County S. S. Convention

Workers from all Sunday Schools of all denominations in the county are expected to attend the annual Convention of the Chatham County Sunday School Association, which has been announced for Thursday and Friday, September 3 and 4, at the Brown's Chapel Methodist Church, nine miles Northwest of Pittsboro, N.

Representing the North Carolina convention will be Mr. D. W. Sims, of Raleigh, General Superintendent, and Miss Daisy Magee, Children's Division Superintendent. These speakers are well known in the Sunday School world, having had years of practical experience in the work with Sunday Schools both large and small. There will also be on the program a number of prominent pastors, superintendents and other Sunday School workers in the county.

Plans and program for the convention are being worked out by Mr. H. G. Self, President, and Mr. W. H. Garner, Secretary of the County Sunday School Association. These officers have announced that again this year, a pennant will be presented to ing present in the convention the largest number of representatives sixing to the number of miles traveled. Any Sunday School in the county is cligible to compete for the pennant except the Sunday School with which hurch. It is expected that there within one mile of the Convention the convention is held, and others will be much friendly competition among the Sunday Schools for the pen-
