FIVE GALLONS PAINT FREE.

A large pain concern, in furtherance of an advertising and introductory campaign now in progress, offers to give, free of charge, five gallons of its best house paint, any color, to one property owner at each post-office or on each rural route in this county. This concern wants its paint on a house in each locality this season which is the purpose of this remarkable offer. It also wants a local salesman in each county. Persons interested are requested to write the Central Oil Company, Louisville, Kentucky.

MONEY FOUND. Rev. Sherman Alston, janitor at the court-house, has some money which was found in the commission-er's room. He asks that anyone who thinks he lost money about the court-house come to him and describe the money and state the amount.

CHATHAM BRIEFS

Mrs. W. J. Calvert, of Portsmouth, Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. N. M. Hill.

Mrs. J. L. Wall, of Ledgerwood, is here on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ray.

Mr. Rufus Farrell and two daughters, and Mr. Clyde Welsh, spent Sunday at Liberty visiting friends.

Miss Essie Peterson, who returned Friday from a two-months stay in Lumberton, has been quite sick since her return.

Hon. A. C. Ray delivered an address at Jackson Springs recently, his subject being "The Work of Men of the Church."

Mrs. S. D. Johnson's health, her many friends regret, is still poor. Mrs. Johnson has been confined to her home for several weeks.

Miss Nance entertained her Sunday school class of young ladies at the Blair hotel Friday evening. It was reported a pleasant occasion.

Miss Lillian Ray, who is librarian in one of the departments at State College, is expected home Saturday to spend Easter with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Burch and Mrs. Theodore Clayton and little son, of Roxboro, spent the week-end with Miss Cordie Harmon, near Pittsboro.

Mrs. D. L. Bell, Misses Pauline and Emily Taylor and Mr. June Peoples spent Tuesday in Durham. While there Miss Pauline Taylor had her tonsils removed.

Mr. Isaac London and two children, Lena Payne and William Everett London, of Rockingham, spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Henry A. London.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet in the Womans Club room at 3 p. m., April 17, to plan for the district meeting to convene here a few days later.

The iron pickett fence, to enclose the Confederate monument at the court house, has at last arrived. It was ordered by the Daughters of the Confederacy and was shipped from Cincinnati.

An old fiddles convention will be held at Big Meadows school house on Saturday night, April 18th. Mr. F. K. King, himself an old-time fiddler, will conduct the program. Prizes are offered and it is expected that a large crowd will be present.

Mr. O. J. Peterson, Jr., and Miss Nellie Peterson, of Clinton, visited their parents here Sunday. They were accompanied by Miss Mabel Bowen, of Warsaw, who remained over and went down to Sanford Tuesday to attend the Methodist conference in session there.

Messrs Moffitt and Phillips are not sparing expense in preparation for the operation of the moving picture show. They have booked quite a number of good pictures. They are offering a season ticket as a prize for the best name suggested. Have you sent in a name?

Mrs. John C. Check, of Siler City, was injured in an automobile collision while returning from the meeting of the Baptist State Missionary Union at Winston-Salem last week. The car was badly smashed, but the other occupants, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brower and Mesdames C. N. Bray and Will and Mesdames Bray and Wrenn, escaped without injury. Johnson, of Burlington, who drove the other car, offered to pay the damages.

Mr. Harry S. Gould had the pleasure of a visit by his mother last week. Mr. Gould accompanied her back to New Jersey, going on business connected with the silk mill. Before going he informed The Record that the date of opening the mill here depends in a great measure upon the time when Mr. Zeigler, the manufacturing end of the partnership, can be released from the Pompton Lake Mills. He thinks it will be mid-summer before the mill here will be in operation.

J. T. Stephens of the Corinth community and H. C. Johnson of the Farmville section, were both in town Monday consulting with the commissioners relative to roads in their respective sections. They are among the progressive citizenship that is now cooperating with the officials in improving roads and no doubt will receive the help they are soliciting. Within the past few weeks many connecting links of roads have been made solely through the cooperation of the local residents. The Record is glad to see these improvements and hopes that the good work will continue throughout the county.

Mrs. Jonas Barclay, Mrs. Robt. A. Glenn and Miss Carrie M. Jackson spent Tuesday in Chapel Hill attending in the Associational meeting of the ladies Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church, as delegates from the Pittsboro church.

FOUSHEE-LINSEY.
The marriage of Miss Pearl Foushee and Mr. Cleaton Lindsey, which took place Saturday, April 4th, at Greensboro, came as a surprise to their many friends in and around Pittsboro.

Mrs. Lindsey is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Foushee, of Bynum. She was graduated from Pittsboro high school in 1922.

Mr. Lindsey is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lindsey, of near Pittsboro. Their many friends wish them a long life of happiness. They will make their home in Greensboro.

Commencement Sermon.
It is gratifying to announce that Dr. Jesse Marvin Ormond, professor of Biblical literature at Duke University, has been secured as the commencement preacher for the Pittsboro school. Dr. Ormond will deliver the commencement sermon Sunday morning, April 26.

A VISIT TO ANTIOCH.

The editor had the pleasure Sunday of visiting Antioch Christian church in Gulf township on the Goldston road. He found a good little Sunday school in session with Mr. Oldham as superintendent. The membership of the church have recently cut and stumped a straight road to the public road and the county commissioners have agreed to have it scraped up for them. We enjoyed meeting the good people of the community. They were very kind and we shall enjoy going again.

Miss Cheek Entertains.
Miss Lucile Cheek delightfully entertained a few of her friends at "Oakmont," the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Dark, near Kimbolton. The home was artistically decorated with spring flowers. Rook was played during the evening, after which refreshments were served by the hostess.
