Rub Away Headache or Neuralgia

Apply Good Old Musterole
A little Musterole rubbed on the aching spot, will usually drive away headache or neuralgia. A clean, white ointment, combining in a marvelous way the virtues of oil of mustard, camphor and menthol, Musterole does the work without any of the evil after-effects of narcotics or heart depressants. Put up in jars or tubes for 35 or 65 cents, with a special milder form for little children, called "Children's Musterole." Great for colds, sore throat, croup, rheumatism or any sore spot or pain.

A TRIBUTE TO A FORMER CHATHAM COUNTY MOTHER.

My Dear Editor:—Enclosed is a letter from a Chatham boy who moved to Richmond, Va., about twenty years ago. Mrs. Russell, his mother, first married a Rosser. She was a daughter of Nancy Stinson, who lived to be 98 years old. Mrs. Russell leaves three children, Charlie Rosser, Pearl and Alice Russell. When they moved away they left many warm friends in western Chatham county.

If you have space in your paper, I would be glad you would publish his letter. It was not written for publication, but he is my friend, and I take the responsibility. We are proud of their success since leaving us, but this is not the point I wish to make. I want business men to read this letter and see what it takes to bring true happiness. I want mothers to read his letter and see the sweetness of waiting at the Jordan. I want young women to read his letter, and see what a Christian mother means on the inside of a home. I want young men to read his letter and learn that service brings gladness. I want everybody to read his letter and see what it takes to make our last days our best days.

Now, dear reader, after you have read his letter, and before you sleep, please write a letter to some mother's child and tell them that God is love.

Yours fraternally,
ISAAC H. DUNLAP.

Mr. Rosser's Letter.

"Dear Sir:—I sure do appreciate your words of sympathy in our loss. Yes, if ever I had doubts of a heaven, her beautiful Christian life, more especially during her long illness, clears away all doubt, as I know she has gone to the great beyond from whence no traveler returns.

She was in bed close to eleven months, and I only missed two days visiting her. Many, many times I went and sat by her bed and we traveled over the old Chatham roads together and met all of our old friends. She was a long sufferer, but a patient one. Not once did I hear her grumble of her lot and it was always "I am feeling all right," when I asked her how she was feeling.

Before the end she talked beautifully of the great beyond and told me she would be waiting at the Jordan to carry me on.

She left a most beautiful message to all her children and her last words to us all were "be good and know God." She sang "My Latest Sun is Sinking Fast," just a few days before the end.

There was nothing left undone for her comfort. She had a trained nurse day and night and every wish was granted her, if it were possible. Of course we realized she was fighting against odds as she was 79 years old, and grew gradually worse as the days passed. However, I do not look upon her absence as death, because her life was so sweet to me, I know her spirit is with me and my greatest honor to her is not to mourn her departure, but reflect her Christian life in mine and transfit it to my children and others in my daily life.

I would dearly love to pay a visit to old Chatham and I may do it some of these days and if I do I'm certainly going to "come in and hang up my old hat" at Bonlee. But listen, you have plenty of time and just suppose you come up and see me. I'll show you a good time. I have plenty of room and one of the happiest homes in the world, with dear good wife and two children (boy and girl) Virginia 16 and Charles 10. I could take you to the best church in Richmond and you would hear some of the best sermons also—of course that's my church, Barton Heights Baptist church, one of the best organized churches in the south, with George T. Waite as our leader, membership class to thousand mark—Sunday school eleven hundred and men's Bible class 230, of which I have the honor of being one of the Deacons and my wife Deaconess. So you see we are all hooked up and in the harness for better things. * * * * *

Yours very truly,
C. M. ROSSER.

APPROVES DUNLAP'S ARTICLE.

Mr. Editor:—I read with pleasure Mr. I. H. Dunlap's article in your valuable paper of recent date, and heartily endorse everything he said.

Hickory Mountain, Loves Creek and Mt. Vernon churches have been handicapped and held back by the liquor traffic in the community.

The community as a whole is against these violators of the prohibition laws of the State.

Pilate said Jesus was innocent, "I find no fault in this man," yet allowed Him to be crucified and set Barabbas free, by failing to execute his authority.

The above churches have suffered greatly because they allowed the liquor traffic to go on and many mothers are now heart-broken because their boys are drunkards.

Dell Johnson is maimed, I fear, for life and the foul smell of the broken fruit jar tells the story. Carey Johnson filled a premature drunkard's grave.

Christians—men and women—I appeal to you for the sake of our children and our homes, line up at the court house in May against these liquor dealers. Stand by the sheriff, solicitor, and judge and demand that these dare devils be given sentences for some of the evils they have done.

HANNERS TAKE AGENCY FOR THE OLDSMOBILE.

It will be observed in the advertising columns that the Hanner Motor Co., of Sanford, has taken the agency for the Oldsmobile. The editor was shown the two handsome models on hand, and was convinced that the Hanners have made no mistake in the car they have chosen to offer the people of this section.

BAPTISTS HAVE BIG GAIN OTHER LANDS

FOREIGN MISSIONS SHOW LARGE RESULTS IN PAST TEN YEARS UNDER DR. LOVE.

TAKE OFFERINGS IN APRIL

Every Church and Individual Will Be Asked to Share in Supporting Enlarged Program.—All Interests Will Be Pushed.

No department of Southern Baptist work has shown greater progress in recent years than that of foreign missions.

Dr. J. F. Love, corresponding secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, lo-

DR. J. F. LOVE
Secretary Baptist Foreign Mission Board

ated at Richmond, Va., is just completing ten years of service in that capacity, and the survey conducted by Dr. Alldredge shows that during that time the receipts of the board have been $16,149,994.64, whereas the receipts for the entire 78 years of the board's history have been $24,915,704.86, showing that two-thirds of the total receipts of the board since its organization in 1845 have come in during Dr. Love's administration.

Results on Foreign Fields Large
Indicating the results which these larger receipts have made possible on the foreign fields, it is pointed out that whereas the Foreign Mission Board was operating in only seven countries ten years ago, it is now at work in seventeen countries, representing Europe, Asia, Africa, North and South America. In that brief period of time the number of foreign churches has grown from 380 to 1905, the number of mission stations other than churches from 43 to 308, number of baptisms per year from 5,252 to 12,856, members of the churches from 29,991 to 111,872, number of houses of worship from 248 to 819, number of Sunday schools from 542 to 1,511, pupils enrolled in the Sunday schools from 22,022 to 76,504, contributions by the foreign churches from $91,159.69 per year to $444,568, number of American missionaries on the field from 278 to 544, number of native Christian workers employed from 634 to 2,494, number of mission residences owned by the board from 66 to 129, number of mission schools from 339 to 860, number of pupils in these schools from 339 to 860, number of pupils in these schools from which 50 per cent of all the converts won by the missionaries come, from 9,376 to 35,106, number of American medical missionaries employed from 12 to 19, and number of medical treatments given per year from 74,839 to 294,422.

So extensive has become the foreign mission work, as well as that of home missions, state missions, Christian education, hospitals, orphanages and the work of ministerial relief fostered by Southern Baptists, that the denomination has grouped all these interests into one general program known as the 1925 Program of Southern Baptists, and all the 28,000 local white Baptist churches of the South are being asked to put on a budget that will adequately provide for all these causes, the budget to be raised through an every-member canvass of the churches every year.

Take Special Offerings in April
Inasmuch as a number of the churches have not yet completed their canvass and many churches which put it on did not enlist every member, the Headquarters Committee of the 1925 Program, in co-operation with the various state secretaries, is asking that Sunday, April 19, be observed as a day of special offerings in the churches for all the objects embraced in this general Program. Where a church holds its regular services on some other Sunday than April 19, that congregation is asked to observe the day of its regular worship with special offerings for these causes. By reason of the recent rapid expansion of all the general causes of the denomination, and to enable the boards and other agencies to discharge their heavy obligations an effort is being made to raise a minimum of $4,000,000 in cash during the first four months of 1925. It is with a view to enlisting as nearly as possible every one of the 3,500,000 white Baptists of the South in this undertaking that the special offerings for the month of April were suggested.

If one is going to give advice, one should be prepared to help.
