The crop of squirrels must be unusual. Pastor Gordon of the Baptist church has killed over fifty. But up at Elon College we were told of one man who killed forty one morning. All one has to do, it seems, is to go out early in the morning and creep about in the woods and bang a few times and he has a mess of squirrel for dinner.

The proclamation of several Southern governors setting aside a day for prayer for rain is in accord with the psalmist's own experience, who declares in one psalm a dozen or more times that he fell into trouble and called upon the Lord. The wonder is that we do not learn to call upon Him before the trouble comes.

A ounce of preventive is worth a pound of cure, we are told, and certainly it would have been more reasonable to pray for rain when it would have saved the crops than after the crops were practically ruined.

Caillaux, the financial wizard of France, is coming over here to make a "gentleman's proposition to gentlemen" with regard to France's debt. If France can only find a way to make Americans pay, the French debt as England has in the rubber trade the British debt, France needn't worry. Considering all things to have knocked off even with England would have been better.

New! These Giant Re-roofing Shingles

Barrett Giants have an economy of their own. Specially adapted for re-roofing, you lay them right over the old roof. Once you put these Giants on your building, the roof is definitely off your mind—to stay off.

These shingles are colorfully artistic—enduringly surfaced with natural slate in red, green or blue-black. They never need painting or staining—will not rot or rust. And they are fire-safe—proof against flying sparks and embers.
