." Ernest Horn, driver of one machine, sustained a fractured skull and broken collar bone; Darius Gray, Duke University, suffered a concussion of the brain; Lee Wright's left collar bone was broken, and Ennis Johnson's frontal bone near the right eye was crushed. All were said to be conscious and practically out of mortal danger.

ARE YOU ONE?

The subscription of a batch of subscribers, expires with this issue: Are you "one" of them? Look at your paper and see if it has March 25 on it. If so, this is your last paper unless you send renewal or ask us to retain you on the list till it is more convenient to pay. We have furnished you with the papers ordered. To send it on without further orders would be like a dealer's continuing to pour in gasoline when you had ordered only a definite amount.

If you wish to be entered as a permanent subscriber say so, and we will put a star by your name and thus know not to cut it off when the date comes to which you have paid.

A Warning: The Chatham News, a paper published at Siler City, has a contest on and agents in the field. Quite a number of people wishing to subscribe or renew for the Chatham Record have mistakenly subscribed for the Chatham News. Don't be fooled. See that you are getting The Record if that is what you want.

ESTABLISHING MOVIE SHOW.

Pittsboro, unique in not having a moving picture show, is to lose that distinction, and that soon. Messrs Moffitt and Phillips, of the Asheboro Wheelbarrow Company, have already secured a room for such an enterprise, have ordered the screen, chairs, and even engaged the pictures.

The show will occupy the building near the court house, recently occupied by Lanius Brothers and formerly the home of The Chatham Record. The building is being renovated for the purpose.

The first show will be Harold Bell Wright's "The Mine With an Iron Door." The day for the opening cannot yet be set, but will be within three weeks, if nothing happens.

Mr. Moffitt says that there will be a name contest held, a free season ticket to go to the person whose suggestion for a name is accepted. So get on your thinking caps.

Mr. C. L. Lasater was here Wednesday asking for help for Mr. Weldon Merritt of Williams township who lost his home, by fire last week. In addition to losing practically everything he had by fire, Mrs. Merritt is in very poor health. By the way, Mr. Lasater is one of the original subscribers to The Record 48 years ago and says never to stop it.

REVIEW OF GOVERNOR'S ECONOMICAL PROGRAM.

Securing Needed Information for Budget Committee to Be Appointed at Early Date.

Raleigh Times, March 25.

"Day by day in every way" Governor McLean is advancing his economical program.

The latest development along this line is memorandum No. 4 of the Budget Bureau, issued by His Excellency today as director of the budget. The memorandum is the first step towards putting into effect the law enacted by the recent session of the General Assembly to require persons who are able, to bear the expense of their care and treatment in such institutions as the State Hospital and the School for the Deaf and Blind.

Mr. McLean issued memorandum No. 3 of the Budget Bureau Tuesday afternoon. It directs the heads of the various institutions and departments to submit to him by April 20 classified statements of salaries paid subordinate employes. The information is requested for the Salary and Wage Commission, the five members of which Mr. McLean said he would appoint in the near future.

Wake Body's Powers.

The act to establish the Salary Commission gives it power to regulate the pay of subordinate employes of the government. The members of the commission are to be named by the governor on or before April 1.

Memorandums Nos. 1 and 2 of the Budget Bureau came out last week.

One provided for putting into effect the law to prohibit the private use of automobiles and institutions to secure automobile supplies from the State Highway Commission garages, instead of buying such supplies independently at retail prices. The other was designed to better the purchasing systems of the numerous state agencies. It ordered the appointment of official purchasing agents and the approval or disapproval of all vouchers by the proper authorities before they are issued.

Aside from all this, the governor has requested Secretary of State W. N. Everett to furnish him with statistics concerning the amount of printing done at his direction.

New Memorandum.

Memorandum No. 4, issued today, is directed to the executive officers and directors of the State Hospitals at Morganton, Raleigh, Goldsboro, Caswell Training School, State Home and Industrial School, Morrison Training School, School for the Deaf and Blind and the Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

"The directors of the budget request that, within the next sixty days, each of the above named institutions make careful investigation as to the dependency of each patient, pupil and inmate, in each institution and ascertain which are financially able, in their own right, or through others who are legally liable, to pay for these dependent patients, pupils and inmates," reads the memorandum.

Attention is called to the new law to require each patient to bear their own expense.

"This act," continues the memorandum, "specifically provides that the patient, pupil or inmate, or his parent (whether father or mother), guardian, trustee or other person legally responsible for the patient's maintenance, shall pay monthly, the whole or such portion of the cost incurred in the care of the patient, pupil or inmate, as they are able to pay.

The full powers and duties of the board of directors and trustees of the above institutions are set forth in the act and there is sufficient legal machinery to enforce the rights of the state against all persons solvent and liable."

No Assistant Yet.

His Excellency has not yet appointed the assistant director of the budget, but Carl K. Hill, of the auditor's office is assisting him in the work of the newly-established bureau.

The information requested of the Secretary of State relative to the number of copies of the laws printed and distributed is desired for the purpose of decreasing the State's printing bill, if possible. Expenses along this line will have to be cut somewhere in order to come within the printing appropriation, which has been lowered from approximately $191,000 a year to $150,000.

After reviewing the bill to establish the Salary and Wage Commission

MT. ZION NEWS.

Moncure, Rt. 2, March 23.—Mr. A. O. Harmon, of Raleigh, spent last Saturday with his mother, Mrs. J. C. Harmon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lilly and children spent last Friday visiting relatives in Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lueterloh and little daughters, Elizabeth and Merle, and Miss Kara Andrews, of Gum Springs, were pleasant visitors at the home of Mrs. J. C. Harmon and Miss Ola Harmon Saturday.

Mrs. Spence Woody, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Eubanks and son, Johnnie, visited relatives in Chapel Hill Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Petty and children, of Pittsboro, spent the day recently with his brother, Mr. Turner Petty.

Mr. and Mrs. Bridges Atwater and children visited her parents recently.

Mr. J. Lee Harmon is carrying the mail a few days this week on Moncure, Rt. 2, substituting for Mr. Jack Johnson.

We are very sorry that Mr. J. E. Harmon has not been quite so well for some time. We hope that he will soon be well again so that he can be present at Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stedman and little daughters, Carrelia and Ruth, visited her mother, Mrs. J. C. Harmon, Sunday.

Mrs. W. B. Harper spent Sunday with her son, Mr. Talmadge Harper, in Durham.

Remember folks, that next Sunday is the fifth Sunday and not the first Sunday. There will be preaching at Mt. Zion church the first Sunday in April at three o'clock.

March is considered to be a long month, but we have been blessed with beautiful, sunshine and warm weather, fragrant flowers and everything which has been closed up as if they were dead, have burst forth with new life. We have all these things to enjoy and the month should not seem so long.

Misses Rosalie Rosser, of Jonesboro, and Wilma Buchanan, of Bona, spent the week-end with relatives.

Mr. C. D. Harrington will go to the hospital at Sanford today to have his tonsils removed.

Again the community is shocked and saddened to learn of the very serious accident that has occurred. A message came to relatives here late Sunday afternoon that Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mims and four daughters were seriously hurt in an automobile wreck which occurred near Sanford.

Mrs. Mims was killed—three daughters are in a hospital at Sanford seriously hurt, while one daughter and Mr. Mims' escaped serious injury. Full particulars of the accident have not been learned.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Very few cases were tried during last week's court. In fact, Judge Bond quit Friday at noon, and as three long cases consumed practically the first four days, there wasn't much time left for the trial of other cases.

The jury which, at the time The Record went to press last week, had the case of Edmon Snipes vs. The Atlantic Bridge Co., could not agree. One man held out for an award of $2500, while eleven voted for $750. At noon Thursday, Attorney Horton, representing Snipes, agreed to accept the award of the $750 rather than have a new trial. Snipes, sued for $25,000 for injuries received while the Company was building the Rocky River bridge.

George Eubanks won over Tommie DeGraffenreid, in a case of the ownership of a mule.

In the case of E. E. Walden and J. K. Barnes, administrators vs. The Phoenix Public Utility Company and The Carolina Power & Light Co. for damages for the death of Leon H. Chestnut, the jury decided in every point against the Phoenix Public Utility Co., the Carolina Light & Power Co., having been released from the action as being responsible. The jury awarded damages to the extent of $6,500. Expert witnesses in the case were Drs. Cathell, C. L. Scott, T. C. Kerns, W. B. Chapin.

The case of W. M. Scott vs. N. & S. R. R. Co., for fire damages, was compromised, Scott receiving $170.00. W. B. Wilson in a similar suit or case received $125. Also, in a second case, Scott was awarded $55.00.

In a case of Rollins vs. Truelove it was adjudged that neither owed the other.

There will be a regular meeting of the Chatham County Branch of the North Carolina Educational Association held in the Pittsboro School Auditorium at ten o'clock, Saturday, March 28th, 1925.

A fat woman in New York slashed her husband's throat with a razor because he teased her about being fat.

and outlining its powers, Mr. McLean said in his order of yesterday:

Wage Information.

"The Governor will, in a few days, appoint the Salary and Wage Commission, and in order that the Commission may be properly informed and not lose time when it convenes, it is requested that each department, institution, commission and other agency of the State;

"(a) Prepare a list of all its subordinate officers, clerks, and employes, by divisions, classifying each as to occupation and salary, such as: Assistants chief clerks, subordinate clerks, secretaries, stenographers, copyists, filing clerks, mailing clerks, stamping clerks, receiving clerks, office messengers, telephone operators, bookkeepers, typists, janitors, laborers, and all other employees, according to experience, qualifications and general efficiency.

"(b) That six copies of these lists shall be completed and filed with the Governor by April 20, 1925, so that the Salary and Wage Commission can begin to function at the earliest possible moment."

NEWS FROM BRICKHAVEN.

Brickhaven, March 23.—Mrs. W. B. Moore was the week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. R. H. Overby.

Mrs. W. O. Mills, who has been spending a while with her son, Mr. Herbert Mills, of Fayetteville, has returned to her home here.

Quite a number from here attended the musical comedy, "Footlight Reviews," which was given under the auspices of the music department of the Moncure school Saturday evening. Those present seemed quite delighted with the program.

Mr. J. C. Seawell, accompanied by his sister, Miss Bertie Seawell, of Raleigh, was the week-end guest of his sister, Mrs. R. R. Gordon at Pittsboro.

Mrs. H. T. Johnson, who has been spending a while here with her grand children, Pauline and Forrest Lawrence, will return to her home at Morrisville this week.

Mr. W. J. Hannon, who was called home last Sunday on account of the death of a sister, has not yet returned. During the week another sister has died, and his father is quite ill. The community is with Mr. Hannon in spirit, and the deepest sympathy is felt both for him and for the other members of the family.

Misses Rosalie Rosser, of Jonesboro, and Wilma Buchanan, of Bona, spent the week-end with relatives.

Mr. C. D. Harrington will go to the hospital at Sanford today to have his tonsils removed.

Again the community is shocked and saddened to learn of the very serious accident that has occurred. A message came to relatives here late Sunday afternoon that Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mims and four daughters were seriously hurt in an automobile wreck which occurred near Sanford.

Mrs. Mims was killed—three daughters are in a hospital at Sanford seriously hurt, while one daughter and Mr. Mims' escaped serious injury. Full particulars of the accident have not been learned.

HIAWATHA FRIDAY EVENING.

Under Auspices of Pittsboro Womens Club by Talented Performers.

This community is to have a treat tomorrow evening, when the Womens Club will present Alga Leavitt and Henrietta Smedes in Hiawatha at the Pittsboro school auditorium. The readings will have an appropriate musical setting. The ability and reputation of the dramatists justify a fine attendance. The prices for admission are 50 and 25 cents.

The following data as to the artists should quicken the desire of the reader to be present:

Alga Leavitt—Graduate of National School of Oratory, Philadelphia; special student at the Curry School of Epression, Boston; student and member of the staff at the Outdoor Players' Colony, Peterboro, N. H.; member of the Advisory Committee and Community Speaker for Percy Mackaye's "Caliban," a pageant drama given in Boston in 1912 with a cast of 5,000 people; state chairman of Literature, 1921-1923, in the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs; editor of "Stories and Poems from the Old North State," member of Carolina Playmakers, leading roll in "When Witches Ride," first state and first southern tour.

Miss Smedes studied in Washington, D. C.; organist, Chapel of the Cross, Chapel Hill, where the new three manual Skinner Organ is soon to be installed.

The new salary bill.

In giving the Record a list of the new laws affecting Chatham county directly, Representative Barber inadvertently omitted the county officer salary bill but reported it to us this week, lest some one should think the omission intentional. The bill was introduced at the request of the county commissioners who wished to be relieved of the responsibility of making allowances for deputies and clerk hire, and the present cost of help was the basis upon which the salaries were figured.

The sheriff's salary has been $2,000 with an allowance of $2,300 for assistance. The law makes the salary $4,300 and the sheriff to pay his own deputies and clerks. The clerk of court now gets $2,500 and pays his own clerks. His salary before was $1,500, rather too little for a competent man. The register of deeds gets $3,200 and pays his help except the extra help needed on tax books.

DEATH OF MRS. BAKER.

Mrs. Lillie H. Baker, wife of Mr. David Baker, died at her home in Bynum Tuesday morning after a short illness. Mrs. Baker was about 24 years of age, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hearne, of Bynum. Funeral services were held at Hanks Christian Chapel church Wednesday, and her remains were interred in the cemetery there.

PROGRESSIVE FARMER CHEAP.

Subscribers to The Record may get The Progressive Farmer a year for 25 cents extra. We will even give those terms with a half year's subscription to The Record. $1.75 gets both papers a full year. A dollar will bring you The Progressive Farmer a full year and The Record six months.

George Troutman, of Geneva, N. Y., has kept a jar of cherries 55 years.
